IN BLOOMING BEAUTY.

The Chrysanthemum Show at Hagan's Auditorium.

A Telegram man made a hurried visit today to the splendid flower show at Hagan's auditorium gotten up by the ladies of West Market street church. All who attended the magnificent display at the McAdoo building last year will want to see this one. The good ladies have more room than they had last year and all can have a better opportunity to view the many and charming varieties of chrysanthemums and other flowers there dis-

We believe no one will complain if we fail to mention every creditable exhibit there made and mention especially the charming display made by Mr. J Van Lindley. We believe, truly, that These are good goods but we have never seen finer, richer blooms of various kinds of choice flowers than he has shown from his floral department at Pomona.

We should feel wretchedly ungrateful if we failed to mention the department arranged by the ladies for feeding the hungry. We were ushered into a spacions dining room, dotted with numerous tables, with clean, white linen, comfortable chairs and which is a charming feature) beautiful young ladies as waiters. We were so charmed that really we had almost finished dinner before we noticed the variety and quality of food It was a dinner fit for anybody and at the low price of 25 cents-30 cents with coffee. Ovsters are served in any style. Don't fail to pay particular attention to the eating works when you call

Going to the dining room you pass through, around and among (you pass anyway) the beautiful and charming picture of flowers of all sizes, color and variety. As you come from the dining room the same picture greets you and as you leave the building you want to return and there abide. It's

Muster Out Today and Tomorrow.

Surgeon J. K. Stockard and Assistant Surgeons Brooks and Bernard, of the Second regiment, are here today and will muster out Capt. Gray's company. The boys from other places, who joined this company, all came in this morning and seem glad at the prospect of being free from their Uncle Sam. This is not caused by hardship the boys of Capt. Gray's company have undergone, for they considered themselves the best managed company in the regiment, but a dislike for army life at its best.

THE WILMINGTON TROUBLE.

The Negro Editor's Office Demolished This Morning,

A LITTLE SHOOTING OCCURRED

Three White Men Wounded an Four Negroes Killed Is the Extent of Damage Reported.

Special to the Telegram.

There is considerable excitement and great anxiety in Greensboro today over the situation in Wilmington. The negro editor, Manly, who, several weeks ago, wrote the most slanderous editorial ever published, concerning white women of North Carolina, was vesterday notified that he must leave the city in twenty-four hours. Events taking place to-day show that he heeded not the warning. The first news received in Greensboro to-day was a telegram from Mr. S. H. Fishblate, exmayor of Wilmington, to Mr. R. I. Katz, of this city, which reads as fol-

"Five hundred armed men have gone to the office of the Record, and destroyed the building and its contents. The town is all in arms and the whites are fully protected. Business has enfear no danger."

ANOTHER REPORT.

Wilmington, Nov. 10-The negroes not having complied with the demands of the business men by 7:30 o'clock this morning, the "time fixed," six hundred white men assembled on Market and Fifth streets at 8:30 and marched to the office of the Daily Record, the negro newspaper, destroying the building and all the material.

The building took fire, but some assert that this was accidental. The leaders sent for the fire department and the flames were confined to the Record building. On the south and church, and on the north twelve feet away a building occupied by negroes.

The excitement is intense and it is feared the negroes will attempt to retaliate tonight. The streets are full of armed white men, and at least a thousand will be on guard tonight. The column that moved on the Record office was composed of the best citizens of the city including clergymen.

Metropolitan Concert Company, of New York city, and wife were here today making arrangements for their company to give a concert here next opera house. They have with them Miss Julie Valette, Prima donna soprano, Miss Jeanie Benson, the noted violinist, Mr. Carl Rieck, the renowned tenor and Arthur Freeman, pianist. The leading papers of this country and Germany, speak of this company as consisting of the finest singers on the concert stage today.

The windows of Sapp's racket store which are always two of the most attractive in the city, are now filled with 400 odd pieces of the best grade of chinaware which is offered at fifty cents on the dollar. Go and see them and be benefitted thereby.

Rev. H. W. Jones, of Greensboro, preached an able sermon here last night in the Episcopal church to a fair sized congregation.

There being some other attraction in tirely suspended. We are well and town last night, and the people not quite through with politics, the attendance at the opening of Woody Baos, singing school was not so large but several new members were added to the class. Enough has joined however to justify them to continue the school. From the testimonials from those who have attended their schools at other places and the praise from newspapers, they deserve a large class here and they will get it. They will teach every nigqt in the lecture room of the M. E. church.

Mr. F. N. Tate, the newly appointed agent of the Southern agent at Charlotte, left this morning to enter upon twenty feet distant was a large negro | his duties there. His family will remain here for the present, we are glad to state, therefore, we will get to see "Fred" right often.

> Herbert C. Fields, the former cashier in the Southern depot here, has been endorsed by all of the business men in the city to succeed Mr. Tate as agent. He has been appointed acting agent, and we trust will soon be appointed permanent agent, for he is an obliging and efficient young man and well deserves the promotion.

The steel cells for the new guard house arrived and will be put in as early as possible.

The Brokaw telephone was put in yesterday and works all right. This is the longest line connection with High Point, it being nine miles in length.

A man beat a friend out of a Telegram here last night and immediately begun growling about it having no dews to amount to anything about the election. He was not aware of the fact that the Telegram issued an extra early yesterday morning containing the election news. Don't forget the supper at Jarrell's Hotel tomorrow night between 9 and 12. Tickets for both ladies and gentlemen 50c.

THEY GET BETTER.

The Election Returns From Over the State.

From most of the counties in the state the election returns are all in and the democratic majority for the judicial ticket is placed at 25,000. All democratic candidates for congress are elected except in the second and eighth districts.

The next Senate will be composed of about forty democratic members, and the house will have upwards of ninety. R. B. Glenn is elected from Forsyth, Rowan and Davidson. J. C. Black, from Moore and Randolph by a small majority, possibly less than one hundred.

Advices received today indicate the majority of Kitchin for congress, and Brooks for solicitor will not be materially changed by the official count They will range about two thousand with Brooks a little in the lead.

The news still sounds good and the people will rejoice for many a day yet at the rescue of North Carolina, from incompetency and corruption.

Help For Wilmington.

A special train was sent down from Fayetteville today carrying over a hundred armed men to help suppress the riot in Wilmington. It is to be hoped they were not needed, but gratifying to know they are on hand in case of emergency. The trouble in Wilmington today caused rumors to the effect that the negroes would undertake to burn Greensboro. We are frank to say we do not believe a word of is. The feeling between the races here is of the best. There is no evidence of bad feeling anywhere in our borders, and we believe there is no danger.
