Gone North for COATS, SUITS & DRESSES

Fall business has been better than my best expectations. I find that goods bought while in New York in August will not begin to supply the demand. New Styles in Coat Suits and Dresses are designed daily, and it is my intention to shop and select only the Newest and the best. Will be gone only a few days and it will be to your advantage to wait for the New Numbers we will have to show you. I wish to thank all my friends and patrons for the patronage. Will try to show my appreciation by showing the New Styles and best Values at all times.
