MR. McCauley Replies.

His Explanation of Why He Resigned as Clerk

To the Editor of the Evening Telegram and the public:

In justice to myself I wish to reply through your columns to the article "Paid to Quit" published on August 17 in your paper. I was employed by the dispensary board as a clerk, understanding that in the event of a vacancy in the office of manager I should have the promotion. After Capt. Bouldin resigned I superintended the business for over seven days, giving perfect satisfaction to all parties, as I had all reason to believe. When I heard that Mr. Kennett was to be appointed to fill the vacancy I did not feel three of the dispensary board that I would not serve under Mr. Kennett under any circumstances; and when I was certain of the fact I placed my resignation in the hands of Mr. McAllister, chairman. My resignation was no surprise to the board, for they were fully aware of my determination in the event of Mr. Kennett's appointment.

No advantage was taken or tried to be taken of the board. They have the right, according to the act "to discharge without notice," and I consented, if so disposed, I could do the same.

My private business is my own affair. I left the employ of the dispensary board without any plans for the future, or promises either, because my self-respect demanded such a course, and I feel that I have done right. If I have succeeded in obtaining employment I am thankful for it, in these times when so many are without it, but I want it distinctly understood that I was not "paid to quit."

NEW OPERA HOUSE.

Outsiders Contemplate Building An Up-to-date One Here.

Messrs. O. in Neal, of Danville, Va., and Thomas M. Searles, of Vicksburg, Miss., are in the city today prospecting with a view to erecting a new opera house here.

Mr. Neal is intimately connected with the best opera house in Danville and Mr. Searles is secretary and manager of the Vicksburg Opera House Company. Both are practical young men of ample means and if they receive the desired encouragement from the citizens here, will erect in Greensboro one of the handsomest opera houses in the state.

They have gone to work like men of business and we understand have so far met with encouragement.

Messrs. Neal and Searles propose to furnish half the capital stock for a $30,000 opera house company—the other half to be subscribed by citizens of Greensboro.

BIG CABBAGE CROP.

Enormous Shipments of Vegetables and Poultry From Mt. Airy.

Traffic on that division of the Atlantic & Yadkin road between Greensboro and Mt. Airy is heavier than it has been for several years. A few days ago we mentioned the fact that larger freight engines had been put on to haul the enormous amounts of coke from Walnut Cove to Greensboro. In addition to this, the cabbage crop in the mountainous section around Mt. Airy seems to have been much larger than in former years and scores of crates of the vegetables are being shipped through Greensboro every day. These, with the usual shipments of poultry and apples and other produce has made it necessary for the Southern to add another car for express and freight car for this purpose has been a part of the southbound A & Y trains for several days. Many of the cabbage and apples are shipped to South Carolina.

Stout Men.

We have a line of suits especially built for stout men. The sleeves are shorter than the regular coat, the length is shorter and there is more cloth around the body, yet these suits are the most perfect fitting goods to be had for men built as described. Are you built this way? If you are, call and see the assortment of patterns at our store. The entire stock is being sold to close up our business, as we will retire from business at an early date. Fishback & Katz Co., Inc.

Severe Accident.

A man going down the street today was suddenly struck to the ground by some powerful but unseen force. It was feared that he had been the unhappy recipient of an apoplectic stroke, but further developments proved that one of those dangerous things called ideas had seized him. He soon got all right.

And Still They Join.

Four recruits will leave here tonight for Vancouver Barracks, Wash. They are: Chas. C. Robertson, of Greensboro; Wm. T. Hilton and Geo. W. Hilton, of Advance, and Richard Tickle, of Mt. Airy. Harry P. White, of Mebane, has enlisted for service in the Second artillery and will leave tonight for Fort Henry, Baltimore.

M. LABORI WILL GET WELL

This Agreeable Fact Made Known Today.

THE PROGRESS OF THE TRIAL.

Picquart Created a Sensation By Saying, "I am Convinced that Esterhazy is the Guilty Man."

By Cable to the Telegram

Rennes, August 18—A man believed to be the assassin of Labori was arrested at the town of Dol today. His name is Glorro, he is 40 years old, and answers the description. Immediately after his arrest he told his captors that he was the assassin. He was intoxicated when arrested.

A SENSATION.

Rennes, August 18—Picquart created a sensation when he said that papers had been stolen from his desk and hinted that Paty du Clam was the thief. Picquart stated that Gause had forbidden him to probe the case.

LABOR IMPROVING.

Rennes, August 18—Labori is rapidly gaining strength. He is now confident of his return to the court.

MERCIER'S ADMISSION.

Rennes, August 18—Demange today, on the cross examination of Mercier, brought out the cold-blooded admission that the latter's evidence was practically known to be false and used to secure the conviction of Dreyfus.

PIQUART'S CLIMAX.

Rennes, August 18—Picquart today exceeded yesterday's effort and made some fine points. A climax was reached when Picquart, with sensational effect, said "I am convinced that Esterhazy is the guilty man."

French Pronunciation.

Joining a party of men standing on the streets, one not infrequently finds them discussing the meaning or pronunciation of certain French words which they have seen in the cable reports of the Dreyfus trial. After a brief study of his French dictionary any person may feel perfectly safe in betting that his uninformed fellowman will go wide of the mark in an attempt to pronounce even a very common French word. For instance: Judge W. P. Bynum, Jr., today asked for guesses on the pronunciation of "Rennes." After half a dozen guesses had been made he modestly stated that it was pronounced "ren." No authority for the pronunciation of "Dreyfus" could be given.

Building Notes.

Bricklaying on Groome Brothers' new store building on lower South Elm street was begun yesterday. Contractor N. A. Hanner has the contract to erect the building and will complete it as soon as possible.

The building, as stated before, will have a front of 75 feet and will contain three store rooms on the first floor, the two upper stories to be used as tenements.

The handsome iron front is being put up at the new Groome building on South Elm street. R. J. Pleasant has this contract.

M. Schiffman has begun the erection of a handsome two-story residence on the corner of West Washington and Eugene streets.

Winston News.

Special to the Telegram. Winston, August 18—One hundred stemmers employed by W. F. Smith & Son, export leaf tobacco dealers, of this city, went on strike today at 11 o'clock because their demand for higher wages was not granted. The firm claims they were paying the same scale as Richmond, Danville, and other large places, hence the refusal. The 5-year old daughter of R. T. Stedman died last night.

Good Roads Meeting.

The Guilford county Good Roads Society will meet at the court house here on Monday at 12 o'clock. A good attendance of those interested in the movement for good roads is expected and the best means of securing good roads for Guilford will be freely discussed. It is earnestly desired that as many country people as possibly can, will attend.

The Shamrock Arrives.

By Wire to the Telegram. New York, August 18—The cup challenger Shamrock arrived at Sandy Hook at 8:14 this morning, after a voyage of fifteen days. She was towed up the bay and surrounded by hundreds of craft. She made a remarkably fast trip and arrived a week ahead of time.

Dewey Has Recovered.

By Cable to the Telegram. Leghorn, August 18—Admiral Dewey has completely recovered and today he received visits from U. S. Consul Smith and members of the American colony. The consul gave a luncheon in the admiral's honor.

NOTES FROM HIGH POINT.

The Local News From Our Neighbor Briefly To'd.

TELEGRAM BUREAU } HIGH POINT, N. C., AUGUST 18 }

The graded school will open its doors for business on Sept. 4th.

A. R. Hammer's residence on Steele street is receiving a coat of paint.

Mrs. J. H. Petty, who has been indisposed for several days, is better.

The High Point Upholstery Company has purchased a boiler and an engine.

Miss Nettie McCauley, of Rockingham, is a guest of the Misses Alexander.

Mrs. W. H. Ragan and daughter left last night for Hot Springs to spend two weeks.

Mrs. C. I. O'Brien and daughter, Bessie, of Winston, are visiting the family of W. H. Dudley.

The Sunday schools of Benedict, Archdale and others will have a union picnic in the grove at Archdale tomorrow.

Geo. Medlin's house and all its contents in Macedonia were destroyed by fire last evening about 6 o'clock. Origin of fire unknown.

Prof. Geo. H. Crowell, superintendent of the High Point graded schools, left this morning for his home near Albemarle to spend several days.

The Epworth League of the M. E. church gave a lawn party for the benefit of the door last night. Delightful refreshments were served and a good sum was realized.

The High Point cornet band was out serenading last night. The boys treated the public to several exhilarating and patriotic pieces, which were thoroughly enjoyed.

Mrs. H. F. Stamey will leave tomorrow morning for an extended visit to her daughters at Hickory, Marion, and father and relatives in Lincoln and Catawba counties.

Miss Mary Owen, of Chester, S. C., who has been visiting her brother, A. J. Owen for some time, will leave tomorrow morning for Charlotte, to the regret of her friends and acquaintances here.

H. A. Moffitt's note for $1,450 which he sent to Asheboro several weeks ago and had not heard from it, has been found at last. A gentleman carried it in his coat all that time not thinking of it until he changed his clothing, whereupon he handed it to the proper one. Such mistakes will occur.

Charlie Clinard, son of Wm. Clinard of this city, died at the state hospital at Morganton yesterday of consumption. His remains arrived here last night on the 9:13 train and were interred at Abbott's Creek burying ground this morning at 11 o'clock. Rev. J. M. Hilliard conducted the services.

Among the excursionists from here we noticed Mrs. J. J. Welch, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Pickett, A. Sherrill, Misses Mary Baker and Kate Barbee, Mrs. Barbee, Dr. Burton, John Scruggs, Mrs. Lee Payne, and Mrs. A. L. Horney, Doc Welborn, Misses Eshelman, Anna and Clara Kirkman. At least one hundred and fifty went from this place.

The excursion from Asheboro to Wilmington reached here this morning about 8:30 o'clock. A good crowd from Randolph county was on board, which augmented by the excursionists from this place, the train pulled out from High Point at 8:50 o'clock, with seven well filled coaches. All seemed to be in a good humor and at this writing the best of order prevails. It is to be hoped this will continue throughout the trip.

A SPARK WIPES OUT THOUSANDS.

Blaze at Red Springs Destroys Much Property.

Red Springs, N. C., August 17—There was a ten thousand dollar fire here today caused by sparks. W. J. McDiarmid's lumber plant was burned. The loss was $5,000, partially covered by insurance.

The Red Springs Lumber Company lost four cars, much lumber, their freight depot, etc. Loss $1,000, not insured.

The A. C. L. railroad lost three flat cars and a water tank. The damage to the track caused two hours' delay of trains.

The Parisian Audience.

"Were you present when that witness testified in the Dreyfus case?" "Yes. It was inspiring. His enunciation was good, his gestures superb and his costume appropriate." "But did he tell the truth?" "Why—you don't expect one to notice everything, do you?"—Washington Star.

Ladies who like nice shoes, good shoes that fit well, feel comfortable, look dainty and wear well should look at Thacker & Brookmann's new line of Baltimore made Goodyear welts. They come button and lace, all sizes and are sold at $2.75.

THE ANTI GOEBEL FACTION

In Kentucky Nominates a Strong State Ticket.

SOUTHERN BUSINESS OUTLOOK

Is Very Good—The Crops Are Abundant, Although In Some Sections Damaged By Rain.

Special to the Telegram.

Washington, August 18—The State ticket which has just been nominated by the anti-Goebel faction of the democracy in Kentucky is generally regarded here by people from that State as a strong one. But very few Kentucky people, outside of the executive departments are now in the city, so far as could be ascertained none of the State delegation being in Washington. Among those who are here is Judge Fleming. He had, however, but little to say in regard to the situation excepting to say that there is no use of the Goebel people denying the strength of ex-Governor Brown in the State, whom he believes will draw a large vote from the regular ticket. Major Johnson, who has been named for lieutenant governor, it is said will add strength to the bolter's ticket.

For some time there have been persistent rumors in Washington among Kentucky people that influences would be brought to bear upon Goebel and the remainder of the regular ticket to withdraw, and to allow another democratic State convention to be held. It is the belief of many of the Kentucky people who have been seen that the proposition of Governor Brown to this end, made in the convention which nominated him, will be put in some tangible shape, and submitted to Col. Goebel, and his followers. While it is not known at Washington what the chances for a compromise are upon this basis, the belief is strong among those here that this would afford a solution of the difficulty existing in the ranks of the democracy of the State, and would prevent the election of a republican governor, and the possible defeat of the democratic electoral ticket next year. Republicans from Kentucky, of course, take much interest in the situation, and among them the belief is that both Goebel and Brown will stick to the end, and will allow the trouble to be settled at the polls.

The name of Representative Bankhead of Alabama, has been prominently connected with the recent conference held at Saratoga. Mr. Bankhead stated positively the other day that he was not present at the meeting there, and has not attended any anti-Bryan conferences. He is of the opinion that Col. Bryan will be renominated by the Democratic National convention next year, and he says that Alabama will send a solid delegation pledged to his support.

Mr. Bankhead says that the business outlook in the Southern States is very good. There have been abundant crops he says, in all of the Gulf States, although in some sections much damage has been done by the heavy rains. On the whole, however, he says that the southern farmer is prosperous and happy.

Representative Bankhead has been in Congress for twelve consecutive years. His friends regard him as fully equipped for the duties as leader of the party on the floor. Hon. William A. Little, of Frederickburg, formerly a member of the Virginia state senate, is in the city for a few days on personal business. Mr. Little will be a candidate for the democratic nomination for congress in the first Virginia district next year to succeed Hon. Wm. Jones, who has represented the district in the lower house of congress so long. Mr. Little is an advocate of the re-election of Senator Martin, and believes that his election is assured. The effort being made to cast slurs upon the record of Senator Martin, Mr. Little does not believe will be successful, and he thinks it will react in favor of the senator.

An anti-trust meeting was held in this city last night, which was quite largely attended. Among the speakers who took part were Judge Fleming, of Kentucky, and Attorney Groot, of Ohio.

Miss Portia Sprague, a daughter of the late Mrs. Kate Chase Sprague, and a granddaughter of the late Salmon P. Chase, has been appointed to a $1,200 clerkship in the treasury department. Miss Sprague made the application since the death of her mother. The family was left poor, and she has a sister dependent upon her. She passed a very creditable examination, and also a supplemental examination in French and German. The position is said to be a temporary one.

Oliver J. Sands, bank examiner for Virginia and the District of Columbia has resigned and will enter into business at Richmond, Va. His successor will not be appointed until Comptroller Dawes returns to Washington from his vacation.

Mrs. E. D. Crane and daughter, of Charlotte, N. C., are visiting in the city.

Among North Carolina people in the city are Mr. E. R. Palamontaine, and family, of Charlotte, who are at the St. James hotel.

V. H. Boyden, of Raleigh, and H. A. Gu'ger, of Asheville, are in the city. The former is stopping at the Metropolitan hotel, and the latter at the National.

THE STORM ON OUR COAST.

It Produced the Highest Tides Known in Twenty Years.

The Messenger representative remained at Wrightsville Beach until 3:45 p. m., and witnessed the highest tide ever known on the beach, even exceeding the great storm of 1893. At 11 a. m. when he reached the beach the tide was coming in and the wind was blowing from the north at about twenty-five miles velocity, causing a very heavy surf.

If the wind had come from the ocean instead of from the shore, the ocean and Wrightsville sound would have united and not a hotel or cottage would have been left. According to the hydrographic almanac the tide should have been high at 2:30 p. m., but it continued to roll in till 4 p. m. It was consequently the highest tide in the history of the beach within the memory of people who have spent the past ten years there and within the remembrance of the Messenger scribe who was on hand and witnessed the great storm of 1893. In 1893 the wind was coming from the sea and the ocean and sound were rougher than Tuesday. Yesterday with the wind coming in with the tide, the beach would have been wiped out. On the contrary and very luckily it was against the tide and braced the breakers. As it was the railroad track in many places was all that kept the ocean and sound from mixing. From the bank's channel to Wrightsville the sound was a vast sheet of water with no marsh grass to be seen. When the 3:45 p. m. train left for the city the water in Banks' Channel and in the sound between the Hammocks and Wrightsville was within four feet of the track across the trestle. The only damage done by this high tide was the washing away of several gangways. If we except the little room shanty which stood on the beach between the old Ocean View hotel and the Hewlett house. The surf undermined the shanty and broke it to pieces. It belonged to the Ocean View Company, and was occupied by A. A. Nahan's servant girl. After the house dropped into the surf several men got into it and saved a bedstead, several chairs and most of the occupant's effects. In one or two places the swash of the surf slipped across the beach into the sound. At Wrightsville the road on the dam between Wrightsville and Summer Rest was several inches under water.—Wilmington Messenger.

The Secret Dossier.

By means which we need not now specify we have managed to learn the contents of the secret dossier in the Dreyfus case, says the Memphis Commercial-Appeal. We have not reached the bottom of the bag, but up to the time of going to press we have fished out the following damning evidence of the guilt of Dreyfus:

One bootleg that belonged to Baron Munchausen.

A pack of tobacco quids.

Several unpaid bar bills of Esterhazy's.

$100,000 in Confederate currency.

Ella Wheeler Wilcox's "Poems of Passion."

A due bill of the Prince of Wales.

Splinters from Count Bony Castellane's pedigree.

Sarah Bernhardt's marriage certificate.

A shirt waist of Paul Derouledes.

A speech of Emperor Bill's.

A spittoon of Chestnut de Muehre pair's.

A recipe for the gin Rickey.

A file of the Hardeman Free Press

A litter of dead cats, the property of Du Paty de Clam.

A dozen eggs that have outlived their usefulness.

A boot-jack of the first empire.

A bound copy of the orations of the Hon. John Wesley Gaines.

A box of the Coin Harvey cigars.

A correct guide to the absinthe jag.

A portrait of Oom Paul Kruger.

Three uncut copies of London Punch.

A plug of conspuez tobacco.

A lady's silk handkerchief.

An abandoned bon mot of Chauncey M. Dopey.

A can of Algerized beef.

The record in the Lusteg case.

A pair of cuffs worn not wisely but too well by Zola.

A deck of cards.

A package of cigarettes found on the person of Dreyfus when he was arrested.

An old hat full of red, white and blue chips.

A number of empty bottles.

A confession by Dreyfus that he is innocent.

Wanted. About 20 young ladies to make overalls and pants. Apply at factory on Buchanan street from 6:15 to 6:45 p. m.
