MORE APPARENT DAILY

The intention of some of the Republican senatorial leaders to kill the entire peace treaty rather than have the league succeed is becoming more apparent daily. That the plan is cut and dried is evidenced by the speech of Senator Sherman of Illinois in his home State a few days prior to the address of Senator Knox, in which he asserted that the treaty would be killed by the Senate and forced upon the country as the issue of 1920.

Senator Knox's speech in the Senate against the treaty of peace and the league of nations astonished Washington, not because it demanded the death of the league, but that the Pennsylvanian spoke so bitterly of the "hard and cruel peace" that has been forced on Germany. This statement coming from one of the leading senators of a party that had attempted to make political capital by assuring the public that President intended letting Germany go without punishment, seemed strange to those in close touch with national affairs.

The activities of the German sympathizers in the United States Senate have been made plain by the futile attempt to prevent the confirmation of Attorney-General Palmer. Senator Frelinghuysen of New Jersey was named by Mr. Palmer in a statement following his almost unanimous confirmation by the Senate, as having been active in espousing the cause of German firms whose property was taken over by the present attorney general when he was alien property custodian. Not only was this senator "pleasing Germany," according to the attorney general, but he was officially mentioned and praised for this work in a statement given out by the German foreign office recently.

Attorney General Palmer pointed out in his statement that Senator Frelinghuysen is president of a New York insurance company which was the only one to attempt to block the complete liquidation of German insurance companies in this country. The attorney-general also asserted that Senator Frelinghuysen was the only member of Congress to appear before the Senate committee in 1917 to influence its conduct in framing the trading with the enemy act, and that he requested the committee to hear a witness who urged that the enemy insurance companies in the United States be not interfered with.

THIRD RED CROSS ROLL CALL

In announcing the date of the Third Red Cross Roll Call which will take place during the week beginning November 3rd and ending on Armistice Day, November 11th, Dr. Livingston Farrand, chairman of the executive committee of the American Red Cross, has outlined the plans and purposes of the organization in its permanent work as follows:

"It is believed that the end of our foreign obligations is in sight and, accordingly, the Red Cross is turning its chief attention and energy to the development of a clearly defined home program, which already includes systematic preparedness for Disaster Relief, a wide-spread Nursing Plan, continuing Home Service operations, First-Aid Instruction and a Junior Red Cross program, all of which will depend for their success upon large and vigorous Chapters. For these reasons the enrollment of members is the chief purpose of the November campaign. It is the primary ambition of the American Red Cross to be of service to Americans.

"The first task of the American Red Cross is, of course, to complete its obligations to American soldiers and sailors. The organization plans, as its future policy, to concentrate its efforts upon peace programs at home, unless America should again be involved in a war or confronted by great disasters creating special emergencies.

BEE BUZZING AROUND THESE OHIOANS

In Senators Harding and Pomerene, Ohio has two presidential possibilities. Senator Harding is considered by his many ardent supporters as the logical Republican candidate for the presidency. Friends and supporters of Pomerene have just started a nation-wide boom that they think will land the senator in the presidential chair for the Democrats. This snapshot was made at the United States capitol. Mr. Pomerene is at the left.

As I was As I am

"Some time ago my wife's health failed and her nerves got so bad that two hours was considered a good night's sleep for her," says Mr. John Butler of Boon, Ala., Route No. 8. "No matter how careful she was about her food it always disagreed. She had a full feeling in her chest, a heavy dull pain in her stomach, and was full of gas all the time. She was badly constipated and would go days without an action. "But things are different now. I've never seen any medicine bring a person out like Dreco has my wife. She feels good all the time, takes interest in everything, sleeps all night long, stomach troubles are over with, and the constipation entirely relieved." Dreco is made from juices and extracts of many medicinal herbs, which act on the vital organs in a pleasant and prompt manner.

Dreco is highly recommended in Greenville by Warren Drug Company.
