NOTES FROM HIGH POINT. The Local News From Our Neighbor Briefly Told. TELEGRAM BUREAU, HIGH POINT, N. C., Sept. 5, '98. The Graded schools opened this morning with over five hundred scholars. This is the second year of this, the best institution of any description that has ever been established in this city. There were present Editor J. J. Farriss, Rev. Mr. Alderman, A. F. Eshleman and a representative of the Raleigh News and Observer. After announcements by Supt. Geo. H. Crowell, the above named visitors made a few very appropriate remarks. The faculty this year will be the same as last except Miss Henryanna Hackney, who is succeeded by Miss Cornelia Roberson, of Guilford College. Another teacher will doubtless have to be added to this excellent corps if the roll is increased any. Success to the graded schools of this city. The northbound noon train Saturday was three hours late, thus the Telegram failed to get our dots which we regret very much. One of "Uncle Bob's" gates is taking a rest. The cable must be broken. Mr. Wilson, of Jarrell's hotel is unloading a car load of his household property today, shipped from Atlanta. The foundation has been laid for the girls dormitory at the Normal and Industrial school (col.) It is 45x75 and will be three stories high. The work is being done by the students. The brick were made on the grounds from the clay that was removed for the foundation. The north end of Willowbrook street near the Bellevue hotel is being greatly improved by the street force. J. A. Wofford and family who have been visiting in Lawrence, S. C., have returned home. C. M. Crawford, the hustling manager of the High Point Clothing Company, left yesterday for the northern markets to buy their fall stock. We may look for something nobby when "Milt" returns. Wade Rankin spent yesterday in Benaja. Mrs. N. H. Wilson and two sons, of Atlanta, the family of the proprietor of the Jarrell hotel, have arrived in the city. William Hicks, superintendent of the Tate Furniture Co., is visiting in Virginia. Miss Berta Tomlinson, left Saturday for Durham to resume her position as teacher in the graded school of that place. Lee Cartland and Captain Rankin spent yesterday in Greensboro. Mr. and Mrs. James Howard and Mrs. C. E. Foy and daughter, Miss Annie, who have been spending several weeks here, have returned home. While here they made many friends. Mrs. H. E. Seago, of Albemarle, who has been spending several weeks here with relatives, has returned to her home. Miss Sallie Millis, one of our most popular young ladies, left this morning for Tarboro to spend a few weeks visiting. Miss Ethel Bonnen, who has been visiting in Pleasant Garden, returned home Sunday night. She was accompanied by Miss Rosa Gray, who will visit here. Miss V. Smith left Saturday for the northern cities to buy her fall stock of millinery. Mrs. W. E. Johns, of Mt. Airy, who has been visiting her son, W. E. Johns, Jr., has returned home. J. H. T. Edwards, of Henderson, is visiting his family, who have recently moved here. Mrs. M. H. Shiplett returned this morning from Thomasville, where she has been visiting.

Storm in Winston. A passenger from Winston this morning reports a severe wind and rain storm in that city and vicinity last evening between 5 and 6 o'clock. The old factory building of Messrs. P. H. Hanes & Co. was unroofed, as well as several other buildings. Terrible damage was done to corn and tobacco in the fields. Our informant tells us that as far as four or five miles this side of Winston the growing crops were blown down and in some instances ruined. Pocketbook Stolen. A negro who gave his name as Edward King was arrested Saturday afternoon for stealing a pocketbook from a colored woman. It contained a railroad ticket from Atlanta to Norfolk.

PRESIDENT WAS APPALLED By The Horrors Presented At Camp Wikoff. BY THE SIDE OF DYING HEROES. He Seizes Fever-Racked Soldiers By The Hand and Thanks Them For Their Gallant Fighting. President McKinley spent five hours inspecting Camp Wikoff Saturday. Columns have been written of the horrors of the place, and the President's verdict is a forcible confirmation, for he decided that the best thing to do was to get the troops away from Montauk Point as soon as possible. The volunteers will be sent home on furloughs and he issued an order directing the regulars to return to their stations east of the Mississippi. From yesterday's Philadelphia Record we get the following interesting account of the president's visit to the sick soldiers: Miss Wheeler, a daughter of the General, happened to be in the first row of the hospital tents and she showed the President through her division. General Wheeler announced in each ward: "Boys, the President has come to see you," or "Soldiers, the President of the United States." Some of the soldiers were still unconscious, some listlessly raised on their elbows, others feebly clapped their hands. Mr. McKinley gently shook hands with many, and at every cot he paused an instant and if he saw the sick man looking at him he bowed in a direct and personal way. In the second ward Sergeant John A. Alexander, Company D, First Illinois, who has a fever, was rather startled by hearing General Wheeler announce the President. The sergeant half raised up on his cot. BEGGED TO GO HOME. Mr. McKinley, attracted by the movement, took Alexander's hand and said: "I am sorry to see you sick. I hope that you are getting better." "Thank you; I think I shall get well." "Do you wish for anything?" inquired General Wheeler. "No I have everything good for me, I guess," Alexander replied, wearily. "But I wish I were home." "I hope that we may soon get you there," said Mr. McKinley. He had many such bits of talk with the men, and seemed to be in no hurry. He almost outwore the patience of all his party by his slow-going thorough ward after ward. Lee Cartland and Captain Rankin spent yesterday in Greensboro. Mr. and Mrs. James Howard and Mrs. C. E. Foy and daughter, Miss Annie, who have been spending several weeks here, have returned home. While here they made many friends. Mrs. H. E. Seago, of Albemarle, who has been spending several weeks here with relatives, has returned to her home. Miss Sallie Millis, one of our most popular young ladies, left this morning for Tarboro to spend a few weeks visiting. Miss Ethel Bonnen, who has been visiting in Pleasant Garden, returned home Sunday night. She was accompanied by Miss Rosa Gray, who will visit here. Miss V. Smith left Saturday for the northern cities to buy her fall stock of millinery. Mrs. W. E. Johns, of Mt. Airy, who has been visiting her son, W. E. Johns, Jr., has returned home. J. H. T. Edwards, of Henderson, is visiting his family, who have recently moved here. Mrs. M. H. Shiplett returned this morning from Thomasville, where she has been visiting.

WOMAN SCORES ALGER TO HIS FACE. While in the general hospital, Mrs. Hugo Lang, a volunteer nurse, stepped in front of the President, and after the exchange of pleasant greetings, said: "Mr. President do you see those empty cots over there?" "Why certainly," replied Mr. McKinley. "Well, do you know," went on Mrs. Lang, "that sick soldiers are lying on the damp grass in tents who ought to be occupying these cots? It is true, but the sick soldiers are not permitted to occupy these cots. Why, I don't know." The President looked at Secretary Alger, the Secretary looked at General Wheeler, but not a word did any one answer. VISITS A DYING LIEUTENANT. When seemingly all the wards of the general hospital had been gone through and the President was about to get into a carriage Attorney General Griggs detained him. "Miss Wheeler, has told me," said he, "of a Lieutenant Prado, who is in a tent back here by himself, and he is in a dying condition. He has asked about your coming and Miss Wheeler has promised that you shall see him." "Certainly. Let us go to him," Mr. McKinley said. The others of the party discreetly remained outside the tent. The President reappeared with the nurse a minute or two later. His eyes were moist and downcast. After quitting the hospital President McKinley was amused by Major Lebo showing him a copy of a bulletin that Major Hutchins, chief of the Bureau of Information, had posted in front of his tent as follows: "The President of the United States, Porto Rico, Cuba and the Philippines arrived in camp at 9 a. m. September 3, 1898. PRESIDENT'S 6-FOOT JUMP. As it was inconvenient to go back to the doors of the long tents, Mr. McKinley would go through the framework at the ends of the tents and jump down. The general hospital is on a slope, and the height of the floors from the ground increased with each ward. At Ward F the jump was nearly 6 feet. Mr. McKinley took it. Vice-President Hobart, who is somewhat of a bulky man, hesitated. "I balk here. Can't go over this huddle," he said. Neither would Secretary Alger, who had taken all the jumps until then. But General Wheeler sprang lightly down. The day was hot. Mr. McKinley wore a black frock coat with a waistcoat. The perspiration streamed from his face. A glass of appollinaris was offered to him, but he declined to drink, saying he was too warm. BEFORE 5000 SOLDIERS. He proceeded to the Infantry plain. The men of the Ninth Massachusetts, the First Illinois, the Eighth Ohio, the Thirtieth, Twenty-first, Twenty-second and Tenth regular infantry were assembled without arms. About 5000 stood in close order. Gen. Wheeler said: "The president of our great country has come here to greet the soldiers that marched so gallantly up San Juan Hill on July 1. He comes here to express the nation's thanks to these brave men. I wish to tell you that when the president sent me here two weeks ago to command this camp he enjoined me in the most emphatic language that I should, without regard to expense, exercise every and any authority necessary to make comfortable this body of brave men who by their courage have raised this republic to the highest position among the great nations of the earth. I have the honor and pleasure of introducing to you the president of the United States." THE PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS. President McKinley said: "General Wheeler, Soldiers of Camp Wikoff, Soldiers of the Fifth Army Corps: I trust that you will put your hats on—I am glad to meet you. I am honored to stand before you today. I bring you the gratitude of the nation to whose history you have added by your valor a new and glorious page. You have come home after two months of severe campaigning, which has embraced assault, siege and battle, so brilliant in achievement, so far-reaching in results, as to command the unstinted praise of all your countrymen. You had the brunt of the battle on land. BRAVERY NEVER EXCELLED. "You bore yourself with supreme courage, and your personal bravery, never before excelled anywhere, has won the admiration of your fellow citizens and the genuine respect of all mankind, while your endurance under peculiar trial and suffering has given added meaning to your heroism. Your exertions made easy the conquest of Porto Rico under the resistless army commanded by Major General Miles, and behind you, to proceed at a moment's summons, were more than 200,000 of your comrades ready to support you, disappointed that the opportunity which you had did not come to them, yet filled with pride at your well earned fame and rejoicing upon your victories. THANKS OF A PEOPLE, THEIRS. "You were on the line of battle, yet no less than you, were on the line of duty. All have served their country in its need, all will serve it so long as they may be required, and all will forever have the thanks and regard of a grateful people. "We cannot bid you welcome here today without our hearts going out to the heroes of Manila on sea and land, whose services and sacrifices, whose courage and constancy in that far distant field of operations have never been surpassed by any soldiers or sailors the world over. GLORIOUS ARMY AND NAVY. "To the army and the navy, to the marines, to the regulars, to the volunteers, and to that Providence which has watched over them all, the nation today is full of thanksgiving and praise. The brave officers and men who fell in battle and those who have died from exposure and sickness will live in immortal story and their memories will be perpetuated in the hearts and the history of a generous people."

KEEP IT UP. Let There be no Cessation in the Good Work. Great good is being accomplished for the cause of democracy and good government by the grand rallies and barbecues being gotten up in the different counties. The next one will be at Asheboro on Thursday of this week. Let the good work go on until our state is wrenched from the control of the corrupt men who are daily debauching her fair name. Let the white men of all political creeds get together and remove this foul blot from the escutcheon of North Carolina. Every county should get up a rally and barbecue and bring together and marshal the hosts of white people of the state and get them interested and enlisted in the good work that is being carried on for the redemption of the Tarheel state. Good speakers, the best of North Carolina's noble men, entertain the people on these occasions and they should be kept up. Let old Guilford be the next county to fall in line in this work. We can and must get a move on us. SHERMAN SAYS TOO EARLY To Decide About Taking the Ohio Governorship. By wire to THE TELEGRAM. Washington, Sept. 5—Ex-Sec. Sherman authorizes a denial of the story which was published this morning to the effect that he informed Private Dalzell, of Columbus, of his determination to accept the governorship of Ohio. He says it is too early to decide upon such a course. He doesn't know if he will take part in the Ohio campaign. Big Business in August. The two features of the current business news are especially significant. The bank clearings for August were not only the largest ever recorded for that month, but were 23 per cent in excess of the total similar payments in August, 1897—a year of exceptional activity in trade. Average prices of commodities being lower than they were six years ago, the payments through banks necessarily represent a relatively greater increase in the exchange of such merchandise. In connection with this demonstration of the immensity of the country's business during August we have the gratifying statements made by R. G. Dun & Co. that business failures were considerably smaller in that month than in any one month during the past five years. The biggest volume of business and the fewest commercial casualties combine to make an August trade record to be proud of, and one that may be well regarded as a most hopeful augury of prosperous conditions in the future.—Philadelphia Record. Grand Army Encampment. By wire to THE TELEGRAM. Cincinnati, Sept. 5—The railways are bringing in a large number of excursions filled with people who come to attend the Grand Army encampment. Although Camp Sherman was not dedicated until ten o'clock this morning it was occupied yesterday by soldiers. The comfort committee saw that all veterans were well cared for. Festivities opened early this morning by the reception of Rear Admiral Kelly, the naval veteran, at 6 o'clock. Anglo-Egyptian Victory. By Cable to THE TELEGRAM. London, Sept. 5—The war office this morning received a report from the commander of the forces at Omdurman, stating the number of officers and men killed in a fight which resulted in a victory for the Anglo-Egyptian over the Dervishes. Forty-six officers and men were killed and 333 wounded. Bayard's Condition Unchanged. By wire to THE TELEGRAM. Dedham, Mass., Sept. 5—The condition of Bayard has remained unchanged for the past twenty-four hours. Special Meeting. Mayor Nelson has called a special meeting of the board of Aldermen for 5 o'clock this afternoon to consider the application of Wharton & McAlister for permission to move the old Allen House from its present site to the vacant lot opposite the jail on North Elm street. Lindau "Refreshing" and "Delicious" are words that are often heard after people have tried Orange Phosphate at our fountain. Orange Phosphate is so common that it takes something extra to call forth such remarks. The secret of ours is that we are careful to have fresh syrups, made from the best material we can find. Fresh syrup means syrup made not longer than the day before you taste it. Our Orange Phosphate is delicious because it hasn't that celeri pine wood taste. It has that acid taste that pleases. JOHN B.
