Symptoms Of Defective Vision

Many persons have the idea that defective vision manifests itself only in a failure or inability to see clearly, but itching, burning, smarting of the lids, dull pains in the eyes or head, even the back of the head, all come from irregularities in the optical construction of the eyes and may be entirely relieved by correctly fitted glasses.

DR. J. T. JOHNSON Guarantees to correct every case that he undertakes. If your eyes are giving annoyance consult him at once.

THURSDAY, APRIL 13TH.

Grand Musical Concert By the Brockmann Orchestra.

At a meeting of the Brockmann Orchestra last night, it was decided to give a concert on Thursday, the 13th of April, at the Academy of Music.

The Orchestra has been practicing for several weeks, and intends to give the people of Greensboro some good music—not classical selections, but music that will be appreciated by all who hear it.

In addition to the orchestral numbers there will be two full choruses, male quartette, and other numbers which will add very largely to the enjoyment of the evening.

The following gentlemen were appointed at a business meeting a few weeks ago as committees to look after the different parts of the program:

Prof. Chas. J. Brockmann, director; Z. V. Taylor, male quartette; M. S. Sherwood, arrangements; A. H. Alderman, J. H. Wheeler, choruses.

Special numbers will be announced later. Prof. Brockmann is doing his best to make this a memorable occasion.

OAK RIDGE-CORNELL.

The Two Good Teams On the Diamond This Afternoon.

The Cornell baseball team arrived here on the vestibule this morning, twenty-two strong. They are being coached by Hugh Jennings, Baltimore's famous short-stop, who will play with Brooklyn this year. He will remain with Cornell until the league season opens. The Cornell team is said to be in fine trim and the game this afternoon is expected to be exceptionally fine.

The Oak Ridge boys came down on the A. & Y. train at noon accompanied by the Oak Ridge cornet band and a number of students. Both teams are stopping at the Benbow. Cornell went to the grounds this morning and practiced a short while and the two teams practiced together a short while this afternoon until the game opened at 3:30. It is a pity that the weather is so disagreeable, preventing many of those who would like to see the game, from doing so.

STRAYED OR STOLEN.

Two Horses Not Found in Their Stables This Morning.

The Wakefield Hardware Company's dray horse strayed or was stolen from his stable back of the company's store last night. One would think from the appearance of the place, that the animal was stolen. The staple was drawn from the door and the harness thrown on the stable floor. Chief of Police Rees was notified and sent several telegrams to authorities of different towns near by asking them to look out for the horse which is a brownish gray color and large size.

Rufus Brown's horse was also missing from his stable on West Washington street this morning. Mr. Brown thinks however that his horse only strayed as it was possible for the animal to have gotten out.

Jail Jottings.

Will Hares, white, was drinking a little too heavily last night and raised a little disturbance in the vicinity of the court house. Chief Rees and Constable Scott marched him to the lock-up in short order.

Oscar Flagg, colored, was yesterday taxed with the costs for being drunk. He paid out.

Mack Hobson, colored, was brought to jail this morning by Deputy Sheriff Gray, of Jamestown. Mack has been eating chickens that didn't belong to him.

Officer Whittington landed Cleo Mitchell this morning, who is charged with an affray.

Alex Jarrell was tried before Squire Pritchett this morning for assault and sent to the roads for 30 days.

Important Meeting Tonight.

We are requested by the chairman to announce an important meeting of the finance committee of the North Carolina State Firemen's Tournament and Greensboro Industrial and County Exhibit, in the directors' room at the Greensboro National Bank. This committee is composed of the following gentlemen: C. H. Ireland, chairman; C. M. Vanstory, J. W. Scott, R. Lindheim, C. E. Holton, W. E. Beville, John M. Dick, B. H. Merrimon, E. P. Wharton, Robt. R. King, J. M. Walker, J. W. Fry, J. S. Hunter, J. M. Hendrix, R. W. Brooks and R. L. Vernon.

Running Extra Trains.

The business being done on the Winston road since the Southern and Norfolk & Western joined hands is enormous. Ten extra trains were run on the road Saturday making sixteen in all. The Atlantic & Yadkin is still handling a large amount of freight which goes to Walnut Cove, though most of it is coal which belongs to the Coast Line.

Largest Assortment of Shoes.

We carry the largest assortment of misses and children's shoes in the city and at prices that suit. Shrier's, 216 South Elm street.

M'ARTHUR NEARING MALOLOS

The Troops Are Vigorous And in Prime Condition.

BIG FIGHT EXPECTED TOMORROW

The Insurgents Have Retreated To The Malolos Intrenchments.

Americans Closing In.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Manila, March 28—General McArthur's division, after a short rest at Marialoa, advanced toward Malolos at 9:30 this morning. Its immediate objective point is the town of Bocayu, five miles north of Marialoa. The troops are vigorous and in prime condition, and it is expected that McArthur will be in front of Malolos this afternoon. A heavy battle will probably be begun early tomorrow morning. All trenches have been swept clear of insurgents, who have retreated to the Malolos intrenchments, with the Americans pressing forward with resistless vim close to their flying heels. Hale's brigade is skirting the right flank of the advance. Otis covers the left, while Wheaton is hurrying up in the center. The American lines are so compact that the country is scoured, and the rebels are forced to keep to the railroad in retreat. Aguinaldo is at the head of the fleeing army, but great efforts will be made to capture him.

BRILLIANT CHARGE OF DAKOTANS.

Washington, March 28—The following dispatch was received from General Otis at 2:40 this morning: "McArthur's division was severely engaged yesterday afternoon beyond Marialoa. The South Dakotans, led by Drost, made a brilliant charge against some of Aguinaldo's troops brought from Malolos. The enemy was driven back with considerable slaughter. Four of our officers and twenty-six enlisted men were wounded. The loss on yesterday was confined to this regiment. The partial destruction of the railroad, which is now being repaired, greatly impedes McArthur's progress. The supply railroad trains have reached Marialoa, and McArthur's men are pushing on. Our small gunboats did great execution yesterday on the Bulacan river, relieving the pressure upon McArthur's front materially. Much of the country north of Manila is in flames in consequence of the proclamation issued by the rebel general, Chief Luna."

PRINCE LOWENSTEIN KILLED.

Washington, March 28—Otis cables that Prince Lowenstein, who was with Wheaton's command, carried some refreshments to the officers of the Second Oregon upon the firing line. He was cautioned of the danger, but advanced with the line when the entrenchments were charged, and was killed, and his friend wounded. His remains were delivered to friends in the city.

Adjutant General Corbin describes Otis' campaign as admirable in every way. The situation is perfectly satisfactory. Otis' statement that our gunboats did great execution upon the Bulacan river throws some light upon the recent purchase of Spanish boats.

CAPTURE OF MALOLOS EXPECTED.

Washington, March 28—Gen. Corbin said last night that he expected to hear of the capture of the Malolos today. The same spirit of expectation reigns throughout the department today. All hands are anxious to hear of the capture of Aguinaldo.

THE LATEST.

Manila, March 28—McArthur's division advanced nearly two miles this morning unopposed. Approaching Bulacan the forces halted, preparatory to attacking it.

Ladies who want to buy up-to-date low shoes for spring and summer wear, go and take a look at the new Southern button and the Oxford's just put on sale at Thacker & Brockmann's. The Cincinnati, Carlisle and Hamilton Brown Shoe Co.'s lines are particularly attractive. If it does not suit you to go to the store, Thacker & Brockmann will take pleasure in sending a selection of these styles to your residence for you to examine and try on.

He Feels Aggrieved.

Mr. J. H. Newberry feels that an injustice has been done him inasmuch as it was published in this paper Saturday that he could not give bond in the vaccination case. A reporter of this paper got his information from the officer who accompanied Mr. Newberry on his rounds to secure the required bond and the fact that it was not given was accepted as proof that the news item was correct. It seems, however, that Mr. Newberry did not care to give bond or could not find his friends, as it has developed that though he is a comparative stranger here, he has friends who would have readily stood for him.

NEW CITY DIRECTORY.

Greensboro is to Have a New City Directory.

Greensboro will have an opportunity to have a first class city directory complete in every detail, if our business and professional men will give the proper patronage. Mr. Wm. M. Kersh, manager of the Maloney Directory Co., one of the largest directory publishing concerns in the country, is spending a few days in the city and he meets with sufficient encouragement he will put in a force of trained men at once and will get out a work for thoroughness equal to that of the publications of the larger cities. The directories shown us by Mr. Kersh are the most comprehensive and creditable we have ever seen and our business men should give him such encouragement as to insure a similar publication for Greensboro, as he will not get the work out unless the patronage will warrant a first class publication, for his company would not get out any other kind.

The Telegram will be glad of such a publication for Greensboro and trusts that the business community will do its part.

Notice.

See Saturday's paper, of April 1, 1899, you will find your property advertised for sale on account of delinquent city taxes, if not paid before, as the list is ready for publication.

Indians in Revolt.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM

Montreal, Canada, March 28—The St. Regis Indians, near Cornwall, have risen in revolt, demanding the return of their tribal system. The Indian agent has been locked in a school house, and the police, sent from Ottawa to assist in the elections which were to have been held yesterday, have been driven away. Troops will probably be sent to the scene from Ottawa.

LEGISLATION FOR CUBA.

Considerable Will Be Required Of The Fifty-Sixth Congress.

NO EXTRA SESSION IN SIGHT.

The President Enjoyed His Southern Trip, And Will Visit Us Again Before His Term Is Out.

Special to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, March 28—Several Representatives who composed the party of Senator Tillman and Representative Latimer, of South Carolina, passed through Washington Sunday and Monday on their way to their various homes. The members seen expressed pleasure over their visit to the southern states, and paid their respects to the distinguished South Carolinians who were responsible for the trip. Their visit to Florida was especially delightful, this being the best time of the whole year for a tour of that state, and they only regretted that they could not remain longer in the state. It is believed that the visit to the south will result in much good to the section in matters of legislation during the next congress. In regard to the visit to Cuba, the representatives say that matters on the island just now are very quiet, but that considerable in the way of legislation for Cuba will be required at the hands of the fifty-sixth congress.

Whenever representatives and senators are in Washington in very large numbers talk naturally drifts to the prospects of an extra session of congress. The opinion is general that there will be no early meeting of the two houses, unless the president calls an extra session in October. This would enable the two houses to organize and get ready for active work of the regular session in December. Most congressmen, however, believe now that congress will not reassemble until the first Monday in December.

Southern men in Washington in speaking of the recent correspondence between Col. Bryan and Hon. Perry Belmont commended the letter of Mr. Bryan, and say that in declining to participate in a banquet, the majority of the guests of which would have been anti-democrats, like Col. Belmont, that Mr. Bryan is perfectly justified, and it shows the caliber of the man. For an anti-silver organization to invite the silver leader to sit at a banquet and listen to gold speeches is what most southern men cannot quite understand.

People passing through Washington enroute home from the south say that the president's visit to Georgia and Florida has been very pleasant, and that while the southern people differ from the president in politics, personally they honor and admire him for his broad intellect and patriotic views on public questions. It is said before the expiration of his term President McKinley will take another southern trip, and next time will go as far south as Tampa, Florida. Virginia people say that an effort will then be made to get the president to visit Richmond, Lynchburg, Roanoke, and other Virginia cities enroute. Charleston, S. C., people are also anxious to get the president to attend the Confederate reunion in that city next May.

People from Mississippi in this city say that Representative Allen, while popular in the state, is not looked upon by the people there in quite the same light as his admirers look upon him in this section of the country. Mr. Allen is conducting a vigorous candidacy for the United States senate, and is making one of his characteristic canvases. Much doubt is expressed, however, as to his ability to break the alleged compact between Senator Sullivan, and Governor McLaurin, whereby McLaurin was to succeed the former. Many Mississippi people believe that in the event of a long continued struggle in the legislature, Sullivan will be elected to succeed himself.

Representative Swanson, of Virginia, is prominently mentioned as a candidate for governor of the Old Dominion. If he become a candidate he will receive strong support in the democratic convention from all sections of the state.

Storm at Salisbury.

The Hosliery Mill Struck by Lightning—Considerable Damage.

During a severe electrical storm that passed over the city of Salisbury yesterday at 9 o'clock the Salisbury Hosliery Mill was struck by lightning and a greater portion of the building and machinery, together with eight thousand dozen half hose, were destroyed. The amount of loss is not known yet, but is covered by insurance. No one was hurt seriously, though several were shocked. Eighty-five people are thrown out of employment.

Assistant Superintendent Simpson worked heroically to save the building before the arrival of the fire companies. The firemen did good work. It is not known yet whether the mill will be rebuilt or not.

Miss Susie Overman, who lives near the Salisbury Cotton Mill, was struck by lightning during the storm and was seriously but not fatally hurt.
