Wrinkles Around the Eyes

Are usually caused by defective sight. Many women, and likewise men, look prematurely old from these wrinkles. The wrinkles in many cases can be removed by wearing correctly fitted glasses. To fit glasses correctly demands a thorough knowledge of refraction and the necessary instruments. We have both: hundreds of satisfied customers will say so.

NOTES FROM HIGH POINT.

The Local News From Our Neighbor Briefly Told.

TELEGRAM BUREAU,
HIGH POINT, N. C., Oct. 27, '98.

The young Ladies Democratic Club held their first regular meeting yesterday afternoon at Mrs. C. A. Hamners. The President, Miss Virginia Hamner, in the chair and Miss Annie Wheeler secretary pro tem. After adding several new names to the roll they drafted a constitution and by laws. The ladies are all delighted at the interest being shown by the members.

If you wish to see some very large and peculiar potatoes, stop at the Enterprise office. They have on exhibit there one that grew in an old shoe.

The southbound vestibule, No. 37, came in this morning about run down. She stopped here to raise her steam.

The wrecked freight at the depot may not be sold at auction as we stated two days ago. Some of the goods are at the Sechrest building and will doubtless be sold privately. Go and see them, you may get a bargain.

We have had some white-faced republicans in town for some time. Yesterday we had bears and umbrella men; today we have organ-grinders and monkeys. Gosh! what will strike town next.

Tomorrow night congressman W. W. Kitchin will speak in the Anchor warehouse. Don't fail to hear Mr. Kitchin. He is an able speaker. Come out and see for yourselves how he is compared with "Old Spence" Adams who is running for the same office.

WHITE MEN, LISTEN!

Your Wives and Children Are Calling for Protection!

Communicated.

On October 19th, we, the Democratic Young Ladies of High Point, formed a club, which we agreed to call "The Young Ladies' Democratic Club," our purpose being to do all we can to further the sphere and a daughter of the South. We hope to have all the democratic young ladies of the town to become members, and we even hoped, and still hope, to hear of other clubs being formed in the State.

We have met with opposition, as we expected. Some will not become members, saying, "Women have no business meddling in politics."

I am a true Southern woman and it is for this reason I have become a member of the Democratic Club. Until this year I felt very little interest in politics, and yet I am no believer in a woman becoming a politician. However, there are things within a woman's sphere she can do without overstepping the dignity of a true woman and a daughter of the south. And it is these things we propose to do with real zeal born in every southern heart.

We have no intention of going to the polls fighting or talking politics; nor do we expect to vote. We might form every lady in the state into a club and we could not vote, nor do we wish to. That is a man's place and to him today comes the cry from all over the Old North State to save her from dishonor.

How can any man with the status of "White Supremacy," do anything but the democratic ticket? He can't do it. Any one voting the fusion ticket when their wives and daughters are calling to them for help; all we have to say for such a one is: "God made him for a man, therefore let him pass." But if he votes that ticket, let him go with those he votes for—not with the fair daughters of the dear Sunny South.

To the men of North Carolina do we appeal for help. Just in sight of land is a ship, upon whose prow are the words, "White Supremacy." The waves are dashing high and the ship is tossing upon the mighty deep. The people upon the shore are watching anxiously the course of the mighty ship. When the signal of distress comes from over the raging deep, they listen, the signal is repeated again and again. Who will be the first to volunteer? A man cries out: "Come! save the ship! Our wives and children are on board."

Men of North Carolina, today you see the great ship of "White Supremacy" tempest-tossed upon great waves of Fusionism! Your wife and children are calling for protection! Stop and listen!

A member of the "Young Ladies' Democratic Club."

"THERE WILL BE NO PEACE

As Long as a Single County Is Ruled by Negroes."

KITCHIN'S TRUE DECLARATION.

The White Republicans Will Share the Responsibility Equally with the Wilmington Negroes.

Long before 7:30 o'clock last night the court house was packed by the largest and most intelligent audience that has greeted any speaker here since the campaign began. People eager for seats brought benches from the grand jury room and placed them inside the bar, and men eager to hear the young orator rushed over each other in their efforts to reach them. When all the seats had been taken the aisle was packed with standing men who were determined to hear the speech of our present and future congressman.

Shortly after 7:30 Congressman Kitchin appeared at the door, escorted by Mayor Zeb V. Taylor. No sooner was he seen by the crowd than a deafening cheer, in which every man in the audience seemed to be doing his best, broke forth and continued until the speaker was seated on the rostrum. Mayor Taylor paused for the mighty wave of applause to cease, but it continued to increase in violence till he stepped forward and held up his hands for silence. When quiet was restored the mayor, in a few choice words, introduced to the audience the already familiar Hon. W. W. Kitchin.

Mr. Kitchin arose amid another prolonged cheer and thanked the audience for the enthusiasm they had already shown. He began his speech by saying:

"Fellow citizens and ladies: I wish Judge Adams were here tonight. The fact that he is not here is not attributable to myself. If that distinguished republican who was my opponent two years ago were my opponent now, we would be having a joint canvass of this district. Mr. Settle was, in my opinion, the choice of the republican forces, but the nominating convention was controlled by republican leaders. The chairman of that convention was a white man; the secretary was a negro; there were twelve white and twelve negro delegates. Settle was placed in nomination by a white man and received a majority of the white votes. Adams was placed in nomination by a negro and received a majority of the negro vote. I challenged Judge Adams for a joint canvass. He refused and determined not to have it." The speaker read a number of letters which he had written Judge Adams and the one reply he had received.

"For twelve years Adams has given his support in electing negroes to office in Caswell county, and is giving it to elect the republican county ticket with negroes this year."

The speaker then took up his record in Congress. He told how he voted and repudiated Adams' statements that he voted for a cold-bug speaker of the House. He voted for Bailey, of Texas, the leader of the silver forces in the House. He voted against the Dingley tariff. He asked that the Fraud Fund be abolished.

The speaker said, "I have some enemies in this district who are charging that 'Kitchin brought on the war.' In McKinley's administration the Lord brings all the bad things and McKinley all the good. During Cleveland's administration everything bad was brought on by him—cyclones, floods and everything else. It has been charged that Cleveland brought on the Charleston earthquake."

Finishing his record and actions in Congress he announced that he would discuss State issues.

The speaker tried to make no sensational speech. He merely stated the facts as they stand so prominently in the eastern counties and requested that the audience should not interrupt him by their applause, as two speeches a day for several weeks had made it hard for him to speak at all. He made stirring allusions to the domination of negroes in the eastern part of the state and, in spite of his request, the audience frequently lost control of itself and applauded to the echo.

The speaker said: "Russell may proclaim and Pritchard may write to McKinley and his chain, but there will be no peace as long as a single county in North Carolina is under negro domination. The white republican of Guilford will share of the responsibility equally with the ignorant negro of Wilmington. The indications are that I will beat Adams twice as badly as I beat Tom Settle and that you will carry Guilford county by a good majority."

The close of the speech was affecting and touching. He urged all white men to stand together and throw off the yoke of negro domination in eastern North Carolina peaceably. The divorce incident was a grand climax for so noble and telling an effort by a man of unsurpassed ability and unimpeachable honor.

Every hearer was more than ever convinced of Kitchin's honesty and unflinching integrity and of his eminent fitness for the exalted position of our people's representative in congress.

RACE WAR ENDED.

Death List in Mississippi Numbers Fourteen Blacks and One White.

Forest, Miss., Oct. 26.—The bodies of three more negro rioters have been found in swamps north of Harpersville, which swells the list of killed to fifteen—fourteen negroes and one white. One of the negroes who was wounded during the riot and who escaped into swamp, went to Walnut Grove and surrendered for order to get medical treatment. The race war is now at an end. The blacks who were not killed or captured have escaped into Pearl River swamp, and the whites have abandoned the chase. Bill Burke, leader of the blacks, has not yet been apprehended. The negroes who were captured have all been taken to Meridian for safe keeping.

NO LIVES LOST.

But All Clocks in High Buildings Were Stopped.

Chicago, Oct. 27.—No lives were lost in yesterday's storm. The total damage will reach a hundred thousand dollars. The lake shore walks and promenades suffered the most.

As an indication of the fury of the storm the official clock in the hydrographic office in masonic temple, was stopped by the vibration of the building. Lieutenant Wilson says that all clocks in high buildings were stopped.

Star Feature of the Peace Jubilee.

Philadelphia, Oct. 27.—This morning the sky is clear, with bracing wind, and ideal weather for the military parade today, which will be the star feature of the Peace Jubilee in this city. All the Philadelphia sidewalks along the line are packed with people, and the stands, which have been erected for the occasion, are crowded with people. The parade started promptly at 10:30 a. m. President McKinley, General Miles, and others of military and civil prominence, occupied reviewing stands. To-night all the buildings in the city will be illuminated in honor of the Peace Jubilee.

Around the World on Wheels.

New York, Oct. 27.—Dr. and Mrs. McGrath, after having covered twenty-six thousand miles on bicycles and six thousand miles afoot, exclusive of boat journeys, arrived here today on the steamer Pennland. When they finish their ride to Chicago they will have girdled the earth on wheels.

Hotel Burned.

Albany, Oct. 27.—Fairview hotel, on East Greenbush street, owned by Dr. Vineburg, was destroyed by fire, together with a dwelling and several barns. The hotel was unoccupied.

Had them Removed.

Pekin, Oct. 27.—The foreign ministers have demanded the removal from Pekin of the Chinese soldiers who on last Sunday attacked a party of English engineers who were working on the Hankow and Pekin railway. Tsung Li Yumon has conceded to the demand and ordered the infliction of exemplary punishment upon the offenders.

Not a Diplomat.

Paris, Oct. 27.—General Kitchener left Paris today and will arrive at London this afternoon. When interviewed he said he was only a soldier and not a diplomat; and hoped that the diplomats would reach an amicable adjustment of the difficulty.

Troops for Manila.

San Francisco, Oct. 27.—The second and third battalions of the Twentieth Kansas regiment will embark on the transport Indiana today. The first regiment will be left behind. Tomorrow the Ohio will sail with the two remaining battalions.

Transport Sighted.

Boston, Oct. 27.—The transport Mississippi, from Porto Rico, having on board the Sixth regiment of Massachusetts volunteers, was sighted this morning. She will probably be retained at quarantine two hours.

NOTHING DEFINITE SETTLED

In Regard to Formation of French Cabinet.

On the Ministerial Lists—Court of Cessionary, to Decide on Revision of Dreyfus Case, Opened Today.

By Cable To THE TELEGRAM.

Paris, Oct. 27.—Nothing definite is yet settled in connection with the formation of the new French cabinet. The air, however, is full of ministerial lists in which the name of Ribot figures prominently. He is said to be favorable to the candidature of Elysee palace, and it is generally believed that President Faure will appeal to him to form a cabinet of republican concentration with Del Casse remaining in the foreign offices. Such a cabinet would not oppose a revision of the Dreyfus trial. Ribot has always been regarded as being favorable to a reopening of the case.

THE COURT OF CESSATION.

Paris, Oct. 27.—The court of cessation, which is to decide upon the question of re-opening the Dreyfus case, opened at noon. The hall was crowded, but there was no demonstration around the palace. The gates were closed, however, as a matter of precaution, and only holders of tickets were admitted. Spectators outside were kept moving. Labori, Zola's counsel, was a prominent spectator. Mme. Dreyfus was provided a seat, and the case was called promptly.

Reporter Bard opened the proceedings, by referring to the excitement and scandals the case had caused. He spoke of the efforts to obtain a revision based on the suspicion that the bordereaux was written by Esterhazy, and pointed out that there were suspicious facts which justified a revision.

Mme. Dreyfus claimed that her husband did not write the bordereaux, but the court would have to examine into the facts. She said that Col. Henry's forgery of a confession was evidence which left the forger open to suspicion and formed ground, in fact, for a revision.

A Political Scrap.

John Sumner, a white painter, and three negroes got into a political discussion in South Greensboro this morning, and, of course, had to fight to settle it. John must have been a democrat, for it is said the way he carved up those three negroes was a caution. He used a knife that cut as bad as John Wilson's arguments cut Bradshaw. When the fight was over the boys thought of the police and the whole push left town.

Receiver Appointed.

New York, Oct. 27.—The Wool Warehouse Company, was today placed in the hands of a receiver by the Supreme Court. This action has been expected since the closing of the Wool Exchange and the failure of the Tradesmen's Bank.

Negotiations Strained.

Paris, Oct. 27.—Gaulois says that Spain's envoys have gone as far as honor will permit, and that peace negotiations are strained to the breaking point.

Prentiss Webster Dead.

Lowell, Oct. 27.—Prentiss Webster, a nephew of General Butler, died last night.

Not Paid Yet.

One of the very lasting memories of the summer outing of Russell's Braves, the Third North Carolina Regiment, colored, at Fort Macon, last summer, is that the bills for Russell's excursionists, most of them, still remain unpaid.

The merchants of Beaufort, Morehead and New Berne, have on their books it is estimated, at least five thousand dollars, which the government owes them for supplies furnished these colored paraders, who were as unarmorial as they were useless. The merchants who furnished these supplies made very small profits on their goods in the first place, and this delay in payment will make them losers by the transaction.

There is no good reason why these accounts should not be settled and at once.—Newbern Journal.

WILL NOT SPEAK SATURDAY.

The Governor's Appointment at Wilmington Cancelled

Governor Russell will not speak in Wilmington Saturday. He decided this yesterday.

Immediately after the announcement of his appointment to speak there, along with Butler, Pritchard and Dockery, he was advised that to do so would cause trouble. His friends wrote letters begging that the engagement be cancelled.

The citizens of Wilmington, also, wished to preserve peace, if possible, held a meeting and sent a committee to Raleigh to lay the facts before the Governor and ask him not to go there to speak. This meeting was one of the largest and most representative ever held in Wilmington. The committee it sent consisted of Messrs. James Sprunt, E. K. Bryant, James H. Chadbourn, Sr., and Dr. Peyton H. Hoge.

The committee arrived here yesterday afternoon and called on the Governor. After the conference His Excellency telegraphed to parties in Wilmington that he would not be able to fill the engagement.—News and Observer.

ANOTHER TOBACCO COMPANY.

International Incorporated as an Ally to the American Tobacco Co.

New York, Oct. 26.—The International Tobacco Company of New York was incorporated in Albany today with a capital of $150,000, to deal in leaf tobacco and manufacture and deal in smoking tobacco and merchandise pertaining to the tobacco business. It was reported in Wall street that the International Company would be an ally to the American Tobacco Co. It has been understood that that company proposed to organize a new company, presumably to handle its plug tobacco business.

Little further developed in Wall street today regarding the new Union Tobacco Company, which was incorporated yesterday. It has been understood that this company would be a competitor of the American Tobacco Company in all branches of the tobacco industry.

Latham—Deacon.

Mrs. T. J. Jewett, of Greensboro, N. C., accompanied by her sister, Miss Latham, left yesterday afternoon to attend the marriage of their brother, Mr. Charles S. Latham, which will take place in Stafford county today at 5:30 p. m. He will take for his bride Miss Maggie E. Deacon of that county. Owing to the recent death of Mr. Latham's father it will be a very quiet affair.

Mr. Latham is well known and quite popular in this city where he has resided for many years. They will make their future home in this city.—Manchester (Va.) Correspondence Richmond Times.

Not Assassinated.

London, Oct. 27.—A rumor was current this morning that President Faure of France, had been assassinated. The report was immediately cabled all over the world as a rumor, but in a few hours the report was definitely denied. The Paris advices created a panic at first.

Spain Accepts Negative View.

Paris, Oct. 27.—The Spanish peace commissioners have accepted the negative view of the United States commissioners toward the proposed assumption by the United States of the Cuban debt.
