Youth.
There is God's gift of youth, inexpressible, beautiful, glorious, divine. It is for youth that the rest of us live. It is on their motions that we hang. It is for them that we labor, suffer and endure. It is for them that we flout the ills of life. It is for them that we are blind to death. Youth—wonderful youth—so great a gift to possess, so infinitely greater a gift to possess in boys and girls about you!

The Difference.
"Grandma," asked six-year-old Paul, "what makes Helen such a pretty little girl?"
"She is pretty," grandma replied, "because she is such a good little girl."
"But, dear grandma," Paul protested, "you are awful good."—Christian Register.

Able to Estimate.
"That fellow has absolutely no idea of the value of time."
"Oh, yes, he has. I've just seen him pawing his watch."—Baltimore American.

Mean.
First Fair One—How dreadful it is to have a skeleton in the family! Second Fair One—I know, dear. Have you ever tried exercise?

In time of fat prepare for lean.—Jeremy Taylor.

Ready, Go!
An old farmer lay dying. The minister was sent for and prayed at the bedside. Then, at the last minute, the sick man rallied.
"Ah, my dear," he said to his better half, "it may be I'll be spared to you yet."

The old wife frowned and said grimly: "No, no, George. You're prepared and I'm resigned. Die now."—London Opinion.

In His Class.
"Is this liniment a fraud or will it really ease the pain in my ankle?" demanded the pompous and aggressive customer in the drug store.
"Well, you stand a chance, anyhow," responded the polite attendant. "The label declares it 'good for man or beast.'"—Richmond Times-Dispatch.

Sea Lions.
The fur seals are not closely allied to the hair seals, but find their nearest relatives in the sea lions, whose skill on land is often attested by their remarkable acrobatic performances in zoological gardens and even on the stage.

Never Despair.
He, who despairs wants love, wants faith, for faith, hope and love are three torches which blend their light together, nor does the one shine without the other.—Metastasio.

GOOD RECORD

CENTER BRICK

14 years
GOOD RECORD

For Fourteen Years the Farmers have been Selling Tobacco at the Centre Brick Warehouse. It has stood the Test of Years—and its proud Record for Highest Prices and Courteous Treatment has always been Maintained. It is the Result of its Proprietors having determined that there should be at least one Warehouse in Greenville where the farmer could rest assured that he would get "All That's Coming to Him!"

No Warehouse in the County has stood the test of the Centre Brick. Its long list of Satisfied patrons is its best asset—its best Recommendation. Some have listened to the exaggerated reports of other Warehouses and have tried some of them to their loss and regret. But when they have tried the rest they always come back to the Old Reliable Centre Brick, where every sale is vouched for and proven by the High Dollar. Every statement of the Centre Brick is proven by the hard, cold cash. It pays the farmer for his tobacco. Let us satisfy you; let us prove our statements to you as we have to others.
