Marriage at Reidsville.

Miss Pattie Gardner, of Reidsville, and Mr. Will Gwaltney, of Raleigh, were married yesterday afternoon at five o'clock at the residence of the bride's parents in Reidsville. It was a quiet home wedding, but was nevertheless very pretty and impressive. Only a few friends and relatives were present. The pastor of the Baptist church there, Rev. J. Q. Adams, performed the ceremony.

Mr. Walter Chisholm, of this city, was best man, and Miss Lula Gardner, sister of the bride, was maid of honor.

The bride wore travelling dress, and carried bride's roses. The maid of honor wore white organdy and carried pink carnations.

After the ceremony the couple boarded the Southbound train and arrived in this city last night. They remained here until noon today when they left for their future home in Raleigh.

Miss Gardner is well known and has many friends in this city, she having lived here for some time. She is a sister of Mr. Howard Gardner, the druggist. Mr. Gwaltney is a son of Rev. Mr. Gwaltney, formerly pastor of the Baptist church in Greensboro, and for some time was connected with the drug store of Mr. Jno. B. Fariss. At present he holds a position with Mr. H. T. Hicks, of Raleigh.

The couple were the recipients of many handsome and costly presents.

Funeral of Dr. Poole.

The services over the remains of Rev. Solomon Poole were conducted this morning at ten o'clock from West Market Street church by Rev. J. R. Scroggs and Rev. H. K. Boyer. The simple burial service of the Methodist Episcopal church, South, was used.

No memorial was read but one will be prepared by a committee from the Western North Carolina Conference, of which Dr. Poole was an honorary member, and will be read at the memorial meeting held at the next session of the Conference.

The floral tributes were many and handsome. The pall bearers were: Messrs. O. F. Pearce, L. W. Andrews, J. A. Odell, G. T. Glascock, J. H. Merritt, C. C. Johnson, and John Michaux.

Loyal Temperance Legion.

The Loyal Temperance Legion which meets fortnightly at Grace M. P. church had a very interesting time at the last regular meeting. More than thirty-five children were present. New officers were elected and the hour passed quickly to all.

The next meeting will be Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The boys and girls between the ages of 6 and 15 are invited to attend.

Session of Orange Presbytery.

The regular semi-annual session of Orange Presbytery convened today in Graham. A number of ministers were in the city today en route to attend its sessions. Some of those who attended are, Dr. Craig, of Reidsville; Dr. W. N. Mebane, of Madison; Dr. E. W. Smith, Rev. W. A. Murray, of this city, Rev. Allen Jones, of Jefferson; and Mr. T. G. McLean of this city.

A Marriage.

Justice of the Peace J. A. Pritchett tied the knot that made one couple happy last night. The couple, Mr. Cicero H. Henly and Miss Ida J. Earheart, were from Proximity, and were accompanied by two other couples who gave the Squire to understand that they would come before him shortly on a similar errand.

A Convenient Devise.

The Vanstony Clothing Company are giving a useful little devise with every suit of clothes they sell. It is the "Eureka suit hanger," which holds both coat and trousers in a position that preserves their proper shape.

Mr. George Woodruff, of Mt. Airy, is spending the day in the city, returning from a trip north.

CHRIST THE VICTOR.

One of a Series of Church Cantatas by Buck, to Be Given Tomorrow Night.

The Cantata, "Christ the Victor," which is to be given tomorrow night at the West Market Street church is one of the series of Church Cantatas Dudley Buck has written to celebrate the birth, death, resurrection and ascension of Christ. "The Story of the Cross" is the history of one day (Good Friday), ending with the placing of the body in Joseph's "new tomb hewn out of the rock." The Cantata "Christ the Victor" begins with that point of time. (Good Friday night) and carries the story through the resurrection to the ascension, the following angelic greetings above ending with reflective thought on earth below.

The program for the evening has been arranged as follows:

PART FIRST.

1. Male Quartette—Selected—Dr. John Wheeler, Mr. Ridenhour, Mr. Haywood Alderman, Mr. S. L. Alderman.

2. Violin Solo—Selected—Prof. Charles Brockmann.

3. Reading from Barabbas—Marie Corelli, Miss Etta Stockard.

4. Vocal Solo—The Resurrection—Miss Grace Clary.

PART SECOND.

Christ the Victor.

Cantata.

For Easter tide and Ascension—By Dudley Buck.

Director—Prof. Clarence Brown.

Accompanist—Mrs. J. Norman Mills.

SOLOISTS.

Miss Lola Carraway—Soprano.

Miss Lucy Glenn—Contralto.

Mr. Richard Crawford—Tenor.

Dr. J. Betts—Baritone.

Such a program should certainly appeal to everyone. No admission will be charged but a collection will be taken and it is hoped a liberal sum will be realized. So come prepared.

Social.

Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Milton Shields most delightfully entertained at a violet luncheon. The handsomely furnished dining room was decorated with smilax and parma violets. The table centerpiece was a basket of violets, and at each guest's plate a dainty repetition of center piece tied with ribbon. Soft lights from shaded wax candles made the scene an unusually pretty one. The menu was served in five courses.

Mrs. Shields guests were Miss Carol, of Augusta, Ga., Mesdames Bishop, Woodruff, Carter, Hague and Battle.

The reception given last night by Judge and Mrs. James E. Boyd complimentary to their guests, Misses Helen and Alice Boyd, of Washington City, was one of the most brilliant social events held in the city. Music was furnished by the Brockman Orchestra. Refreshments, consisting of ices, cake and punch were served.

Judge and Mrs. Boyd were assisted in receiving by the Misses Boyd. The punch bowl was presided over by Miss Bert Mebane. About seventy-five guests were present and the evening will be long remembered by them as a most pleasant occasion.

Another Fire at Richmond.

Richmond, April 10.—The big dry goods department store of Julius Meyer's Son, which occupied almost a quarter of a block on Broad street, together with the stock and fixtures, was completely destroyed by fire today. The fire originated on the third floor among some small mattresses, but from what cause is a matter of doubt. The flames spread with great rapidity and when the fire department reached the scene all it could do was to protect surrounding property.

There will be a meeting Friday night at eight o'clock in the firemen's new building for the purpose of electing officers.

FURNITURE MEN BANQUETTED

MR. FRANK W. DUNBAR ENTERTAINS THEM AT HIGH POINT.

A Most Pleasant Occasion for the Manufacturers' Association—Picture Will Appear in Journal.

High Point, April 10.—The North Carolina Furniture Manufacturers Association which was in session here last night and today was tendered a banquet at the Bellevue Hotel last night by Mr. Frank W. Dunbar, who represents the Pittsburg Plate Glass Company, of New York. The affair was quite an elaborate one in every particular. Music for the occasion was furnished by the Greensboro orchestra.

The dining room was beautifully decorated for the occasion and the tables were laden with rarest cut flowers. A menu of souvenir shape lay at each place. It was of celluloid and on the front side was a lithograph of Mr. Dunbar, whose pleasant countenance was brightened by an exquisite red rose bud just above. The reverse side read as follows: "Banquet tendered the North Carolina Furniture Manufacturers Association by Frank W. Dunbar, representing the Pittsburg Plate Glass Co., of New York, at High Point, N. C., April 10th, 1901."

When the guests were seated at the tables a flashlight photograph was taken by Mr. J. E. Jones. This will appear in the Southern Furniture Journal next month.

Mr. Dunbar's opening speech was very good. He was followed by a number of the guests in well chosen words. There were eight courses served and the details of the banquet were admirably arranged. Mrs. Leach, of the Bellevue, rendered excellent service.

The occasion was truly great and the furniture men and other friends present are lavish in their praise for Mr. Dunbar's hospitality.

Serious Runaway.

What might have proved a fatal runaway occurred this morning on East Market street. Miss Mary Foust, who lives in the eastern part of the county, accompanied by another lady, was driving into the city in a top buggy. When almost immediately in front of Mr. Silas Dodson's residence a horse and dray driven by a negro boy dashed up behind their buggy and the dray horse ran into it in such a manner as to overturn the buggy. Both ladies were caught in the top of their buggy, and their horse taking flight began to run. Fortunately he was stopped after running only a short distance, but the ladies were badly shaken up and bruised. They were taken into the residence of Mr. Dodson and remained there all the morning. This afternoon they were sufficiently recovered to transact their business in the city, but their nervous system will not get over the shock for some time.

The driver of the dray says that his horse was running and he could not control it.

Where to Quench Your Thirst.

The finishing touches to the public public fountain, familiarly known as the "Dog Mouth," in front of the county court house, were put on this morning, and the thirsty public may now refresh themselves there. The appearance of the statue is much improved by the repainting.

At the Recruiting Office.

Business at the recruiting station is booming. Seven new recruits were enlisted yesterday afternoon and most of them will serve in the Philippines.

Mr. Brooks Very Low.

A telegram received this afternoon from Putman says that Mr. A. J. Brooks, son of Mr. T. T. Brooks, on whom an operation for appendicitis was performed last Tuesday, is very low.

MARRIED IN CHARLOTTE.

Ex-Sheriff J. W. Cook and Miss Minnie Blackburn Made One

The Telegram contained an innocent looking little paragraph yesterday saying that Mr. W. E. Beville and Miss Minnie Blackburn had gone to Charlotte for a short trip. This created no suspicion and behold the surprise of Greensboro friends when they read the following in the Charlotte Observer this morning:

"Mr. J. W. Cook, of Greensboro, and Miss Minnie Blackburn, of the same place, were married in the parlors of the Central Hotel, yesterday at noon. Rev. Parker Holmes, pastor of the Broadway Street Methodist church, officiating.

"It was not a Gretna Green affair, but a common sense arrangement by which they got rid of the trouble and bother of a 'pretty home wedding.' Mr. Cook and his affianced arrived here on the morning train from Greensboro, and the wedding arrangements were soon perfected. The ceremony was performed in the presence of quite a number of friends.

"Mr. Cook is an ex-sheriff of Guilford county. He and his bride were the guests of Mr. Holmes last night. They leave this morning on the return to Greensboro."

The bride and groom are both well known and highly esteemed in this city, and have hundreds of friends who wish them great happiness.

Fire in South Greensboro.

An alarm of fire was turned in this afternoon about two o'clock for a fire located in the residence of Mr. A. A. Johnson on Arlington street. Mr. Johnson's daughter, Miss Kate, made a fire in a little one story room by the side of the house, and it is supposed that a spark from this fire set the roof on fire. Some one passing on Elm street, a block away, saw the blaze and running across lots, with the aid of a ladder handy, put the fire out by the time the firemen were on the spot. The entire fire department turned out but were not needed.

Took His Hat.

Last night Mr. J. A. Logan, who boards at Mrs. Myricks boarding house on Summit avenue, saw a stranger loafing on the street immediately in front of the house. He went out and asked the man if he was looking for any one. The stranger replied not, but he still continued to hang around the place. When Mr. Logan retired he left his hat down stairs in the parlor. Upon looking for it this morning he was unable to find it and he thinks the man hanging around there last night now possesses it.

Death of an Infant.

A telegram was received here this afternoon announcing the death of Dorothy, the nine months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Carr, at their home in Waynesville. The remains will be brought to this city tomorrow night and the funeral will take place Saturday.

Mrs. and Mrs. Carr have the sympathy of their friends in their bereavement.

For Stealing Chickens.

Deputy-Sheriff E. E. Jones captured a negro boy this morning named Tom Young, charged with stealing chickens from Mr. O'Connor, south of the city. The darkey said the chickens were brought to him, but he was lodged in jail all the same.

Received a Check.

Mr. B. E. Jones, recorder for the Knights of Honor, at this place, today received a check for two thousand dollars, insurance on the life of Dr. Robertson, recently deceased. The check is payable to Mrs. Mary E. Robertson.

MR. CURTIS LEAVES MT. AIRY

Will become Superintendent of Schools in Burlington—Highly Appreciated at Mt. Airy.

Mt. Airy, April 10.—The information that Superintendent F. H. Curtiss, of the graded schools of Mt. Airy, had tendered his resignation to the Board of Education, to take effect at the close of the scholastic year, came as a sad and serious surprise to the citizens of the town and especially to the patrons of the school, whose children have been under his educational direction and influence for the past three years. Because he had assumed charge of our schools by unanimous invitation, because from the very first he had shaped and directed their scope and course of study, because he had manifested earnest interest in the fixed and strong establishment of one of the very best graded schools in the State, because of the high esteem in which he is held not only as an instructor, but as a citizen as well, because he and his family are most pleasantly regarded as residents of this town, and because it was earnestly hoped by all that he would remain permanently with us, the Board of Education and the patrons of the school had become to regard his permanent residence among us as a matter of course, and had no thought of his making a change.

Inquiry disclosed the fact that the progressive people of Burlington have ambition along the line of educational advancement just as our people have, and, having ample means at their command, set about the selection of a superintendent who should know how to arrange, direct and conduct in a successful manner a graded school. Without any definite knowledge or assurance as to their ability to secure him, they, through their trustees, elected Prof. Curtiss superintendent of their schools and apprised him of their action.

Notwithstanding the fact that the attendance of the Burlington schools will be greatly in excess of our own, and that the salary offered him is larger than that he was receiving here, Prof. Curtiss took the matter under careful advisement and rightly, as we are at last forced to admit, has accepted the position. Thus, in an enlarged field of usefulness, he continues his chosen life work in our State and for our State, and we bespeak for him such measure of success in his new field of labor as his true worth merits. We surrender him to Burlington with deep regret, yet feeling that our loss will be Burlington's gain.

W. C. T. U. Convened Yesterday at High Point.

High Point, April 10.—As previously announced the Woman's Christian Temperance Union convened here yesterday morning in the Methodist Episcopal church and will continue through today. It is being conducted by Mrs. J. Tyler Johnson, of Richmond, Virginia, assisted by Mrs. Mary E. Cartland, State president of the W. C. T. U. and local officers. The meeting is fairly well attended and is especially interesting to all W. C. T. U. workers.

Saturday Prof. Gentry's Dog and Pony Show comes to town as also does the Schubert Symphony Club and Lady Quartette that night and on Tuesday following, another circus by the name of the Great Rhodo Royal Show—enough announcement for awhile for the boy of "pantaloon age."

The Presbyterian Manse will be erected on Main street between the church and the residence of Mrs. L. L. Wheeler.

The required number not entering last night the oratorical medal contest was called off at the M. E. church. The session was devoted to speech making however.

Please pay in your subscription to the Monument Fund today. The work is progressing and the money needed.
