There Were About 100,000 Pounds Offered on the Floors of the Two Warehouses and it Brought a Very Good Price—The Good Tobacco Especially Sold Well—Buyers and Dealers Believe that Better Grades Will Bring Good Prices All the Season.

Raleigh, Sept. 20.—Failure of the Governor to name Thomas D. Warren associate justice of the supreme court in the place of the late Justice William R. Allen during the week end was a little bit disconcerting to the Warren forces but they are back good and strong this week with the support of Eastern Carolina for the chairman of the democratic campaign committee in addition to a large number of endorsements from all sections of the state.

A FINE PROGRAM FOR GRIMESLAND

Justices of Peace of Argentine District Will Meet there Thursday of This Week. The Sixth Annual meeting of the Argentine District of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina will be held at Grimesland, Thursday, 10:30 o'clock A. M. The 5th district includes all the Masonic lodges in Pitt county. Mr. H. E. Austin, Greenville, is the district deputy grand master. The following is the program for the day.

10:30 A. M.—Annual Conference of the lodges. Masonic Hall, 11-45 A. M.—General Meeting Graded School auditorium. Prayer—Rev. C. H. Barcom, Greenville Lodge No. 284.

Address of Welcome, Bro. J. C. Galloway, Master Grimesland Lodge No. 475. Response—Bro. Robert H. Wright, Shawboro Lodge No. 78. Annual Address—R. W. Hubert M. Poteat, Senior Grand Warden, Grand Lodge of N. C.

1:15 P. M.—Annual Dinner. The eastern democrats, especially those from the northeastern part of the state, are appointed to succeed him on the bench, and is not likely to have for sometime to come unless some of the judges already on the supreme court bench. These eastern people point out that under the primary system it is mighty hard to beat a prime court justice because there is a feeling that a man once elected to the bench should be kept there. He is much more valuable with the experience he gains, and unless an easterner is appointed to succeed Judge Allen, who was an eastern man that section of the state has mighty little chance of getting representation on the bench.

Not Peddling It. Governor Blount has made it plain that he is not offering the place to any man unless he has very definite assurances that the man to whom the place is offered will accept appointment. For this reason he has not considered the name of Judge J. S. Manning who has informed friends of the governor and his own friends that he does not want the name used on account of personal reasons. He told his friends that when it was first suggested that he be named to succeed the man who defeated him in 1910 following his appointment to the bench by Governor Kitchin. He has not changed his mind about that, and in view of this the governor declares that he has not seriously considered him, despite the fact that he believes the elevation of the attorney general to the supreme court would be one of the best possible appointments he could make.

The appointment of Judge Manning would meet the territorial and geographical demands for a more equitable distribution of the five places on the supreme court bench. It would place a man on the bench who could be a representative of the north eastern counties, although not coming from the extreme north east Adams folks hopeful.

REAL NATIVE HAWAIIANS COMING TO WHITE'S THEATRE WITH A NIGHT IN HONOLULU. In "A Night in Honolulu" which comes to White's Theatre next Wednesday night the native Hawaiian singers and musicians will be found to occupy a great deal of the spectators' attention. Hawaiian music by the gifted native singers and players has been a great success in America because it is different. The melodic strains of their plaintive songs and the accompaniment on native instruments is plaintive and fascinating. Mark Twain after his first visit to the Hawaiian Islands, said in an interview: "The music of the Hawaiians, the most fascinating in the world, is still in my ears and I can still hear the pulsing of the surf at Waikiki, see the plummy palms fringing by the shore, the garlanded crags and the leaping cascades, and this music fills me with the spirit of its woodland solitudes."

CHIROPRACTIC LOCATES HERE FOR PRACTICE. Dr. J. B. Ball, of Elizabeth City, has opened offices in the National Bank building for the practice of Chiropractic (Ki-ro-prak-tic). Although there are many Chiropractors located in cities near Greenville, Dr. Ball is the first to practice this popular science in Pitt county. In looking over the various towns in Eastern Carolina, said Dr. Ball this morning, I must say I was more favorably impressed with Greenville and so I have decided to cast my lot with the good people of your city and county. A hearty welcome is extended. Dr. Ball and his wife are in the city. See his announcement elsewhere.

MADE-IN-CAROLINA EXPOSITION CLOSING DAY IS SEPTEMBER 29TH

Charlotte, N. C., Sept. 20.—The Made-in-Carolina exposition, having passed through the first week in a blaze of glory, has entered the second week under auspices which forecast a continuation of the remarkable increase each day in attendance. Sept. 29 is the closing day. Except on opening day, the throng of visitors has equalled or exceeded expectations and already many thousands of intensely interested Carolina people, as well as large numbers of people from other states, have seen varied array of exhibits, numbering more than 200, the 3,000 and more products being elaborately displayed. The popular interest evidently is increasing, as the real magnitude of the exposition becomes generally known through the reports carried to all parts of the Carolinas by visitors.

PLANE OF SAFETY FOR AIR FLYING

Washington, D. C., Sept. 20.—Development of commercial flying in this country to a plane of safety comparable to that in rail and water transportation depends upon government regulation of aviation, according to an analysis of the present situation prepared for Secretary Hoover by the Manufacturers Aircraft Association. Mr. Hoover has begun a study of the commercial aircraft problem in the light of the possible establishment of a bureau of aviation to regulate travel by air. Legislation before congress would put the control of this means of transportation into his department should the government decide federal regulation advisable.

Lack of federal control, the association declared, was one of the main causes of accidents in the air which give rise to the belief that flying is extremely dangerous—one of the severest handicaps to the development of transportation by air. There is also lack of official machinery with which to obtain authentic information relative to flying accidents.

EXCAVATORS FIND OLD BELT BUCKLE Located on Site of Revolutionary War Prison Camp Near 203 Street New York

New York, Sept. 20.—A Hessian soldier's belt buckle has been found by historical workers excavating the site of the Revolutionary war prison camp on the old Dyckman farm, near 203rd Street. The buckle, of bronze, is in a perfect state of preservation and officials of the Field Exploration committee of the New York Historical Society say it is one of the few Revolutionary relics of undoubted Hessian origin.

The buckle has been identified as part of the equipment of the Fuerst Frederick or Erb Prinz Regiment of "Hesse, mercenaries brought over by the British to fight Washington's continental. On the front of the buckle is engraved the monogram "F. F." surmounted by a crown. The original hook or belt holder is on the back. The Fuerst Frederick regiment, originally 688 strong, took part in many engagements in the Revolution. It participated in the battle of Long Island, and was assigned to the left wing of Earl Percy's force at the battle of Fort Mifflin. Later the regiment was sent south and eventually was captured at Yorktown. Just above the Times Square section of Broadway an aged property owner had a vacant five story building that an automobile sales house wanted to lease. The papers were drawn up, and when the interested parties had gathered to sign it, the automobile representative remarked that his concern was going to put "a nice electric sign on the roof." The owner laid down his pen and said no electric signs were going on top of his building. The deal was closed and the building remained empty for six years when the owner died.

PITT COUNTY POST AMERICAN LEGION MEETING AT BETHEL WERE GUESTS OF TOWN

DR. RUMWELL TESTIFIES BEFORE GRAND JURY IN FATTY ARBUCKLE CASE

San Francisco, Sept. 20.—The county grand jury has adjourned until next Monday for the investigation of the alleged tampering with the prosecution's witnesses in the case of Roscoe (Fatty) Arbuckle who is being held in jail here in connection with the death of Miss Virginia Rappe. The jury also heard the testimony of Dr. William Funnell who is said to have performed the autopsy on the Rappe girl.

WERE GUESTS OF TOWN One Hundred Banquetters Sit Around the Festive Board and Enjoy the Hospitality of Those Good People—M. K. Blount Makes Address of Welcome and Dr. Charles Laughinghouse the Response—Principal Address Made by Dr. R. H. Wright—Delightful Spread Served by the Ladies—Next Meeting Will Be Held in Farmville.

Fortunate indeed were those who wore the Khaki and Blue in the great world-war for these brave boys last night banquetted around the festive board at the beautiful little town of Bethel as the guests of the citizens there, and besides, heard talks most inspiring and helpful from legionnaires and invited guests. Bethel has always been noted for its hospitality, so when the "buddies" were invited to come, all fortunate enough to be members of the Pitt County Post could hardly wait for the auspicious occasion to merge itself into a reality. Aiden some few weeks ago entertained the Post and last night Bethel was fortunate enough to be the recipients of the boys' overseas aid for freedom's sake. No one present had to do his P's and Q's, but he was told the feast was before him, to use it just as he saw fit—in other words the good things to eat had been prepared for him and to "go to it!" From eight to ten the banquetters indulged in songs, heard talks for the good of their great and noble cause and last but not least mingled with folk whose handshake is always warm and whose greetings are always generous. The occasion was the regular monthly meeting of the Pitt County Post. Covers were laid for one hundred and every place was occupied. The banquet and business meeting were held in the Masonic hall. A "Bevy" of Bethel's young ladies served the supper and it was most beautifully done. There was not a far nor hitch anywhere in the program. The most notable note of the evening was the fact of the Post's generous contribution to the purchase of a chime for Pitt county. Dave Turnage and Frank Rice were named to a committee to prosecute the matter further. Here a happy thought struck the Post Commander for the chime on each Buddha in any undertaking for Pitt county. Dave Turnage said that it was the hope that every town erect chimes for this purpose. Right on the spot there were several generous donations for purchase of chimes for Pitt county. ### JUDGE ADAMS WILL SUCCEED ALLEN

Position Tendered to Carthage Jurist Yesterday Afternoon By Governor Morrison

Raleigh, Sept. 20.—Governor Cameron Morrison smashed the hopes of a score of contentions for a seat on the Supreme Court bench to succeed the late Justice W. R. Allen yesterday afternoon when he announced the appointment of Judge W. J. Adams of Carthage as associate justice; named Solicitor Walter Brock as successor to Judge Adams on the Superior Court from the Thirteenth District; and appointed W. M. Nash, of Hamlet, as Solicitor to succeed Brock.

The appointments were announced by Governor Morrison shortly after an imposing delegation from the counties composing the thirteenth judicial district had called on the Governor in the interest of Judge Adams. It was the largest delegation that has appeared before the Governor since the campaign for successor to Judge Allen started. The next largest was for Thomas D. Warren, of New Bern, chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee, a choice of a host of the many of the Governor's personal and political friends.

With the announcement of the appointment, Governor Morrison dispatched this telegram to Judge Adams, now holding court in Guilford county: "Believing that you are the choice of the people of the State for the Supreme Court bench and my own judgment being that you will ably and justly discharge the high duties of that exalted position, I take great pleasure in tendering you the vacancy on the Supreme Court bench caused by the death of the Hon. William R. Allen."

HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLAR FIRE IN MEMPHIS, TENN.

too, their personality. The chairman named the following committee to work with these ladies: Dr. K. B. Pace, J. H. Waldrop and W. M. Rogers. J. Con Lanier chairman of the committee for the American Legion celebration Nov. 11th, announced his committee to assist him in arranging the program for that day. At this juncture came the feature of the evening, it being the address of Dr. R. H. Wright, president of the East Carolina Teachers Training School, who addressed himself to the subject of education. This is something near to his heart and as always, when discussing it, he spoke from his heart and had a most attentive and sympathetic audience. What he had to say was full of food for thought. Dave Turnage called the Post's attention to the fact that the ladies of Asheville were arranging to have a chime of bells erected in that city for the purpose of playing the Star Spangled Banner daily at 6 o'clock and said that it was the hope that every town erect chimes for this purpose. Right on the spot there were several generous donations for purchase of chimes for Pitt county. Dave Turnage and Frank Rice were named to a committee to prosecute the matter further. Another pleasing incident of the evening was when the Post commander called on M. O. Blount, one of Bethel's leading citizens. Mr. Blount although his locks are silver, his heart is still young. He spoke of his gratification of having the Post as the guest of his town, said he was with them in any undertaking they launched, said he would pin on each one's coat just for remembrance sake of those who now sleep in Flanders Field in sunny France. The address of welcome was made by Marvin Blount, an old Bethel boy who was most happy in his remarks. Said he was proud of the legion and delighted to know that Bethel could have the opportunity of entertaining "Old Man" Poch, General Pershing's Legion to break bread with him at the Training School on November 11. The invitation was accepted unanimously. A happy incident here place when Dr. Wright and M. O. Blount were asked by the Post commander to stand up and clasp hands before the assembly. As these two patriotic citizens faced the boys they were given a rousing cheer as only the Buddies can give. A rising vote of thanks was tendered by the Post held to the citizens of Bethel especially the ladies, for their hospitality. After the singing of a song the gavel fell and the Bethel meeting of the Pitt County Post was history.

The next meeting will be held in Farmville, October 19. The invitation to the Post came through Dave Turnage. The members are now looking forward to that get-together in another one of Pitt county's progressive and stirring towns.

It has plans to take care of all who come. ABANDONS HIS CAMPAIGN AS POLICE OBJECT. New York, Sept. 20.—Urban LeDoux abandons his campaign to feed the hungry, protect the weak and sell the auction block the unfortunate jobless of this city when he discovered that the police were determined to prevent such a practice, saying, "I know someone would be killed in the terrific clash."
