A CARD OF THANKS.
From the Lady Managers of the Carya-athemum Show.
The ladies of West Market street church and society feel that they have been the recipients of so many favors from the public in general as well as from many individuals in particular, that they can only express their gratitude in the words of the poet:
"When I begin to praise,
Where with the glowing numbers end?"
The obry's themum show has been an unqualified success and the ladies herewith acknowledge their indebtedness to the generous patronage of their many friends who have so nobly rallied to their aid. They feel, however, that their thanks would be inadequately expressed if they failed to mention the special kindness of the liberal business men who contributed the prizes; the many kindly notices of the Telegram and Record, which so widely advertised the occasion; the courtesy of the Odd Fellows through Mr. McLean, who made it possible to have the display by lending their building; and the special favors of the following individuals: Messrs. McDuffie and Caldwell for the use of war; R. J. Marks for gas; G. W. Alley for the nice barbecue, and last but not least, especially to J. H. West for bill-board and the painting of Rees and Bond.
The receipts were most gratifying, amounting to $278.55.
We have not abandoned the 60 per cent sale. We have only marked our stock in conformity with the reduction offered.

BOMBARDMENT OF KIMBERLY
Begun this Morning--The Town Threatened With Famine.
THE INHABITANTS CHEERED
By Cecil Rhodes, Who Gives "Famine Lunches" at His Hotel--He Visits Defences Daily.
By Cable to THE TELEGRAM
Cape Town, Nov. 11--Kimberly is threatened with famine. A message from there says the inhabitants are allowed only eight ounces of food per day. Cecil Rhodes labors indefatigably to keep up the spirits of the inhabitants. He has given several "famine lunches" at his hotel, and goes daily to the defenses to encourage the men.
A LIEUTENANT COLONEL KILLED.
London, Nov. 11--Buller wires under date of 10th inst. that a reconnoitering party from Orange River had a skirmish with the enemy four miles east of Belmont. Brevet, a lieutenant-colonel, was killed, and three lieutenants and two privates wounded.
RESERVES MISSING.
Cape Town, Nov. 11--Messages from Dear Junction report the large British camp there preparing to form a division that will march to the relief of Kimberly and Mafeking.
An official message from Kimberly of the 6th inst. says the wounded there are progressing satisfactorily. At one of the outposts to the south some reserves have been missing since the 4th inst., and are supposed to have been captured by the Boers.
TRANSPORT FOUND.
Brest, Nov. 11--Rumors are in circulation here that a British transport is foundered off Ushant.
CAPT. SLOCUMB SAILS.
London, Nov. 11--Captain Slocumb, a United States military attaché, sailed for South Africa today.
MARINES TO THE FRONT.
Durban, Nov. 11--A large force of men and guns from the cruiser Terrible has started to the front.
BOMBARDMENT OF KIMBERLY.
Pretoria, Nov. 11--The bombardment and attack upon Kimberly was begun this morning.
BASUTOS CONTINUE LOYAL.
London, Nov. 11--Cape Town advises state that the Basutos continue loyal to Great Britain. They have refused to harvest their orange crop, which lies rotting on the ground.
ALL PRISONERS TREATED ALIKE.
Dunham, Nov. 11--The governor has received a letter from Col. Scheil, a Mormon officer captured at Elandlaagte, in behalf of the Holland prisoners, extending thanks for their kind treatment. He says the Boers and the British are treated alike.
G. D. BEL IS DEFEATED.
Counties Which the Democrats Had Counted on Prove Republican.
By Wire to THE TELEGRAM
Louisville, Ky., Nov. 11--Geo. W. Long, chairman of the republican committee, said today that Taylor's election is certain with a plurality of not less than 2,000, and possibly 3,000. All armories in the state are closely guarded, the governor claiming a plot has been discovered by which the Goebels intend to seize the arms and ammunition. There is no denying the fact that the Goebels are greatly concerned over the returns which reduce the pluralities for Goebel in strong democratic counties. Kenton county drops to 400 and Warren, Union, Galloway and Logan change to republican.
A SERIOUS THREAT.
Louisville, Ky., Nov. 11--Friends of Goebel declare they will blow up the state house with dynamite before Bradley shall occupy it after December 12.
LATE OFFICIAL RETURNS.
Louisville, Ky., Nov. 11--Official returns so far received bear out the republican claim that Taylor's plurality will be 2,951. Goebel still claims a plurality of 5,000. The Courier-Journal makes no claim of a plurality for Goebel.
The Oregon Reaches Manila.
By Cable to THE TELEGRAM
Manila, Nov. 11--The Oregon has arrived here. The departure of the battleship from Hong Kong aroused much speculation, the belief being current that it would appear off the Chinese coast.
128th Anniversary.
Next Sunday the Moravian congregation at Salem will celebrate its 128th anniversary, says the Union Republican. Preparatory to the occasion a special prayer meeting was held Monday night. Next Sunday there will be a festival service at 10 a. m., sermon at 11 a. m.; love feast at 3 and communion at 7:30.
The historical account says: First meeting hall in Congregation House consecrated 13th November, 1771. This house was removed in 1854 to make room for the new academy building. Church in Salem consecrated November 9th, 1800.
Chapel built in 1881.

C. S. A. CABINET SURVIVOR.
Hon. John H. Reagan Was a Passenger on No. 35 Last Night.
The only surviving member of President Jefferson Davis' cabinet, Hon. John H. Reagan, of Austin, Texas, was in the city a short while last night, returning home from the convention of the Daughters of the Confederacy in Richmond. Mr. Reagan was accompanied by Mrs. Reagan. He and his wife were in one of the Pullman cars attached to No. 35, and while the train stopped here they remained quietly in the car, and only a few people at the depot knew of their presence.
To a Telegram representative Mr. Reagan said: "I was glad to go back to the old capital once more. I spent four years there during the war, and they have been pleasant memories in many respects. I knew President Davis well and made a few remarks concerning him at the unveiling of the Winnie Davis monument in Richmond Thursday."
For some years Mr. Reagan has been the only surviving member of the Confederate cabinet. He was in closest personal relation with President Davis during the war, and after the evacuation of Richmond accompanied Mr. Davis to Danville and afterward to Georgia where he was made acting secretary of the treasury. He was the last cabinet official to leave the president and remained with him after the bureau of the various departments had been abandoned.

VALUABLE REAL ESTATE.
Will Be Sold at the Big Land Sale on Monday.
Real estate is the foundation of all wealth, and is that element out of which the most secure fortunes have been created. Money invested in real estate in the line of growth of thriving cities has for years proved to be both safe and profitable, as is evidenced by the great fortune built up in all the large cities. Nothing else has the safety and certainty of increased value, and at the same time provides such absolute security for the money invested.
Ex-Governor Flower, of New York, says: "You cannot duplicate real estate. You can duplicate any other kind of security, and as the country grows real estate will improve in value. It is the best investment for small savings, to make them the basis of a fortune."
At this time, when it is possible to purchase desirable home sites at such low prices, it would seem that any one who cared to invest a small amount where it is sure to increase rapidly, would seize the opportunity to secure a few of the lots which are being sold at public auction. On Monday the public will have an opportunity to make some money surely and quickly, and with a risk. Greensboro is growing, and the time is at hand when land in its vicinity will double. It will pay you to think this over and act. Put your money into something that is swifter and surer than a savings bank, and nothing in sight is better than property in the Vanhook addition.
Sale Monday, Nov. 13th, 2:30 o'clock p. m.

JOHN COPPLE SURRENDERS.
An Alleged Accomplice in the Eller-Weippe Burglary.
John Copple, aged about fifty years, against whom a bill of indictment was filed at the last term of federal court here, walked into Marshal Villikan's office here today and surrendered himself to D. D.puty Marshal Eggen.
He was placed in the Guilford jail to await the next term of federal court.
Copple is charged with having been implicated in breaking upon the government warehouse of D. M. Eller, near Thomasville, several months ago, on which charge Reuben Reynolds and Albert Cannady have been arrested and bound over to court.
He said that since the crime was committed he has been in several western states, but after mature deliberation concluded he had better return here and face the music.
"Memory of Hell"
The revival services at the First Presbyterian church will close tomorrow. Dr. S. M. Smith preached an extremely solemn and impressive sermon last night, taking for his text "Son, remember," found in Luke 16:25. He chose as his topic the "Memory of Hell," and his discourse bristled throughout with earnest pleading and solemn admonition. There will be no service tonight, but the pastor will preach tomorrow morning and night.

Comes to Greensboro.
The Pilot Mountain Journal says: N. D. Young left Tuesday morning to make his future home in Greensboro. We regret to lose Mr. Young from our town. He was always ready to put his shoulder to the wheel and pull for anything that was for the best interest of the town and will be missed by our people. Mrs. Young will remain here until Saturday.

THE MARYLAND ELECTION.
Gossip Has Begun in Regard to the Next Senator.
THE MARYLAND LEGISLATURE
Elected Last Tuesday Will Not Choose a Senator--The State Will Remain Democratic.
Special to THE TELEGRAM
Washington, Nov. 11--At the Hotel Chamberlin, Samuel Parker is among the prominent guests. Col. Parker was formerly the prime minister of the Hawaiian government, during the reign of Queen Liliuokalani. He is not a stranger here, as he has visited here several times. The colonel is also well known throughout the southern states, having been a frequent visitor to Texas, Mississippi, South Carolina and other states of the south. Col. Parker owns a fine cattle ranch on the Hawaiian Islands, his ranch furnishing the chief supply of beef for Honolulu.
Senator Clark, of Wyoming, is a close friend of Col. Parker. The senator is also in Washington, and is stopping at Hotel Chamberlin.
Col. Parker is a native Hawaiian, having very little yankee blood in his veins. His grandfather was born in this country; it is said that he was originally from Maine. The colonel himself has nearly all the characteristics of an Hawaiian, being rather dark in his complexion, so much so that he has on more than one occasion been taken for a negro.
Col. Parker stated the other day that matters in Hawaii are in a favorable condition. Business, he says, is good at Honolulu, and the country in a fine condition generally. Agriculture is thriving, and the prospects good for the crops.
Parker will remain in Washington for some time and will probably visit a few eastern cities during his stay in this country.
In spite of the apparent deference of Governor Tyler for election to the United States Senate to succeed Senator Martin, it is stated by one of his friends who was in Washington the other day that he would not issue any card withdrawing from the contest, but that he would remain a candidate until the question of the succession is definitely decided by the legislature of Virginia. Governor Tyler, the gentleman stated, is a candidate for the United States senate, and is a candidate before the democratic caucus, and that the question cannot be settled in advance of the meeting of the legislature. The result of the elections last Tuesday, in Virginia, according to the gentleman giving the information will not make any difference in the opinion of the governor to contest for the seat in the senate before the democratic caucus.
The result of the Maryland election has caused gossip to begin as to the next senator to succeed Senator Wellington. The legislature elected last Tuesday will not choose a senator, but the legislature elected next year will control the Maryland legislature on joint ballot when a new senator is to be chosen. It is the general opinion that the feud which has been engendered between the friends of Senator Wellington and Governor Lowndes will cause Mary and to remain democratic. Senator Gorman is spoken of as the probable successor to Senator Wellington. Outside of Maryland he is the unanimous choice of democrats, all of whom would like to see him in the senate again.

HANGED AT GREENVILLE.
Elias Joyner Said He Alone Was Guilty of the Dongola Murder.
Elias Joyner, the Dongola murderer, was hanged at Greenville yesterday in the presence of 5,000 people. The drop fell at 11:35, and life was extinct in twelve minutes. The body was cut down in twenty minutes. His neck was broken in the fall, and the body showed only a slight convulsion.
The execution was without mishap. The condemned made a statement on the gallows that he alone was guilty of the crime, and that if others were punished for it the punishment would fall on innocent parties. Numerous questions were asked him for the purpose of ferreting out the matter further, but he firmly adhered to the statement that he only was guilty.
Notwithstanding the immense crowd here the best order prevailed.
Committee Meeting.
The committee on buildings and grounds of the colored A. & M. College had a meeting at the college yesterday evening. Prof. J. Y. Joyner, chairman, W. F. Klutz, of Salisbury, and H. C. Tyson, of Washington, D. C., were in attendance. The committee conferred with the head of the agricultural department as to the apportionment of the ground and the campus in front of the main school building will be laid off in squares and greatly beautified. They decided to utilize the ground at side and in rear of college for experimental farming, and divided up the new farm for various crops.
We have only one price, that is the selling price. We have no time to haggle over a half dollar.

The Enterprise has come into possession of news of a startling nature, which if true will be a bonanza to those interested. The story is said to be related by a minister and the particulars are as follows: Years ago there lived in Randolph county two brothers by the name of Edwards, who married sisters--Hamiltons, of the same county--and went to New York City, where they were very successful. One child, a daughter, was born into their household. The property of the brothers' families went to this daughter at their death, and it is claimed that none other than the prince of merchants, A. T. Stewart, became her husband. They were childless, and at Mr. Stewart's death all of his property went to his wife, who has since died. Some time ago the heirs were advertised for, and through a merchant at Jackson Hill, who was in New York at the time, the said-to-be lawful heirs in Randolph county (who the mercurial news) received their information. Several lawyers are now looking into the matter, and they report thirteen million dollars on hand, and that the entire estate of the late A. T. Stewart is worth over sixty millions of dollars.
Just to think, if the lawful heirs reside in Randolph county, that this vast wealth will fall into their hands. Yes, yes, yes!

KILLS WIFE AND HIMSELF.
Kern's Desperate Crime in the Face of a Crowd.
Allentown, Pa., Nov. 10--A sensational murder and suicide occurred here this morning when George W. Kern, proprietor of the hotel Mecca, shot and instantly killed his wife and himself. The pair had not been living together for the past three months owing to Kern's ill treatment of his wife. Mrs. Kern was employed in a laundry, and when she boarded a trolley car at 6:30 o'clock this morning, to go to her work, her husband followed her and stood on the rear platform, displaying a revolver.
When Mrs. Kern observed him she ran screaming out of the front door of the car and sought the protection of about 200 wire and mill employees, who had just finished work on the night shift. Kern hastened after her and twice pulled the trigger of the pistol, but the weapon failed to discharge.
The husband then dragged his wife into his hotel and barricading the door with a chair, in full view of the crowd, shot her dead.
He ran into another room and there killed himself. Kern was 38 years old and his wife 29.
