NOTICE OF SALE

By virtue of authority vested in me by a judgment of the Superior Court in a Special Proceedings entitled Almer Eason, next of friend of Tinker Dupree vs Abram Vines, I shall sell to the highest bidder for cash at the Court House door in Greenville at 12 o'clock, M., on Monday the 15th day of October, 1917, the following described property:

Being the house and lot in the Town of Fountain known as the Tinker Dupree property on Railroad street, adjoining the lands of J. T. Eason, Hawkins Killbrey and being the house and lot bought of H. W. Webb and now in charge of Abram Vines.
This 11th day of September, 1917.
S. J. EVERETT.

CANADIANS TAKING SHORT CUT TO TRENCHES

After the soldier has become war hardened he is apt to grow careless with life and take unnecessary chances. Warning signs must be put up to tell him of dangers. In spite of this, here are Canadians passing through an open street on their way to the trenches instead of keeping under cover, as they are warned to do by the sign on the right.
