FIRE AND BURGLAR PROOF.

The Large New Safe of the Greensboro Loan & Trust Co.
One of the finest fire and burglar proof safes ever brought to North Carolina, or any other state, has just been placed in the bank of the Greensboro Loan and Trust Co. It is a mammoth affair, weighing about ten thousand pounds, made by the Mosler Safe Co. It has screw door and time locks, and is as secure as earthly things can be made. There are only two others like it in the state.
This safe stands about 6 feet high, 45 inches wide and 40 inches deep. The outside is in the shape of an ordinary safe, made of the best fire-proof material, with double doors and combination lock. Inside of this is the burglar proof part, made of chrome steel, several inches in thickness, which is provided also with both combination and triple time locks, with screw door, which forms an impenetrable barrier between the burglar and his would-be prize.
The door of the inner safe is round and is ground into place to as perfect a fit as a glass stopper in a bottle.
Attached to the door is a large screw thread which screws into another thread fastened inside the safe and the door is screwed into place by a lever through the medium of cogwheels.
This screw door fits so perfectly that it must be kept clear of all particles of dust in order that it may be turned to the locking point. Kerosene oil will not penetrate the crevices, so perfect is the fit. No explosive fluid can be forced into it. There is no communication on the outside combination and the inside fire locks to the inner safe.
The Greensboro Loan and Trust Co. are now as well equipped as any bank in the country for taking care of money and valuables. They have also provided a number of private deposit boxes, which are for rent.

KILGO ADDRESSES CONFERENCE

On Education—A Fine Address—A Committee Appointed to Investigate the Wilson Matter.

Special to the TELEGRAM.
Concord, N. C., Nov. 25.—Conference met at 9 o'clock. Revs. Baldwin, Boyle and Turner received full connection with the church. The bishop delivered an excellent address on "Consecration." The characters of Franklin, Greensboro, Morganton, Mt. Airy, Salisbury and Shelby districts passed.
A most feeling talk was made by Rev.
Mr. Gentry, who was sick six months of the past year. Rev. P. J. Carraway preferred charges against Rev. Mr. Wilson, pastor of Burkhead Church, of Winston. The charges relate to an improper sermon. A committee of investigation was appointed, composed of Revs. Renn, Smith and Stacey. Dr.
Kilgo delivered a fine address on education. After Sunday appointments, conference adjourned at 12:30.

AT TRINITY.

Coming Debate With Wake Forest.
November Archive Out.

Special to the TELEGRAM.
Trinity Park, Nov. 24.—Much interest is being taken in the debate with Wake Forest. Arrangements are being made to run a special train to Raleigh, leaving Durham in the afternoon, and returning Thursday night after the debate.
The November Archive is out, and is an interesting number. The table of contents is:
De Grafenreid and the Swiss and Palatine Settlement of New Bern.
A Modern Penelope.
A Lawyer's Political Experience.
The Parson's Matrimonial Tragedy.
The System of My Old Maid Aunt.
Besides these contributions there are the following departments: Editorial, Wayside Hares, Literary Notes, Editor's Table. Y. M. C. A. department: At Home and Abroad.
Last Saturday evening, Prof. Benjamin F. Sledge, of Wake Forest College, delivered an address in the college chapel on the general subject of literature and its relations to life and culture. This was one in the regular course of Saturday lectures, begun a year and a half ago and delivered once a month by instructors at the college and other speakers. The next lecture in the faculty series will be delivered by Dr. J. I. Hamaker.
An addition to the number of residences to be occupied by instructors and officers of the college has been made, in the form of a neat cottage, located in the place just beyond the gymnasium and now nearing completion.

SOUTH AFRICAN WAR.

Reinforcements Wanted at Mafeking —Potatoes 40 Shillings Per Barrel.

By Cable to the TELEGRAM.
Queenstown, Cape Colony, Nov. 25.— Four hundred colonial rebels, including Mr. Munx, a former magistrate of Barkley, have joined the Boers at Barkley. It is reported the Boers are marching from Barkley on Dordrecht. It is feared there will be a general movement in the Queenstown district in favor of the Boers.
MORE TRANSPORTS CHARTERED.
London, Nov. 25.—The government has chartered three more transports to convey troops to South Africa.
SITUATION AT LADYSMITH.
Durban, Nov. 25.—An official message from White, dated 22nd, says the situation at Ladysmith is still unchanged.

AT MAFFERING.

Cape Town, Nov. 25.—A Maffeking dispatch, dated 13th instant, says reinforcements are desirable. Extortion-ate prices are demanded for all food stuffs. Potatoes, which before the siege sold at from twelve to twenty shillings, are now quoted at forty shillings per barrel. The natives report the British approaching in such force that they look like ants, and that they have big sky bags (balloons). It is believed the Boers were prompted to the latter report in order to induce overconfidence in the Maffeking garrison.

A Card of Thanks.

We wish, through the columns of the Telegram, to extend our sincere thanks for the many acts of kindness and sympathy manifested toward us by our neighbors and friends during the sickness and death of our mother, Mrs. Mary A. Hatt. Her Children.

NOTES FROM HIGH POINT.

The Local News From Our Neighbor
Briefly Told.

TELEGRAM BUREAU,
HIGH POINT, N. C., Nov. 25.
One month till Christmas Don't forget the minstrel at the opera house tonight.
C. B. Burch, of Lynchburg, was a guest of the city yesterday.

Miss Clara Cox came over from Guilford College last evening.
Macedonia will soon have electric lights. The poles are already up.
Dr. Ring, of Elkin, spent last night with the family of his nephew, Wm. A.
Ring.

Miss Etta Blair came up from Asheboro last evening to visit her sister, Mrs. A. M. Rankin.
The scarcity of eggs on the market is said to be caused by the bird hunters consuming so many of them.

Little Misses Vallie and Flora Smith went up to Thomasville last night to spend a few days with their aunt.
J. W. Sechrist has just finished repairs on a cupboard for W. J. Arm-field, which is over 100 years old.

For a while last night the atmosphere in the tent was rather chilly, but Evangelist Cecil soon made it hot for those present.
High Point will have a steam laundry—see if she doesn't. We never go to sleep on anything except beds and lounges and we manufacture them!
A porcelain basin has been put in the office of the Jarrall hotel. Uncle Dick is ever on the alert in the way of needed improvements, as well as in other things.

J. F. Hoffman, manager High Point telephone exchange, has received his new switchboard and several new phones, which will enable the company to give a better service than heretofore.

There seems to be no end to the Stewart heirs in this part of the country. The article about the supposed heir to the merchant king's millions lives in Randolph county has turned things upside down. $61,000,000 is no little sum.

THE CITY FATHERS.

Important Matters Were Discussed by the Board Last Night.

The city board of aldermen met last night in regular session, Mayor Taylor in the chair, and the following members answered the roll call: Elam, Hunter, Merrimon, Merritt, Phillips, Sergeant, Denny, Wrights.
Col. John A. Barringer and other citizens appeared before the board and requested the widening of Ashe street from Lee to West Market streets, and the grading, curbing and macadamizing of the same. The matter was referred to the street committee to investigate and report at next meeting of board.
W. C. Boren, chairman of the board of county commissioners, asked that the city make arrangements so that the new jail can be connected with the sewer. Alderman Hunter moved that the city give sewerage under plans heretofore adopted by the board. Motion carried.
John N. Wilson asked that the American Telephone and Telegraph Company be given a franchise to operate a phone system in this city.
Alderman Hunter offered an ordinance identical with the one passed at a board meeting in December last, granting a franchise to said company. Alderman Elam moved that the matter be referred to the street committee to hear arguments relative thereto and report at the adjourned meeting on next Friday night, which motion was carried.
The ordinance passed at the last meeting of the board ordering the issue of $35,000 in bonds for a city hall and market was called up and passed its second reading.
The ordinance for the prevention of fires, inspection of buildings, etc., which had been referred to a special committee, was discussed by the board, the committee having failed to agree. Alderman Hunter moved that three members of the board be added to the firemen's committee and that this ordinance be referred to that committee for action, and that the local insurance men be invited to attend the committee meeting. Motion prevailed.

J. R. Fentress, through his attorney, Maj. Stedman, filed a claim against the city for $100 for destruction of clothing and household goods by order of Dr. Ledbetter during the late smallpox unpleasantness. Matter was referred to the city attorney to report at the next regular meeting of the board.
Wiley Alston, colored, was granted permission to sell fresh meats at corner of Maple and Lindsay streets, outside the old incorporate limits.
Board adjourned to meet next Friday night.

Death of Mrs. Sampson.

Mrs. Sampson, widow of the late John Sampson, died at 8:45 o'clock last night at her home on Asheboro street, after a lingering illness. Interment will take place at New Garden church tomorrow. Deceased was about 88 years old and a most estimable woman. One son and four daughters survive her.
The funeral will be conducted from the home tomorrow morning at 9:30 by her pastor, Rev. C. E. Hodgins, assisted by Rev. Livingston Johnson, of the Baptist church.

THE N. C. REPRESENTATIVES

In Congress Will Vote for Richardson of Tennessee for Democratic Speaker.

Special to the TELEGRAM.
Washington, Nov. 25.—Senator Mc-Laurin, of South Carolina, has returned to Washington for the session of congress. The South Carolina senator is one of the few senators from the south who uphold the course of the administration in its dealing with the Philippine problem. He will, during the coming session, continue to support President McKinley in his foreign policy. The senator, it is said, looks upon the coming session as being a most important one, and aside from the Philippine question, there will be many problems to be brought to the attention of congress.
Senator McLaurin says that in common with other sections in the south, the state of South Carolina is sharing in the prosperity which seems to be general all over the union. He says that not only are the cotton factories paying handsomely, but the cotton planters are doing better than they have done for a long time. Early in the year they did not realize that the cotton crop would bring more than five cents at the most, but the senator, during his stay at the state getting seven cents. The farmers of the state, says the senator, through the rigid economy which they have been practicing for the past five or six years, are comparatively out of debt, and many of them have succeeded in laying up some money in the banks, many of them having quite a snug little sum. Altogether the southern section of the country is enjoying more prosperity than for several years past, and is in a most enviable condition.
The senator will remain in Washington until the convening of congress. He is stopping at present at the Metropolitan Hotel, where he will remain until he has established himself in permanent quarters.
The friends of Representative Richardson, of Tennessee, do not agree with the friends of Congressman Bankhead, in their estimate regarding the southern vote in the democratic cau-sus. In regard to North Carolina, in which Bankhead's friends claim that he will get the entire North Carolina delegation with the exception of Mr.
Crawford, Mr. Richardson's friends say that this is a big error, or else they are mistaken in their calculations.
They say that not only will not Mr.
Bankhead get so large a vote from North Carolina, but that the majority of the delegation will be for the Tennessean. The big Tennessee representative is at the Metropolitan hotel, and is constantly surrounded by his friends and supporters. The Metropolitan is not the home of the congressman, but he has established his office there, because it is a more convenient location for the members who wish to consult with him. Mr. Richardson insists that he has not opened headquarters in the true sense of the word, but that he only has an office at the Metropolitan. Nevertheless, the friends of Mr. Richardson about the Metropolitan are doing considerable hustling for their favorite, who aspires to the democratic nomination for speaker.
Congressman Sulzer, of New York, outside of New York and New Jersey, apparently has but few friends, and in spite of his big claims, according to the outlook will not come anywhere near securing a majority of the democratic caucus. When the house has been under the control of the democrats, in last year, it is a more confidently recognized that the south, which furnishes the bulk of the members of the caucus, is entitled to the speakership. The southern members claim that the section is now entitled to the democratic leadership, especially as the speakership of the house is the highest office to which the south under present conditions can aspire.
Ex-Senator Blackburn, of Kentucky, is in the city and will be here for a few days. The ex-senator says that the result of the vote for the government will not be determined before the 4th of December, upon which day the state board meets to canvass the returns.
The board is composed entirely of democrats, and the ex-senator has no doubt but they will issue the certificate to Goebel. He says that the talk of inaugurating Taylor, if Goebel is given the certificate, is the rankest kind of nonsense.
Other Kentuckians say that if Goebel is given the certificate, that the fight will be carried into the campaign next year, and that the chances of Bryan carrying the state will be very small.
Ex-Senator Blackburn says that the legislature is safely democratic, and that he will be returned to the senate.
Representative Thomas, of North Carolina, has returned to Washington.
He will remain here until the assembling of the house of representatives.
Mr. Thomas says that politics in his section of the state are very favorable to the democrats and he looks for a big vote on the constitutional amendment and for its passage by a very large majority.

THE P. P. CONFERENCE

At Plyler—The Second Day's Proceedings.

Correspondence Telegram.
Plyler, Stanly county, Nov. 25.— Conference convened at 8:30 a. m., President Kennet in the chair. Devotional services conducted by Rev. J.
E. Hartsell. Minutes read, corrected and approved. Report on president's report read and adopted. At 11 o'clock Rev. T. H. Lewis, D. D., made an address on church purity. He said the church needed men with money, but men with money and character combined; that it was a serious question as to the propriety of accepting money from bad men for the purpose of carrying on church work. His address made a deep impression. Three p. m. being the order of the day for the election of officers, the conference voted first for president at by ballot, which resulted in the election of Rev.
W. F. Kennet. On motion Rev. C.
E. Forlin as assistant secretary was requested to cast the vote of conference secretary. Next was put in nominations places for holding next annual conference. Pinnacle having secured the majority of votes cast was declared elected as the place for holding next annual conference. Standing committees next reported. Conference adjourned to meet at 7 p. m.

A. P. E. ZION CONFERENCE.

Over $4,000 Raised for General Church—Bishop Wood's Address.

Bishop C. R. Harris, Prof. B. A.
Johnson, of Livingstone College, Salisbury, N. C., Rev. F. H. Hill, New Haven, Conn., are among the visitors at the A. M. E. Z. Conference.
Yesterday morning was spent in listening to the reports of Presiding Elders. More than four thousand dollars has been raised in this conference this year for the general church. Thus far the connection has on general expenses about thirty thousand dollars.
In North Carolina there are five conferences. Bishop Hood's address was the special subject yesterday afternoon.
His prominence as a leader gives it much importance as touching the interests of the race.
He favors a qualified suffrage based upon intelligence. He would even favor a suffrage based upon morality. He contends that to take the rights of a man from him to his consent is robbery; thinks a law should be passed requiring all persons who become of age to be able to read and write before voting.
The establishment of a silk factory at Fayetteville and the Coleman cotton factory at Concord he considers as a new era in negro development. Especially he is hopeful because of the class of persons employed in the silk mill. They are of the best families of the place and capable of communicating the art to others. In the industrial avenues he sees hope for much advancement of the race and would advise that the negro let white men manage politics and he manage everything else he can.
Concerning the oft repeated or intimated assertions that the negro ministry sympathizes with criminals, he said that the negro ministry preaches more pointedly against crime than any other. He believes that a wretch who commits a brutal crime should be punished and the punishment should be done by the law and not by a process which makes criminals.
He does not believe that the separate coach law was enacted because the negro wishes social intercourse with the whites. His own church is a protest against such. He can board a car at Fayetteville and ride to Washington without having intercourse with anyone, it matters not where seated, on the principle that he wishes no conversation with such as wish no acquaintance with him. He is satisfied with accommodations as are given on some lines of railway.
He advises the race to stay in North Carolina and show its manhood and its right to recognition by overcoming whatever obstacles may stand in the way.
Dr. Rives, Presiding Elder Hill, Rev. F. H. Hill, Collector Dancy and Bishop Harris discussed the address, commenting its tone and dwelling especially on race interests. Bishop Harris thinks a solid negro vote menaces his safety.

Over the Telephone.

Special to the TELEGRAM.
Winston, Nov. 25.—James Sloan, who has been with P. H. Hanes & Co. of this city, for several years, will leave tonight for New York to accept a position in the office of the American Tobacco Company.
The chamber of commerce at its meeting last night instructed the secretary to correspond with the Southern Railway authorities in regard to the building of a better passenger depot here.
Referee Alexander is examining witnesses in the Gillett bankruptcy case and the evidence will all be taken by Monday night. Mr. Alexander thinks it will be some time before the case is settled.
