THE BEST TOBACCO MARKET IN THE STATE

To avoid "BLOCK SALES," the Greenville Tobacco Board of Trade has ordered THREE (3) SALES for this season. This means each company buying tobacco on the Greenville Market will have three Buyers, giving Greenville a Sale at three houses at the same time.

Heretofore we have had two. We believe this will do away with the congestion and enable the planters to sell the day they put their Tobacco on the Warehouse floors. "Block Sales" has been GREENVILLE'S greatest obstacle and has been the club used in argument by the smaller Markets.

The Tobacco Crop is the only crop the Farmers raise that many of them sell without getting its full worth. With many it is not "what my Tobacco is worth," but "how soon can I get home." Are you one of these?

The Secretary of Agriculture (to whom each warehouse in the State has to make a sworn report each month), reports the Sales (of the markets below) for the season of 1919 as follows:

MARKET.	POUNDS.	AVERAGE
Wilson	42,816,183	$50.75
GREENVILLE	30,115,431	53.22
Kinston	26,109,048	50.71
Rocky Mount	21,289,906	51.12
Farmville	9,708,903	54.84
LaGrange	7,609,574	45.36
Washington	6,036,157	47.38
Robersonville	4,023,968	44.90
Williamston	3,941,882	45.40
Tarboro	3,099,692	40.84
New Bern	3,710,141	43.64
Asokie	2,596,188	51.13
Ayden 1	2,188,246	47.16
Windsor	1,169,044	38.61

Compare these averages. You know GREENVILLE sold lots of common Tobacco and Scrap. Don't you know it will pay you to sell your Tobacco in GREENVILLE?

Was Very Weak

"After the birth of my baby I had a back-set," writes Mrs. Mattie Crosswhite, of Glade Spring, Va. "I was very ill; thought I was going to die. I was so weak I couldn't raise my head to get a drink of water. I took . . . medicine, yet I didn't get any better. I was constipated and very weak, getting worse and worse. I sent for Cardui."

TAKE

CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

"I found after one bottle of Cardui I was improving," adds Mrs. Crosswhite. "Six bottles of Cardui and . . . I was cured, yes, I can say they were a God-send to me. I believe I would have died, had it not been for Cardui." Cardui has been found beneficial in many thousands of other cases of womanly troubles. If you feel the need of a good, strengthening tonic, why not try Cardui? It may be just what you need.
