Symptoms Of Defective Vision

Many persons have the idea that defective vision manifests itself only in a failure or inability to see clearly, but itching, burning, smarting of the lids, dull pains in the eyes or head, even the back of the head, all come from irregularities in the optical construction of the eyes and may be entirely relieved by correctly fitted glasses.

DR. J. T. JOHNSON Guarantees to correct every case that is undertaken. If your eyes are giving annoyance consult him at once.

NOTICE OF DIVIDEND.

Southern Stock Mutual and Underwriters Insurance Companies

On the 19th of January, the two Greensboro fire insurance companies, Southern Stock-Mutual and Underwriters, declared dividends to their policy-holders of 20 per cent. The scrip certificates have not been delivered as heretofore for the following reason: Last year prompt delivery was made and policy-holders were enjoined to "attach to policy and deposit in place of safety"; but a few were lost or misplaced, and the managers have concluded to hold the scrip in their possession from this time on and assume all risk for their safekeeping. As the scrip matured and will be presented for endorsement and will then be redeemed. Any policy-holder who prefers to hold his scrip at his own risk, can get it by calling at the office of Wharton & McAlister on court square.

We have just seen a copy of an attractive publication recently made by the managers of these insurance companies, which shows among other interesting data that in the last four years they have returned over $20,000.00 in dividends to their policy-holders. This publication contains such testimonials as the following:

Lancaster, S. C., Feb. 4, 1899.
During the last two years certain properties in which I am interested have been insured in the Southern Stock-Mutual Insurance Company, of Greensboro, N. C. The dividends received from the company have amounted to $105.40, representing the amount saved by insuring in this company. [Signed] LeRoy Springs.

Charlotte, N. C., Feb. 6, 1899.
I have been carrying several policies in the Underwriters of Greensboro during last year—and my dividends have saved me $17.91 in the cost of my insurance. P. M. Brown.

These companies are assuming proportions and wielding an influence which our people did not dream of when they made their modest beginnings. We doubt if Greensboro has ever projected anything better. Long life and prosperity to them.

MEETING OF THE ALDERMEN.

Business of More or Less Importance Transacted Last Night.

The board of aldermen met last night with Mayor Taylor in the chair. Present, Bain, Elam, Berger, Lewis, Mendenhall, Merrimon and Sergeant. G. P. Skinner made application to do plumbing. License was granted provided an approved bond was filed. C. C. Townsend asked permission of the board to make some additions and repairs to the wood building on South Elm street, now occupied by him and known as the Small property. The application was referred to a special committee composed of Merrimon, Mendenhall and Bain.

C. J. Fogleman applied for license to sell fresh meats at 809 East Market street, which is outside the old incorporate limits. License was granted.

A committee, composed of Mayor Taylor and Aldermen Berger and Bain, was appointed to act in conjunction with committees from the Board of Education and the Industrial and Immigration Association and take steps to induce the North Carolina Teachers' Assembly to hold their next annual meeting in Greensboro.

The board ordered the sale of the pair of old mules used by the street department and the purchase of two good horses in their stead.

A committee of three was appointed by the mayor to take into consideration the issuing of bonds under the recent act passed by the general assembly. The committee is to make investigation as to the amount of bonds for street improvements, waterworks, city hall etc. It is advisable to issue and make recommendations etc. accordingly, and to report at an adjourned meeting to be held next Friday night. The committee is composed of Aldermen Merrimon, Sergeant and Berger.

Board adjourned.

ITALIAN MINISTER'S ULTIMATUM

Gen. King to Resume His Former Command—A New Brigade Being Formed For Gen. Wheaton.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.
Paris, Mar. 11—Italian Minister Martino last evening addressed a note to Tsung Li Yamen, requesting a receipt for his note containing Italy's demand for the lease of San Man Bay, intimating that in case of its acceptance Italy will consent to open friendly negotiations as to details. Four days time has been given in which to reply. Although courteously couched the Chinese regard it as an ultimatum and it is believed they will reply affirmatively.

Preparing for an Advance.
By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.
Manila, March 11—Afternoon.—Extensive preparations are being made for a general advance soon. All was quiet at daylight. The rebels were caught in an attempt to enfilade the trench at Calocan and were shelled by a battery. Desultory firing at San Pedro and Macooli has been going on. The last batch of prisoners sailed for Spain today.

THE RECKLESS TENTH.

Forced One Man to Commit Suicide—Killed Another.

Further particulars in regard to the conduct of the Tenth Immunes were received here yesterday, says the News and Observer. Between Atlanta and Monroe they shot Flightman Sam Sealy in the head, inflicting a painful wound.

At Monroe they raided the dispensary, carrying off some seventy-five packages of whiskey. And at Henderson they came near killing an old white man named Opzler.

In Weldon, the last point at which they stopped in this state, their conduct was the worst. At the point of a pistol they forced John Battle, a worthy colored man, to drink seven glasses of whiskey. Battle fell down senseless soon after drinking the liquor and died before a physician could be summoned.

KILLED AN OLD NEGRO.
Weldon, N. C. March 10—The negro troops, Tenth Immunes, who passed through here last evening, behaved in a most disgraceful manner. At the point of pistols they forced John Battle, a worthy colored man, to drink seven glasses of whiskey. Battle fell down senseless soon after drinking the liquor and before a doctor could be summoned he was dead.

The riotous troops also forced their way into stores and saloons and fired at a switchman.

The negroes killed a fine Jersey cow belonging to a poor woman soon after leaving Henderson. The greatest indignation is expressed at their action here and elsewhere along the line.

ANOTHER MAN NEARLY KILLED.
Henderson, N. C. March 10—There came near being a battle here yesterday when the negro troops (Tenth Immunes) passed through on their way to Washington from Marion, Ga.

They displayed their pistols and whiskey bottles in about equal numbers, drinking from the one and popping away from the car windows with the other.

An old man named Crozier came near being killed. A very valuable Jersey cow near the edge of the town was shot dead.

As the train pulled out a regular fusillade was fired from the cars.

Had the shooting occurred nearer the center of town, our citizens would have risen and the result would have been more serious.

It is reported that Mr. Carter, who owned the cow that was killed, telegraphed and had the train stopped and the negro who shot the cow arrested.

The troops on the second section of the train were not so disorderly.

THE MAKING OF LITERATURE.

Dr. Page's Lecture at the Normal Last Night.

North Carolina has one son in the literary world of today of whom she justly feels proud. No North Carolinian has, in recent years at least, risen to such a place of honor and popularity, in literary circles as has Walter H. Page, of Moore county, who is now editor of the Atlantic Monthly, one of the leading magazines of America. A Greensboro audience had the pleasure, at the State Normal and Industrial College, last night, of hearing him for the second time, and as was expected, the chapel was packed by a select and intelligent audience.

Mr. Page lectured on "The Making of Literature," a grand subject which he dealt with in a grand and knowing manner. To quote from the lecture, without quoting at length, would do the brilliant Carolinian an injustice. Throughout, his words were laden with rich thought, expressed in a terse and catchy way, holding the rapt attention of his audience and frequently drawing a hearty applause.

Mr. Page spoke but a few minutes more than an hour, and a very short hour it seemed. After the lecture Dr. McIver announced that the audience might remain in the chapel another hour and spend the time in social enjoyment. A large number of people met Mr. Page during that time.

Grand Trunk Line Collision.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.
Granger, Ind., March 11—Two grand trunk line engines collided here last night. James Elliott, of Erie, was fatally hurt, as was also Mrs. Elumsey, of Toronto. Engineer Downey was badly injured, Laborer Henderson fatally hurt and Fireman Lynch seriously. A score of passengers were bruised.

$50.00 Reward.

Fifty dollars reward is hereby offered to any person furnishing information leading to the conviction of the party, or parties, who broke out the window lights in the unoccupied dwelling house on Summit avenue on last Saturday night.

Z. V. Taylor, Mayor.

Has Dropped Out of Sight

Ex-Congressman Martin Moves On The Quiet.

GONE TO THEIR COUNTRY HOMES

Senators Pritchard Butler—But They Will Visit Washington Frequently During The Recess.

Special to THE TELEGRAM.
Washington, Mar. 11—So far as can be learned all of the members of the North Carolina delegation have returned to their homes, or to other portions of the state. The only member who cannot be accounted for here is Ex-representative Martin, and at his boarding place in this city no one seems to know whether he is in North Carolina or Washington, but as he cannot be found the presumption is that he has returned to the state. Mr. Martin, it will be remembered did not come to Washington at the beginning of the session of congress and did not put in his appearance until after the holiday recess. He now appears to have entirely dropped out of sight again, so far as his friends in this city are concerned.

Senator Butler and wife left for their home early in the week and Senator Pritchard has removed, with his family to his country home at Marshall, North Carolina. Representatives Fowler, Kitchin, White and others are all in the state. Senator Pritchard who has much business in Washington is to be attended to announced before leaving for Marshall that he would return to Washington shortly, and would come to this city very often during the recess of congress. Senator Butler, will also, it is expected be in the city at intervals during the summer and fall, as he has much here to occupy his time and attention. The only two members of the present delegation who have been re-elected are White and Kitchin. The latter will, it is stated, be a frequent visitor to the national capital during the interval before the assembling of the fifty-sixth congress.

Several of the private secretaries of the members of the North Carolina delegation are still in Washington. About the best known of these young men is Mr. Hyams, the secretary to Senator Pritchard, who has made many friends since his residence in this city. He will remain in Washington during the greater part of the time before the assembling of congress.

It was stated at the white house the other day that the appointment of a judge to succeed Judge Ewart might not be made until the return of President McKinley from his trip to the home of Senator Hanna, in Georgia. If this is the case the appointment may be delayed for two or three weeks.

The impression among North Carolina people is that Ewart will be re-appointed, though it is not absolutely certain. It was stated yesterday that the petition of Senator Pritchard, which was referred to early in the week, instead of containing the signatures of forty-six senators, who would have voted for confirmation, had the names of only forty-five senators, which would have been exactly one-half of the senate, and would have left the deciding vote with the vice-president had a vote been reached by the senate.

In some newspapers the presumption seems to be that a minority leader in the house of representatives is "elected." This is an error. The minority, as in the case of Mr. Bailey two years ago, nominates a candidate for speaker of the house, which nomination carries with it the right to be recognized on the floor by the speaker, as the leader of the minority. The contest is not to be strictly a contest for the minority leadership, but is for the democratic nomination for speaker. It is believed that most of the North Carolina democrats will support Richardson, of Tennessee.

At the disbursing office of the house of representatives it is stated that all the claims in connection with the funeral of the late Representative Dingley have been paid. The clerk, Mr. McDowell, says the bills were very low, only a trifle over one thousand dollars.

Postmasters have been appointed in North Carolina as follows:
William H. Simmons, Bennett, Anson, vice J. E. Jones, dead; R. M. Norment, Lambertson, Robeson, vice John H. Wishart, removed; N. H. Holland, Piskey, Wayne, vice E. S. Dees, resigned; Louisa J. Maxwell, Solitude, Ashe, vice John B. Lewis, resigned; William A. Blane, Surri, Person, vice E. B. Lunford, dead.

Special services in North Carolina has been discontinued at Gale, Ashe county, from Algiers, to take effect March 31, 1899.

J. E. Bell, of Newbern, is in Washington for a few days and is stopping at the St. James hotel. He is accompanied by his wife and child.

Among other North Carolina people in Washington are E. D. Stanford, of Yadkinville, and James Kyle, of Wilmington. The former is registered at the National hotel and the latter at the St. James.
