MRS. K'KINLEY BETTER.

Physicians and Friends Think She Will Pull Through All Right.

By Wire to The Telegram. San Francisco, May 18.—Renewed anxiety aroused early this morning by distinctly unfavorable reports from Mrs. McKinley's sick room. The physicians expected a crisis today. Another sinking spell will, it is feared prove fatal, owing to her extreme weakness. The midnight bulletin says "As night wears on Mrs. McKinley became restless and the morning is looked forward to with apprehension. She did not take nourishment as freely as previously. Powerful stimulants, including oxygen were administered. The bone lesion on her hand spread and discharged from another place. The new wound has been lanced." Early this morning the following was issued: "Mrs. McKinley during the past hour has shown distressing signs of fever. Unless the fever diminishes, the president will not attend the launching of the Ohio.

San Francisco, May 18.—Secretary Cortelyou gave out the statement this morning that Drs. Hirschfelder, Citibons and Cushing met Dr. Rixey at eight this morning and found Mrs. McKinley's condition decidedly improved since last evening. Henry T. Scott said Mrs. McKinley was in an improved condition this morning. It is announced that the president will attend the launching of the Ohio this afternoon.

Struck by Lightning.

By Wire to The Telegram. Philadelphia, May 18.—Thomas B. Wanamaker's country house at Meadow Brook, Montgomery county, was struck by lightning this morning and burned. The loss is estimated to be five hundred thousand dollars. The house contained valuable paintings and brick-a-brack, which were all lost.

GATE CITY BAND TO GO.

Will Accompany the Elks to Charlotte Monday—The Uniform of the Elks.

The Greensboro Elks are very jubilant over their proposed trip to Charlotte Monday. The Gate City Band, one of the best in the State, will accompany them on the trip and enliven the occasion with their music. The Elks will wear uniforms, consisting of white duck trousers, and dark coats. The special uniforms which they ordered in honor of the occasion could not be furnished by the firm to whom the order was given, but this fact was not learned until too late to order them elsewhere. The present uniform of dark coats and duck trousers, however, will be very appropriate and neat. The band will also wear duck trousers. The party will leave at 5:30 o'clock Monday morning.

To Build on Walker Avenue

A building permit was granted Mr. O. W. Monroe this morning for the erection of a dwelling house on Walker avenue. Work will be begun on it in the immediate near future.

THE SWEPSON WILL PROBATED

FIFTY THOUSAND DOLLARS GIVEN TO EDUCATION.

Wake Forest College and the Baptist Female University Receive the Bulk of this Amount—Other Bequests.

The will of Mrs. Virginia B. Y. Swepson was opened yesterday in Raleigh in the office of the clerk of the superior court. It names Mr. A. L. Baker as sole executor, and in it large provisions are made for charitable and educational purposes.

The bequests are reproduced from the Raleigh News and Observer: FOR WAKE FOREST COLLEGE.

The bonds and stocks given to Wake Forest College are worth today on the markets $18,432 as follows:

Twenty-one shares, preferred stock, Southern Railway, $1,701.

Two shares, common stock, Southern Railway, $567.

Four thousand dollars worth of bonds Southern Railway, $4,464.

Two thousand dollars worth of stock, N. C. R. R., $3,200.

Five thousand dollars worth Virginia Mill Bonds, $5,000.

A note, $3,500.

Total, $18,432.

BAPTIST FEMALE UNIVERSITY.

This institution is given $2,500 in cash and three shares of the residue of the estate. I asked Mr. Ernest Haywood, attorney for the executor, last night how much that would be. He said he could not yet tell, but that a ninth would be from $6,000 to $10,000 and he thought a safe estimate was $7,500, which would make three-ninths $22,500. Add to that the $2,500 in cash, and the gift to the Baptist Female University is a cool $25,000.

The other bequests in the will are as follows:

To the Thomasville Orphanage is given $500 in money and $1,000 in bonds.

To the woman's missionary Society (Baptist) is given $1,000 in bonds.

To the Swepsonville church is given $2,000 in bonds.

The balance of the estate, after deducting some small gifts, is divided among a large number of Mrs. Swepson's kinspeople.

When a Policeman May Shoot.

Charleston News and Courier.

A question which is constantly coming up in cities and towns was decided by Judge Ralson, in a Philadelphia court, a few days ago. It was the question of the right or privilege, of a policeman or peace officer to shoot at an escaping prisoner or a person fleeing arrest.

In the Philadelphia case two officers had pleaded voluntary manslaughter for killing of one of two men who had refused, when fleeing from them, to heed their order to halt. They satisfied the judge that they thought they were acting under the law, but he disabused their minds of that impression. He said:

"A policeman can't shoot a man simply because he can't reach him any other way, and you had no right to fire under the circumstances. You are given firearms for your own protection, and in some cases may be justified in shooting a prisoner, but he must be a prisoner, and must be attacking you or trying to escape. Under ordinary circumstances you have no right to shoot. The court appreciates the danger which an officer at times is required to face, but that does not give him the right to fire upon a criminal or supposed criminal in an effort to arrest him."

This makes it plain that an officer cannot shoot a man in order to arrest him: but it appears to warrant an officer in shooting any man who, having been arrested, and being therefore a "prisoner," then "tries to escape." Assuming this to be the law, it would follow that a policeman would not be justified in shooting a burglar—or "supposed burglar"—seen emerging from a bank or a store, in order to stop his fight and arrest him; but he would be justified in shooting a pick-pocket who having been arrested tries to get away from him.

The decision appears to leave something to be decided.

SUDDEN DEATH.

Mr. M. D. Armfield, of Mt. Airy, Passes Away This Morning.

A telegram was received here this afternoon stating that Mr. M. D. Armfield, of Mt. Airy, died suddenly at his home in that city this morning about 10 o'clock. He had been an invalid for several years, but his health was unexpected.

Mr. Armfield is the father of Miss Ethel Armfield, who visited in Greensboro recently.

SAD END OF FATHER PHILLIPS

FOUND DEAD IN AN UNUSED ROOM IN NEW YORK

A Fake Doctor Now Under Arrest for His Murder—Coroner's Inquest Reveals No Marks of Violence.

New York, May 17.—The body of a man found late last night in a house in Ninth avenue, has been identified as that of Rev. Edward S. Phillips, of St. Gabriel's church, Hazleton, Pa., who recently had a conference with J. Pierpont Morgan, in reference to the threatened strike in the iron and coal regions of Pennsylvania. Kirk Stanley, a massage operator, in whose rooms the body was found, is under arrest as a suspicious person. Decomposition had advanced so far when the body was discovered that cursory examination was not sufficient to reveal the cause of death. Stanley has been subjected to a rigid examination and is said to have told conflicting stories. Mrs. Bernius, from whom Stanley leased four rooms, in one of which the body was found, says that her tenant claimed to be from San Francisco and called himself Dr. Stanley. He was accompanied by a young woman whom he introduced as his wife. The body was discovered by Mrs. Bernius' daughter, who went into Stanley's apartments to remove some bedding which was hanging out of the window.

The police were immediately notified and a search of the body disclosed a number of papers. Among them was a letter from John Mitchell, president of the United Mine Workers, and addressed to Rev. Dr. Edwards S. Phillips, Hazleton, Pa. There were also several telegrams from Mitchell addressed to the priest, a half-fare railway coupon, such as is issued to clergymen, and several receipts made out in Dr. Phillips' name. Stanley was arrested at midnight. The prisoner seemed to be suffering from the effects of drink or drugs. His manner was that of a man who was badly dazed. He said his name was Kirk Stanley, and that he had come to this city about a year and a half ago. He said they called him "Doctor," but he had no diploma. He was a massage operator and intended to open an office here.

The body of Father Phillips was removed to the morgue. Dr. A. F. Dougherty, of Wilkesbarre, who said he is a nephew of the priest, identified the body. He said Father Phillips had come to the city to buy some statuary for his church.

Coroner Bausch committed Stanley to the Tombs in default of $10,000 bail, to await the result of the autopsy.

After the autopsy on the body of Father Phillips had been completed, Coroner Bausch announced that no marks of violence had been found on the body. The condition of the organs showed that the man had suffered from chronic nephritis and fatty liver. The coroner said, that owing to the suspicious circumstances surrounding the case, it was deemed advisable to have the vital organ analyzed. Stanley was arraigned in police court and was remanded to the custody of the coroner. He refused to make any statement in court.
