Wrinkles Around the Eyes

Are usually caused by defective sight. Many women, and likewise men, look prematurely old from these wrinkles. The wrinkles in many cases can be removed by wearing correctly fitted glasses. To fit glasses correctly demands a thorough knowledge of refraction and the necessary instruments. We have both; hundreds of satisfied customers will say so.

ROBBERED OF HIS CLOTHES.

Drunk Man Found By a Policeman Last Night.

Policeman Pearce last night found a white man without hat, coat or shoes on, lying on the ground near the Southern freight depot. The fellow was dead drunk and the officer could not arouse him to learn his name or where he was from. He was very cold and the officer fearing that the man would die from exposure, began taking up a collection from the small crowd which had gathered around him, to pay for the unfortunate's lodging. When the collection had been taken a little was lacking and the officer generously paid it.

The half dressed drunk man was unfit to be taken to a white boarding house so Mr. Pearce carried him to a negro restaurant and tucked him in bed. (The officer did not go back to bear the man express himself when he waked up this morning.)

The poor fellow had undoubtedly become so degraded that he had sold his clothes for money to buy liquor. We do not believe that Greensboro has a bar-keeper who is so anxious to sell it that he would stoop so low as to take a poor man's clothes as pay.

IN A DILEMMA.

But the Merchant Took Hold of Both Horns.

One of Greensboro's hustling and most prominent grocery men found himself confronted by a most perplexing condition the other night. He has two or three clerks, and on the night in question one of them secured leave of absence to go "possum hunting." This particular clerk happened to have the keys to the store in his pocket and carried them off with him.

After closing the day's work and preparing to go home, the proprietor found, to his dismay, that he had no keys to lock up with. He scratched his head for a solution of the problem, and decided to get a new lock and put on the door. He sallied forth to put this idea into execution, and found the hardware stores all closed. Finally, tired and disgusted, he hired a man to stay in the store all night, thus seizing the dilemma by both horns.

HE "RODE" WHITE.

A Circumstance Which Greatly Amused a Colored Man.

Greensboro has a colored citizen who is almost white. He looks and behaves like a white man. He is possessed of some means, and on a recent visit to Columbia, S. C., to look after some property, he entered the colored folks' car when leaving. The conductor came through, looked at him a moment and said: "Look here this car is for negroes; you go into the white people's car where you belong." Aaron Mendishall, for he it was, was greatly tickled, but he picked up his grip, and on the command of the conductor, rode with the white people. It is a good joke on the conductor, and no one appreciates more, as a joke, than does Aaron.

Considering the Bids.

At the special meeting of the board of Aldermen last night, bids were opened concerning the lighting of the city from the Greensboro Gas and Electric Light Company, and a company from Baltimore, represented by Mr. E. W. Phillips.

The Baltimore firm's proposition carried with it a provision for putting in street cars, while the home company deals only with the lighting question. A committee composed of aldermen Ellington, Sergeant and Merrimon, were appointed to consider the bids, and report to a meeting next Monday night.

Marriage in Charlotte.

Mr. T. T. Smith, Jr. left yesterday for Charlotte where he will be married this evening to Miss Bessie Ramseur, of that city. The marriage will be a quiet home affair and will take place at 7:30 o'clock, Rev. J. W. Stagg officiating. Miss Ramseur is a very popular young lady and has a large circle of friends in Charlotte.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith will arrive in Greensboro on the vestibule tonight. From here they will go to Washington on a bridal trip.

THE VERY LATEST NEWS.

Spain Has Nothing to Do But Submit to The Inevitable.

GERMAN INTERVENTION A MYTH

And the Dons Should Set About Preparing Themselves for Future Struggles, Says the Journal.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.
Paris, Nov. 16—The Journal, referring to the peace negotiations says: "We think the extravagant exactions of the United States make a discussion almost impossible between that country and Spain and nothing but submission on Spain's part seems possible, as the rumored intervention of Germany is a myth. Spain should reconcile herself about preparing for her future struggles."

NOT THE LAST MEETING.

Madrid, Nov. 16—The minister of foreign affairs received a communication from Paris today in regard to the peace conference, the contents of which are not made public; but it is not thought in government circles that today's meeting of the joint commission will be the last, though in any case the government will insist upon defending Spain's rights in the Philippines.

THE SPANISH REPLY.

Paris, Nov. 16 | The Spanish commissioners this afternoon presented along reply to our peace demand, which was not read. The reply, however was outlined by Spanish authorities and is a statement of the reasons why Spain could not afford to give up the Philippines.

The joint meeting today began at 2:15 and ended at 3 o'clock. At that time the commission adjourned until Saturday.

A True Story.

People know what they want. Yesterday a gentleman called in a store for an article of a certain brand. The merchant said he had bought it but it was not yet in, and showed him other brands—trying his utmost to sell his customer, but no go, and he was about leaving when a box of Home Plate tobacco was delivered at the door. There it is now said the merchant. All right said the gentleman, that's just what I want—give me a piece—here is your money, and he went on his way rejoicing.

Moral.—You better keep Home Plate tobacco in your store, if you desire to sell those who want the best. In another column see the names of those who keep it on sale.

Another Business House.

The Telegram welcomes to Greensboro Mr. H. R. Laws, who has followed the tide and come to the "City of Flowers" to engage in business. Mr. Laws comes from Winston and will open a splendid line of crockery and glassware in the store formerly occupied by Fordham & Ball, on East Market street. He is experienced in the business and has used his experience in selecting his stock, which has already arrived and will be arranged as soon as possible.

Mr. Laws is now at the Allen. Again we welcome him to Greensboro and wish him success.

Marriage This Evening.

A quiet home wedding will be solemnized this evening at 8:30 o'clock at the residence of Mr. J. P. Scott on Spring Garden street, when his daughter, Miss Ida Scott will be united in marriage to Mr. John B. Thomas, of this city. The ceremony will be performed by Rev. L. Johnson, pastor of West Washington street Baptist church. It will be strictly a home wedding, only a few of the friends of the parties being invited. Happiness, prosperity and a long life for them is the wish of the Telegram.

The Concert Last Night.

The Metropolitan Concert Company played and sang to a medium sized audience at the Academy of Music last night. The company is composed of Mr. Arthur Freeman, pianist, Miss Jeanie Benson, violinist, Mr. Carl Rieck, tenor, and Miss Julie Vallette, soprano. The music was for the most part high class and local critics speak of it in high terms, the most finished artist being, possibly, Miss Benson, the violinist.

The Whole Thing.

A man named Smith robbed railway agent Smith, of Hunter's Creek, Mich., of some express packages, was arrested by a constable named Smith, was tried before Judge Smith, and sentenced, and was taken to the penitentiary by deputy sheriff Smith. The Smiths seem to be pretty near the whole thing in that neck 'o' woods.—Denver Post.

NOTES FROM HIGH POINT.

The Local News From Our Neighbor Briefly Told.

TELEGRAM BUREAU.
HIGH POINT, N. C. Nov. 16
The Metropolitan Concert Company have arrived and will give their concert tonight after the services at the Presbyterian church are over.

The concert at the M. E. church last night by the Woody Bros. Company was just what we said it would be—worth several times the price of admission. The singing by the class was good. It would hardly seem possible that in five lessons one could learn what his class has learned. In fact, the class is so well pleased that they are now trying to organize another class for a second term. The first part of the entertainment consisted of songs by the class, after which part of the audience left and missed what the remaining part of the audience said was the finest singing they have ever heard. We agree with them. It was indeed charming.

The first-class car of the Ashboro train has been taken off to haul troops to southern camps. So Capt. Rankin is running a "robert tail" train again.

O. A. Kirkman, superintendent of the Mattress and Bed Springs Company, who has recently bought the old academy property, has had the southern wing of the building moved to the lower part of the lot and will soon build to it and go to making mattresses therein. A porch is being constructed around the main part of the building, which will be used as a dwelling. The entire lot is being fenced in.

The next attraction at the opera house will be Joadwine and Burke's Grand Concert and Comedy Co., tomorrow night at the opera house at 8:30 o'clock, who advertise a carefully selected company of artists, composed of talented ladies and clever comedians in a repertoire of high class vocal and instrumental music, quartettes, trios, duets, interspersed with refined specialties. They have with them Mr. Louis Joadwine, who is advertised as the eminent violin virtuoso, assisted by Miss Leon Ella Dewitt, phenomenal contralto, in a new and superb travesty "A Slight Misunderstanding." Admission 15 and 25c. Reserved seat 35c.

It is still raining but don't forget the concert tonight at the opera house.

The Excursion.

An excursion from Bennettsville, S. C., arrived at 1:15 today with about three hundred passengers on board. To every one we say welcome, but it is bad that it should rain on excursion day. However, it is hoped that the excursionists will not see the mud, at least not get in it, and that they will spend a pleasant afternoon in the City of Flowers. The excursion leaves at 8 o'clock.

The Size of It.

Hon. (?) D. J. Lewis, would be solicitor of this district, who turned traitor to his color and party, but who got snowed under by sure enough white folks says, "It's h—ll." Well, Davie, old boy, that's just about the size of it, and it's exactly what you deserve. All white folks who are white folks rejoice at your calamity. Such be the fate of all traitors and renegades—Lumberton Robesonian.

Going to Conference.

Rev. W. C. Wilson, of Mt. Holly, spent last night in the city with Dr. T. N. Ivey and left this morning for conference at Winston.

Rev. G. W. Ivey, of Lenoir, spent yesterday afternoon and last night in the city with his son, Dr. T. N. Ivey, on West Washington street, and left this morning for Winston to attend conference.

The King's Speech.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.
Rome, Nov. 17—The session of parliament opened today. The king's speech was almost entirely devoted to business matters. Italy's relations with all the powers, he said were very cordial and he desired that Italy should contribute to the maintenance of peace. The speech was heartily applauded.

THE SPANIARDS WON'T SIGN.

But Will Demand a Return to Protocol.

SEMI-OFFICIAL STATEMENTS.

The Spanish Will Lose the Millions Now Apparently in their Grasp, By their Foolish Pride.

Madrid, Nov. 15—According to semi-official statements here, the Spanish peace commissioners will maintain their present attitude in regard to the Philippine Islands, and will certainly not accept the conditions of the United States. Further, if the discussions does not return to the limits of the protocol, as viewed by the Spaniards, the Spanish commissioners have decided, in spite of contrary reports, not to sign a treaty of peace.

It is also learned from the same sources that complete accord prevails between the Spanish government and its peace commissioners.

The Spaniards declare that their refusal to sign a treaty based on any Philippine terms thus far suggested by the United States is irrevocable. They say they do not and cannot view the taking of the Philippines as anything else than a wanton ravishment of their possessions, unless it is accompanied by a financial consideration of appreciable size.

Therefore the turn of events in the peace conference depends upon the willingness of the American commissioners to extend their financial terms. Spanish sovereignty in the Philippines is now clung to by the Spaniards chiefly as a means to obtain financial relief, if possible.

Persons near to Spanish bondsmen believe that if the Americans assume the Philippine debt or pay its face amount in cash, the Spaniards would sign. If they have not already done so, the Spanish commissioners will ultimately advise that they must not permit any controversy as to the binding character of the mortgage upon the revenues of the Philippines to pay the so-called Cuban debt. Tenacious adherents to this claim would set up on the Spanish side an ultimatum under which no treaty would be signed which did not stipulate that the Philippine revenues should pay the Philippine debt.

In such event the Americans would probably claim that the Philippine debt of $40,000,000 amounts to $20,000,000 in gold, of which about $11,000,000 has been employed in fighting the United States, leaving less than $10,000,000 chargeable in gold to the Philippines. Indeed, the United States would doubtless contend that even the reduced amount was used in fighting the Philippines and object to the Spanish conclusion that it is a fair charge against the Americans.

Trouble will arise, however, before that stage is reached, as the Spanish commissioners will undoubtedly inform the Americans that the latter have no right to exact a schedule of Spain's expenditures or any explanation regarding the destination of the money secured on these loans.

A Spaniard who is posted as to the exact status of affairs informed the correspondent of the Associated Press this evening that he did not believe the Spanish commissioners would take their final stand at tomorrow's session, although he thought it possible that they might finally decline to continue the discussion except within the limits of Spain's construction of the protocol. This is another way of saying Spain may cease her contentions. Should she do so she would make an open protest to the world against "spoliation."

The Government Decides to Investigate the Matter.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.
Washington, Nov. 16—The government has decided to investigate the circumstance under which Assistant Postmaster Tolbert, at McCormick, South Carolina, was compelled by threats of a mob to leave the office and his home. United States Attorney Lathrop has been instructed to look into the matter. Tolbert has wired Governor Ellerbe asking if he can and will afford him protection in returning to his home and family, but as yet has received no answer.
