At the First Presbyterian church tomorrow morning Dr. E. W. Smith will preach on the question, "Why Should I Become a Christian?" On the following Sunday night: "Why Should I Join the Church?"

Mrs. F. B. Smith, wife of the late F. B. Smith who was killed on the A. & D. Railroad last Monday, returned to Norfolk this morning. Mr. B. F. Adams and Miss Gertrude Adams, father and sister of Mrs. Smith, accompanied her.

At the junction of East Gaston street with Davie and at the junction of Davie with Church, ropes have been put up to keep vehicles off of Davie between these points owing to the recent work done there being left unfinished. Work was stopped by the rain, and the fresh dirt turned into mud.

The nursery and packing force of the Pomona Hill Nurseries were given a supper at Hotel Clegg last night by Mr. J. Van Lindley. There were about fifty of the party present, and the generous act of their employer, no doubt, met with due appreciation. They have done faithful and efficient service in the packing season just closed, and their services were fittingly remembered in this manner. It is such occasions as these that make life doubly worth living for the laboring man, and they do not come any too often.

The Minstrels Coming.

The management takes pleasure in announcing that the famous Fields & Hanson's Minstrel Stars and Grand Concert Band will present their matchless entertainment at the Academy of Music next Wednesday night. Although this will be their first visit here, a splendid show may be looked forward to, for they have been strongly indorsed everywhere they have appeared since their opening early last August, in fact it has been acknowledged to be one organization of this class that is absolutely in pace with the calendar, not only discarding all moth grown minstrel ideas, but boldly comes forward presenting a program of absolutely new features from start to finish, embodying the services of 30 minstrel celebrities; and so there is something new under the sun.

Notice.

The orchestra will practice on Thursday and Saturday nights until we hold our carnival. Full attendance desired.
