REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

The county convention of the republicans was held in the court house here today. The room was filled about 11:30, and on being called to order all who were not delegates were asked to leave the room, as a private caucus was to be held. Assembling half an hour later the various committees were appointed, and while they were out Col. Jas. E. Boyd, who was present, was called on for a speech. He amused the crowd for a while, making some allusions to the color line-or white line, as he termed it-which greatly tickled the negroes

He said the people of North Carolina were howling "white man and white metal," but what we want, said he, is "honest man and honest money." Of course the genial colonel did not mean the white men were not honest-he just said that because he was expected to say something.

A contest was reported from one township and a motion was made to give each delegation half representation. Lost. Motion to seat the negro delegation was carried.

A white man got up to speak, and Holley, a negro, called him down, saying he was not a delegate and had no right to talk on that floor.

On the election of a permanent chairman being announced, Mr. Scott was placed in nomination, the motion put and carried.

Walter Steele and others, through the negro Holley, here interposed and Holley placed G. Will Armfield in romination. Mr. Scott asked that his name come down, and Mr. Armfield was elected

R. D. Douglas and Mr. Starbuck were chosen as secretaries.

A motion was here made to adjourn for dinner. It was opposed by a man from the country. He said: We people who come sixteen or seventeen miles to attend a convention like this tried the cases against the women and generally get in such condition we convicted them. This was on the 11th Inspector of Southern Railroad can't travel in the night. Let's go of August. The judgement was simple ahead and get through before night. His appeal carried things and the motion to adjourn was voted down. Nominations being in order, M. C. Holton, G. S. Bradshaw and B. M. Bridges were placed before the convention for the senate. Bradshaw was nominated on the first ballot, though Bridges had a strong following, and one republican remarked that he could easily have won if he had wanted the place.

The following is the ticket: Senate-G. S. Bradshaw. House-R. D. Douglas. House-Left open. Clerk-E. L. Ragan. Sheriff-Jos. A. Hoskins Register-Left open. Treasurer-John A. Hodgin. Surveyor-J. S. Worth. Coroner-Left open.

Commissioners-A. E. Horney, G. Will Armfield. The following populists were en dorsed to complete the ticket.

House-Capt. J. W. Forbis. Register-W. O. Stratford. Coroner-R. E. Hodgin. Commissioner-J. C. Browning.

A Mysterious Chase.

There was a mysterious coon chase n town Saturday night. The chasers are keeping quiet and the chaseewell, he can't be found. The chase started on South Elm street, continued down Sycamore and ended about the corner of Sycamore and South Forbis. The negro was about twenty knot speed and of heavy battery. He hurled several bricks back at his pursuers, but it is said that only one took effect.

Attempted Burglary.

Someone tried to break into the house of Mr. A. J. Golden, corner Edgeworth and Schenck streets last night, through a window. Mr. Golden was awakened by the noise and frightened the would-be-burglar away, firing two shots at him as he ran. Sad to appear at 2 o'clock, which was refused. say, he was not hit and made good his The court finally accepted a justified

There have been several attempts at burglary here of late. There seems to be a "gang" of burglars around town.

A Splendid Run.

Engineer "Bud" Smith, one of the most popular railroad men in the service of the Southern made one of the best runs from Salisbury to Charlotte that has been recorded lately. No 25 left Salisbury at 9:08 o'clock last night, stopped several minutes in Concord and arrived at Charlotte at 10 o'clock "dead" on time. The distance being about 45 miles it will be seen that Engineer Smith was spinning PROF. W. T. WHITSETT, PH. D., along at a mile a minute the entire distance.-Charlotte News.

UNDER NEGRO MAGISTRATES

Unenviable Plight of The City Of Newbern

THE NEGRO HIMSELF IS PILLAGED

Neither Age, Sex, Color Nor Condition is Free From The Reign of Disgrace.

Newbern, N. C., Sept. 6.-Newbern is cursed with negro magistrates. As Wilmington is in the hands of an incompetent, insolent police force, so Newbern is in the hands of incompetent and insolent negro magistrates. Craven county is in a deplorable condition. There are in the county about 2000 democrats and 2800 republicans; of the latter number there are but 63 white men. So the county at present seems doomed. The negroes can do as they please so far as numbers go. In this town there are ten negro justices of the peace. Four of them-Douglas, Chapman, Green and Bryan-are very active. They keep runners out all the time to pick up every little case. No day passes that there are not at least a dozen trials in the town. It does not differ about the color the parties in question in the least. The justices of the peace are after the money.

Here are some samples of what the negro magistrates of Newbern are doing. Some time about the middle of August two negro women, Lucile Westbrook and Lucy Francks, had a fight. No licks were passed. Two negro justices of the peace, Fred Douglas and M. W. Chapman, issued warrants independent of each other for both wo-

Fred Douglas, a former pension agent, but now debarred from practicing before the pension department on account of fraudulent practices, an affray and the women satisfied it. Lucile Westbrook was required to give a $100 justified bond to appear before M. W. Chapman, justice of the peace. She appeared at the appointed time and informed him that she had been fined for the same offence before Douglas, but asked him to hear her case at once. Though it was the time set for the trial, the justice said he was not ready for trial, as the state's witnesses were not all there. In a few minwere on the spot. The defendant demanded a trial but the court refused, saying she would have to wait till 2 o'clock p. m. It was then 9 a. m. Chapman required her to give a second justified bond for her appearance at 2 o'clock.

The warrant that she was arrested on did not show who was the informant on whom it was issued.

The defendant and her counsel demanded the name of the person giving the information. Thereupon, the court said that he did not care to give the name of the informant, but that the information was given on oath by one of the state's witnesses. The defendant then tendered to the court an affidavit in due form for removal to another justice for trial and requested Chapman to swear her to the affidavit and remove the cause under the statute to some other • justice of the peace for trial.

The court refused to swear the defendant to the affidavit and refused to remove the cause, but ordered the case continued till 2 p. m. The defendant went home without having given bond for her appearance in the afternoon. Shortly thereafter she was arrested by the negro constable, J. P. Stanley, of this, the eighth township, and brought before the magistrate. She was put in custody of a special officer appointed by Chapman and ordered to remain in custody of said officer until 2 o'clock, the time of the trial. She offered a recognizance with solvent security to bond for her appearance. At the appointed hour she appeared with her counsel and witnesses, and also an affidavit for removal, duly justified before another magistrate. It appeared from the so-called capias, under which the defendant was arrested after the morning hour, that it was unsigned by the justice, but he signed it after the defendant had been in custody for hours.

The defendant and counsel renewed their demand for the name of the person that gave the information on oath Chapman refused to give the name of the informant, but said that he was among the state's witnesses. On further demands for the name he went out

South Greensboro Boy Has an Immense Amount of Fun.

WITH A FAKE SNAKE.

Saturday night a mischievous kid in South Greensboro made a tremenduutes all witnesses named by Chapman ous snake of a piece of black oil cloth and set out to have some fun. He attached a string to his fake snake, hid himself in the yard, placed the snake in the grass on the outside of the sidewalk and waited. People were passing close together and the kid's trick seldom failed to work. He frightened several men almost out of their wits and nobody caught on.

He had been cautioned not to frighten women and for awhile he let them pass. But before long he sighted an o'd colored auntie whose avourdupois is precious near 400, coming his way with a bucket on her head. It was too good to miss and as auntie approached the kid became more and more nervous. When auntie reached the right place he pulled the string and the snake ran across right at her feet.

She saw it and with a yell that startled the residents of that community, and bounded back. As she jumped ing. she grabbed at the bucket but too late and the bucket and its contents fell at her feet. In an instant the kid was on the scene coming up from an opposite direction to see what the trouble was all about. The old woman told of the snake and the kid went off to "hunt' it. She grieved much over the loss of her "slops" (with which the bucket was filled) and finally picked up the bucket and wended her way homeward, sorrowing. The kid replaced his snake and resumed his seat in the dark fully resolved to let the women alone, for he realized that had anntie suspected him his career would most probably have ended.

The Cape Fear and Northern.

Prof. J. M. Bandy, civil engineer on the Cape Fear and Northern, spent Sunday with his family here and returned to Apex this morning.

He says work on the new road is progressing nicely and that they will begin laying track at Apex the latter part of the week or the first of next. Fifteen miles of the road are graded and when track laying begins the work will move along hurriedly.

NO MERCY FOR ANARCHISTS.

Is the Verdict of all England and t e Continent.

DRASTIC MEASURES ARE URGED

To Stamp them Out-Consternation and Indignation Grow as the Act is Fully Realized.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM London, Sept. 12-The consternation which is felt throughout England and the Continent at the murder of the Empress of Austria, grow upon a better realization of the full import of the act of the asassin.

The newspapers this afternoon join with those of this morning in a great outero against anarchists, and point out the necessity of resorting to the most drastic measures to stamp them out of existence. All agree that they should be shown no mercy.

LIVELY TIMES

At the Meeting of the French Cabinet this Morning.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM. Paris, Sept. 12-The cabinet had an extremely lively meeting this morning. The report that General Gurlinden had resigned, is spreading.

It is stated that the evening session will decide the question as to Gurlinden, and also as to the revision of the Dreyfus case.

A Packed Excursion.

An overloaded colored excursion rom Winston to Reidsville arrived here this morning about 11:30 o'clock and was held here until 2 o'clock this afternoon, the railroad autorities refusing to let it pass until another car was put on and paid for.

The manager of the excursion said he did not have sufficient money to pay for the extra coach, but some arrangement was made by which he was allowed to go on.

Only sixty-passengers are allowed in a car by the railroads.

Second N. C. Passing.

Companies C and I, of the Second North Carolina Regiment, passed through this afternoon enroute to Raleigh on a special train of eight coaches. These two companies have been stationed at St. Francis Barrack, St. Augustine, Fla. The boys' morals have not become contaminated, for without a single exception they behaved as gentlemen while here. They all hated to leave St. Augustine. They said their treatment there was the best imaginable.

The Peruvian legation at Washington received word that there was no revolution at Lima.

POST MORTEM EXAMINATION

Shows that the Heart of the Empress was Plerced.

By Caple to THE TELEGRAM

Geneva, Sept. 12-A post mortem examination of the body of the late Empress of Austria, who was assassinated Saturday by an Italian anarchist, shows that the weapon completely transfixed her heart, penetrating 31 inches and making a wound one-sixth of an inch wide. The fact that the Empress walked fifty yards to the steamer is ascribed to her remarkable will power. The body has been placed in a triple coffin and transferred to the mortuary chamber. The walls are veiled with black drapery covered with silver stars. Several sisters of Don't Think this Price will charity are continually on their toes beside the bier, praying for the soul of the departed. Nearby stands the prayer table of the Empress, bearing her rosary and crucifix.

Greensboro's Grades.

One of the Southern's big Richmond locomotives came in this morning from the North, pulling a train of forty-seven freight cars. It was a heavy train and when the big engine stopped at the tank it was unable to pull off. Seve al times it caught the "slack" and strained but could not make it and finally signalled for help. The shifting engine came to its aid and together they pulled the long train to the lower end of the yard.

The C. F. & Y. V. through freight also stalled this morning as it came in and a shifting engine was sent out to help it.
