WE THANK YOU

The Daily News has received many congratulations from its friends all over the county for manner in which it handled the Pitt county numbers which were drawn out in the draft. For which we wish to thank them...

.The ideal of this paper is service to the people whom it depends upon for patronage. The force workek long and hard yesterday and last hight to give the readers the very latest news of the drawing, and how well we succeded is shown by the fact that our last night's issue had a much larger number of draft numbers than this morning's News and Observer, o any other morning paper in this section, for that

.We will always endeavor to give the best service that is possible at all times, and the already large circulation of our paper shows that the people of Pitt county appreciate our efforts to give them a real, ive, up-to-date

. If you are not a subscriber, send us check or a bill and let us place you on our mailing lists at once.

Lloyd George Says Germany is Waning

(By United Press)

LONDON.-"Those in charge German affairs have elected for war," declared Premier Lloyd George in his speech this afternoon at Queenshall LONDON,-German troops in the replying to Michaelis' address.

"The chancellor's statement contained phases which German military authorities understood. The Junkers have thrown the old chancellor into the waste-basket with his scrap of paper," Lloyd George continued, "and it will La Basse and Armentieres where Ger- not be long before Junkerdom follows nan positions on a wide front and him. The German Chancellor held out no hope for Belgium. Belgium was not mentioned by him. It is the determination of the Allies that Belgium must be restored,"

One of the largest cabbages even the office of the Daily News today by Mr. A. K. McGowan, who lives just pounds and was a thing of beauty in Denman stated today that exchanges the way of a cabbage. Mr. McGowan of letters with Goethals will continue says that he has numbers of them aluntil the building program can be most as large and will sell them for a very small price should anyone desire

1400 NAMES APPEAR IN TODAY'S PAPER

Owing to the delay in all the mails this afternoon, and inability to get the numbers over the wires we can publish at this time only approximately 1400 names of Pitt county men who were first drawn out in the draft.

However, since there are only 336 to go from this county it is practically certain that all the first draft will be secured from the numbers which we hereby publish. Therefore, it is pretty safe to say that no one whose name is not on the list here published will be called at this time. If your name cannot be found in this issue, you will probably not be called this time.

As soon as the official list is received by the Local Board, the Daily News will publish the entire list and the order of liability of every registered man in the county.

If your name is on this list, you need take no steps until you receive from the local Board of Exemptions, notifying you when and where to appear before them for examination.

If your name is not on the list, watch for the issue of the Daily News which will publish the whole list in the near future.

Send in your subscription in order that you will be sure of receiving all the news on this draft business as quickly as it is given out. Our rate for three months subscription is one dollar, and you will more than get your money's worth from this class of news alone.
