

SONNET.

This hour we hoped to meet, and face to face,
Speak earnest words outflowing from the heart.

WOULD I KNEW.

Plays a child in a garden fair
Where the demigods are walking;
Laying unsuspected there,

ANIMALCULÉ.

The false hair—The chignon.
A fiery steed—Horse-radish.
The most stirring food—Lobsters.

Does the brow of a hill become wrinkled with age?
An essay on man—A woman's attempt to marry him.

When it is good sleighing it is apt to be good sleighing for horses.
Everything in life depends upon the right turn; so always turn to the right.

At New Haven recently, a poor family were discovered making a dinner on boiled dog.
The Newport News puts its announcements of births under the head of "New Music."

In Mississippi preparations for building cotton factories are being made in seventeen towns.
Seward paid less than two cents per acre for Alaska. Dear even at that price.

If getting drunk once a week is habitual intoxication, what is getting drunk every day?
Why is a spendthrift's purse like a thunder cloud? Because it is continually lightening.

The Weekly Sun.

THE CIRCULATION OF THE "WEEKLY SUN," always very large, has of late so increased that it may be called universal. It is reaching its light for all, in all sections—North, East, South and West, its intercourse with the South, which was necessarily interrupted during the war, has been again resumed, and the evidence of public appreciation from that quarter are multiplying every day. When honest efforts are put forth, as in the "Weekly Sun," to meet the demand for a reliable weekly record of events and an entertaining vehicle of light literature, which, while it instructs and pleases, aims to promote virtue as well as intelligence, and to exclude every line of an impure and immoral tendency, it is cheering to receive such evidence of public appreciation as are coming to us from all parts of the country.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION. The "Weekly Sun" is published every Saturday at the following exceedingly low rates to individuals and clubs when sent from one Post Office. The money, in all cases, to be remitted in advance.

For one copy for one year, $1.50 Club of six copies, one year, 8 00 Club of twelve copies, one year, 15 00 Club of fifteen copies, one year, 18 00 Club of twenty copies, one year, 22 00 Club of twenty-five copies, one year, 25 00

Postmasters will always act as agents for persons in the neighborhood of their respective offices, and forward orders and cash under the regular authority of the Department. The safest mode in remitting subscriptions is by draft or Post office order. Address, A. S. ABELL & Co., Sun Iron Building, Baltimore, Md. Jan'y 1st, 1869. 44
