WOMEN IN HOUSE OF MONKS

Gov. Beckham's Wife and Other Ladies on Forbidden Ground

Gethsemanie, Ky., June 5.—When Mrs. Beckham, wife of the governor of Kentucky, passed the portals of the famous old Trappist Monastery of Gethsemanie today, she carried with her the distinction of being the second woman that has ever had the honor to invade the monastic peace of this beautiful old retreat. The welcome of the governor and party was impressive unique, and a new page of history was made for this community of the silent brotherhood.

The party was greeted at the station by a brass band and the Gethsemanie College students, and escorted to the abbey. Then the way was laid to the porter's lodge, over which is the sign which forbids women to enter under pain of ex-communication. Mrs. Beckham glanced at the sign, and then at the lay brother, whose duty it is to prevent feminine invasion. But for once the monk was disarmed, and the woman rustled proudly by into the sacred domain of the Trappist Ascetics. The ban of perpetual silence of the brothers was temporarily lifted by the abbot, and the brothers were permitted to express their pleasure at meeting the executive. After an inspection of the premises, the party was tendered a dinner by Fahree Obercht.

Gov. Beckham in his address spoke of the former visit he had made to the forbidden grounds about the college with a party of young men and women. "We were graciously received by Father Edward, who was the abbot," he said, "but were forbidden within these sacred precincts. The young woman with me peered into the door and expressed a desire to go in. 'When Mr. Beckham is governor, and you are Mrs. Beckham you may enter,' said Father Edward with a faint smile. The young woman who blushed then was Jean Fuqua, now Jean Fuqua Beckham. A man's ambition and a woman's curiosity have now opened the gates of the monastery to us both."

The governor's party consisted of 20 members.

The wife of ex-Gov. Proctor Knott was the first woman ever to visit the monastery. The ladies in the governor's party today were admitted as part of Mrs. Beckham's suite.

THE NEW TOBACCO COMPANY.

JAMES B. DUKE IS ELECTED PRESIDENT.

The Big Concern Formally Organized by the Election of Directors and Officers—Drafts Made on the American and Continental Tobacco Companies for the Latter.

New York, June 6.—The Consolidated Tobacco Company, incorporated in New Jersey on Wednesday, was formally organized in this city today, by the election of these directors: J. B. Duke, Oliver H. Payne, Thomas F. Ryan, J. B. Cobb, W. W. Fuller, Grant B. Schley, Frank H. Ray, Anthony M. Brady, C. C. Dula, P. A. B. Widener, Percival S. Hill, B. N. Duke, and Chas. E. Hollowell. The directors organized by electing James B. Duke president; Thos. F. Ryan, first vice president; J. B. Cobb, second vice president; C. C. Dula, third vice president; R. H. Harris, treasurer, and C. S. Kenne, secretary. The last named official is at present in charge of the transportation department of the American and Continental Companies, and all the other persons named are directors or officers of the same corporations.

It was decided at the first meeting of the directors to offer 4 per cent, 50-year gold bonds of the company to the common stockholders of the American and Continental Tobacco Companies, on the basis of $1 in bond for each share of stock. In the case of the American company, this offer is equal to $2 in bonds for each dollar par value of its stock, so that stock is of the par value of $50 per share.

In addition, American Tobacco common stockholders who accept this offer will receive 1/2 per cent, in cash adjustment of the interest accruing on their stock to August 1, on which date the bonds of the consolidated company begin to draw interest. A formal offering of the bonds to the stockholders of the American and Continental Tobacco Companies will be made through a stock company within a few days. All of the stock deposited with the trust company will at once be placed under the trust indenture securing the bonds, as security for the same. The bonds can only be issued to take up the two classes of stock mentioned and for no other purpose. At not time can the issue of bonds exceed the amount of stock deposited. The bonds besides being a lien upon the shares deposited will also be a lien upon the $30,000,000 of the cash capital of the company and any whatever property be acquired with the same and also upon the earnings of the new company. An officer of the company states that considerably more than a majority of the common stock of the American and Continental Companies has already been pledged for exchange into the hands of the consolidated company. This same official made it clear that in the consolidation the preferred shares of the American and Continental Companies are not disturbed.

By control of these concerns, the Consolidated Company will also control the American Cigar Company, 70 per cent, of the capital of that corporation, being held by the American and Continental companies.

GERMANS KILLED AND EATEN.

THE FATE OF THE SOUTH SEA EXPEDITION.

The Party Taken Unaware by the Cannibals and Twelve Men Killed.

Berlin, June 6.—The Tageblatt prints a special correspondence from New Guinea, containing a full account of the massacre of the members of the first German South Sea expedition, on the Cannibal Islands of St. Mathias. They were all killed and eaten, save Dr. Heinroth.

The Colonial Zeitung, the official organ of the German Colonial Society, furnishes details of the massacre. It seems that the vessel which carried the expedition to the island of St. Mathias left, after a few days, for Herbertshoh, New Britain, to get coal and fresh supplies. During its absence the savages, who had hitherto appeared friendly, although known to be rabid cannibals, planned to kill and rob the diminished party.

The plot was carried out one morning while the members of the expedition, who had a body guard of 40 Papuans, were cleaning their rifles which they had taken apart. Suddenly 80 of the islanders broke from the bushes, raising fierce war cries and brandishing spears with which they stabbed to death the leader of the party, Dr. Mencken, his secretary, Herr Caro, and a white sailor, who was asleep under a tent. Dr. Heinroth emptied a revolver into his assailants while the body guard in the meantime retired to the boats with the wounded and Dr. Heinroth, leaving twelve dead. The boats put off to an island not far distant, where the expeditionary vessel rescued them. Subsequently the survivors returned to the island of St. Mathias, where they found that the bodies had been devoured and the camp absolutely looted.

Shot Five Before Stopped by Bullet.

Coleman, Mich., June 5.—Will Arnell, proprietor of a hotel and saloon in Beaverton, ran amuck today, and before he was overpowered shot and killed his 16-year-old daughter, fatally wounded his wife, and shot his aged mother, brother, and sister. No reason can be assigned for the shooting.

When Arnell, who had been drinking for several days, entered the house today, he went upstairs to where his daughter was hiding from him under a bed, and killed her. He then came down and fatally shot his wife, and fired at his invalid mother, who was sitting in her chair, shooting her through the hand. Mrs. Samuel Dopp and Arnell's sister were attracted by the shooting and as they approached Arnell walked out to street and opened fire on them, wounding his sister slightly.

At this juncture Arnell's brother and Mrs. Dopp's husband came on the scene, and Arnell shot his brother through the arm. Dopp was armed with a shot gun and opened fire, wounding Arnell, who was then captured and taken to the county jail. His wound is not fatal.

Tried to Steal His Children.

New York, June 6.—Arthur Van Sicklen, a lawyer, and president of the Commercial Mutual Life Insurance Company, whose office is in Jersey City, and who resides in Whitestone, L. I., called at the police station in Whitestone today and reported that an attempt had been made to steal his two children yesterday afternoon. The children are George W. Van Sicklen, Jr., six years of age, and Edward Van Sicklen, a little over one year old.

Mr. Van Sicklen said that his children were playing in front of his residence yesterday afternoon when they were approached by two well-dressed women who offered them candy and asked them if they would not like to accompany them to New York. The children became frightened and began to cry. Just then a man approached and the women went hastily down a side street and hurried to a railroad station where they caught a train for New York.

Persons who were around the station at the time and who noticed the women, say they appeared to be greatly excited.

PARDONS RAISE A STORM

Honolulu Greatly Excited by Bribery Inquiry Developments

Honolulu, May 28, via San Francisco, June 5.—Sensations that have deeply stirred Honolulu have grown out of the investigations of the grand jury summoned by Circuit Judge Humphrey to investigate charges of bribery in the legislature.

Last Saturday three of the best known lawyers of Honolulu—Gen. A. S. Hartwell, W. A. Kinney, and S. M. Ballou—were sentenced to thirty days in jail for contempt of court by Judge Humphreys, but before they reached the prison all were released by pardon by Acting Governor Cooper. The sentences were on account of an affidavit which the attorneys attempted to read and file in Humphreys' court to show, on motion for a change of venue, the judge's personal bias against Editor Smith, of the Advertiser, who was indicted by the grand jury for perjury.

In the storm raised by these proceedings the grand jury's investigation of the bribery charges have been lost sight of, but the jury is still in session.

The foundation for the reports of bribery in the legislature had suddenly been revealed by Jacob Cooper, who wanted a railroad franchise. He is the client whose name L. A. Thurston refused to reveal to the grand jury. Cooper swears that he was asked by three different members of the house to pay money for their efforts in behalf of a bill to secure a franchise for his railroad. He has been before the grand jury and, it is stated, has told the jury the names of the three representatives who solicited bribes. The report of the grand jury is awaited with much interest.

Good Old Red-tape.

London Tit-Bits.

A Somerset House clerk entered the private room of the head of his department to ask for a fortnight's holiday. The official received him with his usual affability, and told him to hand in his request in writing.

"Oh, I did not think that was necessary if I applied to you in person," said the clerk.

"Oh, yes; in fact it is indispensable."

"Then I will go back to the office."

"No need to do that; see, here are pens, ink, and paper, sit down and write."

The clerk obeyed: The petition was written out, signed, and folded.

"Now," said the functionary, "you have only to present it."

"To whom?"

"To me, of course!" And, taking the petition, he wiped his glasses, carefully adjusted them, read the document from beginning to end, placed it on a file along with a number of similar applications, and then remarked with the utmost gravity: "I have read your petition, and regret exceedingly that I am compelled to inform you that I cannot accede to your request." Imagine the feelings of the poor clerk!
