THE PRELIMINARY SURVEY

Railroad Talk at Winston Grows More Confident.

WANT A FEDERAL BUILDING.

There is a Warm Time and Trouble Ahead for the "Bull of the Brush" in An Open Letter.

Special to THE TELEGRAM.

Winston, Jan. 22.—At the Chamber of Commerce meeting last night considerable railroad talk occurred and it leaked out that the Southern would surely have a through line by this place in a very short time. The chamber expressed its confidence in this by ordering a preliminary survey made from Kernersville to Reidsville at once. It is estimated that a road can be built between the said towns at a cost of $8,000 a mile.

The chamber has hope also of getting a federal building for the Twin-City. They appointed a committee of seven to assist Col. P. H. Lybrook in securing data by which Congressman Linney might have something to work upon when he inaugurates a strong effort to secure an appropriation for a government building here which it is said he will do at an early date.

The chamber also inaugurated a movement to start a home fire insurance company. Our plan suggested was to subscribe all capital stock by giving notes and dividing up the profits in a year or two without actually paying in any of the capital stock. This plan however was not adopted.

An open letter to Congressman Linney relative to appointments made in his district will shortly be published here. The letter is highly sensational and written by a former strong supporter of his but now an avowed enemy.

Cora Van Tassel closes her engagement here tonight after a week's successful plays to large and appreciative audiences.

A SHORT GRIND.

Adjourned Meeting of Board of Aldermen.

The board of Aldermen met in adjourned meeting last night, Mayor Nelson in the chair. The following members were present: Ellington, Frazier, Hiatt, McKinney, Phipps, Sargent and Thornton.

A petition from Eclipse Hose Company was read asking for apparatus. On motion, referred to the fire committee to investigate and report at next meeting.

A. L. Brooks filed a petition against removing the electric light from the corner of West Washington and South Ash streets. Regarding this matter Mr. Sergeant gave notice of motion to reconsider the vote taken last Friday night ordering this light removed to the Baptist church. And on motion the petition was referred to the electric light committee to investigate and report at next meeting.

Alderman Phipps moved that the Southside Horse Company be allowed $12.50 per month for the maintenance of their horse. Carried.

The ordinance establishing a board of health for the city was read and discussed by Drs. Beall, Battle and Ledbetter, and on motion action was postponed until next meeting.

A vote of thanks was tendered the members of the medical fraternity present.

The meeting adjourned.

A YANKEE MUSICAL.

Dr. and Mrs. Whitsett Entertain Delightfully Last Night.

A novel and delightful affair was the Yankee Musicals at the home of Dr. and Mrs. G. W. Whitsett on Church street, yesterday evening, complimentary to the members of the West Market Street Methodist choir.

Each guest represented some old, familiar song, and the other guests were required to guess the song represented. The representations were ingeniously arranged and the guessing was decidedly amusing. Miss Daisy Carraway won the ladies' prize and Dr. J. H. Wheeler the gentlemen's prize by guessing the largest number.

After the guessing contest Miss Mabel Hill played snatches of well known songs on the piano, and those present guessed them. Miss Nannie Wood, James Rankin and A. H. Alderman tied for the prize, each guessing the entire number. They drew straws and Mr. Alderman won.

A musical quiz was given by pinning on the walls various articles representing musical terms. Jos. J. Stone won this prize.

All the prizes were silver.

After the above features elegant refreshments were served. The guests departed at 11:15, much pleased with the evening's entertainment. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Merrimon, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Ireland, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Ward, Mr. and Mrs. Jos. J. Stone, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Alderman, Mr. and Mrs. J. Ed. Albright, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Alderman, Mrs. L. H. Robertson, Mrs. Doub, Mrs. Myra Albright, Misses Mabel Hill, Janye Gainey, Laura Doub, Bertha Wheeler, Helen Wheeler, Lola Carraway, Daisy Carraway, Nannie Wood, Minnie Reid, Andrews, Applewhite, Whitsett, Brent, Messrs. Fuller Reid, Will Devlin, Jim Rankin, W. T. Whitsett, Gilbert Rowe, Richard Crawford, George Phillips, Jim Mann, John Wheeler, Frank Boyles, Arthur Rankin, George Brooks.

WARM TIME IN DURHAM.

Military Company, Church and Band Indicted.

Durham, Jan. 21.—The citizens of Durham are greatly stirred up. Solicitor Bynum is raking the town for evidence against citizens for gambling.

Yesterday morning when court opened the judge had the grand jury brought before him and charged again. He said it had come to his ears that gambling was being very extensively practiced in and around Durham, and informed the grand jury that it was their duty to look into such matters.

The grand jury took his honor at his word and have had about forty subpoenas issued, under which about twenty people have been arrested and given bond in the sum of $50 each.

Naturally the solicitor is being severely criticised for the active part he has taken in the matter, not that the people do not want to see justice done, but they seem to be of the opinion that the greater crimes should be pushed with as much vigor as the lesser ones, if not more.

The warrants in the hands of the sheriff will reach in Person, Chatham, Orange and Durham counties. The gambling which the defendants are charged with taking chances in raffling contests.

It is rumored before the grand jury complete their work they will have presented bills of indictment against the military company, the church, the Durham band and various benevolent institutions for engaging in the same kind of business.—Charlotte Observer.

Walsler Totes a Pass.

The News and Observer says of Attorney-General Walsler: Mr. Zeb Vance Walsler rides on a free pass.

This pass was given him by the Southern Railway Company, as "local counsel," at Lexington, N. C.

Mr. Walsler has been in Raleigh this week. He came here on this pass; he went way on it. No doubt this very minute he has it in his pocket.

The beauty and fitness of all this will be seen when it is remembered that Mr. Walsler is our accomplished Attorney General.

As such he is popularly supposed to be the State's prosecuting attorney. For this the State pays him first and last $3,400, or $400 more than the Governor gets.

Silver Dollar that is Valued $6,000.

Albany, Jan. 19.—A silver dollar of the issue of 1804 is owned by James Ten Eyck, of this city, a Past Grand Master of Masons. He purchased it in New York city in 1888 for $100, and secured with it the necessary papers to prove its authenticity. Some time ago he refused $3,000 for the coin.

A dollar of this issue has been stated to be worth $6,000. Mr. Ten Eyck says the statement that there are only four of these coins in existence and that one of them is not accounted for is erroneous, for there is a reliable record of the existence of seven of them.

Mr. Ten Eyck says the British museum is not the owner of one as stated. Mr. Ten Eyck has one of the best collections of rare coins in the country.

An Imputation Resented.

"Do you," said the friend who had invited Pute Pete into a restaurant, "do you—er—make a practice of eating pie with your knife?"
