HOLAHAN—McCAULL.
The Beautiful Wedding at St. Agnes Church

Last evening at eight o'clock St. Agnes Catholic church was a brilliant scene, the occasion being the marriage of Mr. Francis M. Holahan, a prominent young attorney of New York, son of Hon. Maurice T. Holahan, commissioner of public works of Greater New York, and Miss Winifred McCaull, daughter of the late John A. McCaull, of this city.
The ushers came in as follows: Lieut. Green P. Talbot, of Danville, and John S. Michaux, city; Ralph Henry Graves, of Chapel Hill, and W. Giles Mebane, city. The bride carried in her hand a beautiful bouquet of Augusta Victoria roses, and came down the middle aisle leaning on the arm of her uncle, Mr. Harry C. Martin. They were met at the gate of the chancel by the groom and best man, Mr. William Donald Carmichael.
Then the beautiful and impressive ceremony of the Catholic church was pronounced by Father Joseph. The newly wed couple left on the vestibule last night for New York, where they will reside, followed by many hearty congratulations and good wishes.

AN OPEN AIR CONCLAVE.
And The Train Carried The Candidates Away.

The Southern depot seemed completely surrounded this morning, just before the 8:50 train from Charlotte came in, by republican populist combine candidates and their colored followers. Among them were Cyrus Thompson, populist state chairman, Judge Spencer B. Adams, candidate for congress in this district, Wm. D. Merritt, of Roxboro, the "pretty boy" upon whom they are trying to force the judgeship of this district, Solicitor W. P. Bynum, candidate for re-election and a few rep-pop candidates for county offices.
A small, jet black, slew-footed negro with a rag-bag mustache, never looked nor felt more important than when he lightly knocked the cigar ashes from the front of Judge Adams coat and the Judge looked around to see if any one was looking. A few minutes confab among themselves and with the colored brethren and the 8:50 trains left for the north and east and the politicians were scattered to parts unknown.

Building Notes.
Mr. A. F. Brooks, who is superintending the building of Wharton & McAllister's new office building on East Market street, is working a large force of masons, and the work is being done rapidly.

The work on the new depot has now progressed far enough to make a show. The masons are doing swift and elegant work, and the beautiful pressed brick and granite will make the prettiest building in the city. The wall is high enough for the windows to be put in and they are large and of artistic shape.

The walls of Mrs. Sol. Weill's new building, on South Elm street, are going up at a rapid rate. The front of this building will be of pressed brick. Mrs. Weill has not yet decided on the plan of the building she will erect by this one, but will put one there as soon as this is completed.

Mr. T. B. Yuille to Leave.
The Telegram is exceedingly sorry to learn that Mr. T. B. Yuille, the buyer for the American Tobacco Company at this place, is to leave Greensboro. He will go to Durham next week to act as buyer for the same company at that place. Mr. Yuille is a young man of thrift, integrity and business capacity, and in him Greensboro loses one of her best and most popular business men. Since he came here he has looked to the interest of Greensboro, himself and the company he represents. It is such men as this that a city regrets to lose. Mr. Yuille leaves with the best wishes of hundreds of friends. The Telegram wishes him continued success, and commends him and his estimable wife to the good people of his future home.

Col. Burgwyn Goes to Washington.
Col. W. H. S. Burgwyn, of the Second North Carolina Regiment, passed through at noon today enroute to Washington, it is thought, to confer with the war department concerning the mustering out of the Second. According to the Raleigh Post, Col. Burgwyn is very desirous of having the order to muster out revoked. In this Col. Burgwyn will not meet with any encouragement from his subordinate officers and the privates who are anxious to be mustered out.

SPEECH LOST IN A SALOON.
Strange Case of an Atlanta Boiler Maker.

THE PHYSICIANS ARE PUZZLED.

"If I Ever Take a Drink Again," Said Patrick Kelly, "I Hope I Shall Be Struck Dumb."

Atlanta, Sept. 28.—The Constitution brings to light the following case, which is one of the most remarkable on record:
"If I ever take a drink again," said Patrick Kelly, a boiler maker, about three weeks ago, "I hope I shall be struck dumb."
Yesterday afternoon at 6 o'clock Kelly entered a saloon with some friends and ordered a drink of "good old corn whiskey."
The white liquor was poured out and Kelly and his friends linked the glasses as they prepared to drink to each other's good health.
As soon as the whiskey was swallowed Kelly turned away and walked to the rear of the saloon. One of his friends followed him and asked him a question. Kelly moved his lips, but made no reply. The question was repeated, and again the lips moved without a sound being uttered. Seizing a pencil and a slip of paper, Kelly wrote, as his hand trembled with excitement: "I am struck dumb."
He was wild with fright and sank upon a box in the saloon. The ambulance was summoned and he was taken to the hospital.

The physicians at the hospital made an examination, and all they could say was:
"There has been some sort of paralysis of the tongue. The case is a strange one and we will have to watch it while before we can say positively just what is the matter with the man."
Kelly has been a man addicted to drink for a number of years. He resides on Foundry street and earns good wages as a boiler maker. Every now and then he would get on a spree and he has been arrested by the police on the charge of drunkenness. He had many friends who thought much of him in spite of the fact that he drank at times to excess. They always helped him when he was in trouble and got him out of the police barracks. He generally had the money to pay his fine when he was tried.

A number of times Kelly promised his friends to stop drinking, it is said; and about three weeks ago he got on a larger spree than usual and a friend paid his police court fine, and then it was that Kelly made the vow never to take another drink.
It is said he meant to keep his vow, and it was believed he would. He spoke earnestly when he uttered the wish that he might be struck dumb if whiskey passed his lips again.
It is said he drank some beer last Saturday saying he had only promised not to drink whiskey. The step from beer to whiskey is always short when a man lets the former break into his resolutions and so Kelly must have found it when he entered the saloon on Decatur street last evening to take a drink of whiskey.
What puzzles the physicians is that Kelly's health seems all right and nothing serious can be found the matter with him except the loss of speech. He tries to talk, but no sound comes from his lips. It looks as if he frames the words with his tongue and no sound results. It is more loss of voice than a paralysis of the tongue. He is simply dumb.

The case will be watched closely by the physicians and his friends.

A Minister's Sentence.
Fort Worth, Tex., Sept. 28.—Rev. G. E. Morrison, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church at Panhandle City, who has been on trial at Vernon for a week on the charge of murdering his wife October 10, 1897, was today found guilty and his punishment fixed at death. Morrison administered strychnine to his wife after returning from church. The jury was out only two hours.
Before the death of his wife Morrison was engaged to wed Miss Annie Whittlesey, of Topeka, Kan., and when intercepted he was at her home. It developed in the trial of the case that Morrison was infatuated with the Topeka young lady, and he chose to put his wife out of the way in order that he might marry Miss Whittlesey. An appeal will be taken.

PEACE COMMISSION MET.
Then, They All Had Breakfast—The News as It Comes

Paris, Sept. 29.—The United States Peace Commission held another session this morning, after which, accompanied by Ambassador Porter, they drove to the foreign office, where they breakfasted with the Spanish commissioners in addition to three of the head officials of the French foreign office, the first secretaries and embassies and General Hegron, secretary of Elysee Palace. The French papers still discuss the difficulties which the commission have, and that for Spain, the negotiations give but little satisfaction.

NOTES FROM HIGH POINT.
The Local News From Our Neighbor Briefly Told.

TELEGRAM BUREAU.
HIGH POINT, N. C., Sept. 29, '98.

Jarrell's hotel has been turned into a "Slaughter" house again.
It begins to look like business on Steele street. The foundation has been laid for Mr. Donaho Smith's new seven room house on the site where M. A. Smith's residence was burned down. Yesterday H. C. Bencini, of house moving fame, moved A. V. Sapp's dwelling, chimneys and all from where it was built to the lot adjoining on the north. Today the foundation is being laid on the old site for a new eight room house.

A. H. Slaughter has taken charge of Jarrell's hotel again. Mr. Wilson and family will possibly return to Atlanta from whence they came. They have made many friends here who will regret to learn that they will leave us.

The family of Wm. Hicks, superintendent of the Tate Furniture Company and have moved from the Lindsay house, on West Green street, to the Meredith house, on South Main street.
We trust our subscribers, who get their papers at the drug store, will not complain when they fail to get their papers on the first train, as was the case last night. We beg to inform them that it is through the kindness of the newsboys on the train that we get the papers on this train. Last night there was no newsboy on the first train, and consequently they were delayed until the second.

J. C. Burton has broken the record in house moving in this vicinity. Yesterday he moved a large one-room office from Jamestown, a distance of five miles, to this place, in six hours, with eight mules, and is today putting it in place between the mayor's office and Ring's drug store.

We learn that Salisbury is contemplating a big barbecue for Oct. 20. From the way the managers are writing Mr. Joe Hoffman, whom they want to manage the barbecuing, they must have had the pleasure of attending the recent barbecue at Asheboro where Mr. Hoffman was chief cook and bottle washer.

Mr. N. C. Jarrell has sold his saw mill at the Kennedy place to a party in Troy and is having it loaded for shipment today.

700 POPS RETURN IN HALIFAX.

The White People in that Old County United Once More.
Mr. F. L. Travis, of Scotland Neck, the chairman of the democratic executive committee in Halifax county, was here yesterday. Mr. Travis brings very encouraging reports from Halifax. The democrats there are aroused as they never were before.
Mr. Travis says nearly every populist in Halifax county has gone back to the democratic party. Four years ago there were over 700 populists in Halifax. Now Mr. Travis says there are not more than 25 populists in the county and that they are returning every day.

Recently a white government union was organized in Scotland Neck. Citizens closed their stores and 500 people participated. Sixteen populists were present and announced their return to the democratic party.
The work of the white government unions cannot be overestimated. Chairman Simmons has received information that in one of the eastern counties 29 populists participated in a newly organized union. At another meeting 23 populists were present.—Morning Post.

QUEEN LOUISE DEAD.
She Had Been Hopelessly Ill For Many Weeks.

Copenhagen, Sept. 29.—Queen Louise of Denmark died at 5:30 o'clock this morning. Every member of the royal family was present at her bedside. She has been hopelessly ill for many weeks and it has been only by the most careful skill that her life has been prolonged until now. She was unconscious for forty-eight hours previous to her death, and her pulse was so weak that it was difficult to determine whether she was still living, oxygen being employed by the physicians to facilitate respiration. She was eighty-one years of age.

YELLOW FEVER SITUATION.
The Reports From Louisiana and Mississippi.

Washington, Sept. 29.—The Marine hospital reports from the yellow fever district this morning are as follows:
Louisiana—Baton Rouge, one case; Franklin to date, one hundred and six, five deaths; Harvest Canal, six; Humma, one, one death; Jefferson Parish, five cases; New Orleans, twelve cases, two deaths; Wilson, twelve cases.
Mississippi—Edwards, one case; Jackson, nine, two deaths; Orwood, sixty-seven, three deaths; Oxford, thirteen, four deaths; Taylors, twenty, eight deaths; Waterford, one; Water Valley, one.

LAKE SHORE TRAIN LOOTED.
Four Masked Men Performed the Job.

SEVERAL SHOTS WERE FIRED.

To Emphasize the Command to Hold Up Hands—Baggage and Pockets Were Gone Through.

Cleveland, Ohio, September 29.—The greatest excitement and apprehension prevails here caused by the report today that east bound train No. 72, on the Lake Shore railway was held up twenty-five miles west, by four men, who boarded the train at Amherst while ascending a steep grade.
Two of the bandits stood in the door ways while the others rifled the luggage and pockets of the passengers. Several shots were fired to emphasize the command to "hold up hands." All hands went up.
The robbers neglected nothing. One woman was forced to remove and deliver up her ear rings. Seven men were compelled to remove their coats and waist coats and deliver them up. The robbers then escaped.
At six o'clock this morning one man was arrested on suspicion of being one of the robbers.

SHAFTER STILL SICK.
Twenty-fifth Infantry to Relieve the Fifteenth.

Montauk, Sept. 29.—General Shafter is still indisposed with malarial fever. He remains at his headquarters all day giving his orders through his adjutant, Colonel McClellan. He expects to resume active work in a few days. The Twenty-fifth infantry of seven hundred left today for Long Island City, going to the forts in Colorado, Arizona and New Mexico to relieve the Fifteenth infantry, which goes to Cuba. Forty sick men were transferred from the camp in a hospital train today. There are now a hundred and ninety-five patients in the general hospital.

TO REDUCE OFFICERS.
President is Preparing List of a "Pluster Out."

Washington, Sept. 29.—The president and war department are preparing to reduce the number of generals and staff officers under the army about one half. A list of the officers to be mustered out has already been prepared in the office of the Adjutant General but is subject to change and will not be published now.
That there needs to be a material reduction under the commissioned officers has been apparent since the mustering out of a hundred thousand men. The list has been prepared under the advice of General Miles and Secretary Alger.

"JEFFERSONIAN DEMOCRACY"
Chicago Platform Not Reaffirmed or Mentioned.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.
Syracuse, Sept. 29.—The official slate was announced by Senator Hill this morning as follows: For governor, Augustus Van Wyck; Lieutenant governor, Elliot Danforth; Secretary of State, George Baitom, of Niagara.
Syracuse, Sept. 29.—The democratic convention is coming to order. David B. Hill was cheered; Richard Croker was cheered and hissed.
Permanent Chairman Schaub said in his speech that the republicans were on the run and that democratic chances were bright. He attacked Colonel Roosevelt as a tax-dodger and a non-resident, and then took up State issues.
The committee on platform completed its work. The Chicago platform was not reaffirmed or mentioned. It pledges the state democracy to the "principles of democracy enunciated by Thomas Jefferson."
Later—Augustus Van Wyck has been nominated for governor.

Mr. Royster Resumes Control.

It is with pleasure we note the fact Mr. Geo. H. Royster, who, about the first of June, filed a deed of assignment for the benefit of his creditors, has again resumed business at his old stand. The business under the deed of trust has been most successfully managed by Mr. M. Royal Farrar, so that after four months the business has been after adjusted Mr. Royster again takes the reins. We congratulate him and bespeak for him a liberal share of patronage. Watch the Telegram for his advertisements.
