CLEVELAND WINS FROM BROOKLYN

Effort Being Made For A Joint Debate Between the Women

Inducements are Being Offered to Persuade Mrs. Mary Settle Sharpe, G. O. P. Candidate for Supt. of Public Instruction and Dr. Delia Dixon-Carroll, Prominent Raleigh Woman-Physician to Meet in Joint Discussion Before the Election Next Month. Raleigh Probably will be Meeting Place if the Event is Pulled off.

By Max Abernethy

RALEIGH, Oct. 11.—If there is to be a joint debate in North Carolina in this year's campaign the women will have to furnish the speakers, it seems and efforts are now being made to persuade Mrs. Mary Settle Sharpe, republican candidate for State Superintendent of public instruction, and Dr. Delia Dixon-Carroll, prominent Raleigh woman-physician, to meet in joint discussion before the election on November 2.

The details of the forensic encounter have not been made public here but it is being rumored that plans for having the women speak from the same platform are in the making. Democratic leaders seen today expressed the hope that there was pointed out that such an arrangement will have the effect of creating enthusiasm amongst the newly enfranchised voters in the State—something that leaders in both political parties in North Carolina have been unable to do satisfactorily as yet.

State Democratic headquarters, presided over by Chairman Thomas D. Farrow, has not authorized the statement that the women are sure to debate but the "democratic" chairman has been advised that efforts are being made for the discussion. And while it is somewhat unusual for chairman Farrow to give his endorsement to any sort of joint debate between democrats and republicans there can be no misunderstanding as to what side of the question he stands on. He will tell the women, if asked, to "go to it."

Placing the responsibility of joint debates upon the women folks is not going to please everybody to be sure but since there is no indication that Morrison and Parker are to meet it seems that the new voters offer the only chance. If they do it is believed by many here that Raleigh will be the place for the first round. The suggestion that the women who heard Dr. Carroll speak at the Charlotte meeting last week. These same women had previously heard Mrs. Sharpe and they believe that the discussion should be arranged. Raleigh officialdom likes the idea and from all indications would like to be witnesses at the fray.

The publicity committee of the North Carolina Orphan Association today launches its campaign for obtaining voluntary contributions to the Thauks-giving fund which will be used in caring for the State's orphans during the next twelve months.

One day's income from every citizen is asked by the committee for this purpose. Those who respond to the appeal are urged to forward their contribution direct to one of the orphanages in the State as the committee does not handle any finances itself. In a letter being sent to the press today Mr. L. Shipman, as chairman, asks its support and points out that without the help of these newspapers the cause will fail.

The contributions may be made thru the church, Sunday school, community organization or the fraternal order, having institutions in the state. A similar campaign was conducted last year with success, the amount contributed having been a great help in financing all of the orphanages.

Upon application of a writ of habeas corpus Associate Justice W. A. Hoke, of the North Carolina Supreme court, has withheld action of Melvin Hendrick's request, pending the decision of the Wake county superior court. Hendrick who is from High Point, is charged with the larceny of an automobile. His bond, however, which was $2,000 has been reduced on consent of the solicitor to $500.

The High Point man was arrested on September 8 by local police on information given by Bob Grier, also of High Point, who had been jailed on a charge of having in his possession a stolen automobile.

Epworth League Members Give Tacky Party on Last Friday Eve

The members of the Epworth League of the Methodist church and some of their friends had a merry time at the home of Mrs. Hortense Moyer last Friday night. The occasion was a "Tacky Party" and everyone came in costumes which marked of years gone by and showed much skill and ingenuity in their make up.

Many kinds and colors were required in the invitation, and so well were the requirements met that it was difficult for the judges to impose fines enough to pay for the ice cream. Mr. Farrow was awarded to Miss Abbie Mae Edwards and for the boys to Master Heber Forbes.

RETURNED FROM REUNION.

Col. R. R. Cotton, of Bruce, N. C., returned today from Hot Springs, Galveston and New Orleans. While in Houston he attended the reunion of the Confederate Veterans. He says he had a great trip.

UNION JACK FLIES OVER JAMESTOWN AFTER 300 YEARS

For the first time since Jamestown Island was settled by the English, more than three hundred years ago, the British Union Jack was flown to the breeze on the Island yesterday.

It was in honor of the visit of distinguished British guests to Jamestown as a part of the trecentenary celebration of the first legislative assembly in Virginia. There are two high flag staffs on the waterfront at Jamestown Island with the statue of John Smith, who led the English pioneers to that point, between them.

CAROLINA FARMER WINS PRIZES LATE RICHMOND FAIR

State College Stock Judging Contest This Chicago to Take Part in The Nation-wide Judging Contest this Week.

RALEIGH, Oct. 11.—The State College Stock Judging Team composed of A. R. Morrow, Mount Uta, W. B. Collins, Edwards Cross Roads, W. C. Eagles, Macleesfield and A. C. Jones, Winston-Salem, accompanied by Prof. R. H. Ruffner, head of the Department of Animal Husbandry, has gone to Chicago to take part in the nation-wide stock judging contests to be held at the National Dairy Show.

This trip is an annual affair and each fall it is looked forward to with a great deal of interest by the Animal Husbandry students. The expense of the successful candidates for the stock judging team are borne by the College and the preliminary competition for places is very keen.

At Chicago the State College team will compete with teams from all the land grant colleges of the United States. In addition to the benefits derived by this close association with other colleges men from all sections of the country, the students will have an opportunity to inspect the greatest assemblage of dairy cattle ever brought together in the world.

On the trip the party stopped over at Richmond and visited the Virginia State Fair where it was learned with a great deal of satisfaction that the Jersey herd of Mr. J. F. Diggs of Rockingham, a former student of the college, class of 1903, won out in competition with four other great Jersey herds.

COMMISSION SAYS OPPOSED SEIZURE OF GERMAN FIELDS

Socialization Committee Named by German Government Comprising Labor Leaders Opposed to Seizure of Coal Fields.

BERLIN, Oct. 11.—The Socialization committee appointed by the government, comprised 21 leaders of the industrial labor world and economic experts, has reported by a majority of one, that it is opposed to the immediate seizure of the nation's coal fields.

The commission was divided into two groups the smaller of which demanded the neutralization of the entire production and distribution of coal. This group supports the findings of the first commission which has since disbanded, but whose majority recommended the immediate confiscation.

Eleven members of the newly organized commission endorsed Walter Rathenau's proposal to give the state absolute control over every ounce of coal produced, thus depriving the operators of any voice in determining the method of disposing of their product or fixing its price: The output of the mines would be taken over by an imperial coal council which would have authority to fix the prices and re-imburse the operators.

The commission was unanimous in favor of "far-reaching elimination of capitalist gains from coal production." The majority of the commission was also convinced of the desirability of withdrawing the nation's coal assets from private ownership, but it was divided over the method by which this is to be achieved.

OFFICIAL VERSION WILSON'S ADDRESS IS MADE PUBLIC

Delivered at Eighth Plenary Peace Conference Which has Been Subject of Controversy with Senator Spencer.

CLERK FINDS NO SUCH STATEMENT

Says Spencer's Version Probably Resulted from Mix-up in Translation. Senator asked for Official Record.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11.—The White House made public today what it described as an official version of President Wilson's address at the eighth Plenary session of the Peace conference which has been the subject of a controversy between the President and Senator Spencer, Republican of Missouri.

The President it is said had declared that Senator Spencer was quoting his speech falsely and the senator requested the official record. The version given out today was from the notes of one of the official stenographers who declared that he had just gone over his notes and that he had found no such statements as attributed to the President by the senator, but he said that Spencer's version probably resulted from a mix-up in the translation.

UNITY THE SUBJECT OF PROF. MEADOWS ON LAST EVENING

Addressed the Training School Y. W. C. A. at its Regular Sunday Evening Meeting, The Occasion Enthusiastic One.

Conducted the Y. W. C. A. service at the Y. W. C. A. church, which was illustrated by three plays of Scripture, each of which expresses unity. The chief cornerstone of Y. W. C. A. work.

Prof. Meadows brought out clearly three points that help in the Y. W. C. A. 1st. One gains cooperation which is one of the essentials of a successful life. 2nd One is brought closer to the ideals of the school. 3rd One develops spiritually.

He told of girls who because of their inspiration gained from the Y. W. C. A. in the Training School have been far more successful than they would have been without it and others of girls who failed to take advantage of the opportunity offered in the association, and by the same lack of cooperation have failed to work good outside.

PRISON GUARD KILLS CONVICT

Richmond, Oct. 9. — Details of a desperate encounter between five negro convicts and a guard at the State Lime Grinding Plant of Staunton in which one of the convicts was instantly killed, reached the penitentiary yesterday. The attempted escape had been carefully planned, the five men rushing their guard as they were returning to quarters for the night.

Surprised by the sudden attack, the guard was beaten and thrown to the ground, apparently unconscious. He half lifted himself from the ground drew his revolver and brought one of his assailants to the ground as the quintet were making for the woods. Homer Byss, the negro who was killed, was serving a ten-year term.

CONFESSES TO HAVING KIDNAPPED BABY

Harrisburg, Pa., Oct 11.—August Pasfuelle, known as a crank, confessed today according to the police as having kidnapped Blake Ley Conghlin from his home in Norrisstown and the baby smothered to death while being taken from the house under Pasfuelle's coat. A search is being made for the body.

EVERY DAY CHOCK FULL OF PLEASURE AT RALEIGH FAIR

Fifty-Ninth Annual State Fair Offers More Entertaining Features This Year Than Ever Before in History.

SPECIAL TRAINS TO RUN DAILY

Midway Attractions Bigger and Better. They Will be Open Both Day and Night Throughout the Week.

RALEIGH, Oct. 11.—The fifty-ninth annual State Fair offers more entertaining features and a greater number of exhibits in every department this year than ever before. Every day will be chock full of pleasure and amusement for the tens of thousands who are expected to visit the capital city during the week of October 18-23 from all sections of the State as well as from South Carolina and Virginia.

Col. Jos. E. Pogue, secretary, has been informed that all railroads will operate special trains to and from Raleigh during the week as a means of taking care of the fair visitors. Greatly reduced rates will prevail on the special trains and on the regular schedules. The indications are that the attendance will break all previous records and since the fair officials are convinced of this considerable additional work has been done on the grounds and buildings for providing entertainment for the crowds. This year for the first time since the grandstand was destroyed by fire the new patent bleachers have been erected alongside the old ones and will provide a seating capacity of more than five thousand.

Band concerts will be given daily at the fair grounds by the 28th Regiment Band of the United States Army. This band is greatly in demand at State fairs and at other public gatherings because it is composed of soldiers who were the first of the A. E. F. to play Uncle Sam's music across the Rhine after the Hindenburg line was broken.

There will also be a battery of artillery, completely motorized, from Camp Bragg, four DeHaviland army airplanes that will give flying exhibitions under the direction of experienced aviators of the United States army.

The midway attractions this year will be bigger and more pretentious than ever and will be open both day and night.

UNITED STATES CLAIMS SHARE OF GERMAN CABLES

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9.—Delegates from five of the allied and associated powers met today at the state department in the first preliminary session of the International Communications Conference. Representatives of France, Great Britain, Italy, Japan and the United States were present.

Foremost of the problems to be settled at the preliminary conference is the disposition of the German cables seized by France, Great Britain and Japan at the beginning of the war and of which the United States proposes to claim a share.

WATERWAYS BODY MAY ADMIT WOMEN MEMBERS

ATLANTIC CITY, Oct. 9.—The resolutions committee of the Atlantic Deep-sea Waterways Association, in annual convention here, had under consideration today a request that women be admitted to membership of the association. The request was made by Mrs. Howard Schwartz, of Baltimore, who declared the auxiliary should be abolished and the women permitted to become "full fledged" members of the organization.

A collection of officers was on today's program. Mayor J. Hampton Moore, of Philadelphia, leading delegates said would be re-elected president without opposition.

BIG TIDE JEWISH IMMIGRATION TO THE UNITED STATES

Flowing into This Country at the Rate of Thousands a Day Through Antwerp and Towards the French Ports.

BERLIN, Oct. 11.—Reports from Danzig, Hamburg and Bremen says a great tide of Jewish emigration to the United States has set in, and that already it is flowing at the rate of thousands a day through Antwerp and toward French ports. It has been necessary to erect barracks at Danzig to house the applicants for passports and the correspondent there of the Berlin Tageblatt says virtually a new city has come into existence, composed of Jews organized and financed by the Hebrew Immigration Aid Society and the Joint Distribution Committee of America.

Administration buildings, stores, houses, workrooms, restaurants and even a temporary synagogue have been provided in the outskirts of Danzig for the emigrants. There are many women and children awaiting transportation, going they say, to husbands and fathers in America.

The Tageblatt's correspondent says many of the men seeking passage to America have fled from Poland, assisted by the Joint Distribution Committee and others from Russia, having been driven before the Bolshevik army as it advanced into Poland. The Poles made no opposition to their passage through the corridor to a Duzig.
