WASHINGTON GOSSIP.

Movement of Troops to the Southern Winter Camps.

Special to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 8.—At the War Department it was stated yesterday that the departure of General Lee for Savannah would be followed by a rapid movement of the troops from the North for the winter camps in the South. Secretary Alger did not go home to vote in the election in his State, and was seen yesterday at the War Department.

He stated that it would only be a short time before Camp Meade is entirely abandoned. Tomorrow the Connecticut troops will start for the Camp at Summerville, S. C., and on Friday the 201st New York regiment will be sent to the winter camp at Spartanburg, S. C. Some of the Pennsylvania troops, according to the Secretary will be sent to the camp at Summerville, while others will be sent to Athens, Georgia. Troops will begin to move from Lexington, Ky., and from Knoxville, within a few days. It was reported at the War Department yesterday that the Second West Virginia regiment is prepared to move South, and will leave Harrisburg, Pa., Sunday afternoon for Greenville, S. C.

Secretary Alger said that the work of mustering out the Third Virginia regiment would be followed within a few days by the mustering out of the Second Virginia. Quite a number of the Third Virginia passed through Washington city yesterday.

The question of a National Department of Health is being discussed by the Southern Press, and is attracting much attention among Southern people coming to Washington. It is thought that a bill will be prepared and presented to Congress for the establishment of such a Board of Health. Physicians from the states of N. Carolina, S. Carolina, Mississippi, Florida, as a rule endorse the suggestion. At the Marine hospital service in this city, which now, to some extent takes the place of a national board of health, while the surgeons and assistant surgeons are not fully prepared to endorse the suggestion, yet they believe that it is one worthy of consideration by the press, especially in the south. In the absence of the national board they think it would prove advantageous for the southern states to have each a board of health. At present many of the states do not have a board that is an independent board of health not connected with any other department of the state government. The officials seem to favor the Florida plan, and think it would be well for the physicians of other southern states to study the system in vogue in that state.

The interest manifested yesterday in the result of the balloting in the different states was very great. In the executive departments but little business was done, and everywhere that men met the political situation was the sole topic of discussion. Very few clerks, or officials, from the war, navy and state departments went home to vote. With the exception of Assistant Secretary of War Meikeljohn, who votes in Nebraska, not a single official from either of these three great departments of the government went home to vote. It is said that Secretary Hay does not claim a residence in any state, but claims his home in the District of Columbia. Secretary Alger was prevented from going to Michigan on the account of pressure of business—it is whispered that the true reason Alger did not go home to vote was because he is not over-anxious for the success of Pingreeism in his state. Secretary Long, of the navy department did not deem it worth while to go home, as Massachusetts in any event was sure to give an overwhelming republican majority for the State ticket and the congressional district in which the Secretary votes is also heavily republican.

Col. Harries of the District of Columbia National Guard, and a volunteer in the Spanish war, who spent several weeks at Asheville, N. C., on account of his health, is rapidly improving, and his doctor thinks he will be all right in a short time. Among North Carolina people in Washington yesterday were J. H. Southgate; T. J. Ogburn, Summerville, and M. H. Pride, Mt. Holly.

Greensboro Juniors vs Reidsville.

The Greensboro Junior Foot-ball team left at noon today for Reidsville, to play the team there this afternoon. The Juniors here have some good material, and if well practiced would do some good playing, but they have a very unfair show today, as two of their men have never been in the line-up of this team. However, we expect to hear that they won over Reidsville today.

OLD NORTH STATE FOREVER.

The News Makes Everybody Feel Comfortable.

GUILFORD COUNTY'S GREAT GAIN

"Carolina, Carolina, Heaven's Blessings Attend Her"—The Returns Indicate the Truth of It.

As foreshadowed in the Telegram Extra this morning, the grand old state of North Carolina stands once more in the white man's column. The indications are that the judicial ticket is a winner to the tune of twenty to thirty thousand majority. Great gains were made every where heard from, and this fact warrants the belief that the majority is something to be proud of. Definite news today comes in slow—waiting for official returns.

The legislature is safely democratic in both branches by a good working majority, if indeed, the majority is not overwhelming.

Kitchin is elected to congress by about two thousand, while Brooks for solicitor carries the district by possibly two thousand five hundred. This is all good news and highly satisfactory to all lovers of good government.

While many counties in the state have simply outdone themselves, Old Guilford asks you to take one good, square look at her.

John Wilson is elected to the Senate by 1111 majority, Kennett and Bunch to the House by a few votes less, while the lowest men on the ticket are above 800, and that where there was tremendous efforts made to defeat them. These were the candidates for clerk and sheriff.

For the office of sheriff J. Henry Gilmer made a gain of about 1,500 votes over the democratic vote of two years ago.

A dispatch from Wilmington today says Davis is elected to the senate from New Hanover by 1,000 majority.

A dispatch to Judge J. G. Bynum from Morganton says: The returns show Burke county to be democratic by one hundred majority.

Hon. Theo. F. Kluttz will represent the Seventh district in Congress, being elected by considerably more than three thousand majority. Rowan county alone gives him in the neighborhood of 1,400.

A Novel Mouse Nest.

Mr. R. G. Burgess brought to the Telegram office yesterday the most peculiar mouse nest it has ever been our lot to see. The nest was made of a sweet potato, nicely hollowed out by the sharp teeth of a mother mouse and was neatly lined with strings and straw. The potato was about three and one half inches in diameter and what was left of it was perfectly sound. In the nest were nine tiny mice who had not yet learned to crawl and they were a pretty but far from lovable crowd.

The nest was found in Mr. Burgess' pantry by a colored servant who, being a female, raised the unearthly yell that is inevitable when a woman and mouse discover each other in the same house.

Mr. Burgess offered us the nest, mice and all as a present but the Telegram doesn't own a cat.

The Turks Appeal.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.
Constantinople, Nov. 9.—England, France and Italy have accepted Russia's proposal to appoint Prince George, of Greece, high commissioner of the powers for the Island of Crete. The Turkish government has appealed and Germany and Austria are against the proposal, but the appeal has been ineffectual.

Death of Sarah Reed.

Emory College, Oxford, Nov. 8.—The home of Professor and Mrs. M. T. Reed is saddened by the death of their little five year old daughter, Sarah. The burial took place yesterday afternoon at Oxford.

Train Hand Badly Hurt.

Lyons, Nov. 8.—Mr. Ed. McDaniel, a flagman on the Georgia and Alabama road, was tripped up at Alamo yesterday by the air brake catching in his overalls and throwing him across the track. One car passed over his ankle, crushing it badly. It may be necessary to amputate his leg.

RENDERED THANKS.

Pretty and Good Natured Speeches at the Court House.

About noon today the court house was filled with ardent and enthusiastic people to hear the candidates, both the successful ones and the defeated ones, thank the people for "what they had done for them."

The first in order was Joel Henry Gilmer, who briefly thanked the people for the splendid vote given him for the office of sheriff. His opponent Sheriff Hoskins, was absent. The came Mr. Nelson, for clerk. His opponent, Clerk Ragan, was absent. Then Mr. G. H. McKinney thanked the people and his opponent, Mr. Hodgins, was absent. (We do not mean to say these gentlemen were absent intentionally. We just note the fact that they were not there.)

Register of Deeds Kirkman made a neat speech thanking his friends for their suffrage, and was followed by his defeated opponent, Mr. Stratford, who spoke in graceful manner of the good feeling he had for all concerned.

Messrs. Wilson, Kennett and Bunch made short speeches and were followed by Messrs. Douglas and Forbis (Mr. Bradshaw was absent). Mr. Douglas' speech was full of good humor and wit and was much enjoyed.

But the crowning feature of the occasion was when Capt. Forbis thanked the people for their support and closed by saying: "What are we to do? The best thing I can see is to get in the middle of the road and go home," meaning back to the democratic party. This was received with thunderous applause. As Capt. Forbis left the stand Mr. Wilson called: "Capt. Forbis, let me welcome you home," and the two men clasped hands. Mr. Wilson then made a short, but eloquent speech of thanks.

A. L. Brooks was loudly called for, and not being present, Mayor Taylor was called and responded in his usual happy vein. As he closed Mr. Brooks the successful candidate for solicitor entered the room and was tendered an ovation. He spoke as you all know he can speak, for a few minutes and was cheered to the echo. The meeting lasted about an hour and was a veritable love feast.

However, before Mayor Taylor's speech Chairman A. M. Scales was called, and the audience to a man cheered him as an army would the gallant hero of a hard battle. By the way, Mr. Scales is the hero of this fight and the people recognize it. He came forward and spoke of the victory, reading from the returns that the whole ticket is elected, the legislative by 1100 majority and the lowest man on the county ticket by over 800.

Academy Tomorrow Night.

The sale of reserved seats for Leonzo Bros Big New York company, commenced this morning at Gardner's drugstore. Thus far many tickets have been sold, and the indications point to a packed house. This attraction will commence a three nights engagement at the Academy of Music tomorrow, Thursday night, opening in the great comedy success, "Brother against Brother." Yesterday's Danville Register speaks in the highest terms of the company, where they are playing the first half of the week. Remember the prices are 15, 25 and 35c. Ladies will be admitted free to the opening performance if accompanied by a person holding a paid 35c ticket, which positively must be purchased before 7 p. m. of that date.

The Chrysanthemum Show.

While you are feasting your eyes upon the loveliest collection of flowers you will look upon this fall, you can also enjoy a feast of good things to eat, for the ladies have provided bountifully such things as appeal to the appetite of man. Just see what you can get for such reasonable prices as will astonish you: Turkey, chicken salad, oysters—fried or stewed—ham, baked chicken, cranberry sauce, celery, ices and cake in great variety, with other things too numerous to mention.

Business men will find Hagan's Auditorium a most convenient place to drop into for dinner, supper or luncheon on Thursday and Friday.

Wov.

In her heart love and duty strove for mastery, and duty won.
"No man shall wed me," she exclaimed, with suffused eyes and quivering lips, "who does not promise me that if he is ever President of the United States he will use his influence to have battle-ships christened with water!"
Such was the ardor of his passion, that Algeron hesitated not a moment
"I promise," he cried, and fell upon his knees.—Detroit Journal.

Thomas Post, president of the Post Glass Manufacturing Company, at Muncie, Ind., was killed yesterday by being struck with a locomotive.

BOTH SIDES CLAIM HOUSE.

Republicans Sustain Losses in New York.

NOT A NATIONAL LANDSLIDE.

Roosevelt is Most Probably Elected Governor of New York—Effects of The Quay Scandal.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

New York, Nov. 9.—The last returns indicate that Roosevelt carries the state by sixteen thousand.

Washington, Nov. 9.—In the strength displayed by the democrats throughout the nation, from New York to the West, resulting in overcoming the republican majority of the lower house, there was a tearing down of the republican pluralities.

Republican strongholds in the western states, especially, showed democratic gains in districts through which the president passed on his speech-making tour to Omaha.

In Nebraska the fusion governor is elected and three democratic and republican congressmen. In the south-east, where the president retained gold democrats in office democratic delegates are elected to congress. New Mexico, Arizona and Ohio elected their usual quota, sixteen republicans and five democratic congressmen.

In Pennsylvania, where the Quay scandals were expected to overthrow the republican machine, the state went overwhelmingly republican, electing twenty-one republican and eight democratic congressmen.

NEXT HOUSE REPUBLICAN.

New York, Nov. 9.—The Evening Sun says the next House will be safely republican, though the present majority of fifty-five over all will be greatly reduced. The republicans have lost in New York and Illinois, but have gained chiefly in Nebraska, Kansas and California. The democrats claim the House by a small majority.

New York, Nov. 9.—Richard Croker says he has not given up hope yet of Van Wyck's election, but that he still pins his faith to later returns. Chauncey Depew and General Howard Woodford are spoken of as leading senatorial candidates.

CHAIRMAN'S ESTIMATES.

Washington, Nov. 9.—Babcock, of the republican congressional committee says his estimates to noon today, indicate at the very least a majority of twenty-five or thirty in congress. Secretary Kerr, of the democratic congressional committee, says his latest figures indicate thirteen majority in congress, over all.

MASSACHUSETTS.

Boston, Nov. 9.—Walcott's plurality is eighty thousand.

RHODE ISLAND.

Providence, Nov. 9.—Republican congressmen are elected.

CONNECTICUT.

New Haven, Nov. 9.—State officers, legislature and congressmen are republican.

OHIO.

Columbus, Nov. 9.—Republican plurality sixty thousand, more than double Bushnell. As republicans have historically lost in "off years," McKinley is the first president to get the endorsement of the state in "off year." The republicans have returned as many congressmen as in a presidential year.

PENNSYLVANIA.

Philadelphia, Nov.—Davenport will probably go to congress to succeed the republican from the Twelfth district. The other districts are unchanged.

DELAWARE.

Wilmington, Nov. 9.—The Delaware legislature is republican and will elect a senator to succeed Senator Gray.

NEVADA.

Carson, Nov. 9.—Republican governor elected by small majority.

COLORADO.

Denver, Nov. 9.—Democratic, populist and republican fusion ticket carry the state by sixty thousand, electing democratic and silver republican congressmen. The legislature is anti-republican.

IDAHO.

Boise, Nov. 9.—Women voted for the first time. Party lines were ignored and the result is doubtful.

CALIFORNIA.

San Francisco, Nov. 9.—Republicans have everything, and will elect a republican to succeed Senator White. They get six out of seven congressmen.

WASHINGTON.

Seattle, Nov. 9.—The republicans made heavy gains.

GRAND DEMOCRATIC RALLY

Tonight At the Academy of Music.

Beautiful Jim Key, the celebrated democratic educated horse, whose reputation in the north as an unchangeable democrat is well known and who has made such a sensation here that even Mayor Taylor, with many of our most prominent men, urge the people in a signed testimonial to go and see this marvellous performance of Beautiful Jim Key, who predicted at Raleigh, Winston and here the great victory achieved yesterday, expects to entertain a crowded house of good democrats who want to hear something about their newly-elected officials and who want to give vent to their enthusiasm by cheering for a democratic horse and the success of the great landslide. So be sure and be on hand at eight o'clock, if you want to have a good time and at the same time see the most wonderful and astonishing performance you ever witnessed in your life.

Admission 25 cents.

Wesley Returns to Knoxville.

Lieut. Dave Gilmer, and private Wesley Smith, of the third regiment, returned to Knoxville this morning, after spending ten day furloughs at home. Dave travelled in a sleeper, but Wesley took special pains not to get in one of those "bed cars" as he called them. Wesley was very much surprised at the result of the election. "Contacto the business," he said, "ordin' to dat 'unification' de democrats gwine take every thing. And if I'd a knowed dat de democrats gwine do dat, I would not have come home."
