A MOONSHINER'S F. I. NDS.

Sick to Him in Time of Trouble and Turn the Tables.

United States Marshal Millikan received a letter yesterday afternoon informing him of the troubles of G. H. Priddy, one of his deputies. Priddy was one of the party of revenue men who recently invaded the Smith settlement in Stokes county and laid lawful hands on Jim Taylor and Will Smith. The party didn't quite rid the settlement of moonshine stills, and, as this particular spot was nearer to Priddy than any other like officer, he kept one eye in that direction, intent on bagging at least one more "shiner." That "shiner" was John Phillips. Priddy saw Phillips at Madison Tuesday and made for him. Phillips tried to escape by running, and with the officer a few yards in the rear a pretty chase was kept up for some time. But when Priddy realized that the foot-footed distiller was leaving him, he pulled his gun and shot several balls into mother earth, not aiming at Phillips at all. The latter did "care" to take chances, however, and halted. He was taken to town and was about to have a preliminary hearing, when he and behold! a warrant was served on Priddy for shooting at the fleeing "shiner." Priddy was tried before the mayor and bound over to court. Phillips had all the friends now, and they urged him to run, but he didn't. Priddy's case will be carried from the State to the Federal court. Marshall Millikan has engaged Judge Adams to make the charge.

ANNUAL MEETING

Of the Industrial and Immigration Association.

Greensboro, N. C., Aug. 14, '99.

The postponed annual meeting of the Industrial and Immigration Association will be held at the court house on Monday night, August 21, at 8:30. The regular time for this meeting coming as it did in the midst of preparations for gala week, it was deemed wise to postpone until after the festivities of that occasion were over that we might have a full meeting of the members of this association and its friends. It is desired by the management to render a full and complete account of their stewardship. New officers will be elected at this meeting, and everyone interested in the growth and development of Greensboro should attend and use his best judgment in selecting such men as are in a position to use their time, money and influence in developing the city's manufacturing interests.

We would advise that Mr. M. V. Richards, land and industrial agent of the Southern Railway, formerly occupying the same position with the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad, and one of the highest authorities on industrial progress in the United States, has consented to be present at this meeting and deliver the address of the evening.

Please let the association have your cooperation in making this meeting a success and in laying plans that will greatly increase its usefulness during the next year.

W. M. Barber, J. S. Hunter, Secretary, President.

RECRUITING OFFICE NEWS.

A Recruit Who Will Practice Law.

The first deserter.

In the next party of recruits who leave here for the Philippines will be Jas. De V. Neales, business manager of the State Journal, a weekly paper published at Raleigh. He has stood an examination before the supreme court and secured license to practice law and will go to the Philippines to "grow up with the country" as a lawyer after he has served his two years in the army.

The recruiting officers here have been informed that Cleveland E. Bryant, one of the recruits who left here Monday for Vancouver Barracks, Wash., has deserted. He left the train at Asheville that night and has not been heard from since. Bryant said he was from Spartanburg, S. C., and was one of the "bravest" men in the party with whom he left. He like all the rest, was given rations for one day and $7.50 in cash when he left here. He is, no doubt, now enjoying his cash in the quiet hills of Western North Carolina.

Owens, the recruit who was arrested at Clinton, Tenn., while enroute to Vancouver Barracks, has been released and forwarded.

Mr. Barker's Wheat Crop

John Barker returned this morning from his farm, five miles northeast of this city, where he has been looking after the threshing of his wheat crop. The threshing machines had not finished work when he left, but he estimates his crop at 700 bushels. He calls this a fine yield for the small amount of grain sown.

Ladies who like nice shoes, good shoes that fit well, feel comfortable, look dainty and wear well should look at Thacker & Brookman's new line of Baltimore made Goodyear welts. They come button and lace, all sizes and are sold at $2.75.

LABORER IS GROWING WEAKER

His Suffering Is Great, and His Fever Continues to Increase

THE TRIAL IS PROGRESSING.

Dreyfus Emphatically Denies Some of Roget's Evidence—Prisoner Makes a Statement.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Rennes, August 17.—Laborer is slightly worse this morning. His fever continues to increase, and Dr. Rochoux says he is weaker than he was yesterday. He has suffered greatly.

The prosecution closed with the examination of General Roget. He refused to explain the course of his relation with the H. nry forgery on the ground that it would betray secrets of the military service. Magistrate Bertie made a strong case for the defense and reiterated his conviction of Dreyfus' innocence. Suddenly, without investigation, Mme. Henry rushed to the stand and vehemently denounced Bertie as "Judas." She declared that her dead husband knew that Dreyfus was a traitor. The audience all laughed at her. Colonel Picquart then entered upon a detailed account of his investigations of the charges against Dreyfus and the Esterhazy plot.

Piquart's evidence was very clear and definite and took up the seriatim. All charges made against him were answered each either involved in the Dreyfus case or not.

Roget grew very restive during his cross examination, especially when he was questioned about Esterhazy. The prisoner rose after Roget's examination and emphatically denied point blank some of the general's evidence. He said that he had never traced upon a map any plan of concentration or mobilization of French troops, nor ever had any knowledge of the details of the movements nor plans of distribution of various units throughout the departments.

PAID TO QUIT.

The Late Dispensary Clerk Gets Salary to Do Nothing.

Our readers will remember that on Tuesday we printed a squib announcing that Mr. Jno. B. McCauley, clerk at the dispensary, had resigned. That was all the news we had about it.

It transpires, however, that the resignation was handed to Mr. McAllister, chairman of the board at 11:45 to take effect at 12 o'clock, noon, thus giving only fifteen minutes notice.

Mr. McAllister at once secured the services of Mr. F. N. Tate, and a few minutes after the retiring clerk closed up, the chairman met him going from the dispensary, got the keys and the place was reopened, having been closed only five or ten minutes, instead of an hour, as has been erroneously reported.

Additional color is added to the transaction by the fact that Mr. McCauley is now telling that he gets the same amount of pay to walk the streets that he got as dispensary clerk. In other words, according to his own statement, he was hired to quit.

Mr. William B. Hill Dies Suddenly.

Mr. William B. Hill, who has been in this city for several days, received a telegram last night informing him of the sudden death of his father, Mr. William B. Hill, which occurred about 8:30 o'clock last night, at his home in Danville. Young Mr. Hill and his sister, Mrs. Miller, who lives here, left for Danville last night.

William B. Hill was a prominent citizen of Danville, having lived there for several years. He was considerably past 50 years old and it is thought that he died of heart disease, from which it seems he had suffered for some time.

A Series of Lectures.

Rev. Livingston Johnson, pastor of West Washington Street Baptist church last night began a series of short lectures on "The Baptist Faith." His subject last night was "Organization and Government of the Church," and was very interesting. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure cures dyspepsia because its ingredients are such that it can't help doing so. "The public can rely upon it as a master remedy for all disorders arising from imperfect digestion."—James M. Thomas, M. D.; in American Journal of Health, N. Y. Howard Gardner.

THE DEWEY CELEBRATION

At Washington Will be a National Affair.

ENTIRE CREW OF THE OLYMPIA

Will be Asked to be Allowed to be Present at the Great Event—Other Washington News.

Special to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, August 17.—Representative Bankhead, of Alabama, was among the prominent arrivals in Washington Wednesday morning. He went on to the Metropolitan Hotel, where will make his headquarters while in the city. Mr. Bankhead is in Washington on business before the various executive departments, and may remain for several days. He is a candidate for the next primary leadership in the next house of representatives to succeed Mr. Bailey, of Texas, who withdrew as a candidate for the honor shortly before the adjournment of the last congress. Mr. Bankhead is much pleased with his prospects, and in addition to receiving a large support from the Gulf States, he will also have the support of several representatives from the other Southern states, and also has assurances of the votes of a veral eastern and western members of the house. The Alabamian has the support of Representatives Baily, and in the event that the latter's friends accept his withdrawal from the field as final, it is the belief of Mr. Bankhead's friends that he will receive the votes of nearly, if not all, the entire delegation from Texas, with the exception of Mr. Hawley, who is a republican.

Mr. Bankhead has been mentioned prominently since the Morgan episode as a candidate for the seat now held by the latter in the United States senate. If Mr. Bankhead has any idea of leaving the house of representatives and seeking higher honors, he keeps the fact to himself. In conversation the other day he stated that he is not a candidate for the senate, and expects to remain in the house of representatives during the next two years at least.

Mr. Blankinship, census supervisor of the North Virginia district, is in the city. In speaking of the situation in Virginia he says he believes that Senator Marin will be re-elected, although Governor Tyler is making a strong fight. The democrats of the Ninth district, he says, are with Governor Tyler, and he will have the support of the members of the legislature from the counties composing that district.

In speaking of General Walker's contest for a seat in the house, Mr. Blankinship says that Walker has a good case, and he is of the opinion the house will seat him, and will oust Judge Rhea. The Ninth district, he says, is naturally a republican district, although in State elections it always goes Democratic.

The Washington reception to Admiral Dewey will be national and not local in its character. While, of course, the arrangements for the affair are in the hands of a local committee, the president and government are cooperating. Already there are many indications that a very large crowd will come to Washington on the occasion, and although the reception is more than a month off, already applications are being received from persons who intend coming for quarters. Among the applications received is one from Fargo, North Dakota, which shows that even as far distant as that the Washington reception is being looked forward to with interest. Persons therefore, who contemplate coming to Washington to see Admiral Dewey would do well to get their applications in for quarters early, although no fear is felt but that all who visit the National Capital will be cared for.

In addition to having Admiral Dewey and his officers come to the National Capital, an effort is to be made to induce the secretary of the navy to permit the entire crew of the Olympia. Dewey's flagship, to come to Washington for the event. It is thought that the secretary of the navy will grant this request, or at least, if this cannot be done that the privilege will be granted to as many of the "Tars" of the Olympia as can be spared away from the vessel.

The attorneys in Washington for the North Carolina creditors of the late firm of Postfield & Co., stock brokers, who lost considerable money by their failure, have instructed their agent in North Carolina to begin at once the prosecution of the firm in the state.

Ex-representative James Hamilton Lewis, of Washington state, who came here several days ago for the purpose of presenting the claims of British Columbia miners, has gone to Pennsylvania, to visit his parents.

Dr. George W. Graham, accompanied by his wife, arrived in the city from Charlotte, Wednesday morning, and they are registered at the Metropolitan Hotel, where they will remain for only a few days.

J. M. Emerson, traffic manager of the Atlantic Coast Line, has generously offered the use of his system for free transportation of relief supplies for Porto Rico. Secretary Root has written a letter to Mr. Emerson accepting his kind offer.

MARRIED IN A PRINT SHOP.

This morning Editor C. W. Gold, of our contemporary, laid aside the paste pot and the pencil and donned his robe of office as a justice of the peace. For the once the Times office was turned into a nuptial bower and cupid reigned triumphant, for two of his darts had reached their mark.

According to the form and statutes of the state Justice of the Peace Gold united in the bonds of matrimony Mr. Herbert Edmondson, of Wayne, aged 22, and Miss Oppie Bass, of the same county, aged 15. The young lady was in the short dress becoming her age, by her brother accompanied her, and Register of Deeds Barnes had been given the consent in writing of the parents of the youthful bride.

To witness the ceremony the typos forsook their cases, the big press ceased its rumbling and was still and quiet as the happy couple were pronounced man and wife.—Wilson Daily News.

JUDGE COBLE REFUSED TO SIGN.

An Unexpected Turn in the Solicitorship Cases.

Asheville, August 16.—In the superior court today, in the solicitorship cases, judgment final, in favor of Jones, of Caldwell county, for solicitor, was presented for Judge Coble's signature in accordance with an agreement by counsel. The judge said he understood when he went into the trial that all the cases were to be heard. He declined to sign the judgment and telegraphed for E. J. Justice, of Marion, counsel for Jones, to return to court that the hitch may be adjusted.

A Park at Last.

Superintendent O'Brien of the Southern, is preparing to cap the climax around the depot by making a small park of the little unpaved square next to South Elm street. An iron fence is being put around it for that purpose. The present macadam will be taken up and replaced by rich soil in which grass and flowers will soon be growing. A very pretty plot it will be when the superintendent's plans are executed.

GUERIN WILL STARVE RATHER

He Refuses to Surrender on Any Terms.

Paris, August 16.—M. Joseph Lascies, Anti-Semite and Anti-Revisionist, member of the chamber of deputies for Gers, and M. Massard, manager of the Patrie, held a consultation today with Premier Waldeck-Rousseau's secretary in behalf of M. Guerin, president of the Anti-Semite League, who, with sympathizers, has been barricaded since Saturday in the offices of the league, regarding terms under which the latter would surrender. The secretary said it was essential that the law should be upheld, but that the government was as anxious as the mediators to effect a bloodless arrest.

Further conferences on the subject have been arranged.

Crowds of people continue to watch M. Guerin's barricade, over which the Anti-Semite banner still waves.

Later it was announced that M. Guerin refused to surrender on any terms and said he would starve rather than capitulate.
