DISTINCT FUTURE FOR WOMEN OFFERED IN RAILROAD WORK

(By Associated Press.) Washington.—A distinct future for women is offered in Railroad work. Miss Pauline Goldmark, manager of the women's service section of the railroad administration said today in her annual report to director General Hines.

"Testimony from their superiors indicates that women will undoubtedly progress further in all forms of work," said Miss Goldmark. "While in some offices there is hesitation in encouraging them to advance into more responsible positions, in other offices there is a distinct effort to put no obstacles in their path."

"Two important factors were in part responsible, for this decrease" said Miss Goldmark. "First the return of men from service with the army and navy and second, the drastic order to effect necessary economy."

FOUR MONKEY RUM STILLS AND THIRTY BARRELS OF BEER THE RECORD OF SHERIFF FOR WEEK

(By Associated Press) Pittsburg.—Seven persons are known to have been burned to death early today when fire destroyed fifteen temporary residences occupied by the employees of the Carnegie Steel company's plant at Clairton. The office building was also destroyed. The structures were destroyed within a period of fifteen minutes.

Sheriff E. R. Dndley and his assistants, have made another good week-end record in capturing Monkey Rum plants. Four stills taken in hand is their record, besides a large quantity of beer. Thursday afternoon the officers visited the section of the county below Black Jack where was located a two hundred gallon still. The paraplania and about fifteen barrels of beer was poured out. There was no one at the plant at the time. The still was not in operation. Yesterday afternoon the Black Jack section was visited again by the Sheriff and his assistants and another still of sixty gallon capacity was located and destroyed. Coming back towards Greenville and within two and a half miles of the city in the old Court House Section two first class copper stills were found, both being of sixty gallon capacity. Besides destroying both plants the officers poured out about fifteen barrels of beer. No one was found at either of the plants. No one was in evidence.

WILL INVITE NORTH AMERICAN CAPITAL AND DEVELOPMENT

(By Associated Press.) Rio de Janeiro.—One of the aims of Dr. A. Cockran de Alencar, Brazil's new Ambassador to Washington, will be to invite North American capital to take a more extensive part in the development of Brazil's vast resources. He told The Associated Press correspondent just before leaving there for the United States by the way of England: "North Americans already understand that our country offers them vast field for their activities. Because of the transport crisis, both the importation and exportation between the two countries, while considerable, do not attain the proportions they ought. Brazil does not import millions of dollars worth of goods that she might produce, as I have said, to this lack of transportation. The creation of additional North American steamship lines to Brazil would increase the excellent impression that now exists among the Brazilian people in commerce." Ambassador de Alencar said he hoped to interest groups of North American financiers and industrial concerns in the development of the mineral resources of Brazil. "Some time ago," he said, "North American syndicates acquired vast areas of mineral lands, iron and manganese, in the state of Minas Geraes. He pointed to this territory as an opportunity for initiative. "Petroleum," continued Ambassador
