

CANADIANS CUT THE GERMAN LINE FOR 500 YD. GAIN TODAY

Dominion Troops Storm the Sector to East of Avion

WITH THE BRITISH ARMIES.—Wearing gas masks the Canadian troops this morning penetrated the German lines to a depth of 500 yards on a seven hundred front east of Avion. It was a most spectacular attack. Up to four o'clock this morning 60 German prisoners have been sent to the rear, and the dead far exceeds this number. The Canadians blew up innumerable dugouts and many Germans perished in those.

Drafted Men Cannot Enlist after Examination

WASHINGTON.—The War Department today ordered all recruiting officers to refuse to enlist drafted men for any branch of the service after they are summoned for physical examination by the local exemption boards. Men at the top of the list have only a few more days to enlist as it is only a short time before they will be called before the Boards for their physical tests.

Battery "B" Can Use a Limited Number of Men

A telegram from W. C. Rodman, Captain of Battery B., 1st N. C. Field Artillery, states that drafted men may enlist up until the time they are called to appear before the Exemption Board. He states that the Washington battery of Field Artillery is still shy of a few men to complete the full war strength, and that they will be glad to receive enlistments from Greenville and Pitt county. Anyone wishing to join this company and thus pick his place should communicate with Captain Rodman at Washington or Sergt. Wilbur Brown at Greenville at once.

Siam is at War with Germany

WASHINGTON.—Siam has declared war against Germany and Austria, the State Department officially advises.

LARGE NUMBER OF RURAL ROUTES WILL BE CUT

Goldboro, It is alleged that the local postoffice department has been notified that the Washington department has decided to cut out a large number of rural routes during the next few months to reduce expenses, which may result in some of the routes in this city being discontinued. According to the reports inspectors will go through the country soon to examine all roads which the rural carriers travel and whenever the condition of the road is found bad, routes will be discontinued. Roads which show neglect will be more apt to be condemned than those which have been put into first class condition, while one careless road personer in a township may be responsible for the loss of a route.

Export of Fats Prohibited by Export Council

WASHINGTON.—The threatened shortage of fats and oil necessary for the manufacture of munitions has forced the Export Council to order that the shipment of all fats to neutrals adjacent to Germany be discontinued.

Germans Enter French Trenches Driven Out Later

PARIS.—Violent attacks were again launched against the French near Carroume last night by the Germans. The enemy penetrated the French first line trenches, but were later driven out by strong counter attacks, except from positions held on a small portion of the California plateau. The Germans returned to the attack after being driven from the trenches first captured, but were unable to dislodge the French.

More Fighting in The Palestine

LONDON.—Resumption of active fighting in Palestine around Beersheba near Jerusalem is reported today. The British mounted troops drove back two enemy and cavalry regiments, taking thirteen prisoners. Southwest of Gaza the British raided enemy trenches, killing 100 and taking 17 prisoners.

Dr. Edgerton Is Relieved of His Duties on Local Board

Governor Bickett has issued an order to General Crowder at Washington, D. C., to relieve of their office all men on exemptions who are within the draft age. According to this ruling Dr. M. T. Edgerton, Jr., of this city will soon receive a notification that he has been relieved of his duties in this connection. Dr. Edgerton has rendered excellent service during his term on the Board, and would make an excellent officer were it not for the fact that the blanket ruling will put him off the Board. His successor has not been appointed yet.

"Too Many Ships" Says Capt. of Submarine

AN ATLANTIC PORT.—"You and the British have too damn many ships," said a German submarine commander to Captain Bragg of the American bark, Hildegrade, when the crew of the U-boat was dynamiting that vessel, according to Capt. Bragg, who arrived here today.

White of Shipping Board Has Resigned

WASHINGTON.—J. B. White, a member of the Shipping Board, tendered his resignation to the President today, and it will be accepted. White constituted the odd man on the Board of Directors which gave Denman the balance of power in the meetings covering the Goethals-Denman ship-building proposals.

Russian Army in State of Demoralization

PETROGRAD.—The Russian army on the southwest front is in a state of complete disorganization. The mutinous soldiers are threatening to shoot those who oppose them, and long lines of deserters are straggling to the rear in a continuous stream. The morale of the fighters is completely gone, and this is the cause of Premier Kerensky going to the front.

Reichstag Forced German Gov't to adopt Its Terms

WASHINGTON.—The Reichstag majority forced the German government to declare for the renunciation of annexations and indemnities, says the Dutch paper, the Nieuwe Courant, according to dispatches received by the State Department. The press reports have not mentioned such a situation in Germany, and the authorities are doubtful as to its authenticity.

Appeals to Wilson Go to War Dep't for Final Disposal

WASHINGTON.—President Wilson, the Court of last resort for seekers of exemption from the draft, will grant no plea not specifically recommended by the War Department. Already he has received many letters from mothers, fathers, etc., appealing to him to exempt loved ones from service in the new army. All these letters will be sent through a regular channel and will be taken up systematically by the War Department.

DR. LAUGHINGHOUSE A MEMBER OF EASTERN N. C. EXEMPTION BOARD

Dr. Chas. O'H. Laughinghouse of this city, was appointed by Pres. Wilson as a member of the Eastern District of North Carolina Exemption Board, July 21. The other members of the Board are C. D. Bradham, J. D. Langston, E. R. Pace and A. W. Pate.

The members of the Western District Board are W. D. Gibson, O. R. Jarrett, Dr. John Wesley, R. B. Wedine and W. N. Reynolds.

This Board will have the power of passing on appeals from the local board and industrial exemptions. The local board has no power to pass upon exemption claims upon the grounds of being engaged in occupation which should exempt them. If, for instance, a person should claim exemption because he is a farmer, his case would be sent to the District Board. Also in other cases of appeal from the local board, the District Board acts as a court of appeal to rehear the matter.

Money Found on Dead Soldiers is Unclaimed

LONDON.—(By Mail)—over 50,000, found on soldiers who have lost their lives in France, is waiting at the War Office to be claimed by the next-of-kin of the dead men. As the war office is still asking for the next-of-kin of soldiers who died seven years ago leaving sums of money, it is not expected that much of the present fortune will ever be claimed. The amounts left by individuals vary from a shilling to several hundred pounds.

"Sammies" are to Get Good "Eatin's"

WASHINGTON.—Uncle Sam's soldiers in France won't be obliged to subsist on the ordinary "beef and beans" popularly supposed to be the only army edibles. Food contracts placed by the government show the American fighters will have four kinds of tea, coffee and plenty of granulated sugar, pickles, all sorts of peppers and spices, potatoes, onions, flour for biscuits, hard bread, cane syrup vanilla and lemon flavorings, lard, butter, canned and dried fish, vegetables, apples and peaches.

TRAINING SCHOOL TO MAKE MANY IMPROVEMENTS AND ADDITIONS

The building committee of the East Carolina Training School met on July 13th, to open bids for the erection of another story to the Model School building on Cotanch street. Bids were received from Camden and Hancock, Greenville; Blalock Bros., Kinston; W. B. Barrow, Raleigh; J. M. Copeland, Raleigh; and John R. Litte and Son, Charlotte. The bids were forwarded to Raleigh to the State Building Commission, which will award to bid to the successful firm. For the heating system for the building there were several bidders. They were: The General Fire Extinguisher Co., Charlotte; B. McKenzie; S. T. Hicks, Greenville; and P. M. Johnson, Greenville. The contract was awarded for repairs to the power plant. A fire proof roof will be replaced on the plant, which will make it impervious to fire from that source. The Model School building will be a model in every respect as to what a school building ought to be. The stairs on the inside of the building leading to the basement will be eliminated.

The second story which will be added will contain four recitation rooms, one study room, one teachers rest room and three lavatories. It will be modern in every detail and will insure the most up-to-date environments for the children to attend. The contractors are ready to begin work within ten days after the contract is awarded, and the building is to be one of the most handsome school buildings in the entire state. The school which will accommodate seven grades from the city graded schools, will be built by the state, and the town will be reimbursed by the state for the amount originally expended upon the building. This school, coupled with the graded school and the new High school, will give Greenville (Continued on Page Four)

RUSSIAN AGITATORS LYNCHED IN STREETS OF PETROGRAD SUNDAY

PETROGRAD.—Three occupants of an automobile, a sailor, a soldier and a civilian, were lynched in the streets here yesterday after having fired shots into a group of officers and soldiers in front of the people's theatre. A score were wounded by the shots.

Admiral Verderfeský commanding the Baltic fleet was arrested charged with communicating a secret government telegram to a committee of his sailors.

FIRST CALL FOR EXAMINATION OF DRAFTED MEN FIRST NEXT WEEK

WASHINGTON.—The first call for men drafted for the physical tests will be made early next week. The men first called will be notified by mail, but the responsibility of knowing the order in which they are liable will be upon the men themselves.
