WHITE'S THEATRE
 Tonight the picture "The Phantom Buccaneer" will be the attraction at White's Theatre. Tomorrow night
 (Friday) the famous Fox production
 "The Fires of Conscience" featuring three stars with world-wide reputations will be the drawing card.

William Farnum, Gladys Brockwell and Nell Shipman do fine work in this picture and have caused it to achieve great success. The film tells how a man from the south murders another who has violated the unwritten law.
 Seeking peace of mind the murderer goes West. But he finds that peace will not come, so he returns and faces justice.

He is acquitted and returns to the West where he has found fortune.
 His happiness is complete after he finds the girl he loves, and marries her.

The Philathea Class of the Methodist Church will meet tonight at seven-thirty in the church. All members are asked to be present.
