MRS COOK'S FUNERAL. She Now Sleeps in the Quiet Cemetery at Guilford College.

Starting from the residence near the Normal College shortly after twelve o'clock yesterday, the remains of Mrs. Joo W. Cook were followed to their last resting place by a large concourse of relatives and friends.

The funeral services were conducted in Friends Church at Guilford College by Rev. Dr. J. C. Rowe, of West Market street church. The ceremony was beautiful and impressive.

In the quiet churchyard hard by, loving hands placed the sacred form in the earth beneath a bower of lovely autumn flowers, there to sleep until the final summons from above shall call her back and the mortal shall put on immortality.

Heavy Freight Traffic. The freight traffic on the main line of the Southern Railway is so heavy that crews from the western North Carolina division have been transferred temporarily to the main line to help handle the trains.

BOERS FOUGHT LIKE DEMONS The Fight With the Gordon Highlanders Last Friday.

Explained—The Boers Were Pressing too Close—Tale of a Hotel Man from Ladysmith.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM. Cape Town, Nov. 9.—The Boers fought like demons Friday. The Gordon Highlanders lost heavily, but the loss of the Boers was awful. The wounded presented a frightful appearance, many of them with their noses and eyes missing as a result of the bayonet and sabre charges and hand-to-hand fighting.

BOMBARDMENT CEASED. London, Nov. 9.—White reports that the pigeon bombardment ceased Saturday. Sunday it was expected to be resumed on Monday.

REVERTS TO PREVIOUS STATUS. London, Nov. 9.—Sailsbury, at the lord mayor's banquet tonight, will outline the future policy of the government in the Transvaal and the Orange Free State.

General admission is 10 cents; season tickets 25 cents, children 5 cents. The show will be continued tomorrow.

WILL TAKE THE OFFICIAL Count to Decide the Result in Kentucky. Louisville, Ky., Nov. 9.—The Courier Journal figures give Goebel 2,070 plurality. Other figures give Taylor 3,000 plurality.

OFFICIAL COUNT REQUIRED. Louisville, Ky., Nov. 9.—As the returns come in, the situation is unchanged. Bob parties claim the state, the democrats by 3,000, the republicans by 7,000.

Private advices from Blickenbarn are encouraging to the democrats, for they say that Goebel carried the state by 4,000. It will take the official count to decide the result.

DEWEY FOOLED THE CR WD. While They Were Waiting He and the Widow Went and Got Spliced. Washington, Nov. 9.—Dewey has again surprised the public. While the crowd was waiting outside the Meridian mansion the admiral and Mrs. Hazen were married at St. Paul's Catholic church, Father Mockin officiating.

CHRYSANTHEMUM SHOW Opened This Morning and the Hall is a Bower of Beauty.

A bewildering display of bright blooms and brilliant foliage marked the opening of the annual chrysanthemum show this morning in the Odd Fellows' hall, on West Market street.

The fancy work department is splendid, and many think the exhibit is equal to any display ever made in the state. Beautiful exhibits in embroideries, Battenburg lace, drawn work, sofa pillows, etc., have been arranged by the ladies, and altogether there is every reason to believe that the event will be a grand success.

The judges are as follows: On flowers—Mrs. J. Sterling Jones, Mrs. Walter Brooks, Miss Annie Pleasants, Mr. J. Van Lindley, and Mr. Thomas Brown.

General admission is 10 cents; season tickets 25 cents, children 5 cents. The show will be continued tomorrow.

THE MESSAGE TO CONGRESS McKinley Preparing the Material for the Instrument.

Washington, Nov. 9.—Now that the elections have passed, President McKinley will in a few days begin to consider the subject matter for his annual message to congress.

Of course it is impossible to forecast with any degree of accuracy the subjects of which the president will treat, but undoubtedly the situation in the Philippine Islands will be the one subject which will attract the greatest interest.

Among other recommendations likely to be incorporated in the coming message are recommendations for the future policy in reference to Cuba, Porto Rico and the Hawaiian islands.

There will be many subjects treated in the message of importance to the south. It is expected that he will urge upon congress the immediate necessity of legislation regarding the Nicaraguan canal, and the continuation of the work begun under the authority of the last congress.

It is said that upon the return of Admiral Dewey to Washington from New York, with Mrs. Hazen, and her mother, that they will be entertained by a number of well known Washingtonians, who are prominent in the social world.

General Fitzhugh Lee, who has been in Washington for several days, has returned to Richmond, and will spend the present week in that city.

BINGHAM SCHOOL NOTES. Protracted Meeting—Monthly Honor Roll.

Correspondence Telegram. Bingham School, Mebane, N. C., Nov. 8.—An interesting series of meetings has been held during the past week at the Presbyterian church by Rev. Dr. E. C. Murray and Rev. Mr. Hodgkin, pastor of the Second Presbyterian church of Greensboro.

Students who stood first in their respective classes for the month ending November 2d are as follows: Penmanship and Bookkeeping—Shaw, Murray, Moore and Boone.

Short-hand, typewriting and telegraphy—Tobey, Allison, Cooke, Shaw and Hedrick.

English and history—Branley W., Oldham, Powell, Boone, Long, Branley R., Muller Beall, Council and Hamilton.

Mathematics and Science—Muller, Robey, McKee, Long, Davis, Irwin, Oldham, Cooke, Johnston G., Surgis, Long, Council, Beall, Cooke and Branley W.

Mr. J. D. Maxwell, who was a student at Bingham last session, has secured the honorable and lucrative position as teacher of the business course at Warrenton High School, and is said to be giving good satisfaction to his employers.

Mr. Arthur Neal, of Ashe county, entered school today, taking the scientific course.

Pettet and Made Much of By the Women of Chattanooga. New York, Nov. 8.—A writer in the New York Press says: "I was in Chattanooga today," writes a friend who occasionally sends me bits of news along the road.

"It was 12 o'clock when I reached the jail, but I could not see her, as the jailer said she must not be disturbed. He added that he never awakes her up until 1 o'clock.

"She is looked upon as an opinion leader at the county fair, and her treatment is more on the order of what one would expect for a heroine than an assassin.

"She is made as much of as though she were a veritable queen. From what I can see here, all a woman need do in order to break into the social circles of Chattanooga is to kill a man.

"This one has a splendid room in the jail, and it is furnished elegantly. The mayor of the city and his wife are among those who call upon the Morrison woman with frequency, and she is every day the recipient of flowers and other gifts from foolish school girls.

"Several days ago she expressed a wish for a dog, and fully one hundred people called at the jail with a large assortment of canine animals from which she selected the one that best suited her.

"The jailer told her she might go to the theatre in the custody of a guard, but her attorney objected to this on the ground that it might reduce the sympathy created for his client.
