GUILFORD 10 AND OAK RIDGE 0

A HOTLY CONTESTED GAME AT THE FAIR GROUNDS YESTERDAY.

The Teams Played a Smooth Game, But the Crowd Helped to Amuse Itself—Oak Ridge Plucky, But Guilford Had Superior Team—Plenty of Spice in the Way of Squabbling by the Teams and Scraps Among the Crowd—Horse Racing During the Game Helped Along the Diversion—The Other Games Yesterday.

The game of football between Guilford College and Oak Ridge which occurred yesterday afternoon on the ground of the Central Carolina Fair was won by Guilford with a score of 10 to 0. Aside from a manifestation of the spirit of rivalry that has prevented teams of these institutions meeting since 1893, the game was a very pretty one. Oak Ridge played manfully and well, but Guilford showed its superiority on all occasions. There was a good deal of squabbling on points between the two sides, but while they were playing, the game went smoothly and very interestingly. Kirkpatrick, (O. R.) at center, was a stone-wall, and Brown full back for Oak Ridge, played brilliant ball, but not more so than Daniels, of Guilford, who starred on both defensive and offensive work. Morton and Love of Guilford, also deserve special mention.

The crowd of spectators, which would undoubtedly have been large but for the drizzling rain when the game began, numbered perhaps between two and three hundred. It was a gay old crowd, too, at least a number of individuals in it were loaded well enough to furnish fun for the remainder, and in entertaining qualities they divided honors with the teams. There were any number of fights of more or less severity. On man had three. Some of them were heavy struggling matches, and as the whole crowd in the vicinity always rushed in to part them, the spectators appeared to be carrying on a pitched battle, with skirmishes, marches and counter marches. Beside this, it became impossible to keep the crowd off the field and it kept the teams hugged tightly as they played over the field. This added to the confusion, and kept the Oak Ridge and the Guilford sympathizers pretty well mixed up, and they didn't fail to talk warmly to each other. When there was no squabbling between the friends of the teams, and the teams themselves, there were enough drunken men about to keep things lively. It all showed football at its worst, and the real friends and lovers of the game always regret such.

At the end of the game there came near being a big free fight. Prof. J. Allen Holt, of Oak Ridge, who, with Prof. Wilson, of Guilford, was time keeper, deemed that, both as an official of the game and as a gentleman, he had been insulted during the game, by Mr. Hill, one of the Guilford players, and as soon as the game was over called him to apologize. The conversation which ensued resulted in Professor Holt striking Mr. Hill. Immediately there was a great hubbub. The Oak Ridge men rushed up yelling that Prof. Holt had been hit or insulted and wanted to avenge it, while Guilford men were equally anxious to take up for their side, the crowd surged backward and forward, fists, umbrellas and canes in the air. It could not be told which was which, who wanted to fight and who were trying to restore order. Meanwhile Prof. Holt and Prof. Wilson who were together, had left the field. Enough cool heads were in the crowd to somewhat restrain it, and Mayor Taylor, who was among them, shouted for order and accompanied Mr. Carl Hill, the Guilford man implicated, and the special object of the feeling of the Oak Ridge sympathizers, off the field.

After leaving the field, Mr. Hill said to a Telegram reporter that he really did not know why Prof. Holt struck him. Prof. Holt was asked about it at the McAdoo House and made a full statement of his side. "I was an official of the game," he said, "with Prof. Wilson of Guilford. During the latter half of the game, Mr. Hill, one of the players, called out loudly to Prof. Wilson to take me off the field. I remarked to Prof. Wilson that that was a public insult, as I was an official of the game and had a right to be on the field, and I should demand an apology when the game was over. Prof. Wilson said he thought the young man should, and would, apologize. Some of our boys heard it and wanted to resent it, but I told them to let it alone, I would speak to Mr. Hill after the game, but didn't care to have any of them present. When the game was over I called Mr. Hill aside and demanded an apology. He was slow and hummed and hawed. I saw the crowd gathering and told him to apologize at once. So did Prof. Wilson. As he did not, I slapped him with my left hand. I was still holding the watch in my right hand. Prof. Wilson and I immediately left the field."

It is singular that with the whole game, and the fights and threats of fights, nobody was hurt.

The line-up of the teams was as follows:

| Guilford College. | Oak Ridge. |
|-------------------|-------------------|
| Cox | Kirkpatrick |
| Fagan | McClure and Dail |
| Martin | Adams |
| Holt | Heath |
| Milikan | Jones |
| Lewis | Gorham |
| Short | Dye |
| Morton | Ridge |
| Daniels | Brown (Hinson) |
| Hill | Townsend and Tom- |
| Love | Ross and Trogdon. |

THE GAME IN DETAIL.

Guilford wins toss, kicks off and defends north goal. Ridge returns ball 10 yds from 1070 line. Ross makes 4 1/2 thro line, followed by 4 more thro line, and then 6. Graham 11 Brower 3, and Ross making no gain, ball goes to Guilford. Short hits left end for 16 yds. On the two succeeding downs, no ground being gained, Daniels kicks 20, Ridge returning 5. Ross makes no gain. Townsend 4 thro left end, the ball not advancing next down ball goes to Guilford. Daniels hits the line for 4, followed by 4 1/2 thro left end. Oak Ridge steadied herself and took the ball away from Guilford on downs. Townsend skirts left and behind a "ends back" for 15 yds. followed by another of 2. Ross gains 3 thro line, then 3 more thro line on quick opening. Guilford again gets ball and Daniels makes 5 thro line on back formation. Holt on off side play by Kirkpatrick. Daniels makes 24 on beautiful run, and next down is pushed over for touchdown. On kick out, Guilford misses her catch and the score stood 5 to 0. Ridge, the plucky little quarter-back of Oak Ridge, was hurt here, but he kept in the game, doing his part at quarter with invincible pluck, not a single fumble being made by him.

On kick off by Kirkpatrick 1070 line, Daniels returns ball 17. Kirkpatrick is hurt but keeps in game. Oak Ridge holds Guilford for downs and on first rush Ridge makes 8 through line on fake pass. Townsend 3 thro line.

Second half. Kirkpatrick kicks off for Oak Ridge to 20 yd line. Daniels gains 7 around left end. Holt makes a beautiful run of 30, with a touchdown safe, but he stumbles and loses ball to McClure. Dail, O. R. replaces McClure at left guard and Tomilson and Trogdon halves. Tomilson gains 7 around left end. Guilford holding Oak Ridge for two rushes. Brown kicks 10 yds. After repeated gains by Guilford, Daniels is pushed over for touch-down. Daniels fails to kick goal, making the score 10 to 0 in favor of Guilford. Time was called with the ball about midway between the goal posts.

Time:—30 minute halves.
Officials:—Dr. Roach, referee; Garland Daniel, umpire.
Time keepers:—Profs. Holt and Wilson.

ANOTHER INSURANCE COMPANY.

TO WORK IN CONNECTION WITH THE HOME COMPANIES.

The Southern Loan and Trust Company Establish an Insurance Department, Which Will Take the Place of the Williamsburg City in Carrying Excess Lines.

The stock-holders of the Southern Loan and Trust Company have decided to establish an insurance department, to transact a general fire insurance business on the old life stock plan.

This action has been taken because of the difficulty experienced in getting another stock company to take the place of the Williamsburg City of New York, which had been of great assistance to the local agents of the Southern Stock Mutual and Underwriters Insurance Companies of Greensboro, in carrying their excess lines and some classes of risks that the dividend paying companies could not afford to write, the Williamsburg City having retired from the State on account of the insurance laws of 1899. It will be in no sense a competitor of the other Greensboro companies, as it will pay no dividend to policy holders, but is intended to strengthen their agencies, many of whom have found it impossible to get any company to take the place of the one lost.

This is no new field for banking institutions. One of the most successful banks in Virginia has been doing an insurance business and has found it very profitable, its assets being now $1,750,000.

There is no way in which the people of North Carolina can enhance the financial interests of the State more than by patronizing good home insurance companies. The Southern Stock Mutual and Underwriters of Greensboro have saved the people of the State in a few years about $125,000 directly, besides by their competition causing the Southeastern Tariff Association to so reduce rates as to cause an annual saving of $100,000 in premiums.

As the assets of the Southern Loan and Trust Company exceed those of any other North Carolina insurance company, it will no doubt receive a liberal patronage, not only from the people of Greensboro, but other communities of the State, and lessen materially the amount of money that goes North and to Europe.

The insurance department will be entirely separate from the banking and trust departments, and will be under the management of the vice-president, Mr. A. W. McAlister, who is acknowledged to be one of the best insurance men of the State.

TRINITY WINS THE CUP.

Wake Forest Awarded the Praise for the Best Oratory and Trinity for the Best Argument—Tremendous Crowd.

Special to The Telegram.
Raleigh, Nov. 29.—For two hours before the opera house doors were opened for admission to the Trinity-Wake Forest debate, a crowd waited in the streets. As soon as the doors were opened there was a mad rush for seats and in a few minutes every seat was taken. College spirit ran high, each college giving its college yells until its debate began.

The debate was opened with an explanation of the contest by Mr. Josephus Daniels, editor of the News & Observer. The query, "Resolved that the South Carolina dispensary law is unwise," was read by the secretary and then the sides of the respective colleges announced, Trinity having the affirmative and Wake Forest the negative.

The debate was opened by Mr. J. F. Giles, as a representative of Trinity. Mr. S. G. Flournoy followed in behalf of Wake Forest. The affirmative was continued by Mr. W. H. Wanamaker. W. A. Dunn followed in support of the negative. The last gentleman on the affirmative was Mr. F. S. Caden. Mr. H. E. Flack spoke as the last gentleman on the negative.

According to agreement of the terms of the debate each debater was allowed a five minutes' rejoinder. Each debater replied in a short, forcible rejoinder.

The judges then retired and in a short time returned with a verdict that in point of oratory Wake Forest excelled, but in argument Trinity was superior. Therefore, by the rules of the debate, the cup was won by Trinity.

AMERICAN LEGATION VISITS.

Entertained in a Japanese Home on Thanksgiving Evening—Social.

In response to the following unique invitation, a happy party of young people gathered at the hospitable home of Mrs. F. L. Reid, on West Market street last evening:

"The American legation is to visit a Japanese home, and will be entertained by the girls who will be delighted to have you honor them with your presence.

"Mrs. F. L. Reid, Thanksgiving evening, 8 to 12."

The invitations were concealed within Japanese mannikins which are prized by the recipients as souvenirs of a most delightful occasion. A guessing contest in which the answers to the conundrums asked were the names of great men, was much enjoyed. "What did the Emperor of China do to the Empress when she usurped his throne?" was one of the many good ones asked. The answer is, "cussed her." (Custer.)

Several selections of music of an enjoyable nature were rendered and appreciated. Last, but not least, were delicious refreshments served in the dining room.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Wood, Misses Lola, Minnie and Annie Reid, Catherine Geiter, Alice Shemwell, of Lexington, Mintie Lyon, Mczelle Andrews, Hettie Lyon, Nettie Murray, Helen Wheeler, Daisy Carraway, and Messrs. Jim Mann, Lacey Sellars, Moody Stroud, George Patterson, Eugene McNairy, Frank Leak, Charles Murray, Chas. Harrison, Dr. Edmund Harrison, Prof. A. B. Broadhurst, Hugh Broadhurst, of Goldsboro, Rev. C. E. Hodgkin, and Fuller Reid.

Mrs. B. C. Sharpe entertained a number of friends last evening with a card party. The gentleman's prize was won by Mr. H. L. Fry, while Mrs. Scott, of Graham, captured that awarded the ladies.

The Eaterpe club meets tomorrow afternoon with Misses Mary and Ada Swaim.

BOARD OF STEWARDS MEET.

Miss Mabel Hill Elected Organist at West Market With Miss Lola Carraway Assistant Organist.

The Board of Stewards of West Market church met last night and elected Miss Mabel Hill organist and Miss Lola Carraway assistant organist for the present year. No better selection could be made. Miss Hill is a musician of rare ability, with much experience in choral work. Miss Carraway is well known to the West Market congregation where her voice has charmed all who have heard it. Miss Helen Wheeler was elected organist for the Sunday school and prayer meeting.

The Board also elected the following officers: President, Mr. J. A. Odell; vice-President, Mr. C. H. Ireland; Secretary, Dr. John H. Wheeler; Treasurer, Prof. W. F. Alderman; Chief Usher, Mr. C. H. Dorsett, who will appoint his assistants.

Rev. E. F. Carpenter Married.

Rev. and Mrs. B. F. Carpenter, who were married in Durham Wednesday afternoon, passed through Wednesday night on their way to visit the groom's mother near Shelby. Mr. Carpenter is a Methodist preacher and attended Conference here last week. Mrs. Carpenter was Miss Pendergraft, of Durham. The young couple have many friends in the Conference who offer congratulations. Mr. Carpenter's work this year is on the Salisbury circuit.

FOOT BALL CROWD'S DISASTER.

EIGHTY-TWO PEOPLE KILLED OR GREATLY WOUNDED.

In San Francisco a Crowd Had Gotten Upon a Roof to Witness a Game and It Collapsed—Directly Under It Was a White-hot Furnace Into Which They Plunged—Today Seventeen are Dead and Twelve More Dying.

By Wire to The Telegram.

San Francisco, Nov. 30.—While 16,000 people were watching the football game between the Stanford and Berkeley teams yesterday the roof of the San Francisco and Pacific Glass works, on which several hundred men were congregated for the purpose of obtaining a free view, collapsed, carrying more than a hundred men and boys down upon the white-hot furnace below.

The furnace was directly underneath the portion of the roof which gave way. It is a brick structure, and the top is a curved surface. The exterior heat on the top of this furnace at the time of the accident is said to have been 500 degrees Fahrenheit. This is where at least fifty fell when the roof caved. When the alarm of the disaster was sounded many of the employes and outsiders ran to the scene. On the top of this glowing furnace lay two score of men and boys writhing in agony. Some were stunned after striking the iron girders, others had fallen headlong and were either dead or unconscious. Those not seriously injured hurried to the aid of friends. But for the timely aid of these the death list would have been triple. The scene that was presented looked like a slaughter house.

At least eighty-two persons were injured. The dead now number seventeen and it is feared twelve others will die.

Death of Mrs. Barnwell.

Mrs. Minnie Barnwell, wife of Mr. John Barnwell, died at her home in Burlington yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock. She leaves a devoted husband and one daughter, "Little Mamie," to mourn her loss. Deceased was a relative of Mrs. Cam Witherpoon and Mrs. W. I. Montgomery, of this city, and she has many other friends here who will be grieved to hear of her death. The funeral services will be conducted in the Christian church at 12 o'clock tomorrow and the interment will be at Pine Hill cemetery.

Prof. N. C. English Married.

Prof. N. C. English, for many years professor of English literature in old Trinity College, was married to Miss Jennie Bouldin, of Archdale, last evening at the home of the bride's mother. The couple passed through Greensboro this morning on the way to visit friends in the eastern part of the State.

They will make their home at Trinity, where Prof. English has resided since he gave up his position in the College when it was removed to Durham.

Will Leave Greensboro.

Mr. George D. Boyd, who has been connected with the Cone Company in this city for some time, has accepted a position with the American Supply Company, of Providence, R. I. Mr. Boyd will travel the Southern States and will handle mill supplies of every description. He leaves in about two weeks for Providence. He has a large circle of friends here who regret to see him leave Greensboro, of which he has been a resident for several years.

LETTERS TO SANTA CLAUS.

Thanksgiving is gone now. The next event that the young heart turns to is Christmas and the coming of Santa Claus. Every youngster wants to tell Santa Claus just what he wants. The Telegram will undertake to make known these wants to Santa Claus. Let all the little boys and girls who want to see Santa Claus write him a letter and the Telegram will publish it so that he will be sure to see it. The letters will be published as soon as enough have been received. Do not write long letters, as Santa Claus won't have time read them.
