Stay on the Earth.

Henry Watterson in a recent interview at Manhattan Beach is reported to have said "That for a man who has twice fallen out of a balloon, Mr. Bryan has the most vigorous pep and voice he knew of."

"Cyclone Jim" Marshall, of Virginia, says that Bryan ought to stop the false Democratic business and stay on the earth long enough to know that he is living in an age some one hundred years since Thomas Jefferson's day—Selah.

Wright's Epsom Lithia Water.

This water belongs to the saline class, of which the essential and active agent is Sulphate of Magnesia (Epsom Salts). The great preponderance of this agent gives it marked advantage over other waters of its kind. Its effects are laxative, diuretic, tonic and alterative. It is indicated in all functional derangements of the stomach, bowels, liver, kidneys and bladder. The laxative action is peculiarly effectual and as a remedy for constipation it is without a rival among mineral waters, or drug remedies. If you are a subject of this common and annoying complaint give Wright's water a fair trial, and you will certainly be pleased.

WILL HOLD OFFICE.

County Officers in Arkansas Said to be Armed to Resist a Decree Ousting Them from Their Positions.

Memphis, July 24.—Dispatches received here today told of a serious state of affairs in Osceola, Ark., where it was claimed Sheriff Rowen and Circuit Clerk Driver refused to vacate their offices, although having been removed by the Governor. It was said that many persons were armed and an outbreak was regarded as imminent. A correspondent was sent to Osceola this afternoon and at 8 o'clock tonight a telegram was received from him, stating that the stories had been exaggerated and that the town was quiet.

A few days ago Governor Davis revoked the commissions of Sheriff Sam Bowen and Circuit Clerk Driver and issued commissions to John A. Lowell and J. W. Rhodes, respectively. At the election last September Rhodes ran for clerk and Lowell for sheriff on what was called the independent ticket. The returns showed that Driver and Bowen were elected and they have held the two offices since. A contest was instituted in the courts and the county court declared Lowell and Rhodes elected. The Circuit Court held to the contrary and on appeal the Supreme Court of Arkansas on July 13 sustained the county court and remanded the cases. Governor Davis thereupon revoked the commissions of the incumbents. The report reaching here is that the Driver and Bowen factions hold possession of the court house and refuse to vacate, while Lowell and Rhodes are supported by a strong armed following and a clash is expected at any time. Driver and Bowen, it is said, dispute the authority of the Governor to revoke their commissions. Feeling runs high.

Around the World in Sixty Days

Chicago Record-Herald.
Charles C. Fitzmorris, whom the Chicago American sent around the world, has more than realized in fact what Jules Verne dreamt in fiction, but that was not such a great thing to do. Several live world-girdlers in flesh and blood have made time that might have disturbed the superb self-possession of Phineas Fogg, the Verne wonder, and the greater glory of Fitzmorris is that he has beaten them. He has made the grand circuit in less than sixty-one days, thus lowering the record by something like two days.

When we consider that Verne's story, "Around the World in Eighty Days" was written less than thirty years ago, and that it struck contemporary readers with all the charm of wild romance, we must feel more than ever how marvelous is this era of progress in which we live. Phineas Fogg fascinated because he was so unreal, so superhuman. Admiring youth fell down and worshipped before his nerve and nonchalance, which even they knew was too good to be true. But now a youth of the day, who is an American youth and a Chicago youth, eclipses the deed if not the character of the impossible hero.

SIX SHOT BY AN INSANE MAN.

ONE DEAD AND ANOTHER BADLY HURT.

Michael Kelly, After Being Released from an Asylum, Starts Out in Leavenworth, Kan., to Kill the Men Who Sent Him There, and After Shooting Six People Meets Death at the Hands of the Police Officers.

Leavenworth, Kan., July 24.—Michael Kelly, an insane man today at the office of the Robert Garrett Lumber Company, in the business district, shot six people, killing one, probably fatally wounding another and more or less seriously wounding four others. He was himself finally killed by officers who tried to overpower him. The victims: John R. Garret, aged 40, junior member of the firm of the Robert Garrett Lumber Company, died at hospital; Michael Kelly, aged 50, died after being taken to the police station. Injured: Dr. Charles McGee, aged 30, shot in back and probably fatally wounded; Police Sergeant Mm. Dodge, shot in neck; wound serious; Michael McDonald, detective, shot in leg, slight; Jos. Faltger, policeman, shot in hand, wound slight.

Kelly had lived in Leavenworth for years and at different times had engaged in minor business enterprises. He was arrested and adjudged insane. Garret, and four others testifying against him. After a year in the Topeka asylum, Kelly was released. He had been acting queerly again and had declared that he would kill the five men who sent him to the asylum. For two weeks he has been practicing shooting with a revolver daily at the Fort Leavenworth range. Last night he drank heavily.

Soon after 12 o'clock today he appeared at Garret's office and without warning shot Garret as he sat at his desk. Garret fell to the floor and Kelly deliberately fired four more shots into the prostrate form. Leaving his victim for dead, Kelly ran to the rear of the company's lumber yard and began reloading his revolver. Presently he returned to the office to find Dr. McGee, who had been attracted by the shooting, bending over Garret. Leveling his revolver Kelly took aim at the physician and fired. The bullet struck McGee in the spine, and he toppled over near where Garret lay.

Then followed an exciting street fight between the madman and officer's who came upon the scene. Kelly, flourishing his revolver, dashed through the lumber yard. He met Ike Healer, a laborer, and shot him in the hand. A few yards further on the encountered Sergeant Dodge. The two exchanged shots as they ran. One bullet from Kelly's revolver struck Dodge in the neck, but not before the officer had shot him in the shoulder. Kelly kept running and was soon confronted by Detective McDonald and Officer Flather. McDonald dropped Kelly with a bullet in the neck. Dodge raised his revolver, but it failed to work and catching up with the murderer, he crushed his skull with the weapon. Kelly was carried to the station in an unconscious condition. He died soon after his arrival there.

Garret did not regain consciousness and died an hour after being taken to the hospital. Dr. McGee is still suffering seriously and it is believed he cannot recover. Dodge's wound is not considered fatal, while the wounds of the others are slight.

A Little Fable

Baltimore American.

A Certain Man, having amassed a large sum of Money, was Anxious to have some Improvements made in the manufacture of His Product, so that he might amass more Money.

So he called in a College Graduate, who devoted Himself well to the Work and Soon Reached a Conclusion which Showed that Twice as Much Goods could be Made for Half the Cost.

Then the Man Discharged the College Graduate, and Later on Wrote an Article for the Magazines Showing that College Men were Failures in Business, and that it took the Horney-handed Son of Toil to Get all the Money.

He based his Argument upon the Fact that the College Man could not Earn any more than the Moneyed Man would pay him.

A COURT FOR SCHLEY INQUIRY.

MR. LONG WILL NAME ITS MEMBERS

Admiral Schley Calls the Attention of the Secretary of the Navy to the Statements Contained in Maclay's History Regarding His Action in the Fight Off the Cuban Coast and Asks for an Investigation.

Washington, July 24.—Secretary Long this morning received a letter from Rear Admiral Schley calling attention to the criticisms against him which are contained in Maclay's History of the Navy and the innuendoes which have appeared in the press for several days, and stating that, in his opinion, the time had now come to take such action as would bring the entire matter under the clear and calm review of his brothers in arms. He asked that the Department take such action as was deemed best to accomplish this purpose. He also requested that whatever action be taken should occur in Washington, where his papers and data are stored. The Secretary immediately decided to comply with Admiral Schley's request and dictated a letter to the rear admiral, saying that under the circumstances he heartily approved of his action and that the Department would proceed at once in accordance with his request. Admiral Schley's letter is as follows:

"Great Neck, Long Island, N. Y., July 22, 1901.

"Sir: Within the past few days a series of press comments have been sent to me from various parts of the country of a book entitled 'The History of the Navy,' written by one Edgar Stanton Maclay.

"From these reviews it appears that this edition is a third volume of the said history extended to include the late war with Spain, which the two first volumes did not contain, and were in use as text-books at the Naval Academy.

"2 From excerpts quoted in some reviews, in which the page and paragraph are given, there is such perversion of facts, misconstruction of intention, such intemperate abuse and defamation of myself as subjects Mr. Maclay to action in civil law. While I admit the right of fair criticism of every public officer, I must protest against the low flings and abusive language of this violent, partisan opponent, who has infused into the pages of his book so much of the malice of unfairness as to make it unworthy the name of history, or of use in any reputable institution of the country.

"3. I have refrained heretofore from all comment upon the innuendoes of enemies muttered or murmured in secret and therefore with safety to themselves. I think the time has now come to take such action as may bring this entire matter under discussion under the clearer and calmer review of my brothers in arms, and to this end I ask such action at the hands of the Department as it may deem best to accomplish this purpose.

"4. But I would express the request in this connection that whatever the action may be that it occur in Washington where most of my papers and data are stored.

"Very respectfully,

"W. S. SCHLEY.

"Rear Admiral U. S. N.

"To the Secretary of the Navy, Washington, D. C."

Secretary Long replied to Admiral Schley as follows:

"Navy Department, Washington, July 24.

"Sir: I am in receipt of yours of the 22d inst., with reference to the criticisms upon you in connection with the Spanish-American war, and heartily approve of your action, under the circumstances, in asking at the hands of this Department such actions as may bring the entire matter under discussion under the clearer and calmer review of my brothers in arms. The Department will at once proceed in accordance with your request.

"Very respectfully,

"JOHN D. LONG.

"Rear Admiral W. S. Schley, U. S. N."
