Wrinkles Around the Eyes

Are usually caused by defective sight. Many women, and likewise men, look prematurely old from these wrinkles. The wrinkles in many cases can be removed by wearing correctly fitted glasses. To fit glasses correctly demands a thorough knowledge of refraction and the necessary instruments. We have both: hundreds of satisfied customers will say so.

LATEST STORM REPORTS.

Large Number of Lives and Many Vessels Were Lost.

By Wire to the Telegram.
Boston, Nov. 30.—The latest reports from Cape Cod show that thirty-five vessels were wrecked along the shore with the loss of a dozen lives. Still there are many places to be heard from which are not to be reached by train and the wires were still broken this morning.

From present reports it is known that fifty-six vessels are totally lost and forty-nine are ashore with hardly a chance for any one of them being saved. In this list barges are not included.

Letter to Santa Claus.

The first letter of the season to Santa Claus, is handed us by a bright little four-year-old boy. It is as follows:

My Dear Santa:—I am a little boy, four years old, and can't write but I can talk, therefore I am always talking about what I want you to bring me. Please bring me a big horn. I want it to blow when my dog goes off, so he will come home. My dog is named Dan, and he is a pretty black dog. Dan won't bite white people, so you needn't be afraid of him when you come to my house.

I want a big pistol, some figs, candy, a boat, cow and sheep. Please bring me something funny to scare ma and pa with, and we will have lots of fun. I want a great big Billy goat and a football. You can just bring me lots of pretty things. I live on Bragg street next door to Aunt Lizzie Jackson, so please don't pass me by. I will hang my stocking on a big nail by the mantle in mamma's room, so you can find it. Hoping to see you soon, I will say good bye. I am as ever one of your little boys.

THE FINAL PREPARATIONS.

Of The Articles of The Peace Treaty Concluded Today.

IN THE HANDS OF TYPEWRITERS

The Spanish Cabinet Agrees Upon Instructions to Senior Rios For Today's Meeting.

By Cable to the Telegram.

Paris, Nov. 30.—The American peace commissioners discussed the draft of the treaty article made yesterday, by secretaries Moore and Ojeda. The final preparations of those articles were concluded at one thirty, and the revised draft was then turned over to the typewriters, while the commissioners lunched by two o'clock, in time for the joint session.

At this time, however, the typewriting was not finished. Two Spaniards arrived first and were quickly followed by the Americans except Judge Day, and Secretary Moore, who waited for the prepared copy of the articles and arrived at the conference a half hour later.

The two commissioners there began a discussion of the formulated protocol agreement and the subjects of negotiations which were presented to the joint commission in a form acceptable to the Americans.

The commissioners devoted two hours to drafting the first three articles of the peace treaty, dealing with the cession of Cuba, Porto Rico and the Philippines, upon which they were agreed in principle. A general discussion of the other articles followed, after which the commission adjourned until tomorrow.

SPANISH CABINET MEETS.

Madrid, Nov. 30.—The Cabinet at a meeting this morning agreed upon instructions for Senior Rios, president of the Spanish commission, for today's meeting of the commissioners. The cabinet also considered the action of the Carlists, concerning whom there were no new facts.

They further deliberated upon the repatriation of Spaniards in the Philippines, and the suspension of the constitutional guarantees, which, it was decided, will for the present remain suspended. Minister of the Interior Capdehon, in an interview, is quoted as saying the Carlists have no chance of success.

Electric Program Clock.

The Odell Hardware company are putting in an electric program clock, at the Normal and Industrial College. By means of bells the clock calls and dismisses classes, though different hours may prevail in every class room. President McIver has, by degrees, well nigh reached perfection in everything connected with the college, from the hog-pen to the parlor. This last addition is one of the most valuable and yet put in. The clock will be in operation in a short while.

WANTS AN INVESTIGATION.

Pritchard Determined to Have Congressional Action.

Washington, Nov. 29.—Senator Pritchard, of North Carolina, will, it is understood, offer at the coming session a resolution for the appointment of a special committee to investigate the recent race riots in the south. If the resolution is not adopted, or if no legislation is the result of the proposed investigation, Senator Pritchard will press the matter at the opening of the Fifty-sixth congress when the republicans will have a majority in the senate.

At the opening of that congress, the Wilmington riots will be brought to the attention of the house by means of the contested election case of Dockery vs. Bellamy from the Wilmington district. The latter will probably be unseated.

Some of the congressmen most deeply interested have urged President McKinley to refer to the North Carolina riots in his annual message and recommend remedial legislation. It is not yet known whether the president will heed the advice or not. Senator Chandler, chairman of the committee on privileges and elections, said that some notice would have to be taken of what had happened in North and South Carolina. Senator Chandler said:

"Since the election law was repealed, which repeal was designed to end race troubles in the south, lynching has increased, instead of diminished. Lynchings have taken place, not only for insults to women, but for all sorts of alleged offenses, until this year it was supposed that there were very few negro killings for political purposes. Suppression of negro votes by milder means was supposed to be the method adopted, but it is difficult to avoid the conclusion that in North and South Carolina this month the shot gun was taken up as a political agency to attain democratic victories. Senator Tillman is reported to have said publicly that there never would be a democratic victory in North Carolina until the shot gun was resorted to. My personal regard for Senator Tillman is such that I hope he will be able to disclaim any such utterance.

"Though I dislike to have the race question come into politics again, I do not see how it can be kept out if the facts we hear are true. If the issue in 1900 is to be what it was in 1856, whether the Solid South and New York city and New York state and a few other northern votes can overcome the almost solid north and elect a democratic president, there can be but one result. The northern heart will be fired quite as warmly as the shot gun will be taken up in the south. The south will be defeated.

"I hope the question may be avoided, but if the president recommends an investigation and action, an effort will be made to follow his recommendations. Whether legislation can be enacted it is of course doubtful, but the result of the next presidential election will not be in doubt."

SHARKEY IS READY.

Will Fight Corbett Again—Proceeds to Go to the Poor.

New York, Nov. 29.—Yesterday in a published interview Corbett was quoted as saying that he was willing to fight Sharkey again for nothing providing he was allowed his training expenses.

Today Tom O'Rourke, Sharkey's manager, issued the following card: "Corbett has stated that he will fight Sharkey for nothing if allowed training expenses. Sharkey accepts, providing the proceeds go to the poor as a Christmas gift, the press to form a committee who will distribute the money. Let Corbett name the time, which must not be later than two weeks hence."

Buying Conquered Territory.

The proposition to pay money to Spain is a disgraceful one. It is suggestive of something worse than a mistake. To buy assets that we have conquered is a proceeding manifestly absurd. No petting-off about the legal aspects of the case can justify it. The purpose to pay $20,000,000—a sum, by the way, which the Spanish negotiators seem to regard with contempt—stimulates those who are opposed to annexation on any terms. Citizens who might yield their opposition if the islands came to us purely as conquered territory will assemble all the reasons for opposition in view of the proposed indemnity.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

THE NICARAGUAN CANAL.

Support of the Project Will Be Pushed in Congress.

THE COMPTROLLER APPROVES.

The Application of The Piedmont Bank For Conversion into a National Bank.

Special to the Telegram.

Washington, Nov. 30.—Members of the Senate and House of Representatives arriving in the city from the south, and especially those from the gulf states, are almost unanimous in their support of the Nicaraguan Canal project. Senators and representatives from the section agree that the efforts to pass the measure will be very earnest during the session about to convene. No doubt is felt of the passage of the bill through the senate by a decisive vote, and the prospects seem to be at this time, that consideration of the measure will also be granted in the house. Senator Morgan, of Alabama, is doing some earnest work in behalf of the construction of the canal, has been much encouraged by promise of support from unexpected quarters. Members from the east and west, who are not so much interested in the construction of the canal from a personal point of view, as are the representatives from the gulf states, will furnish several votes for the passage of the bill through the senate. Among the latest supporters of the bill is Senator Lodge, of Massachusetts.

Members of the house from the gulf states express hopes that the republicans will allow consideration of the bill in the house at the coming session and will probably later in the session petition Speaker Reed in behalf of the bill, but this will not be done until after the passage of the bill now pending in the senate.

It is said that both Senators Pritchard and Butler are in favor of the construction of the canal, and that nearly all, if not the entire North Carolina delegation in the house are in favor of the bill, and will unite in urging consideration at the short session.

Members of the North Carolina delegation are slow in arriving at Washington for the coming session of Congress. Neither Senator Butler nor Senator Pritchard have as yet arrived. Among the members of the house, Mr. Pearson has arrived, but the majority of the delegation have failed, as yet, to put in their appearance. At the places where the North Carolina delegation usually make their headquarters while in the city, it is thought that several of the congressmen will arrive within two or three days.

Senator Daniel, of Virginia, arrived in the city Monday night and went to the Metropolitan hotel.

Dr. Powhatan S. Dance, whose death is reported to have occurred at his home at Clearwater, Florida, last Wednesday, was a native of the state of Virginia, having been born in Powhatan county, of that state. He had many friends throughout North Carolina and Virginia, and it is said that in former years he was a frequent visitor to this section of the country.

The Comptroller of the Currency has officially reported his approval of the application of the Piedmont Bank, of Greensboro North Carolina, for its conversion to a National bank. The title of the National bank is now the City National Bank of Greensboro. The capital of the bank is given at $100,000.

Nearly all of the members of the North Carolina delegation in congress during the present session, it is expected will be accompanied to Washington by their wives. During the last session they were all accompanied by their families with the exception of representatives Fowler, Kitchen, Martin and Pearson. Owing to the fact that this is a short session, however, and most of the present delegation will retire at the end of three months, some of the congressmen who last session brought their wives to Washington, will probably leave them at home this year, as they wish to economize.

Major-General Matthew C. Butler left Washington last night for a visit to his home in South Carolina. After visiting his home in the South for a few days he will return to Havana. The General yesterday was among the callers at the White House.

Mr. A. L. Harris, member of the Industrial Labor Commission of North Carolina, has returned to Washington from North Carolina where he spent the Thanksgiving holidays. He attended the session of the commission yesterday.
