COUNTY BOARDS OF EDUCATION SHOULD FIX THE SALARIES OF TEACHERS SAYS SUPT. BROOKS

Public Instruction Chief is Writing Letters to The Teachers of the State to This Effect. — The Distasteful After Effects of the Late Primary Campaign in the State Are Now Non-Existant. — The Biltmore Estate Company of Asheville, Chartered, Begins Business With $700,000 Capital.

(My Max Abrnethy.) RALEIGH.—That part of North Carolina's Democracy known over the state as the organization, termed by the Republicans and would-be office holders within the Democratic ranks who are unable to obtain its support, as the "machine," is finding very little to worry over as the result of the recent primaries which would have a deterrent effect on the usual majority in the November election.

Morrison as contestants for the governorship and ended with Morrison the victor, it is generally conceded that the distasteful after effects are non-existent. With one of the defeated candidates, Mr. Gardner, ready to do battle for the party's nominee in the coming campaign and assurances from his friends that Mr. Page will do likewise, it is pointed out that Democracy will again triumph in the state.

ISLAND NOW HAS A POPULATION OF ONE THOUSAND

Hoffman Island Detention Station Has More Than This Number Daily, Due to Inbound Immigrants.

(By Associated Press.) NEW YORK.—Hoffman Island, detention station of the New York quarantine service, now has an average transient population of more than 1,000 a day, due to the inbound rush of Italian immigrants.

In addition, the five doctors attached to the station have given up all thoughts of vacation and are working, one of the quarantine officials said, to the limits of human endurance in vaccinating, fumigating and inspecting prospective citizens and their families.

STRIKE ON THE PAVEMENT FOR THEIR WARNING

Turkish Policemen Use Heavy Sticks to Notify Evil Doers at Regular Intervals to Disgust Of Foreigners.

(By Associated Press.) CONSTANTINOPLE.—Turkish policemen make no attempt to surprise evil doers, but give warning of their approach by striking on the pavement at regular intervals with long heavy sticks tipped with steel, to the great disgust of sleepless foreigners. It was formerly the custom of the night watchmen to shout loudly in Turkish that all was well every time they pounded on the pavement. But the allies forbade the shouting, and since the armistice the night policemen, most of whom are very old men, content themselves with hammering the pavement. The Turkish population objected strongly to having the hammering discontinued, as it is supposed to be the only means of guaranteeing that the policemen will patrol their beats.

ROTARY CLUB GET TOGETHER MEETING LAST NIGHT PROVED TO BE THE BEST IN ITS HISTORY

Baby Rotarian Bobbie Wright Was Initiated Into the Mysteries of the Order. — "Swede" Swanson's Going Back to Missouri Was Fittingly Taken Notice Of. — Progress on Rotarian Home Reported to be Moving Swiftly Toward Completion. — An Euthusiastic Meeting It Was.

QUILL DRIVER'S NOTES.

Paul Clodfelter wants to know ty-four exhortations, twelve sermons and one talk. Pete Anthony and Bill Hall had nothing to say, for a wonder. Baby Rotarian Bob Wright says he wants to be a full fledged Rotarian. He started out pretty well last night. According to Jim Mayo, that friend chicken was some fry. He actually ate the necks. Lawrence Stroud tried to make a talk, but slipped a cog and notwithstanding he is manager couldn't. Of the baseball club, Tom Hollingsworth was ahead of time last night. Cause—there was no game yesterday. Pau Clodfelter wants to know where the next supper is coming from. He's a banker and ought to know. Billie Best is fast gaining the distinction of being the club's most ornate orator. Billie is great on his feet. Jacob Gaskins had a chill yesterday, so missed the fried chicken and condiments.

ing bottle filled with the sweetest of cow's milk, he was allowed to feast on the excellent eats so beautifully prepared by the ladies of the Christian church, and you bet he did full justice. This Baby Rotarian is bashful. He's passionately fond of biscuits, particularly Pitt county biscuits. He's just as fond of them as is Sam Phillips of tomatoes. Jimmie Mayo ate too much of everything and is today paying the penalty. He who plays the fiddle must also do the dancing. As Swede Swanson so truthfully said, Rotarians can sing, especially is this true of Greenville Rotarians. Last night they were par excellence in this respect. They just made the banqueting hall ring with harmony. For once, not a discord was heard, nor a false note made. Even Pete Anthony and Tom Hollingsworth and Claude Tunstall, by good luck, were in tune. While several selections had to be rendered the second time for the want of "pep," according to J. B. Kittrell, the music was just out of sight. Rotarian Ralph Garrett reported good progress being made on the Rotary home and explained to Paul Clodfelter what those two pipes were for in the dining room. Paul's manner showed still his ignorance, but inasmuch as Buddie Gorman was seen to whisper in his ear, the surmise is he understands. Up jumped the "Sky Pilot," Sam Phillips and announced that the following ode to a departing Nut named Swede would then be rendered: Sam further announced that the author was unknown, the music classic, the trio renowned. Then up popped J. B. Kittrell and Burney Warren to the aid of Sam and they began to sing, but not until Swede Swanson was asked for, or rather commanded to stand. The words were timely and appropriate, the tune lively and the voices all that could be desired. One could have heard a pin drop during its rendition. That is what effective goes without saying. Well, here it is: Sweedy Swanson is his name, Fellow Rotarians—look; He's big of heart and body and frame, A man of genuine note. Gosh, how it pains us, Gosh, how it hurts us, Gosh, how it CALLS us, To see our big-boy go West. He had a Ford, her name was Lim. She hauled him all over town; He used her for all sorts of Biz; She had to cover some ground. Oh, he was bizzy In his Tin-Lizzy, Always a-going On errands with Rotary Pep. Tonight the news we have to brag; Old Swede is going away, But here's to that Missouri state In which he'll soon hold sway. Long live Missouri, Big state Missouri; We'll be the jury To sing her mighty good taste. Old pal, we're sorry you've got to go, As sorry as sorry can be; But we predict that you'll bestow A blessing on all you see. So, goodbye, Old Sweedy, Go help the needy; God bless you, Sweedy, All Rotary wishes you well. We know this poem is sorry stuff, Alas, we know it is true; But we'll be damned if it is a bluff. These words were saying to you. And in the days of future years, If you get tired of the West, We hope we'll hear you sing this song. This song we all love the best. Carry me back to old Pitt County, There's where the 'bacco, corn and sweet potatoes grow; There's where the school calls me back to her service, There's where I'm going, for I know I'm welcome there. Swede tried to respond to these parting words and he did it with feeling. He spoke of the good fellowship in Greenville, as no where else in all the world. Said this fellowship was most conspicuous in the Rotary Club. Then he said, "I'm coming back for just don't want to go." He spoke about the future of Eastern Carolina, which he claimed to be the garden spot of the world. Said Missouri, where of the world.
