AMERICA IN THE EAST.

The information comes from Washington that as soon as Aguinaldo shall have been captured, and hanged probably, and the Filipinos well curbed and throttled for their insolent aspirations for freedom, the McKinley administration is going to cast off all restraint and enter the meshes of eastern affairs in earnest, supporting and supported by Great Britain.

Along this line the Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia Record has some intelligence in yesterday's issue of that paper which hints of the deep interest the administration is taking in the eastern matters, and which gives color to the reports of the hand the president is holding.

The assurances in writing which the United States has requested from the great powers [in regard to the gobbling up of China] and which are expected to be eventually forthcoming, though declared unnecessary, would, of course, amount to no more than the verbal assurances, if it were not known that they could not be disregarded with impunity.

A dispatch giving an account of the battle of Nicholson's Nek, says: "General Joubert was in supreme command. The Britishers advanced in the darkness on the republic forces, on the right of the hill, formed by the Free Staters, commanded by General Crofts. A stampede of their mules threw the whole force into disorder."

KENTUCKY GOES REPUBLICAN

Yet Mr. Goebel Declares He is Elected.

THE RETURNS ARE VERY SLOW.

May be a Day or Two Before All are In—Nash Wins in Ohio by Over Forty-nine Thousand.

Cincinnati, Ohio, Nov. 8.—Official returns have been received by the Western Union from all counties in Ohio, with a few scattering precincts estimated. The footings give Nash (rep.) for governor, a plurality of 49,055. The reports in most cases give only the pluralities, and hence it has not been possible to give the total vote of the candidates. The Jones vote, however, has been reported from 41 counties, including Cuyahoga, Lucas, Hamilton and Summit, where the largest vote for him was cast. It shows a total in 41 counties of 82,787.

Nothing has been received by the Western Union to change its estimate made early in the day of a plurality for Taylor, republican, for governor of Kentucky. Advances from unreported precincts are coming in slowly, and it may be a day or two before all are received.

RETURNS FAVOR TAYLOR.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 8.—With only three counties in the state to be heard from, the vote of Taylor, republican, for governor, is 121,133; Goebel, democrat, 112,206, and Brown, independent democrat, 7,301.

The returns carried everything in Louisville and claim the legislature by seven majority. This will give them the United States senator.

In almost every county the Republicans made big gains, and in some instances former democratic counties by good majorities went republican.

The Brown vote cut little figure.

GOEBEL CLAIMS KENTUCKY.

Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 8.—Senator Blackburn still continues to claim the state by a small plurality. Goebel telegraphs from Louisville that day's developments insure his election by from five to seven thousand.

TAYLOR 6,300 AHEAD.

New York, Nov. 8.—The Sun says that the Kentucky legislature is in doubt. Taylor is 6,300 ahead of Goebel on the face of the returns.

MIXED IN UTAH.

Salt Lake, Utah, Nov. 8.—Thompson, republican, for mayor has a majority of 686. The republican also elected recorder and auditor and the democrat the attorney, treasurer and justices of the peace. The council stands, 9 republicans and 6 democrats. The democrats elected mayors in Ogden, Provo, Park City and Logan.

MISSISSIPPI VOTED SOLID.

Jackson, Miss, Nov. 8.—The democratic state ticket elected as follows: Governor, H. H. Longino; lieutenant governor, J. T. Harrison; secretary of state, J. L. Power; auditor, W. Q. Cole; treasurer, Robert Stowers; attorney general, Monroe McClurg; revenue agent, Wirt Adams; superintendent of education, H. L. Whitfield; state land commission, E. H. Nail; clerk supreme court, E. W. Brown.

Railroad commissioners—northern district, J. C. Kincannon; southern district, A. Q. May; central district, J. D. McInnis.

The ticket was voted solid and there will not be a variance of 100 votes between any of the candidates on the list. Late results do not change the estimated majority of 20,000.

REPUBLICAN CONGRESSMAN.

Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 8.—J. Gill, republican, is elected over Lavoster Spence, democrat, for congress in the sixteenth Ohio district by 440 votes. Mr. Gill will fill the unexpired term of the late Lorenzo Danford.

REPUBLICAN GAINS.

New York, Nov. 8.—Taking the highest candidate for county office on each ticket in all the counties, the republican plurality in New Jersey is well above 20,000. Taking what local political leaders consider a fair average in each county, the republican plurality is about 16,000. A year ago the republican plurality in the state, calculated in the same manner was 8,400. In the same year Voorhees, republican, for governor, had 5,499 plurality.

A DEMOCRATIC SWEEP.

San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 8.—Correct semi-official returns show that the democrats made almost a clean sweep in the municipal election held here yesterday. The republicans succeeded but in seven cases on the entire ticket. They elected the sheriff, auditor, tax commissioner, county clerk and three supervisors. The democrats elected the mayor and all other county officers and fifteen supervisors. Mayor Phelan's plurality over Davis, rep., is 7,755.

REPUBLICANS ELECT JUDGE.

Aberdeen, S. D., Nov. 8.—More complete returns from the state at large confirm last night's estimate of a republican majority of seven to ten thousand for supreme court judge.

Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 8.—Senator Goebel arrived here at 8 o'clock tonight and was met at the train by a crowd of 1,500 enthusiastic followers. From the balcony of the Capitol Hotel where his headquarters is located, Mr. Goebel made a speech in which he said:

"I believe I have been elected—in fact I know I have. I see my friend General Taylor says he will assume the office of governor. All I have to say is if I have been elected, as I believe, I will be inaugurated in spite of the Louisville and Nashville railroad and Bradley's bayonets."

Ex-Senator Joseph Blackburn also spoke, claiming Goebel's election by a slender majority and calling on the people to see to it that he is seated.

Geo. Nols and Rookland, O., says "My wife had those forty years. De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve cured her. It is the best salve in America. It heals everything and cures all skin diseases. Howard Gardner."

POSTOFFICE FINANCES

Report of the Auditor of the Department on Business Transacted.

Washington, Nov. 8.—The auditor for the postoffice department in his annual report shows that during the last year the number of postoffices in the United States increased from 72,976 to 74,384; the number of domestic money orders issued increased from 27,798,078, representing $401,113,717, to 29,007,870, representing $442,483,354, a net increase in number of 1,219,792, and in volume of $41,369,636. During the year the revenues of the postal service increased from $89,012,618 to $95,021,384, and the expenditures from $97,853,407 to $101,632,160, a net increase in the receipts of $6,008,755, and in expenditures of $3,778,752. Upon this showing the auditor asks for an increase of thirty clerks as a minimum requirement for the year 1900.

Considerable space is devoted to the subject of money orders, and a statement is given which shows that during the last year the system was conducted at an actual loss to the government of approximately $105,108, which fact the auditor says would suggest the exercise of great care in legislating for the employment of new financial features in the postal service.

The postal revenues for the year are shown to have been $95,021,384, and the expenditures $101,435,269, leaving a deficit of $6,413,885. Of this amount the treasury has advanced $6,000,000 the balance unpaid being $413,885.

The amount of second class postage collected from publishers and news agents was $3,727,032, and the amount of stamps, stamped envelopes, news paper wrappers and postal cards sold was $87,280,654. The cost of mail transportation is given as $54,423,078, of which amount $1,629,749 was paid for the transportation of foreign mail.

The auditor renews his recommendation of last year to the effect that the life of money orders be limited to three months instead of twelve months as now provided by law.

Speak Your Love For It Today.

The new made grave is closed, and covered o'er With tributes rare; The fairest flowers that tender hands could bring Are scattered there.

And underneath lies one whose life has been So full of care; So heavy with the burdens none had thought To help her bear.

Whose hungry heart had of entires cried out; Appealingly For love's expression, and for tender Words of sympathy.

Ah, friends, too late you bring your costly flowers; Too late your tears; For her hath sweetly dawned the light of heaven's eternal rays.

And now it matters not at all to her, That on her grave Are strewn the flowers that in her life of care You never gave.

She needs not now the love that in her life she needed much; She cares not for your sympathy nor Craves your tender touch.

She needs not that above her cined clay You drop your tears, And speak the words of praise you have withheld Through many years.

Too late! for while you weeping bend above The flower-strewn sod, Forever she dwells in peace among The saints of God.

Friends, speak your love for me today, nor let Me vainly crave The tribute that your hands will lay Upon my new-made grave.

The Bulletin of International Statistics, just published in St. Petersburg establishes an interesting comparison between divorce figures in the different countries of Europe. Switzerland takes the lead, the divorcees among the Swiss being at the rate of forty per thousand.

"The market seems very strong this morning," remarked Mr. Newlywed, as he ran his eye over the financial news. Mrs. Newlywed burst into tears. "Oh, George!" she sobbed, "I really couldn't help it. I ordered the very best butter and I really didn't think you would notice how strong it was."

Gotrox—"I wish you to know that I am a self-made man. Cynicus—"How noble of you to assume all that responsibility.

No Cure—No Pay.

That is the way all druggists sell Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic for Chills and Malaria. It is simply iron and quinine in a tasteless form. Children love it. Adults prefer it to bitter, nauseating tonics. Price, 50c.

Scared Into Appendicitis.

"I had appendicitis the other day," said a St. Charles street business man; "that is to say, I had it to all intents and purposes. This is the way I contracted it. About a week ago I borrowed a medical work from a friend to look up a point about which I was curious. It was a work on diagnosis, and among other things it gave a minute description of the symptoms of appendicitis. I have always been much afraid of the malady, and that chapter had a hideous fascination for me. I read it and read it, and as I did so it seemed to me that some of the premonitory signs coincided exactly with certain aches and pains I had felt for several days. I got alarmed at once, and that night was panic-stricken by a severe cramp a little northeast of my right hip bone. That I knew to be the fatal spot, and, needless to say, I didn't sleep a wink.

"By morning I had the symptoms of a typical case and could scarcely get around to see the doctor. I began to tell him my story when he stopped me. 'How do you come to know so much about the disease?' he asked.

"I replied proudly that I had been reading up on it."

"The dickens you have!" he replied. "Well, you got right out of this office, confound you and don't waste any more of my time!"

"Then he explained that every medical student always has all the diseases on record in regular order, just as he studies 'em, and I began to feel better. I went home, returned the blasted book, and am now entirely out of danger, thank you. It was the quickest recovery on record." —New Orleans Times-Democrat.

A Queer Examination.

Difficulties of the civil service examinations are multiplied tenfold in the requirements set down by law of applicants for positions in the mail service of China.

In the first place an applicant must have strength and courage. To acquire these he goes through a very queer method of training. He wanders through mountains and valleys, forests and caves. The examination is conducted in a trip is fixed by law, and a heavy fine imposed for unnecessary delay. He must repeat these trips at night, and if he listens to the bad spirits and thereby fails to appear at the required time at a certain place he is sure to lose his rights to the examination.

This is not all. He is obliged to carry an enormous weight for many miles and return with it within a given time. No allowance is made for his inability to defend himself against thieves and highwaymen. His route is marked through a district thick with bandits.

In training the candidate eats very little—though he is liable to this—and he tries every straining exercise. Then comes his real examination under the direction of government officials. He is taken into a long room, where, suspended from a high beam with strong ropes, are very heavy sacks filled with rocks.

The candidate must give a swinging motion to all these sacks and then run to and fro between them, carefully guarding against a blow by one of the weights.

Crucifixion of Journalism.

A man in India recently published the following explanation: "This is only the beginning of our paper. We were not sure how much matter was required to fill it out, and thinking we had sufficient, we did not exert ourselves much to get the matter together. I core beg that our readers will excuse us this time for the space left blank and we promise to do better and get more in the future."

Still more curious was the announcement of the expected publication of the first time with two columns blank. The editor making the bold announcement that "a large quantity of exceedingly interesting matter has been left out for want of space."

When the native editor wants a holiday, he excuses his publication until it is convenient to resume, and taking his readers into his confidence, informs them plainly why the paper was not issued on the expected dates. "With the consent of our readers, we now propose to take one annual holiday. We are sure some of them will begrudge us our relaxation."

Twenty Lashes For Six Hairs.

A singular theft was tried by Mr. Beale, first class magistrate. Superstitious Burmans pull out the hairs of an elephant's tail for talismans, making rings out of them and other charms. One Nye Tun Lin went into an elephant's hair and pulled out six hairs out of a bull elephant's tail, secreting them in his umbrella. The mahout challenged him, and he promptly shook the hair out of the umbrella. They fell on some straw, were picked up and put forward in evidence of theft.

The man was convicted and sentenced to receive 20 lashes.—Times of Burma.

Mutual Distlike.

Brahms and Tschaukowsky, the famous musicians, met but twice. On the last occasion Brahms was suddenly interested in Tschaukowsky's "Fifth Symphony" to travel expressly to Hamburg in order to make its acquaintance. After the performance the distinguished composers dined together, and the conversation, Brahms frankly admitted that he did not like the work at all, whereupon the usually meek Russian plucked up sufficient courage to inform his host that the dislike of each other's music was mutual. They parted on excellent terms nevertheless.

Wanted Warmth.

"I think it would be well," said the decorator, "to have your dining room bordered by a frieze."

"No, no," remonstrated the man who had only recently struck it. "I want that room above all others, to have a warm cozy appearance." —Philadelphia North American.

PROF. V. THEO. ELY,

(12 Years Experience in Teaching)

Graduate from Rochester Business University, Rochester, N. Y., will open up a select school in Both Double and Single Entry Book-keeping, Shorthand and Muscular Movement Business Writing, at the Brockmann School of Music Hall, beginning from 9 till 11 a. m., also a separate night school from 7:00 till 9:00 for those who cannot attend in day time. No extra tuition for combining both periods.

Monday, November 13, 1899,

Tuition in both writing and book-keeping combined, full course, starting writing alone, strictly silent, $3.00. Payable at the expiration of the term. Success is guaranteed to all who attend regularly and apply themselves, or no charge will be made for tuition.

Term will continue until completed, which requires from six to eight weeks. If you ever expect to learn book-keeping or to write a good hand, now is your time.

No tuition is paid till the term closes, and the term does not close till all have finished the book-keeping course, and each student is his own judge as to when he knows it.

This fact should be taken as sufficient guarantee of safety and success. Let the pupils attend regularly and we will be responsible for the rest. No classes to study at home.

Stationery for full book-keeping course, including writing material, etc., not over 80 cents. Writing material, etc., furnished at the hall. Hall will be kept warm and comfortable.

Why You Should Attend This School:

Because for $10.00 you get the same identical course in book-keeping and penmanship that you would get at any commercial college at from $150 to $250. Because you complete the course before you pay tuition. Because every
