W. F. ALDERMAN DIED LAST NIGHT AT THE AGE OF 78

Had Been Ill For Some Time And Death Was Not Unexpected—Funeral Sunday—For Years Member of G. F. Faculty—Eight Children Survive.

Many friends throughout the city will regret to learn of the death of Prof. W. F. Alderman, which occurred last evening at 10 o'clock at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Charles H. Hill, 922 West Gaston street. Prof. Alderman's condition has been somewhat critical for some days and his death was not unexpected. He was seventy-ninth year and for the last ten years had been in failing health. Eight children survive: S. I. Alderman, A. H. Alderman, of Greensboro; Jesse Alderman, of Richmond, Va.; H. H. Ireland, Mrs. J. Norman, Mrs. R. T. Willis, Mrs. Myra Alderman, of Greensboro. Mrs. Alderman died in July, 1888.

The funeral will be held from West Market Street Methodist church, of which the deceased had for years been a most consistent member, Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock, conducted by the pastor, E. K. McLarty. The interment will follow in Green Hill cemetery.

Prof. Alderman was born in New Hanover county on January 8, 1833. After arriving at his majority and completing his college course he came to Greensboro several years prior to the Civil War and was connected with Greensboro Female College. After the college closed down during the war he went to Laurinburg where he was for several years connected with a school. After Greensboro Female college reopened her doors in 1876 he returned and became a member of the college faculty, being professor of mathematics. This position he held for about 17 years, resigning eight or ten years ago on account of failing health. Since that time he had made his home with his daughter, Mrs. Ireland.

Prof. Alderman was one of the best-known men in Greensboro, though for several years he was not able to be much among his friends. He was a kindly disposition and he numbered his friends by his acquaintances. As a member of the faculty of G. F. C. he endeared himself to hundreds of students, all of whom will regret to learn of his death.

GIRL TRAVELS 1,000 MILES TO MEET LOVER

Special to Telegram.

Norfolk, Va., June 9.—Because her sweetheart, who is master at arms on the naval receiving ship Franklin, couldn't obtain a leave of absence and come for her, Miss Ethel Broedy, of Albemarle, Ill., traveled a thousand miles to Norfolk and today was married to William Schurre. The groom had made several efforts to get off in order to go to his bride and being unsuccessful his wife telegraphed that she would come to him. The pair had been sweethearts for several years.

GAILEY

Says Carnegie Did Not Compel Formation of The Steel Trust.

Special to Telegram.

Washington, June 9.—James Gailey, former vice president of the steel trust and an officer in the Carnegie Company for many years, today testified that Carnegie did not compel the formation of the steel trust by threats, nor did he try to throttle rival concerns. He also admitted that the steel companies conspired with the railroads as to the price of steel before the trust was organized.

FEARED DEATH LIST WILL REACH NEARLY FIVE THOUSAND

Fearful Havoc Wrought by Earthquake in Mexico Wednesday—Death List Growing.

Special to Telegram.

Mexico City, June 9.—The partial restoration to telegraphic communication throughout the republic shows the real extent of the havoc wrought by the earthquake Wednesday. Every dispatch received during the past 24 hours added to the horrors. The government's most conservative estimate is that over 1,500 were killed and it is feared that when all sections are heard from the death list will total nearly 5,000.

GRAHAM GIRL SAYS STOKES WRECKED LIFE

Special to Telegram.

New York, June 9.—W. E. D. Stokes, who was badly wounded Wednesday by two girls, is decidedly improved. Lillian Graham, one of his assailants, says: "He wrecked my life. I didn't want to kill him, although the world would be better without him." She claims that Stokes discarded her and afterwards circulated slanderous stories and that she was simply trying to force a retraction. The girls' attorney says that Rich "Angel" offers unlimited aid for the defense.

NO CLUE TO MURDERER OF MRS. IDA HILL

The county authorities have so far been unable to find any clue that would throw any light on the murder of Mrs. Ida Hill at Jamestown Thursday morning. The officers are still working on the case but are at a loss as to a starting point in their investigations. The purse of Mrs. Hill was not taken by the murderers, as was at first thought, this being found among the bed clothing in Mrs. Hill's room late Thursday evening. So far as is known nothing was taken from the house.

HYMEN WAITS ON MERCY

Wedding Delayed While Pair Play Good Samaritan.

Atlantic City, June 9.—As Truman W. Jones and Miss Helen M. Kenny were about to enter an automobile at the home of Miss Kenny's mother, No. 620 Mediterranean avenue, on their way to St. Nicholas Church, where they were to be married, they were startled by the appearance of Mrs. John Clark, who ran into the street from an adjoining house, carrying the limp forms of two young children, who had been overcome by gas. Forgetting for the moment their impending wedding and the waiting clergyman, Jones seized one of the children, while Miss Kenny aided the frantic mother in getting the other in the car. Realizing that every moment was precious, the chauffeur, Charles Walters, started ahead at full speed, leaving the remaining members of the wedding party standing in amazement on the sidewalk. The run to the City Hospital was made in fast time, and both Jones and his prospective bride remained at the institution until assurance was given that their efforts had not been in vain and that the children would live. Then they proceeded on to the church, where the delayed ceremony was performed by Rev. C. J. McFadden.

S. H. Howell, Not F. H. Powell.

In yesterday's Telegram it was stated that F. H. Powell was elected to the office of Master at Arms of Guilford Lodge, No. 69, Knights of Pythias. It was S. H. Howell who was elected to this office.

President Simon of Haiti, Who Attained the Office Through Revolution, Now Confronted by a Revolt.

General Antoine Simon, who proclaimed himself president of Haiti a few years ago after having led a revolt which culminated in President Nord Alexis being deposed, now has a revolution on his own hands. The uprising is serious and the rebels are reported to be rapidly gaining strength. There have been several bloody engagements between the army and rebel forces, with the latter generally victorious. The new department has located at Port-au-Prince. The revolution at present is confined to the northern department of the country.

NORTH STATE CAPITAL NEWS

Special to Telegram.

Raleigh, June 9.—Ex-Governor Kitchin is one of the petitioners for a pardon that Governor Kitchin has just granted to Charles White, Madison county, who was in 1905 sentenced to be hanged and then his sentence commuted to life imprisonment, the crime for which he was convicted being criminal assault. Governor Glenn granted the commutation and promised to grant the conditional pardon before he went out of office, it seems, but overlooked it. In his reasons for the pardon at this time Governor Kitchin recites that the petitioner was a woman of very bad character and that she afterwards told a reputable gentleman that her testimony was false. Later when she was prosecuted for perjury she was adjudged insane. The judge is dead, but the solicitor has written the governor repeatedly advocating a pardon for Stokes. In fact, the governor declared the entire citizenship of the county is urging that pardon be allowed. The pardon is conditional on good behavior.

An involuntary proceeding in bankruptcy was started in the Federal court there today against Parker & Chapell, of Nashville, N. C., saw mill and lumber men. The case comes up in the form of a petition from creditors that the company be adjusted bankrupt.

Governor Kitchin issues commissions to Dr. J. E. Green, Weldon, J. D. Davis, Elizabeth City and W. H. Brown, Jr., Bevard, as members of the board of trustees for the North Carolina Tuberculosis Sanatorium.

Dr. Joe A. Ferrell in charge of the campaign against bookworm in that State, says that the operation of the hospital tent for the treating bookworm patients is to start within a very short time now in one of the Southeastern counties. There will also be in the same section of the State a number of bookworm dispensaries provided in counties that will co-operate by bearing a small part of the expense. Among the first work of this sort is expected to begin in Funder county, the commissioners having already pledged financial aid. Examinations and free treatment are to be provided and especially strenuous campaigns for stamping out bookworm disease carried on.

The Pritchard, Bright Co., Durham is chartered with $25,000 capital subscribed by J. J. Pritchard, J. W. Bright, and others. Other notable charters are to the Long Winston Co., Oxford, capital $25,000 by J. W. Long and others for stock and machinery, and The Standard Realty Co., Greensboro, capital $100,000 by C. C. Chas. A. Speaks, justice of the peace and coroner of Wake county has released H. W. Montague, the slayer of Spook Roberson, on $2,000 justified bond for his appearance at the July term of Wake Superior court to answer the charge of manslaughter. Montague killed Roberson in a pistol duel last Sunday night as the result of a quarrel between the two men involving accusations that Montague had been paying Roberson's sister. They were at the home of R. H. Hicks and Miss Fannie Hicks narrowly escaped being shot in her effort to stop the fight. Montague is from Greenville county, but has lived several years in the wonderful south of Wake. His $2,000 justified bond was readily given by kinemen and friends in both counties.

The approval of the names of ex-Governor Chas. B. Aycock in his candidacy for the United States senate by ex-Governor Glenn, announced from Hickory, did not come as any surprise here. Ex-Governor Glenn called on Ex-Governor Aycock on the occasion of Glenn's recent visit to Raleigh and declared his newspaper that if Aycock should get in to the race he would give him his most ardent support. He stated at that time that he had known that it was to enter of the race for the United States senate he should have his most ardent support.

A bill was passed today by the legislature for the purpose of the condition of banks at the close of business June 7. The bill applies to all the banking institutions in the State except the national banks.

Commissioner of Labor and Printing M. I. Shipman has gone on the western part of the State on a business trip and will return by Winston-Salem in time for the sessions of the North Carolina Good Roads Association, scheduled for next week, June 12, 13 and 14. He is to deliver an address, his theme to be "Utility of purpose and co-operation in Road Building." It was Mr. Shipman, who, in the Asheville meeting of the Good Roads Association who started the movement for the Sealers to the Mountains highway.

There is considerable interest developing here and throughout the county in a proposed new court house, the present Wake court house being out of date and very inadequate. An idea that seems to be meeting hearty approval, especially among the lawyers in Raleigh is the idea of a twin building with court room and county office and all other apartments that a well designed court house would include and on the other a modern law building equipped especially as offices for lawyers. In this way it is argued that the building would really prove a revenue producer and well as especially convenient for the courts and the lawyers, and the general public.

BOOK MEN APPEAR BEFORE SUB-TEXT BOOK COMMISSION

Special to Telegram.

Raleigh, June 8.—The hearing of the book men on the merits of the books they offer for adoption is in full swing now before the State text book commission and sub-commission, the latter being 10 a. m. to 5 p. m. on Saturdays excepted until all are heard. The commission has permitted the writer of textbooks to be heard and the time allowed for representatives of each publisher is each text book subject, but before the book is adopted by the committee. As soon as the regulations are adopted that there shall be no personal communication from the publishers to the commission and any member of the text book commission or sub-commission. Each publisher is to file with the commission an affidavit setting forth the names of the persons in this State representing the publishers, the names of the books and the names of the persons who are to be recommended to the commission through the secretary of the sub-commission before July 1. The names of the commission and sub-commission are obligated not to express an opinion concerning the merits, demerits or adoption of any text book offered for adoption by any other than the members of the commission and sub-commission until the hearing has been made, this to be August 5.

The sub-text book commission has organized for the work by the election of W. W. Walker, chairman and S. V. Paul, secretary. All representatives of each publisher are to meet with the sub-commission Saturday morning to decide by lot the order in which they shall appear before the commission to present the merits of their books offered for adoption.

Yesterday night one of our most ship- and from Greensboro to adjacent cities and towns, four cars being shipped by the same concern. This is rather an unusual amount to be shipped in one day through the average of four cars to our city. Twenty thousand gallons of water were required to manufacture the ice shipped. In addition to the several car loads were used in Greensboro.
