MISS SARA BAILEY'S DEATH.

Occurred Today at the Normal—The Directors Still in Session.

The fourth death among the sick at the State Normal and Industrial College occurred at 11 o'clock this morning, when Miss Sara Bailey, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Bailey, of Mocksville, passed away, after an illness of about four weeks. Her parents have been with her during her sickness and were at the bedside when the Angel of Death called. The remains will be carried to Mocksville for interment.

Miss Bailey's demise sends a pang of sorrow to her relatives and her large circle of friends. She was only 19 years of age and had the confidence and respect of the faculty and students. She was a lovable young woman and will be greatly missed. The sympathy of the entire community goes out to the sorrowing ones.

Miss Evelyn Bailey, a sister of the deceased, is one of the patients at the Normal, but her condition is reported to be somewhat improved today.

Most of the other patients are also reported improved this afternoon, though the condition of Miss Turner, the matron, remains unchanged.

The board of directors of the institution are still in session, waiting for the bacteriological analysis of the samples of water from the three wells on the premises, from the state bacteriologist, Dr. Anderson, of Wilson. The samples were shipped to Dr. Anderson last Friday, but owing to misplacement at the express office here, did not leave Greensboro until Monday night. The board expects the analyses tomorrow, and a statement of the situation will then be published.

The board has received reports from Dr. R. H. Lewis, secretary state board of health, President McIver of the Normal, and Prof. J. L. Ludlow, expert civil engineer, and is making a thorough investigation of the premises.

Thanksgiving Service.

The churches of South Greensboro will unite in a Thanksgiving service at the Friends' church tomorrow at 11 a. m. Centenary, Grace, Westminster and Friends will all unite in this service. An offering will be taken for the orphans. Let us all give expression of our thanks by remembering those who are not so fortunate as we are. Bring your offering in an envelope with the name of your church written thereon. Every body is invited to attend this service.

Tomorrow Afternoon.

Don't fail to witness the football game tomorrow afternoon at the park between the North and South Greensboro teams. Both teams are well trained and a warm game may be expected. Game called at 3 o'clock. Music will be furnished by Gate City band.

Only thirty days more in which to avail yourself of the immense bargains we now offer.

Argued Yesterday.

The Benbow bankruptcy case was argued in the United States Circuit Court of Appeals at Richmond, Va., Monday and yesterday. D. W. C. and Charlie D. Benbow, petitioners, were represented by Col. James T. Morehead and R. R. King. John Sprunt Hill, of New York; E. K. Bryan, of Wilmington, and John N. Wilson, of this city, appeared for the respondents, the Southern Loan and Trust Company. It will probably be several weeks before an opinion is handed down.

Guy Woodward Coming.

Mr. William Sharp, business manager of Guy Woodward's company is in the city making arrangements for the appearance of this company all of next week commencing Tuesday night at the Academy of Music. Mr. Sharp reports excellent business for his company this season and says he has undoubtedly the only price company that has ever been in the south.

ANOTHER ENGLISH VICTORY

Elation at London Over Result of Fight at Madder River.

TEN HOURS OF HARD FIGHTING

The Whole Boer Force Was Encountered—The Dutchmen Driven From Their Position.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.
London, Nov. 29.—Methuen has gained a big victory at Madder River. He defeated the entire Boer army massed at the river under General Cronjé. They disputed his passage twenty-two miles south of Kimberley. The British numbered 7000 and the Boers probably about the same. No report of the casualties has so far been received. After ten hours' fighting the Boers were driven from their position.

THE FIGHT AT Madder RIVER.

London, Nov. 29.—General Methuen officially reports from Cape Town of date 28th, as follows:

"I reconnoitered at five this morning and found the enemy strongly entrenched and concealed across Madder river. I had no means of outflanking the position of the enemy as the river was full. The artillery commanded the action and the mounted infantry and squadrons on the left attacked the position with widely extended formation, supported by the artillery. I found myself in front of the whole Boer force of 8000, with two large guns. Four Krupps and other pieces of the naval brigade rendered great assistance at the railway. After ten hours of hard fighting, the men were without food or water. The burning sun made the enemy quit their position. General Pale Carey was successful in getting a small party across the river, assisted by three hundred sappers. All the men engaged behaved splendidly. It was one of the hardest and most trying fights in the annals of the British army. Special mention is due the artillery."

It appears that the British, with the exception of a small party, are still south of the river, making the engagement indecisive.

BRITISH SORTIE AT KIMBERLEY.

London, Nov. 29.—Pretoria dispatches of the 27th say that Commandant Dutoit reports that the British sortie at Kimberley Saturday encountered Boers, commanding three hundred Boers. Dutoit hastened to the assistance of the British with one hundred men. Nine burghers were killed and seventeen wounded, while some were missing. The British left upon the field one private and one sergeant. It is reported the British attempted to leave Kimberley on the east side to assist the troops coming from Belmont.

A Boer report of the battle at Belmont has been received via Lorenzo Marques. It says Commandant Lubbs was slightly wounded. The British repaired the damage to the railway. The Free State troops were overwhelmed with numbers, and after a brave stand were compelled to take another position on the other side of the railway.

GREAT ELATION AT LONDON.

London, Nov. 29.—There is great elation at the war office over Methuen's victory. It is considered decisive and relieves Kimberley. From Madder to Kimberley the road is comparatively level. It is possible that no further serious stand will be made by the Boers before Kimberley unless they elect to stand at Spryfontein.

Handsomeness Sum.

The Altar Guild of St. Barnabas church realized a handsome sum from the promenade concert and oyster supper in Odd Fellows' hall last night. The occasion proved quite a social affair and there was some very attractive music to amuse those who attended. Notwithstanding the unpropitious weather last evening, the ladies held a most enjoyable fete and now through the medium of their best friends, the editors, wish to thank them, and each and all who so kindly aided the festival in the Odd Fellows' building.

Funeral of Mr. Harvey.

The funeral services over the remains of R. Ad. Harvey, whose death was noted in these columns yesterday, were held at Mt. Pleasant church, a few miles east of the city, at 12:30 today. There was a large attendance of sorrowing relatives and friends who had gathered to pay their last tribute to the deceased. The floral offerings were numerous and beautiful. The services were conducted by Revs. J. B. Tabor and E. L. Stack.

Well Known Lawyers.

W. C. Newland, of Lenoir, member of the executive committee of the state penitentiary, Hon. A. C. Avery, I. T. Avery, criminal court collector from Burke county, and S. J. Irvin, of Morgan county, were in the city yesterday enroute to Raleigh to attend supreme court.

Marriage Last Night.

James F. Bunnett and Miss Mattie R. Voss were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Voss, three miles east of the city, yesterday evening at 6 o'clock. Rev. J. B. Tabor performed the ceremony in the presence of the family and a few invited friends.

To Close Tomorrow.

A majority of the business houses in Greensboro will be closed tomorrow and employees will observe the Thanksgiving holiday. Thanksgiving services will be held in several of our churches.

Accident at the A & P.

While at work in the machine shop at the colored A. and M. college yesterday, Frank Hawkins, a student, had one arm almost severed just above the wrist.

LOSS ALREADY $3,000,000.

Biggest Fire in Philadelphia's History is Raging This Afternoon.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.
Philadelphia, Nov. 29.—The fiercest and largest fire this city has ever known is now in progress. The loss is already a million. Partridge & Richardson's huge store in the Lippincott building is gone. Firemen are fighting hard to save other big stores.

STILL BURNING.

Philadelphia, Nov. 29.—Lippincott's loss is placed at a million. The plates of the Encyclopedia Britannica are supposed to be lost. Additional firms burnt out are: Bailey Gassaway Co., Rosebaury, millinery; Strawbridge, clothing. These losses will "foot up" over $3,000,000. The total loss is estimated at three millions. The flames are still raging. Three firemen are injured. Hallowan's shoe store is gutted.

TOTAL LOSS.

Philadelphia, Nov. 29.—Lippincott's loss is now stated to be three millions. Total loss, five millions.

THE ANNUAL GAME

Between North and South Greensboro Team—Well Matched.

Besides the big games to be played at Atlanta and Raleigh, the local football enthusiasts of Greensboro will have a chance of seeing the annual game between North and South Greensboro here tomorrow. These teams are well matched and the friends of both teams are predicting a victory for their favorites.

THE RECORD OF THESE TEAMS IN THE PAST IS AS FOLLOWS:

1895 north side	8	south side	10
1897 " "	12	" "	0

From this record you see each team has won a game and the other no score was made on either side, and a good game may be expected.

The Gate City Band will give a concert at the McAdoo House at 2:15 and then march out to the park.

The proceeds will go to the Gate City Band.

Gams called at 3 o'clock. Admission 10 and 25 cents.

THREE NEW CASES

Of Small Pox at Pocomo—Greensboro Well Protected.

Three new cases are reported in the outbreak of smallpox at the Terra Cotta Works, four miles west of the city. All of the cases are of a mild form and several of the patients are convalescent. The county physician has charge of the cases.

There is no need for excitement, as the city is well protected.

One of the new cases is an operative at the Terra Cotta Works who left there yesterday and went to Jamestown and broke out with the disease this morning. The county physician went to Jamestown this afternoon and will bring the patient back to Terra Cotta.

The other two cases are just beyond Terra Cotta.

Notice to Presbyterians.

The Thanksgiving service of the First Presbyterian congregation, as announced last Sunday, will be held in West Market Methodist church tomorrow at 11 a. m. The Presbyterian collection will be for the orphans' home at Barium Springs. We earnestly urge all our people to contribute with their accustomed liberality to this most worthy cause. There are more than one hundred orphans to be clothed and fed. Winter is at hand. Extra expenses are multiplied. They need all we can give. Let us therefore open our hearts and hands to these fatherless ones committed to our care. If you cannot attend church tomorrow, be sure to send your contribution to Treasurer W. E. Bevill.

Social Meeting.

The W. C. T. U. of North and South Greensboro will hold a literary and social meeting at Grace church Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Hon. C. H. Mebane, of Raleigh, will deliver an address on "The Importance of Scientific Temperance Teaching in Our Public Schools."

Those who receive an invitation to the reception to be given by the W. C. T. U. at Grace M. P. church Friday evening may consider themselves fortunate, as the occasion promises to be one of more than ordinary interest. Aside from the social feature, Superintendent Mebane and other speakers of note will be present and make short talks on scientific temperance.

Funeral of Mr. Harvey.

FEELING AGAINST ROBERTS

The Polygamist Congressman Strong of Washington

A QUIET THANKSGIVING DAY

Expected at the National Capital. Cabinet Members Will Spend It With Their Families.

Special to THE TELEGRAM.
Washington, D. C., November 29.—As members of the house of representatives observe a river holiday today, it is expected that the feeling against the polygamist-elect Roberts, of Utah, is very deep. The resentment against allowing him to retain his seat is not alone to be found among the republicans, but democrats, as well, protest against his seating, unless he can successfully defend himself against the charges under which he rests. Members from the south are particularly strong in their resentment against Roberts, and it is predicted that many representatives from that section will be found who will not support his contention that the house of representatives has nothing to do with the morals of a fellow member. Most of the democrats, and for that matter the republicans too, seem to be averse to the taking of any action towards unseating him on Monday, the opening day of congress, but seem favorable to the instruction of a series of resolutions which will cause an investigation of his case to be made by some competent committee of the house. It is not impossible that Roberts may ask for the appointment of a special committee to examine into the charges which have been preferred against him, and if he does, it would doubtless be granted by the house. The general impression seems to be that any resolution which may be offered on Monday will be referred to the committee on judiciary, or to the committee on elections. As neither of these committees are yet appointed, it would be some time before the investigation could be begun. There is almost a universal opinion among members now in Washington that Roberts will be given a fair trial, and an opportunity to defend himself, after which, if he does not do so, the house in a deliberate manner, and after calm and dispassionate consideration will vote nearly unanimously that he is not entitled to the seat.

Mr. Roberts is in Washington, and will remain here until the convening of the house. He does not seem to be in the least disturbed by the criticism of his fellow members, and seems to be confident of being allowed to retain the seat. Since coming to Washington he has made no attempt to defend himself from the charges saying that he will not do so until the proper time, which will be after the house has concluded to cause an investigation to be made.

Thanksgiving Day will be observed more quietly than usual this year in official circles. This is on account of the recent death of Vice-president Hobart. At the white house the day will be spent quietly by President and Mrs. McKinley. Most of the members of the cabinet will spend the day in Washington with their families. Assistant Attorney General Boyd will spend the day here, as will also Assistant Postmaster General Heath, and most of the other high officials. During the afternoon the usual football games will be played, and there will be special matinees in all of the theatres of the city.

President and Mrs. McKinley have cancelled all of their social engagements for the next thirty days, out of respect to the late Vice-president Hobart. The members of the cabinet and other officials with few exceptions will refrain from taking a prominent part in social affairs of the national capital during the period of mourning.

Southern members of the senate and house are coming in rapidly. Among those now here are Senator McLaurin, of South Carolina, Senator Caffey, of Louisiana, Senator Tallaferra, of Florida, Senator Money, of Mississippi, and others.

Washington correspondents are beginning to return to Washington for the session. Among those who are now here is Mr. J. A. Holloman, of the Atlanta Journal, who is accompanied by his wife, who will spend the winter in Washington.

Friday evening the ladies of the North Carolina society will hold their annual meeting at the National hotel. The meeting of the association last Saturday was a very pleasant occasion, nearly all prominent North Carolina people in the city being in attendance.

ACTING VICE-PRESIDENTS.

Since the Formation of the Government.

Since the formation of the government fourteen senators have been acting vice-president by reason of the death of the duly elected vice-president or his accession to the presidency. The list is as follows: William Crawford, of Georgia, by reason of the death of Vice-President George Clinton; John Gallard, of South Carolina, on the death of Elbridge Gerry; Samuel L. Southerd, of New Jersey, and Willie P. Mangum, of North Carolina, on the accession of John Tyler to the presidency; D. R. Atchison and Jesse D. Bright, of Indiana, on the death of William R. King; Lafayette S. Foster, of Connecticut, and Benjamin F. Wade, of Ohio, on the accession of Andrew Jackson to the presidency; Thomas W. Ferry, of Michigan, on the death of Henry Wilson; Thomas F. Bayard, of Delaware; David Davis, of Illinois, and George F. Edmunds, of Vermont, on the accession of Chester A. Arthur to the presidency; and John Sherman, of Ohio, and John J. Ingalls, of Kansas, on the death of Thos. A. Hendricks.

Entertainment at Guilford.

At Guilford College next Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock the young ladies of the Phillipsian Literary Society will give an entertainment for the benefit of their new society hall. The exercises will be held in the auditorium and the admission will be 15 cents. Refreshments will be served. The young ladies hope to make the entertainment a very enjoyable affair.

NOTES FROM HIGH POINT.

The Local News From Our Neighbor Briefly Told.

TELEGRAM BUREAU,
HIGH POINT, N. C., Nov. 29.
Glad you both are with us for another year. B others Scroggs and Lowdermilk.

Editor W. C. Hamner, of the Asheboro Courier, passed through last night going South.

Charley Muse, manager of the electric light system is busy stringing wires this week for lights in the following factories for use in the early morning and at night: S...

performance which is to be given by local talent at the opera house Thursday and Friday nights of next week, is a very large one, numbering some twenty people and has been selected with great care. Messrs. Bortman and Willard, the directors, express themselves as being highly pleased with the selection as each one seems especially adapted to the character cast for.

T. Berry, of this city, and Mr. Rice, of Greensboro, who went out hunting yesterday and returned in the eve without any luck, too. They are now hunting for a "kicking machine."

Rev. A. W. Plover, of Asheboro, was here last night, returning from conference.

Alleyn Child, of Baltimore, E. W. Wilson, of Richmond, and W. W. Martin, of Atlanta, were guests of this city yesterday.

High Point's eleven has challenged Guilford College to meet them on the gridiron here Thanksgiving Day for a game of football.

Miss Eva Thurston is indisposed, at her home in the western part of the city.

Messrs. E. D. Steele and J. F. Hoffman, owners of the High Point telephone exchange, have sold out to Messrs. J. F. Hayden and T. J. Finch, of Thomasville, the deal being consummated yesterday.

Since Greensboro has passed a law prohibiting all persons residing or working in the neighborhood of the terra cotta works (where a supposed epidemic of smallpox is prevalent) from coming within the corporate limits of the city within thirty days without a physician's certificate, why shouldn't High Point take these same precautions? Even if you do not think there is any danger from "the disease" this precaution would preclude the possibility of it being brought here from the infected district, and give ease of mind. If the disease should chance to claim a victim here no doubt, as was the case in other towns, the scare would prove far more disastrous than the smallpox itself. An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure.

A happy man is depot agent H. C. Field, and he has cause to be so. Why—a bouncing boy arrived at his home yesterday.

It is reported here this morning that there is a case of smallpox at Jamestown. Don't you believe ONE WORD you hear in regard to this report without know it is a fact. We don't have any idea that there is a genuine case of the disease within 100 miles of Jamestown.

R. J. Porell, of Philadelphia, and another gentleman from the north, who have been here for several days in the interest of a firm who wish to secure a franchise for water works here, returned home last night. While here they secured several jugs of water from streams and also from wells, and sent samples to Raleigh and Philadelphia to be analyzed by chemists.
