WAR FOLLOWS WILLIAM.

In Another Fight During Which He Carves a Negro.

Poor Will Lloyd has a hard time. Everywhere he goes some cruel fellow will fight him. Fights follow him up, but common sense and self pride are always absent. Where Will is there will war be also. Saturday night at the barrooms had closed, Will had nowhere else to beat, so he went out to a store on East Washington street. He was there only a short while before he found himself crawling out of a meat box over in one corner of the store. He came out with the meat knife, one side of which served as a saw. He was told that Zeb Donnell, a low, heavy-set negro, had swatted him twice in the face and knocked him across the house into the meat box. Will started at him and before anyone could interfere had fixed Zeb up so his own mother wouldn't have known him. His face was literally hashed and he was covered all over with blood. The sight frightened Will and he left for parts unknown.

He went to the jail this morning to see his wife, who is confined for some offence, and after talking to her a short while, started to leave, but was met at the gate by Policeman Scott, who read a description of his deed on Saturday night. Will was taken back and locked up.

He had a fight about a week ago at the same store and was bound over to court on bond of $50, which he gave. He says he will give bond for his appearance for this case also.

Another False Alarm.

As the town clock struck twelve Saturday night the fire alarm was striking 42. Box 42 is at the corner of South Elm and Buchanan streets, near Clegg's hotel, and when it strikes never fails to draw a crowd. Smoke, which smelled of burning rags, was seen coming from the Fields building, which is occupied by the Glenn Manufacturing Co., manufacturers of pants. The Consumers Brewing Co. and the Southern Varnish Co., and also located in the same building. No blaze could be seen but as it is always best to do in such cases, some one turned in the alarm.

The firemen responded immediately and were soon in the building hunting fire. None could be found and the boys returned somewhat disappointed but glad, for had there been fire in the second floor where is always a large lot of cloth stored, it would have been hard to check.

Store Broken Into.

A thief broke into John Barker's store on West Market street last night by breaking out a glass in a rear window. Mr. Barker is a rectifier and wholesale liquor dealer and in addition to this runs a retail shoe and grocery store. The thief broke into the liquor room and went all over the store.

Burned paper which he used for a light was found this morning on the floor of both rooms. Blood on the floor shows that the thief cut himself on the glass when he broke in.

Mr. Barker says he misses nothing from the store, but that much might have been taken without being missed. He thinks the visitor got little spoils, however. No clue has been obtained.

Two little negroes who slept last night on the upstairs porch steps were arrested and locked up by Policemen Pierce and Scott this morning.

Charlie Marsh Dead.

Mr. James Marsh, of Asheville, spent last night in the city and went to Fayetteville today to attend the burial of his son, Charley Marsh, who died Saturday night in Washington, D. C., of typhoid fever.

The remains were carried to Fayetteville last night over the Atlantic Coast Line, accompanied by James N. Marsh, of Baltimore, a brother of the deceased who is well known in Greensboro. Charley was also well known here, a popular and estimable young man. He has for several years been holding an important position with the Southern Express Company. Fayetteville is the old home of the Marsh family, hence the remains were carried there for interment.

A Good Business Firm.

We are pleased to note the growth of business and the many improvements being made by Cunningham Brothers. These young men started in the coal and wood business here about two years ago, and since that time they have been improving their business methods and their premises until they have well nigh reached perfection. During the summer they have added materially to their coal chute which now has a capacity of three hundred tons. They have had several nice photographs taken of the chute full of coal, with five large wagons standing being loaded. Several of these photos have been nicely framed and put up in public places. It is a catchy ad.

Messrs. Cunningham Brothers believe in the use of printer's ink and always have something attractive in their space in the Telegram which it might be to your advantage to watch.

NOTES FROM HIGH POINT.

The Local News From Our Neighbor Briefly Told.

TELEGRAM BUREAU.
HIGH POINT, N. C., Oct. 3, '98.

J. H. West, of Greensboro, has had the city billed for the state fair.

N. H. Slaughter, who has recently taken charge of Jarrell's hotel again is now having the house furnished with new furniture.

R. E. Coltrane, of Randolph, was in the city Saturday with a pumpkin which weighed seventy pounds. He says he has some more at home that will beat that one. He sold this one for thirty-five cents.

"Milt" Crawford wears such a hot tie on Sundays that he keeps a young thermometer in the centre of it to tell when it is getting too warm for him.

The revival that has been in progress at the Methodist church for the past week closed last night. There has not been many conversions during the meeting but we trust great good has been accomplished.

Walter L. Myers, of Greensboro, has accepted a position with the Snow Lumber Company.

A revenue officer assisted by the police of this place have seized over two hundred gallons of whiskey since Saturday afternoon within five miles of here. They say there is more about yet and we trust that they will succeed in getting the whiskey and the block-aders.

A dwelling, a barn and two other out houses owned by Green Kid two miles east of here were burned down last night. Mr. Kid and family were not at home and knew nothing of the fire. It is reported by the first people on the scene that all of the buildings were afire at the same time and that they were sure the buildings had been set on fire by the scent of kerosene that was exceedingly strong.

The usual prayer-meeting will be held in the Baptist church Wednesday night, which was announced a few days since, would not be on account of the meeting at the M. E. Church.

One T. M. Everett, of Greensboro, was in the city Saturday and seemed somewhat displeased at the treatment he received in Thomasville for riding his wheel in town without an alarm thereon. He states that the officer received a dollar, and the mayor seventy cents, and that they never charged him anything for the town, and that he thought it a shame that the town did not get anything out of the case. Thomasville is ahead of High Point along this line. We would think that an alarm would do more harm than good in Thomasville.

Mrs. Dr. Aiken, of Philadelphia, Mrs. H. Cleveland, and Mr. and Mrs. Doran Blair, of Greensboro, spent yesterday with relatives near Archdale.

C. W. Petty, of Greensboro, spent yesterday at his home in Archdale.

J. N. Crouch went down to Randleman this morning to attend the funeral of Commodore Bryles, whose remains were taken through here yesterday from Reidsville.

A negro walked into the store of H. Harris & Bro. Saturday night and, being in a hurry, picked up a pair of pants and started out. Henry Harris asked him to stop, but he did not have time, so Henry started for him yelling "ketch 'im!" "ketch 'im!" and soon was so on to his man that the latter dropped the pants. Of course Henry stopped yelling "ven 'ee see dem panz drop."

Sergt. Carl Johnson, of Concord, who has been visiting relatives in the city, returned home this morning. Carl made many friends while here.

Harry Nissen, of Winston, was in the city yesterday.

Chas. Kirkman, of the Twin City Furniture Company, of Winston, arrived last night to spend a few days at his parental home.

"An American warship has been dispatched to Tien Tsin, and Admiral Dewey has been ordered to send also the cruiser Baltimore from Manila. The trip will take seven days. Capt. SHAMEFUL OCCURRENCES.

Disturbance Created at a Registering Place in Wilmington.

Negro insolence came near causing a riot at the registering place of the First Precinct of the First ward, 603 North Fourth street, yesterday at 11:30 a. m. The negro Willis Stevens better known as "Drake," went up to be registered. Rev. J. W. Kramer challenged Stevens' right to register, giving as his reason that Stevens had been declared insane. Carter Peamon a colored barber, interfered with some insolent language, among other things that the white men would have their faces slapped before the campaign was over. Mr. Kramer replied to this indignantly. Messrs. S. H. Terry and Thomas Herring, two well known white men, were present and seeing a minister attacked, signified their willingness to defend him.

Mr. Terry had a closed pocket-knife in his hand behind his back. Peamon wrenched this away and as a crowd of 50 or 75 negroes had gathered by this time, it looked as if there would be trouble. One of the crowd defied the white men to go around the corner. The challenge was accepted but the negroes did not follow. Order was finally restored.

THIS IS STILL WORSE.

Another and still more shameful exhibition of negro effrontery came to light yesterday. On Wednesday, between 3 and 4 P. M., two young girls, daughter of a white gentleman who is known to many citizens, were on their way home from the school of the Sisters of Mercy. On Sixth street, near Red Cross, they were subjected to an insult so gross and so outrageously indecent that it cannot be described.

The perpetrators of the disgusting act were three colored boys. The father of the girls told the Star of this occurrence and that every word is true is warranted by his unquestionable good character and veracity. He says further that on account of just such occurrences, only never before half so bad, but he had to keep his children from school nearly the whole of last year.—Morning Star.

San Francisco, Oct. 3.—Advices from Japan state that Rev. Theodas F. Freeman, chaplain of the cruiser Baltimore, has committed suicide by jumping overboard from the steamer Zelandia, in Nagasaki harbor. He is thought to have become mentally depressed through failing health.

Masked Miners.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.
Washington, Ind., Oct. 3.—Masked miners, it is believed, have gone to the mines southeast of the city this morning, where more negroes are living, with the intention of driving them out for mistreating C. Howland, a white boss. Shots were heard in that direction early this morning. The negroes are armed and well protected.

Harrison Not Talking.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.
New York, Oct. 3.—Ex-president Harrison is in the city. He declined to express an opinion with reference to the events of the last few months. He says he will not participate in the republican campaign in New York on account of his engagements in the Venezuelan boundary case.
