MORE DOLLARS

Friday, Sept. 28th was a Big Day for our patrons. We had Third Sale—60,000 pounds at an average of nearly 33 cents. Should we deduct our scrap and damaged tobacco, our average would have been over 35c. Mr. Jerome McLawhorn Sold 6314 pounds for $2,294.90, average $36.35. The market is stronger than any time this season. Keep your tobacco Dry and Bring it to us if you want MORE DOLLARS.

McKAY, WASHINGTON'S

McKay, Washington & Co. "The Ladies' Store," invite your attention to, and solicit your inspection of the most complete line of ladies' coats, suits and dresses ever on display in this city.

They are continually receiving the newest things by express and the ladies of this section have discovered that it invariably pays to see the goods at this store before purchasing. Wool blankets for cool nights can be found at their store.

The Greenville Furniture Company, M. W. Wallace, Manager wants to have you call in their store and see their goods before buying. "A look will convince you," says Mr. Wallace.

TUNSTALL'S

Claude D. Tunstall, the erstwhile fashionable woman's outfitter, is advertising today. The reason is plain. He wishes to inform you that he has the niftiest line of Georgette crepe waists both beaded and embroidered in the various colors and combination ever brought here. His silk skirts also are pretty and of fine quality. Claude says business is good.
