SEAPLANE NC FOUR REACHED LISBON YESTERDAY EVENING, VICTORY FOR UNITED STATES

(By United Press)
Lisbon.—The Americans who flew across the Atlantic are ready for the hop of seven hundred miles from Lisbon to Plymouth, England.
This jump completes the historic air voyage which was started from Rockaway Beach, New York.
Commander Read is looking over the prospects of getting a way to England at once. Much depends on the conditions of the weather as well as the motors.
Washington.—Blazing the way of the first air trail from the western to the eastern hemisphere, the United States navy seaplane NC 4 under Lieutenant Commander Albert Cushing Read, swept into the harbor at Lisbon, Portugal, yesterday afternoon, the first airship of any kind to have crossed the Atlantic ocean under its own power and through its natural element.
Taking the air at Ponta Del Gada, Azores at 6:18 a. m. Washington time, on the last leg of the trans-ocean portion of the voyage from Rockaway Beach, L. I., to Plymouth, England, the NC 4 covered the 800 miles in 9 hours and 44 minutes, maintaining an average speed of better than 80 knots an hour. The total elapsed flying time from New Foundland to Lisbon was 26 hours and 21 minutes.
At the first opportunity the big plane will continue to Plymouth, 775 nautical miles to the north. To the Navy

(By United Press)
Washington.—Faced with requests for appropriations totalling eight billion dollars congress has begun to figure on new plans of financing.
The conviction is growing that the government will have to float another loan. The frequent references to the government's financial status on the floor of the House has brought out these points.
On May first there was only two billion, two hundred and twenty six million dollars of the Victory loan which remained in the treasury. The expenditures are still ranging upward

CAN GOD ANSWER PRAYER THE SUBJECT OF DR. BRUNER TONIGHT

A great meeting was held at the Memorial Baptist church last night and those present heard a fine sermon by Evangelist Bruner on the theme: "They that turned the world upside down have come here." It has been quite a while since this discourse of sweet gospel solos. He at the morning speaker held his large audience spell bound for over a half hour, his concluding words being just as attractive and inviting as his first.
Last night Prof. Padgett again delighted his hearers with one of his sweet gospel solos. He at the morning service today sang and he will do so again at the service tonight.

FIUME AND OTHER BOUNDARIES NOT INCLUDED IN PEACE TREATY

(By United Press)
Paris.—The question of Fiume and other boundary matters effecting Italy are not included in the peace treaty which has been handed the Austrians at St. Germain.
The treaty did not contain the detailed provision regarding reparations owing to the difficulty of apportioning Austria's debt among the nations which formerly made up the dual monarchy. The Fiume situation is reserved for future settlement by the big four.
The big four sitting with Colonel House and Andre Tardieu of France worked all the morning in an effort to settle the Adriatic problems which effort Italy.

County's Oldest White Citizen Died Sunday

Living to be over one hundred years of age is a privilege few possess in this day and time, but this was the lot of Mrs. Clemmie Allen, who passed away at her home near Piney Grove, about seven miles from Greenville, last Sunday. The deceased was born in December 1819 and fell on sleep May 25, 1919. Her funeral took place on last Monday in the Heber Allen burying ground and was attended by a large number of sorrowing friends.
Mrs. Allen leaves two daughters to mourn their loss, Mrs. Nicie Manning and Mrs. Matthew Hart. Mrs. Allen was the county's oldest white woman. She was noted for her Christian virtues and circumspect walk.

DEMOCRATS PREPARE FOR THE 1920 CAMPAIGN

(By United Press)
Chicago.—Democratic committeemen today went over their gear and tackle in preparation for the 1920 campaign. The national committee, according to members here will devote itself to perfecting its organization and building plants for better knit state organizations.
For the first time in its history the Democratic party was to permit women a part in a big powwow. Several women expected a place on the national committee through proxies. But aside from this hope there was a very real Woman's Associate national committee in session. Presided over by Mrs. George Bass, Illinois, this committee was expected to devise plans for rounding up the rapidly increasing woman vote of the country. Members of State organizations attended the committee meeting to hear discussions of feminine politics scheduled for delivery by Mrs. Alexander Thompson, Oregon; Mrs. John S. Crosby, New York; Mrs. Henry Sherlock, Montana; Mrs. Bettie White, Arizona; Mrs. W. R. Pattangall, Maine; Mrs. Gertrude A. Lee, California and Miss Mary Foy, California. The women were to banquet tonight, Mrs. Bass presiding over the dinner. Bainbridge Colby and Chairman Homer S. Cummings, Democratic chairman, were among the speakers listed. Several women speakers were to report suffrage conditions from the north, east, south and west.
Two cabinet members, Attorney General Palmer, and Secretary of the Treasury Glass, were slated for prominent places in discussions of the national committee. Both are committed from their home States, Pennsylvania and Virginia, respectively.
The program for today and tomorrow was a business-like looking affair, calling for the customary reports of officers. These were to be followed by reports from State organizations concluding with a series of "shop talks" on such topics as "Organization work," "Use of a Speakers' Bureau," and "Practical Publicity".
The only scheduled social event for the committeemen is the banquet set for tomorrow night.

WOMEN AND CHILDREN STARVE BY THOUSANDS

By FRANK J. TAYLOR
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
Berlin (By Mail).—The Bolsheviki fighting in the Baltic provinces is the most hateful of all, according to American officers returning from missions there, who tell of the ghastly almost unbelievable cruelty on the part of the Bolsheviki mercenaries. Neither side is showing mercy now, according to latest reports.
A number of phases are cited to account for the exceptional bitterness of the Courland and Lithuania fighting. The Bolsheviki are faced around Riga, by German volunteer divisions, with whom a number of Letts are fighting.
The German divisions are known as the Baltic army and is supported from German headquarters. The campaign is conducted in accordance with the armistice terms, say the officers. Part of the Germans are from Germany proper and the rest are known as "Balts".
The "Balts" are the German population of the Russian provinces north of Prussia. They are descendants of a wave of Germans which swept into the Baltic provinces of Russia in the thirteenth century. In the course of time the Germans, though a very minor portion of the population, have come to own practically all the property.
They are called the "Baltic Barons", and own everything through a feudal system which has lasted from the middle ages. The people are mostly Letts, some of whom are in favor of the "Balts" and many of whom are not. The "Balts" lean toward Germany in their sympathies and are hated especially by the Bolsheviki of Russia.
When the revolution came in Russia, the "Balts" organized and began a telling campaign against the Bolsheviki. During the last year they have held the Bolsheviki out of most of the "Baltic Baron" territory, and since the armistice have been materially helped by the volunteers recruited in Germany.
Their resistance has especially angered the Russians, who want to free the country of Germans. According to Americans who have been in the region Trotsky has sent his best troops against the "Balts". The Bolsheviki have fought like barbarians, and according to reports, have wiped out entire towns, when they were able to take them, to end the "Balt" influence. It is claimed that more than five thousand were murdered when the Bolsheviki took Riga.

President is Expected Back Middle of June

(By United Press)
Washington.—Official Washington is expecting President Wilson back to his desk from Europe about the middle of June.
It is stated that nothing has occurred to change the President's original plans for starting back early next month.
It is assumed that he will land in New York. No reception will be planned until the day of his return is definitely decided upon.

William S. Hart Attraction at the Theatre Thurs.

Arthur Shirley, who plays a strong role in "Branding Broadway," William S. Hart's new Arcturik offering, which comes to White's theatre Thursday matinee and night, is a well-known juvenile actor, with a fine record for consistent good work. In this picture he appears as the spendthrift of a millionaire, whom Mr. Hart, who personates a puncher from the west, seeks to tame. Some may say that it doesn't require a great deal of skill to play the part of a rounder—but anyone with this opinion should try it and see for himself. Shirley gives a clean-cut interpretation.
