CHRISTIAN CHURCH DEBT WAS LIQUIDATED SUNDAY MORNING PASTOR DELIVERS LAST SERMON

The congregation of the Eighth St. Cthristian Church on yesterday cleared their handsome church property of debt and it is now ready for dedication which in all probability will take place sometime during the month January. The debt of about $8,000 was liquadated yesterday morning as a kind of farewell gift to the retiring pastor, Rev. Lee S. Sadler who filled the pulpit for the last time before going to Vanderbilt University, Nashville, Tenn., to complete his biblical course in that institution.

Mr. Sadler sometime ago tendered his resignation to take effect the last Sunday in December. He will be succeded by the Rev. Dr. Shamhart of Petersburg, Va., whom, it is expected, will assume the pastorate on or about February 1st, 1920, Mr. Sadler came Atlantic Christian College, Wilson and since that time down to this good hour endeared himself to the ennunity both as a preacher and He is without doubt one ost logical thinkers of his the state and the entire loath to give him up.
