Edward L. Holton Shot By Henry W. Renfrew Early This Afternoon

Took Place in Front of Higgs-Taft Furniture Company Store About one o'clock. Holton's Leg Broken by the Shot. Was Struck Below the Knee. Cause of Shooting is Not Known. Renfrew Surrenders to the Officers. Both Parties Well Known.

Considerable excitement was created on the streets of Greenville this afternoon when it was learned that Mr. Edward L. Holton had been shot by Mr. Henry W. Renfrew.

The shooting took place in front of the Higgs-Taft Furniture Company store on Dickinson Avenue, about one o'clock.

The causes leading up to the shooting so far as the public is concerned, is a mystery, as Mr. Renfrew, who is in the custody of the sheriff, has nothing to say, and the condition of Mr. Holton is such he cannot at this writing make any statement.

This afternoon Mr. Holton accompanied by Messrs. P. T. Anthony and E. R. Thomas proprietors of the Hooker and Anthony Wholesale Grocery Company, were coming up Dickinson Avenue on their way to dinner. Mr. Holton was walking between Mr. Anthony and Mr. Thomas. Upon passing the store of the Higgs-Taft Furniture Company and just as they were about to turn the corner, Mr. Anthony states that he heard a gun fire. Mr. Holton grabbed him and when it was discovered that Holton was shot, Mr. Renfrew was seen standing in the street with a double-barrel shot gun in his hands. No words were passed between the two that were known. The gun was loaded with buck shot.

The shot took effect in Mr. Holton's leg below the knee, both bones of his leg being broken.

As soon as eye-witnesses could come to make an examination and can't state what his condition is. In all probability his leg will necessitate amputation, it is thought.

After the shooting, Renfrew, it is said, met Policeman Whichard at Five Points and told him that he had shot a man and then surrendered his gun. Subsequent to this, Renfrew surrendered himself to the sheriff, into whose custody he now is.

Mr. Renfrew is the proprietor of the Renfrew Printing Co. here and is well known. He is married and has several children.

Mr. E. L. Holton came here from Washington, N. C., about three years ago and since that time has been in the employ of Hooker and Anthony as traveling salesman. He is also married and has children.

The affair has caused genuine regret all over the city.

KILL RATS! TRAP RATS!
SAVE $2,000,000.00 IN FOOD SYSTEM BUREAU

WASHINGTON—War Campaigns are the vogue.

The latest campaign came when the Biological Survey Bureau of the Department of Agriculture opened a campaign against rats.

"Kill rats, trap rats, rats that destroy $200,000,000 worth of food each year that should go to the allies," says the campaign poster prominently displayed throughout Washington and being distributed throughout the nation.

JAPAN PROHIBITS TIPS AS UNHEALTHY HABIT
(By United Press)

TOKIO—(By Mail)—There'll be no more tips on Japanese railroads.

The government has decreed it. But not out of mere regard for the traveller.

It is claimed that "passenger boys" receive far too much money for lads of their years. It leads them into temptations which undermine the morals and the health.

So their wages will be raised as high as the government thinks healthy. But no more tips.

WANT HALF NICKELS
WASHINGTON—Agitation for coinage for a two-and-one-half cent piece has been renewed by the recent rapid upward movement of prices caused partly by new war taxes, and a bill probably will be pressed at the next session of Congress to authorize the minting of such a coin.

Indications are that a number of street railway companies which are considering raising fares to six cents will urge legislation authorizing the coinage of a six cent piece.

A GIFTED SPEAKER
Mr. S. M. Brinson, of Newbern, will deliver an address at the Training School on Monday evening at eight o'clock. Mr. Brinson is a lawyer and is Superintendent of Craven county schools. These schools are among the most progressive in eastern North Carolina and speak well for the leadership of their chief.

Mr. Brinson is a man of pleasing personality and will assuredly have something worthy of note to say to the people of Greenville and the school on Monday evening. He has the privilege of choosing his own subject.

The town should give the visitor credit. The admission will be 15cets and hence.

CHINESE FEEL THAT U. S. HAS NOT ACTED FAIRLY

By ROBERT J. BENDER
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON—China feels that the United States has double crossed her in her formal understanding recently had between Secretary Lansing and Viscount Ishii. She may decide even to ignore the plan for recognition of the special rights to Japan.

From sources close to the Chinese government the United Press has learned that China was surprised and bewildered when it learned of the contents of the Lansing-Ishii correspondence.

Neither through its representatives at Washington, nor through the Peking foreign office, was the Chinese government apprised of the arrangements concerning the future relations with China.

When the representatives at the Chinese Embassy were shown the United Press dispatches from Tokio they absolutely refused to discuss them.

CHINA NOT BE BOUND
(By United Press)

TOKIO—China has formally announced that she will limit her recognition of the special position which the territorial propinquity to Japan creates according to the American-Japanese understanding, to interests already established in the treaties.

The Chinese foreign office has issued a statement to this effect and it has been received here.

The statement also declared that China will not be bound by the notes of exchange by other countries.

The announcement reveals official dissatisfaction in China and that country resents the undertaking between the United States and Japan due to the fact that it was not consulted in the matter.

AMERICAN AIRMEN WILL HASTEN END OF WAR
(By United Press)

PARIS—(By Mail)—Captain de Kerillis, of the French air service, herd of innumerable air-raids, in an interview with the United Press today, pointed out the great importance of these enterprises and predicted that the co-operation of America in these undertakings would "shake the morals of the German people and hasten the end of the war."

"Air-bombardments," said the Captain, "are becoming one of the most scientific forms of warfare. Every day they are becoming more complicated.

First of all, one must bear in mind that the 'aviation de chasse' and the 'aviation bombardment' are two very different things.

"The business of the former is to attack, that of the latter to manoeuvre. By manoeuvre, I mean that the function of air bombardments, is either to prevent concentration of enemy aircraft, or to force to give battle.

"Then of course there are reprisal raids, such as those we have just lately carried out. About the effectiveness of these reprisal raids, when they are successful, there is no doubt, and I will give you an example.

"On June 21 of last year, we undertook a raid on Carlsruhe as a reprisal for a recent raid on Bar-le-Duc. The effect of the French raid was so salutary, that for a long time all German raids on French towns ceased. Our aviators, whom we captured, we found

This will be the first time since Governor's inauguration, that he has been called upon to address the Boys and Girls Clubs in any county in the state. His Excellency can rest assured of a warm and cordial welcome to Pitt county. He is a great speaker, so a rich and rare treat is in store for the citizens. A more definite account of the program for the day will be given in these columns later.

GOOD PROGRESS BY THE BRITISH
(By United Press)

London—Although the weather was stormy at dawn this morning Field Marshal Haig set his great attacking machine in motion for another drive North and Northwest of Passchendaele.

The Field Marshal reports "Good Progress" was made.

The drive today was the second this week that the British have directed at the last remaining hold by the enemy of the Passchendaele Ridge, which is the directive object of both thrusts on West Housebeke, which lies at the eastern extremity of the high ground commanding the low lands. This leads to main line of the German communications to Seeburg. The submarine bases is the ultimate objective.

Carnival Tonight

A Carnival will be given in the Gentry and Gorman tobacco warehouse this evening at 8 o'clock by the senior class of the Greenville High School. There will be quite a number of attractions. All kinds of refreshments will be served from the neighboring town a good audience will be for the benefit of the class. The class has adopted this means to raise enough funds with which to pay for a Liberty Bond. It is to be hoped that they will receive a generous patronage.

Three marriage license issued today, all being colored.

W. M. Isert to D. J. Smith Ayden. John Blount to Willie M. Hill. Ayden. Thos. McLawhorn to Florine Wilks, Winterville.

BERLIN—The troops of Germany have reached the Piave River "from Sussega down-ward as far as the sea." The War office also announces that Asia has been taken.

stances to attain our objective, and, secondly, we are obliged to descend very low when actually launching our bombs, as we have strict orders to bombard only such points in the enemy's territory which are actually of military importance, such as barracks, stations, etc.

"What we need above all are bombardment squadrons, organized on a large scale, which can continually and systematically carry out raids into German territory.

"With the co-operation of America, this object should be quickly attained. This will be the quickest means of putting a stop to German raids in France and England. It will also do more than anything else to shake the morals of the German nation and hasten the end of the war."

KERENSKY MAY BE GIVING BATTLE TO BOLSHEVIKIS

HAIG'S TROOPS PUSHING ENEMY

BY WILLIAM PHILIP SIMMS,
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

WITH THE BRITISH ARMIES AFIELD—The British troops drove their wedge nearly a mile further into the German positions about Passchendaele today. As this dispatch was filed Haig's victorious troops were reported to have achieved all objectives and that a dozen strongly fortified farms had been over-run by the attacking waves.

Vigorous fighting is reported along the advance line. The pressure of General Haig's push has shoved the Bavarians gradually off of the ridge. They are resisting violently but unsuccessfully.

TERRA CELA KING OF ALL THE CORN LANDS

Much interest is being manifested in the big land sale to be held near Terra Cela on Wednesday, the 14th. It looks like this will be one of the biggest sales ever held in Beaufort county. Several weeks ago Mr. Carl M. Owen placed his 1,600 acre farm known as the Shirley Farm in the hands of Mr. W. E. Stubbs, Cashier of the Bank of Belhaven for sale. Mr. Stubbs has had considerable experience in handling real estate and we feel sure that he will have one of the biggest sales ever held in this section of the state. He has secured the services of the Atlantic Coast Realty Co., of Petersburg, Va., Greenville, N. C., and the Washington-Beaufort Land Company of Washington, N. Carolina, to conduct an auction sale. This is probably the biggest real estate auction company in the country and always have big crowds.

A matter of usual interest is that we understand they are to sell the crop with the land. Another feature that is attracting great attention is that they are to sell in small tracts. Heretofore some of the drawbacks has been that the land has been owned by large owners who would not sell to small farmers. Only this week one of the owners in this section refused $150 an acre of land for the privilege of reserving the crop. We hope that a number of our local citizens will avail themselves of the opportunity of investing in the fertile land. There is nothing that furnishes as substantial a backing for a town as a good farming community. Now that one of our mills has closed permanently we take this opportunity of urging our local citizens to buy some of this land and not let people from the outside get it all. When a local citizen makes a good crop the proceeds stays at home and helps out town. We believe this would greatly help in replacing the loss that we will sustain from the loss of the Roper Lumber Company mill.

Messrs. K. W. Cobb and R. D. Northington, advertising representatives of the Atlantic Coast Realty Company have been here advertising the sale. They're certainly artists in their line. They're certainly letting the people know about the sale and will evidently have a crowd there to buy land.

It will pay all who have not witnessed the spectacle to come to Terra Cela and view the fifty odd thousand acres of corn, all in one gigantic field; this is a sight worth any one's time.

A free barbecue dinner will be served to all. A brass band will play and the terms will be easy.

This property is only two miles from Terra Cela and a good road is being built on three sides of this property.—Belhaven Journal.

(By United Press)

LONDON—A battle by which the deposed Premier Kerensky hopes to save Russia from Bolsheviki may be impending around Petrograd today, according to the interpretation of the Bolsheviki censored dispatches.

A proclamation issued in Petrograd by the Soviet workmen and soldiers interpreted to mean, that Kerensky and Korniloff are the parties that are now moving troops to Petrograd.

This is given for the basis for the belief in London that the Provisional government is about to act with all of its strength to stamp out Lenine and Trotsky and their mushroom government.

At the same time, there is apprehension over the reports that the revolution has spread to Moscow, but is expected that Moscow will rally to the support of the Provisional government.

The Lenine proposal for a three months armistice and disengagement of that the Germans are dominating the peace have strengthened the conviction proposals which exactly dovetails with the long expected German peace propaganda.

NEW PASTOR BE INSTALLED

On Sunday November 18, Rev. S. K. Phillips, the pastor-elect of the First Presbyterian church, will be duly installed as pastor with imposing ceremonies. Rev. J. N. H. Summerill, D. D. of New Bern, Rev. R. A. Lapsley of Tarboro and Elder George Howard of Tarboro, are expected to be present and conduct the installation. All the citizens of the city have a cordial invitation to be present. Rev. Mr. Phillips has only recently come to Greenville to assume the pastorate of this church, formerly being the pastor of the church in Oxford, where it was with regret he was given up. The entire city wishes abundant success in his new field of labor here.
