CHAPEL HILL OFFICE LOOTED.

ROBBERS USE DYNAMITE AND GET CASH AND STAMPS.

The Safe Was Blown Open and $150 in Cash and $400 in Stamps Were Taken.

By Wire to the Telegram.
Chapel Hill, April 18--Robbers dynamited the safe in the post office here last night. They secured about $150 in cash and $400 worth of stamps. There are no clues as to who did the work.

This would seem to be the work of the same band that has been operating in that section for some two years. Robberies have occurred during that time at Siler City and Ore Hill, besides some minor ones.

WHO ESTABLISHED THEM?

Straws That Show the Way the Wind Blows.

Last fall when fire insurance rates on dwellings and other preferred risks were reduced in North Carolina there was some discussion as to the occasion for the reduction. The reduction was made by the South Eastern Tariff Association and this Association claimed that it was made in recognition of certain favorable insurance laws passed by the last legislature. The friends of the two Greensboro fire insurance companies contended that the reduction was aimed at them on account of the annual dividends paid by these companies to their policy holders. In a recent issue of the Insurance Herald, an organ of the South Eastern Tariff Association, appears the following statement:

"It has been common talk in S. E. T. A. circles for a long time that most of the troubles in New Orleans were largely due to the waywardness of the local companies. The locals are said to pay their dividends out of the profits on dwelling-house lines." A good deal of friction has developed at New Orleans between some of the local companies and the companies of the South Eastern Tariff Association. A pretty strong current of opinion has been discovered among the association company managers that it would be a good thing to reduce rates on dwellings and on preferred risks."

From the above it would appear that the situation at New Orleans with reference to the local companies is very similar to that which prevailed in North Carolina, and that the association is taking steps to adopt the same plan of retaliation in New Orleans but, unfortunately, without the exercise of friendly legislation behind which to hide. This New Orleans movement seems to unmask the real motive of the S. E. T. A. in the recent reduction in North Carolina in rates on dwellings and on other preferred classes. However, all this matters very little so long as the public gets the benefit of cheaper rates. It should be borne in mind, however, that the low rates on dwellings prevailing in North Carolina has been brought about by our home companies, the Southern Stock-Mutual and Underwriters of Greensboro.

THE ORANGE PRESBYTERY.

The 26th Session Convened in This City Last Night.

The Presbytery of Orange met last night in its 26th session at the Westminster church. The opening sermon was preached by Rev. C. W. Robinson of North Wilkesboro. Fourteen of the twenty-six ministers in the Presbytery were present at roll call. Two more came in this morning. Sixteen of the fifty-eight churches are represented so far.

Ruling Elder T. B. Fuller of the Durham church was elected moderator, and Rev. J. Goodman, ruling elder S. H. Boyd were elected as temporary clerk. Rev. Eugene Daniel D. D., of Raleigh and Rev. Jno. Wakefield, of Salisbury were introduced to the Presbytery, and invited to sit as corresponding members. The hours for meeting were agreed on as follows: 9 a. m. to 12 m., 2:30 p. m. to 5 p. m., 8 p. m. to adjourn at will.

Presbytery met this morning at 9 o'clock and was opened with prayer by Rev. D. J. Currie. Rev. S. S. Oliver was dismissed at his own request, to unite with the Presbytery of Lexington. Other routine business was transacted at eleven o'clock. The Presbytery took recess until the afternoon. The hour of divine worship having arrived, the members of the Presbytery and the congregation listened to a strong sermon by Dr. Eugene Daniel from Rom. 5-10, on reconciliation by the birth of Christ. Will be preaching again tonight at 8 o'clock.

TROUBLE WITH TURKEY LIKELY.

THE BAD FAITH OF THE SULTAN IS THE CAUSE.

He Has Continually Refused to Pay Indemnity Claims, and Diplomacy is Exhausted.

By Wire to the Telegram.
Washington, April 18--It is learned at the State department this morning that a final peremptory note has been sent Turkey, requiring that the indemnity must be paid immediately or disagreeable consequences will follow. This ends the matter so far as diplomacy is concerned on the part of United States.

The trouble is over the bad faith of the Sultan. He promised to pay the indemnity claims of the American missionaries for the destruction of eight buildings of the Euphrates College, at Harpoot, and several buildings belonging to the American missionaries at Marash, during the Armenian massacres in 1895, aggregating about $90,000.

He has failed to pay and has been prodded by this government time and again since the claims were awarded, but to no avail. He will never pay till forced to.

THE POP CONVENTION WARM

HARRY SKINNER HISSIED BY DR THOMPS N

The Platform Condems The Constitutional Amendment--Skinner Denounces Senator Butler.

Special to the Telegram.
Raleigh, April 18--The State Populist convention is in session here this afternoon. H. F. Seawell, of Moore, is chairman. Congressman Southerland, of Nebraska, addressed the convention in a speech on populist doctrine.

The platform submitted, and which is being discussed at four o'clock, condemns the last legislature in strong terms, as careless, slipshod, etc. It denounces in unmeasured terms the election law. The amendment is condemned and the grandfather clause declared unconstitutional. It favors legislation which will eliminate the negro after three generations.

The session of the day was caused by ex-Congressman Harry Skinner, who denounced Senator Butler and declared he was no better than Chairman Simmons.

Skinner says if the convention is honestly for Bryan it will endorse the Democratic electors at large. He declares that Bryan embodies the very highest and best doctrines of populism.

His utterance about Butler were hissed, Dr. Thomson joining in the hissing.

MAJOR STEDMAN TO SPEAK.

Daughters of the Confederacy Secure His Services to Talk of the Life and Character of General MacRae.

At the request of the Guilford County Chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy, Major Chas. M. Stedman has consented to deliver on the 10th of May--Memorial Day--an address on the life and character of General William MacRae and the battle of Roanoke station. It is deemed particularly appropriate to this locality as a large number of MacRae's brigade volunteers were from this section, and he was held in high esteem by all of his officers and men. Moreover, both Cook's and Stiles' brigades, which had many members from Guilford and adjoining counties participated in the fight at Roanoke Station which reflected great honor upon North Carolina troops. The address was delivered by Major Stedman ten years ago in Wilmington.

STATE CONVENTION

Miss Bays Says Everything is Ready for the Christian Endeavorers.

To the Editor of the Telegram:
Everything is in readiness for the Christian Endeavor State Convention to be held in Raleigh next week, April 28 to 29, and every indication is that this will be in every way an interesting and helpful convention.

It was my privilege to be in Raleigh last week in the interest of the convention. Many of the merchants, all whom I had time to see, willingly consented to use the Christian Endeavor state colors in the decoration of their places of business during the convention, so we look for an elaborate display of green, yellow and white during those days. Rev. Dr. T. N. Ivey, of Raleigh, and other speakers have been added to the list of those who will take part on the program. The "Quiet Hour" prayer meeting on Sunday morning will be held with the Prison Christian Endeavor society at the penitentiary. Let us have a large attendance at the convention.

Mamie Bays, Chairman Press Department and Transportation Manager.

Clement Boren, Thomas Hunt, David Johnson, Thomas Manly, Herbert Stack and Roy Stack.

"I can always come nearer finding what I want in children's shoes here than anywhere else in town," said a lady in our store last week. Just now our line of children's sandals, oxfords, and shoes is especially full and complete. Thacker & Brockmann.

THEY ARE BETWEEN TWO FIRES

TRAINMAN'S CAUSTIC COMMENT ON RULES

To Obey Them All, He Says, Means to Lose Time and Win a Discharge. To Break Them and Have an Accident Means a Discharge Also.

It is an interesting position that one finds when studying the relations that connect the railroad employee with the road itself with regard to the rules and regulations. It has a ring of "heads I win, and tails you lose" in favor of the road when it comes to deciding where the responsibility lies when an accident occurs. An old railroad employee, a member of a train crew, was conversing with the writer recently, and in going over it the situation might be better and more readily understood if he were to be rather closely quoted from his standpoint and in his language.

"On our line," he said, "we have many a good mile that composes the route, but it is not our knowledge and experience of working under rules and regulations as standing between the general manager's office and the actual operation of the trains. To follow every rule and regulation to the letter would make travel far safer than it is, but it would be so slow and tedious to the passenger that the time made in the old days of stage lines would appear a 'flier's' time of these days.

"To make from even 30 miles per hour up to the 80 reached these days and to live up to everything pertaining to slow ups, grade crossings, saving of coal, oil and material, slow stops and starts, reduced speed over switches and turnouts and a hundred and one things to be remembered, would be the worst kind of folly if making time was a consideration.

"Take my run, 150 miles, which is on the card to be made in 4 hours and 52 minutes, not such a swift gait, to be sure, although in winter, with snow, ice and bad weather, it is some little kind of a job to get around on time. To live up to every iron rule, those in the book, on the card and various specials issued every day, you could not pull that run through in ten hours, and you might cost yourself lucky if you went through upon that time.

"A trainhand has the choice of either making his time, for, if he is frequently late, he is either set back, suspended, fined or dismissed, or living up to every rule, and if not found doing so in case of accident, being dismissed. Of course where no accidents occur the rules can be tampered with and the management be blessed with bandaged eyes, but let a mishap occur, and in order to protect themselves they jog out the thousand or two rules, and if you are found guilty you receive an early dismissal. So the trainhand takes his desperate chances by playing at luck, by using discretion in obeying his rule, as he keeps his position longer than he would through strictly carrying out every one and eventually being dismissed when the first salary day arrives.

"In one book of rules upon a large road appear nearly 500 regulations for the employee to familiarize himself with, or, as one of the general rules says: 'The head of each department must be conversant with the rules, supply copies of them to his subordinates, see that they are understood, enforce obedience to them. No one will be excused for the violation of any of them, even though not included in those applicable to his department. Ignorance is no excuse for neglect of duty.'

"Then follows a most remarkable clause or rule which reads, 'Every employee while on duty connected with the trains on any division of the road is under the authority and must conform to the orders of the superintendent of that division.' Now, if the employee has a certain order from the superintendent that conflicts with those of the book, the road has him double headed.

"To obey the superintendent and disobey the rule means discharge, as it distinctly states that 'no one will be excused for the violation of any of them,' while on the other hand 'he must conform to the orders of the superintendent,' so he is to become discharged either way, but the road stands unblamed in either case. Besides these 500 regulations there are numbers of rules, about 20 forms of train orders, 4 hand and lamp signals, 17 manner of using signals according to the train rules, besides nearly 100 special rules on time card.

"Then comes the changing occasionally of a rule or from day to day the time of some new rule. With this the employee must learn by heart the scheduled time of some 25 regular trains, not to mention as many specials. Is it a wonder that more accidents occur when one employee may be on duty 18 or 20 continuous hours and happens to forget just one of these things to be remembered?"--Portland (Me.) Argus.

Boiled Salt Meats.

The indigestible properties of boiled ham, corned beef and other salt meats may, according to Mrs. Farns, the cooking expert, be eliminated if the meat is sufficiently boiled. The salt toughens the fibers, and it takes persistent boiling to overcome this. The time allowed for a ten pound piece is five hours, but as the pieces are apt to be thick rather than long one of half this weight would need about the same amount of time. The meat should be partly cooled in the water in which it is boiled.
