

The Greensboro Evening Telegram.

VOL. V. NO. 93

GREENSBORO, N. C., FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 17, 1899

Price Two Cents

GOOD ROADS AND GOOD SCHOOLS FOR GUILFORD COUNTY—THE BEST INVESTMENT IT IS POSSIBLE FOR US TO MAKE!

New Dress Goods,

In lovely shades of

Tan and Grey,

Just Received

J. M. Hendrix & Co.

The Stranger

is as welcome as the steady customer. Our business is to compound medicines and sell drugs, and not to discriminate between patrons. Our prescription work is without a peer. The drugs we use are warranted absolutely PURE AND FRESH. We will appreciate your trade.

Holton's Drug Store,
McAdoo House Building

NUNNALLY'S

Fine Bonbons
and Chocolates

Fresh at Gardner's
Dr. Topp, Postoffice.

Fresh Lot
Gen R Hill's Cakes and Treats

Plenty

Chickens, Eggs, and all kind Country Produce Best Canned Peaches on the market
Other canned goods of all kinds

VUNCANON & CO.,
R. H. Grocers.
South Elm Street Phone No. 2

Hand Cameras

For Films or Plates

Developing Powders
Toning and Fixing
Powders

Flash Cartridges, best made

Plates, and other amateur supplies, at

ALDERMAN'S,

113 1-2 East Market Street.

OVERCOATS

Come in and look at our line of Overcoats.

We think it is the largest, finest and cheapest ever shown in North Carolina. Look, and then give us your opinion.

C. M. VANSTORY & CO.,

The Clothiers, Hatters and Furnishers.

4TH QUARTERLY CONFERENCE

Of West Market Street Methodist Church held last night.

The fourth quarterly conference for West Market Street Methodist church in this city was held last night, being attended by the largest number of official members known in the history of the church.

The session was a most harmonious and profitable one, with the usual reports, collections, and possibly an excess in the collections.

The conference unanimously passed the following:

Whereas, Rev. Frank H. Wood, D. D., presiding elder of the Greensboro district, and Rev. J. C. Rowe, D. D., pastor of West Market Street church, have rendered such faithful and efficient service in the difficult and delicate positions which they have held during the present conference year, and

Whereas, they are greatly beloved by our people, therefore be it

Resolved, 1st, That we, the members of the quarterly conference of West Market Street church, in our fourth session assembled, desire to express our great love for these brethren personally, and our appreciation of their patient and effective labors in our midst.

Resolved 2d, That we believe that it would be to the interest of our district and station for them to be returned to us next year, and that it is the opinion of this conference that we voice the wishes of our people in requesting this return.

Received the Awful News in Court.

Referring to young Long's sad death, Col. Oide, of Raleigh, says in today's Charlotte Observer:

B. F. Long, Esq., of Statesville, has been here two or three days, attending the supreme court. Yesterday he wrote his son, a student at Chapel Hill, to come here today to take dinner with him. He was in the court room when he received the telegram with the terrible news.

Numbers of people who bought shoes of us last season reinforced with A. S. T. Co.'s TIPS, tell us that they last nearly twice as long as shoes made in the ordinary way. We have just received a fresh supply of these excellent little shoes made with the A. S. T. Co. sole leather top at the toes and extending around the sides. They come both button and lace, and are sold for $1.10 and $1.25.

Thacker & Brockmann

To My Customers:

I have removed from 530 South Elm Street, to 117 Davie Street, where I shall continue to do my best to please you by furnishing Fresh Groceries and Produce.

J. N. INGRAM,

The Grocer.

400 KILLED AND WOUNDED

The Loss of the Boers Before Ladysmith.

A SUCCESSFUL BRITISH SORTIE

The Boers Were Driven From Their Position—British Regulars Fell Upon them With Slaughter.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.
London, Nov. 17.—A special cable to the New York Evening Journal from Durban gives the very latest news from Ladysmith brought by reliable messengers through the lines. The Boers have suffered disastrous reverses in front of the town. Their loss is fully 400 hundred killed and wounded. The British made a sortie Friday, leading a column composed of colonial volunteers. They maneuvered cleverly to deceive the Boers and draw them from their position. The Boers made hot pursuit of the English troops, when a body of British regulars fell upon their flank, driving them back with great slaughter. The Boer lines, for the time were completely destroyed.

Resolved 3d, That we believe that it would be to the interest of our district and station for them to be returned to us next year, and that it is the opinion of this conference that we voice the wishes of our people in requesting this return.

Received the Awful News in Court.

Referring to young Long's sad death, Col. Oide, of Raleigh, says in today's Charlotte Observer:

B. F. Long, Esq., of Statesville, has been here two or three days, attending the supreme court. Yesterday he wrote his son, a student at Chapel Hill, to come here today to take dinner with him. He was in the court room when he received the telegram with the terrible news.

Received the Awful News in Court.

Referring to young Long's sad death, Col. Oide, of Raleigh, says in today's Charlotte Observer:

B. F. Long, Esq., of Statesville, has been here two or three days, attending the supreme court. Yesterday he wrote his son, a student at Chapel Hill, to come here today to take dinner with him. He was in the court room when he received the telegram with the terrible news.

Received the Awful News in Court.

Referring to young Long's sad death, Col. Oide, of Raleigh, says in today's Charlotte Observer:

B. F. Long, Esq., of Statesville, has been here two or three days, attending the supreme court. Yesterday he wrote his son, a student at Chapel Hill, to come here today to take dinner with him. He was in the court room when he received the telegram with the terrible news.

Received the Awful News in Court.

Referring to young Long's sad death, Col. Oide, of Raleigh, says in today's Charlotte Observer:

B. F. Long, Esq., of Statesville, has been here two or three days, attending the supreme court. Yesterday he wrote his son, a student at Chapel Hill, to come here today to take dinner with him. He was in the court room when he received the telegram with the terrible news.

Received the Awful News in Court.

Referring to young Long's sad death, Col. Oide, of Raleigh, says in today's Charlotte Observer:

B. F. Long, Esq., of Statesville, has been here two or three days, attending the supreme court. Yesterday he wrote his son, a student at Chapel Hill, to come here today to take dinner with him. He was in the court room when he received the telegram with the terrible news.

Received the Awful News in Court.

Referring to young Long's sad death, Col. Oide, of Raleigh, says in today's Charlotte Observer:

B. F. Long, Esq., of Statesville, has been here two or three days, attending the supreme court. Yesterday he wrote his son, a student at Chapel Hill, to come here today to take dinner with him. He was in the court room when he received the telegram with the terrible news.

Received the Awful News in Court.

Referring to young Long's sad death, Col. Oide, of Raleigh, says in today's Charlotte Observer:

B. F. Long, Esq., of Statesville, has been here two or three days, attending the supreme court. Yesterday he wrote his son, a student at Chapel Hill, to come here today to take dinner with him. He was in the court room when he received the telegram with the terrible news.

Received the Awful News in Court.

Referring to young Long's sad death, Col. Oide, of Raleigh, says in today's Charlotte Observer:

B. F. Long, Esq., of Statesville, has been here two or three days, attending the supreme court. Yesterday he wrote his son, a student at Chapel Hill, to come here today to take dinner with him. He was in the court room when he received the telegram with the terrible news.

Received the Awful News in Court.

Referring to young Long's sad death, Col. Oide, of Raleigh, says in today's Charlotte Observer:

B. F. Long, Esq., of Statesville, has been here two or three days, attending the supreme court. Yesterday he wrote his son, a student at Chapel Hill, to come here today to take dinner with him. He was in the court room when he received the telegram with the terrible news.

Received the Awful News in Court.

Referring to young Long's sad death, Col. Oide, of Raleigh, says in today's Charlotte Observer:

B. F. Long, Esq., of Statesville, has been here two or three days, attending the supreme court. Yesterday he wrote his son, a student at Chapel Hill, to come here today to take dinner with him. He was in the court room when he received the telegram with the terrible news.

Received the Awful News in Court.

Referring to young Long's sad death, Col. Oide, of Raleigh, says in today's Charlotte Observer:

B. F. Long, Esq., of Statesville, has been here two or three days, attending the supreme court. Yesterday he wrote his son, a student at Chapel Hill, to come here today to take dinner with him. He was in the court room when he received the telegram with the terrible news.

Received the Awful News in Court.

Referring to young Long's sad death, Col. Oide, of Raleigh, says in today's Charlotte Observer:

B. F. Long, Esq., of Statesville, has been here two or three days, attending the supreme court. Yesterday he wrote his son, a student at Chapel Hill, to come here today to take dinner with him. He was in the court room when he received the telegram with the terrible news.

Received the Awful News in Court.

Referring to young Long's sad death, Col. Oide, of Raleigh, says in today's Charlotte Observer:

B. F. Long, Esq., of Statesville, has been here two or three days, attending the supreme court. Yesterday he wrote his son, a student at Chapel Hill, to come here today to take dinner with him. He was in the court room when he received the telegram with the terrible news.

Received the Awful News in Court.

Referring to young Long's sad death, Col. Oide, of Raleigh, says in today's Charlotte Observer:

B. F. Long, Esq., of Statesville, has been here two or three days, attending the supreme court. Yesterday he wrote his son, a student at Chapel Hill, to come here today to take dinner with him. He was in the court room when he received the telegram with the terrible news.

Received the Awful News in Court.

Referring to young Long's sad death, Col. Oide, of Raleigh, says in today's Charlotte Observer:

B. F. Long, Esq., of Statesville, has been here two or three days, attending the supreme court. Yesterday he wrote his son, a student at Chapel Hill, to come here today to take dinner with him. He was in the court room when he received the telegram with the terrible news.

Received the Awful News in Court.

Referring to young Long's sad death, Col. Oide, of Raleigh, says in today's Charlotte Observer:

B. F. Long, Esq., of Statesville, has been here two or three days, attending the supreme court. Yesterday he wrote his son, a student at Chapel Hill, to come here today to take dinner with him. He was in the court room when he received the telegram with the terrible news.

Received the Awful News in Court.

Referring to young Long's sad death, Col. Oide, of Raleigh, says in today's Charlotte Observer:

B. F. Long, Esq., of Statesville, has been here two or three days, attending the supreme court. Yesterday he wrote his son, a student at Chapel Hill, to come here today to take dinner with him. He was in the court room when he received the telegram with the terrible news.

Received the Awful News in Court.

Referring to young Long's sad death, Col. Oide, of Raleigh, says in today's Charlotte Observer:

B. F. Long, Esq., of Statesville, has been here two or three days, attending the supreme court. Yesterday he wrote his son, a student at Chapel Hill, to come here today to take dinner with him. He was in the court room when he received the telegram with the terrible news.

Received the Awful News in Court.

Referring to young Long's sad death, Col. Oide, of Raleigh, says in today's Charlotte Observer:

B. F. Long, Esq., of Statesville, has been here two or three days, attending the supreme court. Yesterday he wrote his son, a student at Chapel Hill, to come here today to take dinner with him. He was in the court room when he received the telegram with the terrible news.

Received the Awful News in Court.

Referring to young Long's sad death, Col. Oide, of Raleigh, says in today's Charlotte Observer:

B. F. Long, Esq., of Statesville, has been here two or three days, attending the supreme court. Yesterday he wrote his son, a student at Chapel Hill, to come here today to take dinner with him. He was in the court room when he received the telegram with the terrible news.

Received the Awful News in Court.

Referring to young Long's sad death, Col. Oide, of Raleigh, says in today's Charlotte Observer:

B. F. Long, Esq., of Statesville, has been here two or three days, attending the supreme court. Yesterday he wrote his son, a student at Chapel Hill, to come here today to take dinner with him. He was in the court room when he received the telegram with the terrible news.

Received the Awful News in Court.

Referring to young Long's sad death, Col. Oide, of Raleigh, says in today's Charlotte Observer:

B. F. Long, Esq., of Statesville, has been here two or three days, attending the supreme court. Yesterday he wrote his son, a student at Chapel Hill, to come here today to take dinner with him. He was in the court room when he received the telegram with the terrible news.

Received the Awful News in Court.

Referring to young Long's sad death, Col. Oide, of Raleigh, says in today's Charlotte Observer:

B. F. Long, Esq., of Statesville, has been here two or three days, attending the supreme court. Yesterday he wrote his son, a student at Chapel Hill, to come here today to take dinner with him. He was in the court room when he received the telegram with the terrible news.

NOTES FROM HIGH POINT.

The Local News From Our Neighbor Briefly Told.

TELEGRAM BUREAU,
HIGH POINT, N. C., Nov. 17.
Miss Venetia Smith was a guest of Greensboro.

Dr. J. A. Turner went to Balding this morning.

The Alma furniture factory is in a new building.

L. Schiller represented Statesville here yesterday.

Monday the examinations at the graded school begin.

J. P. Brown spent yesterday in Greensboro on business.

J. P. Daves, of Atlanta, was in the city yesterday afternoon.

E. W. Cates, Jno. Lambrecht and others, from Thomasville, were in the city last night.

The High Point cornet band "blowed" for the show in front of the opera house last night.

The Myrtle furniture factory is shut down for a day or two from scarcity of water. The well will be dug deeper.

The Southern chair factory began work yesterday after a shut down of one or two days to make some needed repairs.

Work on Marion Montgomery's house on Washington street is progressing nicely. M. C. Welch is the contractor.

Lawyer Westcott Robinson is thinking of opening a branch office in Thomasville for the practice of his profession.

Freight has been so heavy on the Asheville and Aberdeen railroads that extra trains have to be run this week to Asheville and back.

"The Other Girl" was presented by the Marshall Musical Comedy Company to a fair-sized audience in the opera house here last night. The play was up to its representations—a delightful comedy in four acts. Miss Paige sustained her reputation as an artist, while those that supported her acted their parts cleverly. Tonight they close their engagement here, presenting "The Bachelor's Dilemma." Go out. Admission 25 and 35 cents.

Some rascal entered the store of Garner & Co. on Main street last night and secured about $17.00 in cash which was left in the money drawer. The entrance was made by the rear door by reaching through a hole in the glass and removing the bar behind the door. The door wasn't locked, but if it had been it would have been just as easy to have prized off the side latch that holds the lock. M. Garner thinks the store was entered while he was at the show. This seems probable as he says in a few feet of the door which was broken open and the money was taken.

FALLING STARS CAUSE TERROR.

Panic in Many Places in Russia—Parents Murdered Their Children.

London, Nov. 16.—In Russia, the Leonid displays caused a panic in many places. It was believed that the end of the world had come. Churches were open all night long and hundreds of thousands spent three nights in the open air, fearing earthquakes and a general cataclysm. There are rumors that in some villages Russian parents murdered their children to relieve them from an expected worse fate. There was rather a brilliant meteoric display this (Thursday) morning at Berlin.

FALLING STAR SMASHES A HOUSE.

Crescent, Ill., Nov. 16.—By the falling of a seven-mile meteorite south of Crescent City, the residence of John Meyers was partially wrecked and the neighborhood was panic-stricken. The meteor came from a point in the sky a little east of south, and struck the north end of the house, tearing away a part of the upper story. The acroite buried itself in the ground, about three feet from the foundation of the house.

A BANQUET TO SCHLEY.

An Extraordinary Scene in the Clover Club's Room.

Philadelphia, Nov. 16.—Rear Admiral Schley was given a dinner to-night by the Clover Club, prior to his departure for South African waters. Among the guests were Captain Clark, formerly of the battleship Oregon, who was with Schley in the great naval battle of Santiago, and Gen. Fitzhugh Lee, who is now on a visit to this city.

A feature of the dinner was the appearance for the first time of a woman at a Clover Club dinner. Mme. Emma Nevada, the distinguished operatic singer, was introduced to the diners and shook hands with the guests of honor. She favors the club by singing "America," in which she was joined by the entire assemblage, Admiral Schley leading.

An Italian Tempest.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.
Rome, Nov. 17.—A tempest is raging upon the Italian coast. So far as reported sixteen merchantmen are wrecked and twenty-one lives lost.

Hobart Walks About.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.
Paterson, N. J., Nov. 17.—The vice-president is reported as feeling greatly improved today. He is able to move about the house.

The Army's Doings.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.
Manila, Nov. 17.—The commands of McArthur and Lawson are now near each other. McArthur is getting his supplies from Tarlac over the Bamban railroad, using the engine raised from the river by the Ninth infantry.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.
Manila, Nov. 17.—The commands of McArthur and Lawson are now near each other. McArthur is getting his supplies from Tarlac over the Bamban railroad, using the engine raised from the river by the Ninth infantry.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.
Manila, Nov. 17.—The commands of McArthur and Lawson are now near each other. McArthur is getting his supplies from Tarlac over the Bamban railroad, using the engine raised from the river by the Ninth infantry.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.
Manila, Nov. 17.—The commands of McArthur and Lawson are now near each other. McArthur is getting his supplies from Tarlac over the Bamban railroad, using the engine raised from the river by the Ninth infantry.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.
Manila, Nov. 17.—The commands of McArthur and Lawson are now near each other. McArthur is getting his supplies from Tarlac over the Bamban railroad, using the engine raised from the river by the Ninth infantry.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.
Manila, Nov. 17.—The commands of McArthur and Lawson are now near each other. McArthur is getting his supplies from Tarlac over the Bamban railroad, using the engine raised from the river by the Ninth infantry.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.
Manila, Nov. 17.—The commands of McArthur and Lawson are now near each other. McArthur is getting his supplies from Tarlac over the Bamban railroad, using the engine raised from the river by the Ninth infantry.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.
Manila, Nov. 17.—The commands of McArthur and Lawson are now near each other. McArthur is getting his supplies from Tarlac over the Bamban railroad, using the engine raised from the river by the Ninth infantry.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.
Manila, Nov. 17.—The commands of McArthur and Lawson are now near each other. McArthur is getting his supplies from Tarlac over the Bamban railroad, using the engine raised from the river by the Ninth infantry.

CONGRESS SOON TO CONVENE.

Next Speaker Expected at Washington Within Few Days

THE MINORITY SPEAKERSHIPS.

Several candidates speaking for the minority in Washington.

Special to THE TELEGRAM.
Washington, Nov. 17.—Although the convening of congress is only a few weeks distant, some of the candidates for the minority leadership have thus far established headquarters in Washington, and it is said by democratic congressmen that no headquarters will be established by the candidates until within a few days of the assembling of the democratic caucus, which will be the Saturday before the convening of congress. General Henderson is expected in Washington within a few days, and he will at once establish himself for the winter and will open headquarters. As he is the only candidate for the speakership, the other gentlemen who were originally in the field having withdrawn from the contest, recognizing the faculty of the caucus against General Henderson, no other republican will open headquarters in this city. The absence of a contest over the speakership, and the fact that most of the republican officials of the last house are assured of reelection, will lead many of the republican members, in fact the majority of them, to delay coming to Washington until within the last few days before the assembling of the senate and house. Those members, however, who are anxious to secure chairmanships and good committee assignments, will be in Washington almost by the time General Henderson arrives.

There will likely be quite a contest for the minority leadership among the democrats. It is now said that Gen. Bankhead, of Alabama, will not be among the leading candidates, but will stand the best chance in the event of a contest which is in any way prolonged. Most of the democratic representatives in Washington seem to look upon Mr. Richardson, of Tennessee, and Mr. De Armond, of Missouri, as the leading candidates. The southern delegations from such states as South Carolina, North Carolina, Georgia, Mississippi and Alabama are likely to prefer Richardson to De Armond.

Congressman-elect Levy, of New York city, who is well known in the agricultural south as the owner of the Jefferson estate at Monticello, Va., is expected to be in Washington within a few days.

There are many who are looking for a contest for the speakership among the democrats. It is now said that Gen. Bankhead, of Alabama, will not be among the leading candidates, but will stand the best chance in the event of a contest which is in any way prolonged. Most of the democratic representatives in Washington seem to look upon Mr. Richardson, of Tennessee, and Mr. De Armond, of Missouri, as the leading candidates. The southern delegations from such states as South Carolina, North Carolina, Georgia, Mississippi and Alabama are likely to prefer Richardson to De Armond.

Congressman-elect Levy, of New York city, who is well known in the agricultural south as the owner of the Jefferson estate at Monticello, Va., is expected to be in Washington within a few days.

There are many who are looking for a contest for the speakership among the democrats. It is now said that Gen. Bankhead, of Alabama, will not be among the leading candidates, but will stand the best chance in the event of a contest which is in any way prolonged. Most of the democratic representatives in Washington seem to look upon Mr. Richardson, of Tennessee, and Mr. De Armond, of Missouri, as the leading candidates. The southern delegations from such states as South Carolina, North Carolina, Georgia, Mississippi and Alabama are likely to prefer Richardson to De Armond.

Congressman-elect Levy, of New York city, who is well known in the agricultural south as the owner of the Jefferson estate at Monticello, Va., is expected to be in Washington within a few days.

There are many who are looking for a contest for the speakership among the democrats. It is now said that Gen. Bankhead, of Alabama, will not be among the leading candidates, but will stand the best chance in the event of a contest which is in any way prolonged. Most of the democratic representatives in Washington seem to look upon Mr. Richardson, of Tennessee, and Mr. De Armond, of Missouri, as the leading candidates. The southern delegations from such states as South Carolina, North Carolina, Georgia, Mississippi and Alabama are likely to prefer Richardson to De Armond.

Congressman-elect Levy, of New York city, who is well known in the agricultural south as the owner of the Jefferson estate at Monticello, Va., is expected to be in Washington within a few days.

There are many who are looking for a contest for the speakership among the democrats. It is now said that Gen. Bankhead, of Alabama, will not be among the leading candidates, but will stand the best chance in the event of a contest which is in any way prolonged. Most of the democratic representatives in Washington seem to look upon Mr. Richardson, of Tennessee, and Mr. De Armond, of Missouri, as the leading candidates. The southern delegations from such states as South Carolina, North Carolina, Georgia, Mississippi and Alabama are likely to prefer Richardson to De Armond.

Congressman-elect Levy, of New York city, who is well known in the agricultural south as the owner of the Jefferson estate at Monticello, Va., is expected to be in Washington within a few days.

There are many who are looking for a contest for the speakership among the democrats. It is now said that Gen. Bankhead, of Alabama, will not be among the leading candidates, but will stand the best chance in the event of a contest which is in any way prolonged. Most of the democratic representatives in Washington seem to look upon Mr. Richardson, of Tennessee, and Mr. De Armond, of Missouri, as the leading candidates. The southern delegations from such states as South Carolina, North Carolina, Georgia, Mississippi and Alabama are likely to prefer Richardson to De Armond.

Congressman-elect Levy, of New York city, who is well known in the agricultural south as the owner of the Jefferson estate at Monticello, Va., is expected to be in Washington within a few days.

There are many who are looking for a contest for the speakership among the democrats. It is now said that Gen. Bankhead, of Alabama, will not be among the leading candidates, but will stand the best chance in the event of a contest which is in any way prolonged. Most of the democratic representatives in Washington seem to look upon Mr. Richardson, of Tennessee, and Mr. De Armond, of Missouri, as the leading candidates. The southern delegations from such states as South Carolina, North Carolina, Georgia, Mississippi and Alabama are likely to prefer Richardson to De Armond.

Congressman-elect Levy, of New York city, who is well known in the agricultural south as the owner of the Jefferson estate at Monticello, Va., is expected to be in Washington within a few days.

There are many who are looking for a contest for the speakership among the democrats. It is now said that Gen. Bankhead, of Alabama, will not be among the leading candidates, but will stand the best chance in the event of a contest which is in any way prolonged. Most of the democratic representatives in Washington seem to look upon Mr. Richardson, of Tennessee, and Mr. De Armond, of Missouri, as the leading candidates. The southern delegations from such states as South Carolina, North Carolina, Georgia, Mississippi and Alabama are likely to prefer Richardson to De Armond.

Congressman-elect Levy, of New York city, who is well known in the agricultural south as the owner of the Jefferson estate at Monticello, Va., is expected to be in Washington within a few days.

There are many who are looking for a contest for the speakership among the democrats. It is now said that Gen. Bankhead, of Alabama, will not be among the leading candidates, but will stand the best chance in the event of a contest which is in any way prolonged. Most of the democratic representatives in Washington seem to look upon Mr. Richardson, of Tennessee, and Mr. De Armond, of Missouri, as the leading candidates. The southern delegations from such states as South Carolina, North Carolina, Georgia, Mississippi and Alabama are likely to prefer Richardson to De Armond.

Congressman-elect Levy, of New York city, who is well known in the agricultural south as the owner of the Jefferson estate at Monticello, Va., is expected to be in Washington within a few days.

There are many who are looking for a contest for the speakership among the democrats. It is now said that Gen. Bankhead, of Alabama, will not be among the leading candidates, but will stand the best chance in the event of a contest which is in any way prolonged. Most of the democratic representatives in Washington seem to look upon Mr. Richardson, of Tennessee, and Mr. De Armond, of Missouri, as the leading candidates. The southern delegations from such states as South Carolina, North Carolina, Georgia, Mississippi and Alabama are likely to prefer Richardson to De Armond.

Congressman-elect Levy, of New York city, who is well known in the agricultural south as the owner of the Jefferson estate at Monticello, Va., is expected to be in Washington within a few days.

There are many who are looking for a contest for the speakership among the democrats. It is now said that Gen. Bankhead, of Alabama, will not be among the leading candidates, but will stand the best chance in the event of a contest which is in any way prolonged. Most of the democratic representatives in Washington seem to look upon Mr. Richardson, of Tennessee, and Mr. De Armond, of Missouri, as the leading candidates. The southern delegations from such states as South Carolina, North Carolina, Georgia, Mississippi and Alabama are likely to prefer Richardson to De Armond.

Congressman-elect Levy, of New York city, who is well known in the agricultural south as the owner of the Jefferson estate at Monticello, Va., is expected to be in Washington within a few days.

There are many who are looking for a contest for the speakership among the democrats. It is now said that Gen. Bankhead, of Alabama, will not be among the leading candidates, but will stand the best chance in the event of a contest which is in any way prolonged. Most of the democratic representatives in Washington seem to look upon Mr. Richardson, of Tennessee, and Mr. De Armond, of Missouri, as the leading candidates. The southern delegations from such states as South Carolina, North Carolina, Georgia, Mississippi and Alabama are likely to prefer Richardson to De Armond.

Congressman-elect Levy, of New York city, who is well known in the agricultural south as the owner of the Jefferson estate at Monticello, Va., is expected to be in Washington within a few days.

There are many who are looking for a contest for the speakership among the democrats. It is now said that Gen. Bankhead, of Alabama, will not be among the leading candidates, but will stand the best chance in the event of a contest which is in any way prolonged. Most of the democratic representatives in Washington seem to look upon Mr. Richardson, of Tennessee, and Mr. De Armond, of Missouri, as the leading candidates. The southern delegations from such states as South Carolina, North Carolina, Georgia, Mississippi and Alabama are likely to prefer Richardson to De Armond.

Congressman-elect Levy, of New York city, who is well known in the agricultural south as the owner of the Jefferson estate at Monticello, Va., is expected to be in Washington within a few days.

There are many who are looking for a contest for the speakership among the democrats. It is now said that Gen. Bankhead, of Alabama, will not be among the leading candidates, but will stand the best chance in the event of a contest which is in any way prolonged. Most of the democratic representatives in Washington seem to look upon Mr. Richardson, of Tennessee, and Mr. De Armond, of Missouri, as the leading candidates. The southern delegations from such states as South Carolina, North Carolina, Georgia, Mississippi and Alabama are likely to prefer Richardson to De Armond.

Congressman-elect Levy, of New York city, who is well known in the agricultural south as the owner of the Jefferson estate at Monticello, Va., is expected to be in Washington within a few days.

There are many who are looking for a contest for the speakership among the democrats. It is now said that Gen. Bankhead, of Alabama, will not be among the leading candidates, but will stand the best chance in the event of a contest which is in any way prolonged. Most of the democratic representatives in Washington seem to look upon Mr. Richardson, of Tennessee, and Mr. De Armond, of Missouri, as the leading candidates. The southern delegations from such states as South Carolina, North Carolina, Georgia, Mississippi and Alabama are likely to prefer Richardson to De Armond.

Congressman-elect Levy, of New York city, who is well known in the agricultural south as the owner of the Jefferson estate at Monticello, Va., is expected to be in Washington within a few days.

THE COLORED A. & M. COLLEGE

In the Midst of a Successful Year Everybody at the College Work.

The present session of the A. & M. College in