TO AROUSE ENTHUSIASM.

The Fire Department Takes Steps To Get The People to Talking.

There was an enthusiastic meeting of the Greensboro Volunteer Fire Department last night. The members are working for the tournament in a business-like way. And every member is working hard. Things are being taken up in the right way and the tournament is bound to be a big success. While the business of the central, finance and other committees is important, the business of the department is of no less significance. One of the most important duties that devolves upon the department is to arouse enthusiasm and get the people to talking the tournament and at the meeting last night, steps were taken to do this. An entertainment committee composed of E. L. Clark, B. A. Boone and J. H. Prince was appointed. The duty of the committee is to ascertain number of guests each hotel and boarding house in the city can accommodate and what rates will be provided for the tournament. It was also decided to have a department parade next Tuesday afternoon. Every piece of fire apparatus in the department and every fireman who possibly can will take part in the parade. The idea is to get the people to talking, for the tournament is but little more than ninety days off and the people cannot show their interest and enthusiasm too soon. Talk the tournament at home and when you go abroad and help to make it the grandest tournament and industrial exhibition the state has ever known.

MOREHEAD CITY WINS.

The Annual Meeting of the Teachers' Assembly.

It has been officially announced that the next annual meeting of the North Carolina Teachers' Assembly will be held in Morehead City. Secretary W. T. Whitsett announced the decision of the executive committee Monday. This is one of the few contests in which Greensboro loses. A spirited contest has been going on between this city, Charlotte and Morehead City, each of which claimed to be the best place for the annual meeting. Through the efforts of the proprietors of the Atlantic Hotel, the fight was won for Morehead City, where the assembly owns its hall and the teachers will again meet.

Mr. Buchanan Dead.

The grim reaper is doing his work silently, amid the busy scenes, and old and young pass out at his bidding. This morning an aged citizen, Mr. Thomas Buchanan, aged 88 years, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. J. H. Rankin, on Ashe street. Mr. Buchanan was also the father of Mrs. Dr. J. H. Marley, Mrs. B. C. Phillips and Mrs. A. A. Crutchfield; also Mr. J. H. Buchanan, who lives on Forbis street. The funeral will be conducted from the residence tomorrow morning and interment made in Greene Hill cemetery.

Chicken and Meat Thieves.

The meat thieves who made a series of raids in and around Greensboro a short while ago, are at the old game again. The smoke house of Mr. Daniel Gillespie, who lives near the city limit on Asheboro street, was robbed Sunday night. The thieves secured several pounds of nice meat. Mr. John DeWitt has been losing chickens on the installment plan of late. He lives near the coal chute and has missed two at a time for more than once and this morning five were missing. The thief evidently scrutinized things closely, as he also stole eggs from under a setting hen.

Day Wins His Case.

In the case of the state prison against Superintendent W. H. Day the supreme court has decided. Day is entitled to possession of the property of the state prison and to the control of the convicts as under the law of 1897, and has right to execute the duties of superintendent. Justice Furches concurs in this decision and Day wins his case.

A full representation of the Atlar Guild and Ladies' Aid Society of St. Barnabas church is requested Thursday (tomorrow) at 4 p. m. to meet with Mrs. Bogart, on Church street, when all the ladies of the parish are invited to be present, as a matter of especial interest to each and all is to be brought up at this time.

SHOULDER TO SHOULDER.

American and British Marines Fight Against Heavy Odds.

UPRISING OF MATAAFAS MEN.

Four Americans Killed, Five Wounded. British Loss, Two—Fighting At Washington.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, April 12.—The state department has received a cablegram from Admiral Kautz dated at Auckland, April 12, stating that the combined forces of the British and Americans were ambushed while reconnoitering under Lieut. Freeman, of the British navy, near Apia. The admiral deeply regrets to announce the death of the following Americans: Lieut. Lansdale, Ensign Monaghan, Coxswain Butler, and an ordinary seaman, Norman E. Esal; five were wounded; all of the cruiser Philadelphia. The British loss was Lieut. Freeman and two men killed.

The state department has requested the British and German embassies to notify it of any additional information they may receive.

AMERICANS AND BRITISH RETREAT.

Apia, Samoa, April 4, via Auckland and San Francisco, April 12.—Massachusetts warriors have ambushed a force of a hundred to a hundred and fifty American and British sailors and marines. Three officers and four sailors were killed. The attack was made on a German plantation today, and the Americans and British were forced to retreat to the beach by overwhelming odds.

FORTY MATAAFAS KILLED.

San Francisco, April 12.—The Call today prints the following special copy-righted dispatch: Auckland, April 12.—Eight hundred Mataafas men ambushed one hundred and five Blue Jackets near Apia. The fighting was terrific. The American and British are repeatedly drove their assailants back, who fought with overwhelmingly superior force. Lieut. Lansdale, Ensign Monaghan, of the Philadelphia, and Lieut. Freeman, of the British gunboat, were killed. After the rebels were driven off the bodies of the three officers were recovered after having been decapitated. Four marines were killed. The Mataafas loss was forty killed, and a large number wounded. Our dead were buried with military honors at Mulianan. There is constant fighting with the natives around Apia, and the life of no European on the Islands is safe. Ensign Monaghan was gallantly assisting Lieut. Lansdale, who had been struck by a native bullet, when he was shot and killed. The German manager of the plantation has been arrested and placed upon a British warship. He was seen urging the natives to fight.

GERMANY'S UNFRIENDLYNESS. Washington, April 12.—Surprise and consternation are expressed upon every hand at the seriousness of the Samoan occurrence. Beneath all the comments there is the most bitter criticism of Germany's evident unfriendliness to the United States. Officially there is no such criticism, but members of the administration privately do not hesitate to declare that Germany's unfriendliness is at the bottom of the trouble.

CIPHER CABLEGRAM FROM KAUTZ.

Washington, April 12.—The Bureau of Navigation has received a long cipher cablegram from Admiral Kautz which is being rapidly deciphered.

"Wheaton drove the enemy ten miles to the eastward of our railway line of communication with Malolos. Our loss slight. The enemy made no stand."

"Spain has notified us she will evacuate Mindanao soon. Otis."

DR. TRACY'S LAST EXHIBITION.

Attended By a Large Audience at The Academy Last Night.

Dr. N. W. Tracy gave his closing exhibition at the academy of music last night to one of the largest audiences that attended any lecture during the entire series. "Our War With Spain" was illustrated as fully as could have been expected, Dr. Tracy presenting and explaining scenes from almost every engagement on land or sea. Few manipulators of the stereopticon succeed in presenting pictures as plainly as Dr. Tracy. His different machines are perfect and his collection of pictures, most of them used in temperance work, is said to have cost $6,000.

Dr. Tracy is doing a grand work and the temperance element here, as elsewhere, wish him God speed. His visit here will be pleasantly remembered by those who took advantage of the opportunity of hearing his lectures. He and his excellent family and the family of his sister, Mr. W. H. O. Rauch, left this morning for Concord where they will remain two weeks.

Mr. Rauch went to Danville to make arrangements for an engagement there. After visiting Danville they will go to the coal regions of Pennsylvania to remain for some time.

Tobacco In Cumberland.

Letters are being received in this city every day from prominent tobacco men throughout the State inquiring if it will be worth the while to send buyers to this market, as they learn from the papers that Cumberland farmers are planting tobacco. In answer to these inquiries, we can state that a great number of Cumberland farmers are planting tobacco this year, not on a large scale, however, one barn being the usual crop, through there are a number who have planted tobacco before who will have a two or three barn crop. We also learn that the building of a warehouse is assured. Fayetteville Observer.

As the season of the year when pneumonia, la grippe, sore throat, coughs, colds, catarrh, bronchitis and lung troubles are to be guarded against, nothing "is a fine substitute," will "answer the purpose," or "is just as good" as Ose Minute Cough Cure. That is the one infallible remedy for all lung, throat or bronchial troubles. Insist vigorously on having it if "something else" is offered you. Howard Gardner.

NORTH CAROLINA'S CLAIMS

Upon the U. S. for Expenses Incurred During the War.

THE TROUBLE BEING ADJUSTED

And It Will Hardly Be Necessary to Refer the Matter to Congress.

Some Already Paid.

Special to the Telegram.

Washington, April 12.—At the treasury department, in reply to inquiries, it was stated yesterday morning that the claims of South Carolina and other southern states for expenses incurred during the Spanish war for providing for and maintaining the volunteer troops, are now being paid. The department is paying the claims as rapidly as possible after the vouchers are received duly signed.

Judge Townsend, private secretary to Senator McLaurin, was in the city for some time in connection with the South Carolina claims, but has returned to the state. It is understood that some of the claims have been returned to Columbia on account of errors in properly filling out the vouchers, but they will be paid as soon as they can be corrected.

The claims of Virginia, North Carolina and of other southern states which have been held up are also being received at the treasury department and settled as rapidly as is possible under the routine of the treasury department. It was stated at the treasury that it will not be long before all of the legitimate claims against the government growing out of the Spanish war have been settled.

For some time the claims of North Carolina, and one or two of the other states, were in such condition that it appeared as if it would be necessary to refer them to congress for congressional legislation before they could be paid by the treasury department, but it was stated yesterday that the trouble over these claims are now being straightened out, and it is hoped that the necessity for such action can be avoided. A number of the North Carolina claims have already been paid by the department.

It was reported yesterday that Mr. Ralph Riddleberger has removed his residence to Norfolk, Virginia, where he goes for the purpose of entering into the practice of law. Mr. Riddleberger is a young man and has many friends in Washington where he has resided during the sessions of congress for many years. He is a son of Ex-Senator Riddleberger, of Virginia, who represented the state in the senate during the Mahone regime. For many years Mr. Ralph Riddleberger was head page of the senate. He has a pleasing manner, is a young man of estimable qualities, and has the faculty of making and keeping friends. It is said by his friends that he resembles his distinguished father in many particulars.

Miss Bessie Henderson, of North Carolina, passed through Washington the other day enroute to Baltimore where she goes for the purpose of visiting friends. Miss Henderson is a daughter of Ex-Representative Henderson of North Carolina. She did not remain in Washington only just long enough to make the proper railroad connections.

The latter part of last week several Virginia democrats, including Representative Jones, Lamb and Rixey, Attorney General Montague, and Hon. J. Walton Moore, were in the city. These gentlemen were all signers of the recent call for a conference upon the subject of a popular primary, but it is said that nothing in the nature of a conference between the gentlemen was held here, or at least nothing to that effect will be admitted. The gentlemen, so far as can be learned, have all returned to their homes.

Mrs. E. K. Jones, of Norfolk, Virginia, and Miss Mary Page, of Aberdeen, North Carolina, are in the city for a few days. The ladies are stopping at the St. James hotel.

Zebulon M. Caviness has been commissioned postmaster at Brayville, North Carolina. Augustine C. Tew has been commissioned postmaster at Rhodes, North Carolina.

Interest is being revived in the case of Judge Ewart. It is claimed that he is debarred from reappointment as Judge by a certain section of the revised statutes, but this is denied by the friends of Judge Ewart and they say the president will reappoint him.

Death of One of Henderson's Most Prominent Business Men.

Henderson, N. C., April 11.—Mr. E. W. Hite, one of our leading business men, dropped dead on the street about 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. His death was quite a shock to the community. Mr. Hite was seemingly well at dinner and was laughing and talking to friends up town a few moments prior to his death. He went to get his mail and was returning to his place of business when he fell, dying instantly of paralysis of the heart.

Brockmann Concert.

It is not often we have the opportunity to listen to a song rendered by a pupil of the composer, but such will be the case tomorrow night at the Brockmann Orchestra concert. The good night song by Bischoff, to be sung by Mrs. Claxton, was taught her by the composer himself, at Washington, D. C. Tickets for this concert now on sale at Gardner's drugstore. General admission 35 cents, reserved seats 50 cents.

Meeting at The Baptist Church.

Good congregations greet Mr. Love who is preaching this week at Washington street Baptist church. All who have heard him have been won by his simple, earnest style of preaching.
