

ABOUT PEOPLE.

THE ROSE QUEENS

Buds are blowing in my garden—
Rosebuds sweetest ever seen—
And I pace my garden daily,
But I know not which to glean.

Girls are growing in Life's garden—
Rosebud girls of beautiful mien—
Yet, how greater than with flowers
Is the task to choose the Queen!

Psychological Problem. Just as a problem can be solved in practical psychology, how many can find the initials of Mr. Bailey, one-time partner in the Barnum & Bailey circus. And who is this person who doesn't know on the other hand, that Mr. Barnum's name was Phineas T. Barnum? Springfield Republican.

Miss Beckwith Becomes Bride of Mr. H. D. Tyler

The following is taken from the Washington Daily News of Saturday December 29 and will prove of interest to the entire city:

A most beautiful church wedding occurred this afternoon at three o'clock when Miss Gladys Beckwith became the bride of Mr. Hansford D. Tyler. The ceremony took place at the Methodist church, which was decorated with holly, pink tulle and candelabra. Rev. D. H. Tuttle, the new pastor of the Methodist church, officiated at the entry of the bride and groom.

Mr. James A. Hackney presided at the wedding. The church was filled with guests. The bridesmaids were Misses M. S. H. C. Carter, Jr., Dr. Louis Mann and Southgate Jones of Durham, and their way down the aisle to the altar. The bride had only one attendant, Miss B. B. Everett, an intimate friend of the bride.

The bride wore a gown of white satin, trimmed with pearls and point lace. She carried a bouquet of white and pink roses. The groom, attended by his best man, Dr. H. W. Carter, met her at the altar, where the vows were taken in an impressive manner.

The church during the course of the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Tyler left on the 4:30 train for Savannah, Jacksonville and other points. They will make their home in Miami.

Miss Gladys Beckwith, who is the daughter of Mrs. Sydner Thomas B. Tyler, a former Washington teacher of the East Carolina Teachers' Training School, her father, who has been dead for a number of years, was one of the most brilliant members of the bar in Washington. The bride has been teaching for some time in Miami, Fla., and for the last three months has been connected with the high school at Kingston. She has a large number of friends in this State and Florida.

Many beautiful presents were received by the couple from friends in Washington and other cities. The groom is a prominent business man of Miami. He is connected with the well-known firm of Sewell-Bros. of that city.

Reception for Bride Held

The hospitable home of Dr. and Mrs. H. W. Carter was the scene of a delightful reception last night, which was given in honor of Miss Gladys Beckwith, who was married today to Mr. Hansford D. Tyler. The home was beautifully decorated in pink and green, the color scheme being artistically carried out in the various rooms. Gladiolus lighted added to the beauty of the occasion.

Misses Mary Bridgman, Little, Theodora Rodman, Charlotte Rodman, and Margaret Brazaw met the guests at the door and showed them to the dining room. Mrs. John G. Blount introduced them to the reception. The guests consisted of Dr. and Mrs. H. W. Carter, Mrs. Sethor Thomas, Beckwith, Mr. Hansford D. Tyler, Mrs. B. P. Everett of Petersburg, N. C., Dr. Carter, Jr., Miss Gladys Beckwith, Dr. Louis Mann, Miss Mary Belle Small, and Mr. Beverly G. Moss.

Mrs. W. A. B. Branch and Mrs. W. C. Rodman received the guests at the dining room. In the dining room the guests were made welcome by Mrs. John Charles, Miss Mary Fowle, Mrs. Baker, Miss Mary Windley and Mrs. and Mrs. T. H. Fawcett. The dining room was elegantly decorated in the color scheme of white and pink. Refreshments were served.

In the sitting room Mrs. J. K. Hoy and Congressman and Mrs. John H. Small received the guests. Mrs. Stevens, Mrs. Gault, Miss John Campbell, Miss Rebecca Simmons, Miss Isabelle Carter and Miss Augusta Charles served punch. An elaborate dinner of 11 to the bride couple attracted much attention. Miss Oddie Foyles and Miss Mary Virginia Bonner presided at the gift tables. A large number of guests called during the course of the evening and thoroughly enjoyed the occasion.

Services Postponed. This is to announce that there will be no service tonight at St. Paul's Episcopal church. The monthly meeting of the vestry will be held on Tuesday night, but a meeting will be called later in the month.

Here's My Camp

Mr. Samuel Kinton of Camp Jackson is here spending a few days with relatives and friends.

BARCELONA AN ACTIVE CITY

Challenged Soldier Demanded Sentinels' Names on Pretext of Reporting Him to Lieutenant.

Among the members of the Indiana university ambulance corps at Allentown, says the Indianapolis News, there is one man who from this time on will require, while on guard duty, any person whom he challenges at night to furnish his full pedigree. There is a reason.

Recently while the section was on guard at the camp this man was stationed at a distant post on the grounds, at a place where the guard experience a great deal of trouble with men climbing the fence during the watches.

Shortly after one o'clock in the morning the guard saw a man climbing the fence. He hurried up, challenged the man, and asked for an explanation. It was forthcoming.

"Well," said the challenged one, "you are to be congratulated. I have been coming over this fence every night for a week and I have never been challenged before. I would like you to give me your name and your section number, and I will report you to a lieutenant."

In a dazed manner the guard did as the man walked off. Not until he was "kidded" by his section mates on telling the story did he fall for his being duped. He is now on the trail of the man whose ingenuity saved himself.

PARTY IS SAFE IN LABRADOR

Message Received Indicates Explorers Have Traversed the Peninsula From South to North.

The peninsula of Labrador has been traversed from the south to the north for the first time by a scientific exploring party, according to an announcement by Dr. W. J. Holland, director of the Carnegie museum, at Pittsburgh, following the receipt of a telegram from St. Johns, Newfoundland, announcing the arrival at that point of the expedition, which undertook the journey.

The expedition was jointly financed by the Carnegie museum, the National Geographic society and Alfred Marshall of Chicago, who was a member of the exploring party. In addition to Mr. Marshall, the personnel of the expedition included W. B. C. Todd, the curator of ornithology in the Carnegie museum, and O. J. Murie, the curator of mammals in the same institution. They took with them a number of Indians.

The telegram received by Doctor Holland gave no details of the expedition other than its safety and success. A number of similar attempts by explorers have failed.

Then Head for Statehouse. Major P. Dale, who has a smokers' establishment in Ohio street, says the Indianapolis News, has a relic of the Civil war that is causing the soldiers of today considerable worry. Major Dale's father, Colonel Dale, was the commander of the Fourth Missouri cavalry during the Civil war. Among the relics left by the colonel was a poster announcing a meeting of soldiers at the statehouse in Jefferson City, Mo. This poster is now the property of the son here.

"Several days ago," says the owner of the poster, "I put the relic in the window of my store, thinking it would interest passersby. The poster calls for a meeting of soldiers at the statehouse at 8 o'clock. I guess I'll have to take it down as the soldiers in town from Ft. Harrison read the thing and then head for the statehouse. They don't observe it closely or they'd discover that it is dated 1863 and that the statehouse mentioned was in Jefferson City, Mo."

Crepes and Pongees. Crepe de chine, in spite of its name, does not come from China but from Japan, Italy and France. There are no factories for making silk piece goods in China, all the weaving being done by hand. With the exception of pongees, the products of the Chinese looms are not popular abroad, except in Oriental countries, being too heavy, although the patterns are wonderfully beautiful and the colors exceedingly rich.

The pongees are woven in the homes of the peasants, and as they come from many looms no two pieces are ever exactly alike in weight, fineness, color and texture. The Shantung come from the Lutung district, and the Nanhai from the Nighal district.

Cotton in Brazil. A. L. Moreau Gottschalk, United States consul general at Rio de Janeiro, is enthusiastic over the prospect of a revival of the cotton growing industry of Brazil, according to the San Francisco Argonaut. He calls attention to the fact that the republic is the original home of one of the parent cottons of the world. Cotton thrives in the country when skillfully cultivated, but the industry has thus far been neglected for others more profitable. The consul general advances a strong point when he says that a by-product of the cotton industry—cottonseed oil cake—would be a great help to the cotton raisers.

Nickel is Out of Date. It is announced by the press of one of the large cities in the United States that its 5 and 10 cent stores are to be supplemented with 25-cent stores. This looks very much as if, in the course of time, the old-fashioned and once popular dollar store would find its way back.—Christian Science Monitor.

Barcelona is a great world city. It is outstanding in its position as the Commercial queen of the Mediterranean. The Spaniards have often been charged with a lack of business and enterprise. Barcelona is his answer. Here his cities rival those of London, New York and Liverpool. For ten years the conservatives have been looking askance at this great modern shipping and manufacturing center, so different from their sleepy island group; and from the past, the villages of the quiet hills, with their little hamlets of the last century.

MINISTERS OF GOSPEL PUT TANLAC TO TEST

Well-Known Ministers of the South Come Out Openly and Fearlessly and Tell What They Know to Be the Truth About the Medicine That Has Helped Them.

RARELY will a minister of the Gospel indorse a proprietary medicine. The preacher's high calling, the influence commands puts a grave responsibility on his every word. He will not jeopardize his reputation by commending a thing without first assuring himself it is all right. His word carries as much weight in the home, on the street, or in public prints as in the pulpit.

When ministers of some of the greatest communities in the land endorse Tanlac their words carry conviction. They say what they know to be the truth. They have put Tanlac to the test of personal service and have not found it wanting.

The proprietors of Tanlac have received countless testimonials from people in every walk of life, earnestly commending it. Among them are a number from prominent ministers of various churches. A few of these are printed below.

Rev. W. C. Norton is pastor of the Wesley Memorial church of Jacksonville, Fla. He says: "I suffered from chronic indigestion for years. I seldom slept well and had severe headaches. Since taking Tanlac I feel as well as ever—sleep soundly and at anything I want. Tanlac has restored my health and feel it my duty to recommend it."

Rev. A. H. Sykes, pastor of Watkins Park Presbyterian Church, Nashville, Tenn., says: "Mrs. Sykes suffered from stomach and kidney troubles and a nervous breakdown. Tanlac restored her health—she is gaining strength and flesh rapidly—her full restoration is but a question of time."

Rev. E. G. Butler, pastor of Central Baptist church, Muskogee, Okla., says: "I had attacks of acute indigestion. Results from taking Tanlac have been most satisfactory—I am glad to recommend it as the best medicine I have ever tried."

Rev. F. M. Winburn, Methodist, San Antonio, Tex., says: "I had no appetite—suffered from weakness and general debility—could not work without quickly tiring. Found Tanlac just what my system needed. I consider Tanlac a good medicine to build up run-down systems."

Rev. R. J. Taylor, pastor St. Pleasant Baptist church, Franklin, Tex., says: "Grippe left me in very bad shape—had indigestion, nervous headache—could not sleep well. Tanlac gave me a good appetite, strengthened my nerves. I sleep well as ever—have gained five pounds."

Rev. A. L. Tull, Methodist, Atlanta, Ga., says: "My granddaughter was a nervous wreck from indigestion. Tanlac gave her an appetite—she can eat anything. She is on the road to recovery."

Rev. Jas. H. New, Baptist, Clarkston, Ga., says: "My wife had severe cramps, headaches, was very nervous, badly run down, weak and thin. Tanlac caused her troubles to disappear—she never complains now."

Rev. A. G. Vallery, former superintendent of Bethany Home, Monroe, La., now of Memphis, Tenn., says: "Three years ago I had a general breakdown with indigestion—had rheumatic pains in legs. Since taking Tanlac am relieved of indigestion—rheumatic pains have stopped—feel like a new man. I give Tanlac my unqualified endorsement."

Rev. John M. Sims, Baptist, Atlanta, Ga., says: "I suffered from nervous indigestion and inactive liver—digestion badly impaired. Tanlac corrected these troubles entirely—gained ten pounds taking two bottles."

Rev. W. T. Roby, Pastor West Louisville Methodist church, Knoxville, Tenn., testifies from personal experience as to the great benefit he derived from taking Tanlac for indigestion.

No greater praise can be given a remedy than the unsolicited testimony of men whose lives are devoted to the betterment of their fellow men. They serve their calling often at great personal sacrifice. Tanlac has helped them—they say so because they want to do you good.

Tanlac is sold by Warren Drug Co., Greenville, N. C.
