THE COMPANY HE KEPT
Got Henry in the Lock-up on Sunday.

Officer Scott ran into a crowd of gamblers yesterday afternoon out near the old cotton mill. Several negroes were in the crowd and two of them were pitching dice for a pint of whiskey. Just as one was pulling the whiskey from his pocket, officer Scott walked up to the door. There was a break for the door on the opposite side of the house and before Mr. Scott could collect his thoughts negroes were going into nearby woods at a rapid rate. When the dust cleared away Henry Leggins stood in the middle of the floor "whence all but him had fled." Henry swore by all that was good and bad that he had not been gambling, but officer Scott, acting on Henry's former record and judging him by the company he kept, provided a pair of bracelets and brought him up to the lock-up. Henry was convicted of gambling at the last term of court and sentenced to six months on the county roads, but bought his time. He now thinks he will have to buy it again.

A BEAUTIFUL DRIVE.

The Improvement On The Battle Ground Road.

A drive over that part of the Battle Ground road recently graded by the convicts is, when compared with the old road, sufficient to convince everybody of the economy in establishing and maintaining good roads. The crooked, rough and steep road down the cemetery hill has been replaced by a graceful curve of easy grade. It will positively make you feel good to go out and look at it.

It is a most beautiful road, broad enough for two vehicles to drive abreast and turn with ease, while for wheeling it is away beyond anything we have had.

To the energy and perseverance of those who first took hold of the road improvement matter we feel greatly indebted. The work already done clearly demonstrates the wisdom of the move, and from all over the county now comes the cry: We want our roads worked.

Take This Chance, Boys.

Why not get Greensboro and Charlotte football teams to play a game here during the tobacco fair. A member of the Greensboro team was here yesterday and says that the Greensboro boys would be glad to come here and play the Charlotte team. If the Charlotte boys cannot come the Greensboro boys are willing to play with Oak Ridge, Guilford College or the University teams.—Winston Journal.

Here's a chance. Our boys are practicing every afternoon now and are making good progress. By the time the tobacco fair comes off (Nov. 2, 3 and 4th) Greensboro will be ready to win some victories and this is the time and place to make a "rep." Thousands of people attend this fair and will witness the game and the football teams that play there will be talked of far and near. Challenge one of the above teams, boys.

A Jealous Man's Crime.

W. H. Holleman, assistant postmaster at Apex, was tried before U. S. Commissioner Nichols at Raleigh Saturday on the charges of detaining and opening mail matter and of sending obscene matter through the mails. He was bound over to Federal court on both charges.

The mail intercepted was correspondence between Arthur Edwards, of Cary and Miss Willie Hicks, of Holly Springs. Miss Hicks is a cousin of Holleman and he being infatuated with her was jealous of the attention paid her by young Edwards. His jealousy led him to intercept and read their letters which had to pass through the Apex office. He finally became so bold that he stopped one of Miss Hicks letters and wrote one in its stead. He then wrote one himself in which he called Edwards some very ugly names.

The case was worked up by Inspector Gregory, of this city, and the chain of evidence seems to be complete.

Likes Greensboro.

Mr. J. E. Alderman, a native of Sampson county, but recently of Davie, is in the city this afternoon looking for a residence with a view to locating here for the practice of his profession—the law.

Thank You.

Greensboro is making an effort to own and control her own electric light plant and water works system. We are glad to see Greensboro taking this progressive step and hope she will have better luck than Durham.—Durham Herald.

SOLDIERS ON THE WAR PATH.
Raleigh the Scene of a Small Skirmish.

TWO WHITE MEN WERE HURT.

The Number of Negroes Hurt Not Known, As Their Friends Carried Them Away.

Special to the Telegram.

Raleigh, Sept. 19.—A crowd of soldiers who were drinking in East Raleigh yesterday afternoon got in a row with negroes and a reckless fight followed. The combatants separated and after a time the fight was renewed and about forty shots were fired. Two white men were shot—one in the calf of his leg and the other in the finger.

The number of negroes hurt is at present unknown, as their friends carried them off.

Colonel Burgwyn immediately ordered all soldiers back to the camp and Mayor Russ addressed the crowd. By five o'clock perfect quiet had been restored. Arrests will follow.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM

ADAMS FOR JUDGE.

Orange County Republicans Will Support Him for Place.

Hillsboro, Sept. 17.—The republican county convention was largely attended here today. D. F. Crawford was nominated for sheriff, H. N. Brown for register of deeds, C. P. Foster for treasurer.

The following resolutions were unanimously adopted by the caucus and open convention:

"Whereas, The republicans of Orange county, in convention assembled, do hereby accept co-operation with the populists; therefore

"Resolved, first, That we most respectfully request the 'powers' that arranged co-operation to allow us in this senatorial district a republican candidate, also a 'true' republican candidate for the fifth congressional district.

"Resolved, second, That we pledge the support of the republican party of Orange county to the Hon. Sp. near B. Adams for judge, and hereby instruct our chairman and county executive committee to place no other 'Adams ticket' in Orange.

"Resolved third, That we denounce the 'powers' that be for using their influence to thwart the will of the people in the fifth congressional district and their effort to humiliate and defeat that gallant fighter of democracy, the true and tried republican, Hon. Thomas Settle"—Special to Charlotte Observer.

B. H. Merrimon, Chairman.

The joint committee of the board of aldermen and the I. & I. Association met Saturday afternoon pursuant to notice and organized by electing Mr. B. H. Merrimon as chairman. This is the committee selected to advertise for bids for building a street car line, operating and maintaining the same in connection of a system of arc and incandescent electric lights.

Laid up for Repairs.

Southern engine No. 974 has been brought here for repairs. One of the driving rods broke last Friday when the engine was pulling passenger train No. 11 from Goldsboro to Greensboro. The cab and other woodwork near the driver were so badly damaged that it will have to be replaced.

The "Hello" Wires Cut.

Several of the telephone wires were cut today at the corner of South Elm and East Market streets to allow the Planter's Hotel to pass. The work will be pushed now so as to cause as little inconvenience as possible to Telephone subscribers.

A Deceived Wife.

I don't suppose my wife'll speak to me again for a week.

Why?

About a month ago I bought a new razor without letting her know it, and since then she's kept on ripping seams with the old one. When she found out last night how she had been fooled her consternation was really pitiful.—Cleveland Leader.

FUSION JUDGE DRUNK.

Judge Norwood Cusses Out Russell the Kusser.

Windsor, N. C., Sept. 17.—The people of Bertie, and especially the good people of Windsor, were treated Thursday to the degrading and humiliating sight of seeing one of the Superior court judges of this fusion-cursed state of ours drive through their county and principal town, Windsor, their county seat, so beastly drunk that he did not know or care whether he was the Hon. W. L. Norwood, judge of the Twelfth district of North Carolina, or not.

Judge Norwood arrived at Aulander early in the morning and was soon in the pitiful predicament of being unable to navigate, and was assisted by the agent of Aulander in procuring conveyance to Windsor, where he arrived about 1:30 o'clock, so drunk, he and his driver, that they drove through the town to all hotels and kept traveling until they reached the river, and could go no further, and of course turned and came back.

Some friend seeing that it was Judge Norwood, had them stopped at the hotel and helped take him out of the buggy and carried him to a room where he was looked after, and by careful nursing and good treatment, was brought around all right so as to be able to convene court Thursday morning, though, it must be said, he was not at all himself, and his charge to the grand jury, consisting of twelve white men and six negroes, covered every phase of the criminal law, from the highest crime of treason to a common ordinary drunk, and if his honor's charge is carried out to the letter we may look for a true bill against his honor, which would have to wait till he was impeached or his term of office expired, and then could be taken up and disposed of as the case might demand. His conduct was very ridiculous at Aulander, and his compliments were paid to his Excellency Governor Russell, in very strong language indeed, so strong that some gentleman asked his honor why he voted for such a man, and Judge Norwood replied that it was "none of his damned business."—Special to News-Observer.

TROOPS ORDERED TO MANILA.

By wire to THE TELEGRAM.

ESTERHAZY IN LONDON.
He is Credited With Making Some Remarkable Statements

London, Sept. 18.—The Observer this morning states that Count Ferdinand Walsin Esterhazy has been in London for the past ten days. The fact, the paper says, is known to very few here, and it is not suspected in Paris.

He is occupying a flat near St James street, and as he has shaved off his moustache, it is not easy to recognize him. He says what he did was in obedience to blind and brutal orders.

"If I were ordered to take a gun and shoot my own brother I would do so without hesitation," said Count Esterhazy. He added that out of the 1000 documents in the Dreyfus dossier, approximately 600 were forged and that he was prepared to show by whom and in what circumstances the forgeries were committed.
