KERENSKY GOVERNMENT OVERTHROWN SAYS CABLE

BOLSHEVIEKI LEADERS IN CONTROL OF ALL COMMUNICATIONS WITH PETROGRAD. FEARED STREETS OF THAT CITY ARE AGAIN DYED WITH BLOOD. ALL THE NEWS IS SO FAR ONE-SIDED. DISPATCHES CENSORED.

(By United Press)

LONDON—The crisis between the Provisional government and the local Bolsheviki Council (Soviet) of the workmen and soldiers, approached the point of going to arms today.

Leon Trotsky, president of the local Soviet, has issued a statement declaring the Provisional Government as non-existent and the dissolution of the sitting preliminary Parliament which was decided upon by Premier Kerensky. Many Bolsheviki and Maximasts in this body, previously voted to firmly resist the government and announced their intention to forcibly crush out all Bolsheviki movement.

Three Cossack regiments today formally announced that they would hereafter disobey all orders from the Provisional Government and would pledge their allegiance henceforth with the soldiers and workmen of the local council in its pacifist revolt.

Some Ministers of the government, it is announced, have been arrested by the Maximists. They were preparing for an armed clash with the Bolsheviki. Premier Kerensky has ordered all private motor cars to be delivered to the winter Palace so as to prevent their seizure by the Soviet.

All Russians are prohibited under strict penalties from leaving their barracks.

The Garrison and Poletariat have deposed Premier Kerensky, declared a wireless message received from Petrograd today.

LONDON—The Bolsheviki leaders are now in control of all communications in Petrograd. Today it was formally announced to all the world that they had "deposed the Kerensky Government, and in its place, are instituting a new regime with a policy for immediate peace."

They have also ordered an immediate distribution of all land to the Peasants, it is stated. There was no mention made in the dispatches whether there was fighting going on, but it is feared that once again the streets of Petrograd are dyed in blood from the struggling factions.

The Bolsheviki leaders so far, have not explained how the alleged overthrow of the Kerensky government was accomplished except that the "Garrison and Proletariat forced it."

All the news which is one sided, is due to the Bolsheviki control of the telegraph wires. The Russian officials here emphasized the fact that the revolt was only local as to Petrograd. The indications are that the workmen, soldiers, council and other sections have always been faithful to the Provisional government.

LONDON—More bloodshed now seems inevitable to Russia.

The Bolsheviki censor, however, has so far only allowed the merest outline of the events to leave Petrograd.

But these indicate that the long expected trial of strength between Premier Kerensky and the Provisional government on the one hand and the Bolsheviki Maximists on the other hand had come.

It is now regarded as likely from the above information, that a local civil war is now in full blast in Petrograd.

If this be true the censorship has been carefully screened from the public.

The dispatches, however, did reveal that armed Bolsheviki had seized the telegraph offices, the Mari Palace, the State bank, and according to dispatches received here at 10 A. M., they seized the railway and the Baltic Railway station.

Against these, states the dispatch, Premier Kerensky, is now assembling Cossacks and other government troops.

HOW THE KAISER APPEARS TODAY

Kaiser Wilhelm, the man who set the world aflame with war as he looks today. He is thinner than he was before the war and the lines in his face show that the arch-enemy of civilization has suffered some of the pangs that he has caused humanity. His figure has lost some of its military carriage, and in this photograph, unlike those of the past, he is making no effort to conceal the short left arm. On the Kaiser's right is his son, Prince Eitel Friedrich, who is holding some of the Iron crosses the Kaiser bestowed on this occasion to his troops. On the Kaiser's left is General von Kinkler. The photograph was made on the occasion of the Kaiser's recent visit to Tarnopol.

ITALY'S LAST STAND TO STEM GERMAN INVASION IMPENDING

(By United Press)

LONDON—Italy's supreme last stand in her effort to stem the German invasion is apparently impending today. Both the enemy and also the defending lines, are now drawn face to face along the Livense River.

London is expectant momentarily to hear of a preliminary battle on the Livense river in which General Cadorna's rear guards would make an attempt to administer a temporary check before withdrawing to the newly prepared Piave River line.

From Swiss reports General Cadorna merely plans to delay the enemy along the Livense River until his positions on the Piave River have been reached.

"JAMES WHITCOMB RILEY" AMBULANCE FOR FRONT

(By United Press)

INDIANAPOLIS—Hoosier Riley lovers have honored their poet by raising a fund of $2,000 for maintaining an ambulance on the Italian front. The ambulance will bear the name of James Whitcomb Riley.

A large majority of the contributors to the fund were children, many giving their entire savings of pennies toward the fund. The last $5 of the amount was contributed by Elizabeth and Edmund H. Eitel, Riley's niece and Nephew.

PITT COUNTY BOY IN FRANCE WRITES INTERESTING LETTER

Mr. M. G. Bryan of Winterville, has just received a letter from his son, M. Bruton Bryan, who is now fighting in France and is a member of Company "A" 17th Regiment, Engineering Corps. Mr. Bryan left for France, via New York on the 17 of July last.

We quote from his letter in part: "I have never tried to get a discharge, for I know that it would be useless over here, so I am making the best of it. If I was in the States I would stand some show. Here's hoping I will soon be back home anyway. I reckon all the boys around here, that were drafted, wish they had enlisted before. hand, I much prefer being where I am than in one of those training camps. We are, in my opinion, much better off. We are fixing up a Regimental Newspaper and I will send you one when it is issued. It is beginning to get pretty cold where we are but we are pretty well fixed up and have plenty of clothes to wear and blankets to sleep under. Taking everything into consideration we are faring pretty good. We will have our last baseball game on Saturday afternoon if the weather permits. We can always find some thing doing at the Y. M. C. A. There are two pianos over there and there is always a bunch around them playing and singing. You just can't remain blue long if you visit the Y. M. C. A. Have been doing office work for the past week, which makes me feel kinder at home, but I feel much better when I am out in the open with a shovel.

You know I have become toughened to this kind of a job. I would love to be a member of a Forestry regiment so I would be in the woods all the time."

GERMAN ARTISTS NOW MOBILIZED

(By HENRY WOOD)
WITH THE FRENCH ARMIES A FIELD—(By Mail)—Germany now plans the mobilization of her cartoonists and artists.

When the war began she mobilized her soldiers. A little later she mobilized her "intellectuals" ninety-three of whom signed the famous manifesto to the intellectuals of all the rest of the world, declaring that France had committed no wrong—in fact, could commit no wrong.

A little later, Germany mobilized her civilian population.

Now, Hindenburg himself, from the Imperial German Field Headquarters, has launched a plan for the mobilization of cartoonists and artists—in fact, for the mobilization for art itself.

Details of this new mobilization is contained in a confidential circular, now being sent to the newspapers of Germany, Switzerland and other neutral countries, a copy of which has found its way into the hands of the French military authorities.

CHEMIST WANTS JOHN D. TO SAVE ON GAS BILLS

(By United Press)
CLEVELAND—When H. W. Orndorf, Cleveland chemist, concocted a chemical which he says will make driving cheaper by prolonging the life of gasoline as well as that of the pliverist's pocket-book, he sent the first sample to John D. Rockefeller with the suggestion that John D. use it in his car and save on his gasoline bills.

Orndorf has not heard from John D. but he says the chemical is being used successfully in French airplane engines on the Western front.

LIBERTY WAREHOUSE

Prices are still soaring at the Old Reliable Tobacco Warehouse, The Liberty. All this week there have been good sales and it is needless to state that the farmers returned to their homes more than satisfied with the top-notch prices they received. The prices still keep on the up-grade at the Liberty as they have done all during the season and they are going to keep right to the front for the balance of the season. No tobacco warehouse in the city has surpassed the Liberty this season for prices that satisfy.

When bringing your tobacco to Greenville don't forget to remember that it is the Liberty always for the highest prices. It-c
