A SMILE IN EACH.

It's sometimes easier to throw out a bluff than to throw out a bluffer.

No, Maude, dear, strange as it may seem, a person cannot turn an honest penny by tossing coppers.

"This is rough on me" remarked the hobo, as he ran his hand over the three days' growth of beard on his chin.

Even the crown of success sometimes pinches.

The man who says what he thinks is often silent.

The servant girl question: "How long will she stay?"

When a washerwoman dies she's a sort of dead wringer.

Even an athletic can be wound around a woman's finger.

Empty compliments are poor satisfaction to a starving man.

The latest thing out is the fellow who goes home at four o'clock in the morning.

Turkey cooked in Greece and served in China should have a little chili sauce.

The average married man begins to economize by cutting down his wife's allowance.

A public office may be a public trust, but, unlike most trusts, it is by no means a monopoly.

When a woman takes a man for better or for worse she has only herself to blame if she gets the worst of it.

The Bible tells us to love our neighbors as we love ourselves. But there were no apartment houses when the Bible was written.

It's a wonder somebody doesn't write a book for girls, with the last chapter first.

It is a mistake to imagine that all the old girls who used spinning wheels were spinsters.

A Sunday-school scholar, being asked what became of men who deceive their fellow-men promptly exclaimed: "They go to Europe."

You can excuse an old maid for wanting to go to the Philippines as a nurse when you consider how many engagements are reported from there.

Say, Charnie, how would yer like to be married to that little nibsey Queen of Holland? Would it not be great? "Naw, I wouldn't. Me Uncle Ike married a girl wid a hundred and fifty dollars, and she ain't never let 'im say his soul was his own."—Cleveland Leader.

Glorious News

Comes from D. B. Cargile, of Washita, I. T. He writes: "Four bottles of Electric Bitters has cured Mrs. Brewer of scrofula, which had caused her great suffering for years. Terrible sores would break out on her head and face, and the best doctors could give no help; but her cure is complete and her health is excellent." This shows what thousands have proved,—that Electric Bitters is the best blood purifier known. It's the supreme remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, ulcers, boils and running sores. It stimulates liver, kidneys and bowels, expels poisons, helps digestion, builds up the strength. Only 50 cents. Sold by The Dorsey Drug Co. Guaranteed.

The business of Davis' Warehouse increases every day. Why is it that farmers flock to this warehouse? It's easily explained. Most net money, clever treatment and fair dealings. Try Owen Davis NOW, and you'll be convinced.

HE GOT INFORMED.

A man who does not take his home paper, but occasionally answers advertisements in "story papers" has had some interesting experiences, says an exchange. He learned that by sending one dollar to a Yankee he could get a cure for drunkenness. Sure enough he did. It was to "take the pledge and keep it." Later on he sent fifty two-cent stamps to find out how to raise turnips successfully. He found out—"Just take hold of the tops and pull." Being young he wished to marry, and sent thirty-four one-cent stamps to a Chicago firm for information as to how to make an impression. When the answer came it read, "Sit down on a pan of dough." That was a little rough, but he was a patient man, and thought he would yet succeed. The next advertisement he answered read, "How to double your money in six months." He was told to convert his money into bills, fold them, and he would see his money doubled. The next time he sent for twelve useful household articles, and got a package of needles. He was slow to learn, so he sent a dollar to find out "how to get rich"—"Work like the devil and never spend a cent." That stopped him, but his brother wrote to find out how to write a letter without pen or ink. He was told to use a lead pencil. He paid five dollars to learn how to live without work, and was told on a postal card, "to fish for suckers as we do."

ESTABLISH A MILL.

We believe that the newspapers of North Carolina consume a sufficient quantity of paper to keep at least a small paper mill running, and if the North Carolina Press Association would deal a blow to the trust and at the same time benefit itself and the State, it should attempt to induce some independent manufacturer to locate a mill in the State. With the patronage of the State papers assured, in addition to outside that could be obtained it should prove a paying investment.—Durham Herald.

While riding on a train in Kansas the other day Miss Mary Burns, of Baltimore, fastened a toy balloon to a diamond brooch, valued at $2,500. Her object being to amuse a child. The car window was open and a gust of wind carried the balloon and brooch out into the open. A reward of $500 has been offered for the recovery of the jewelry and the cowboys are all looking for it.

A Life and Death Fight

Mr. W. A. Hines, of Manchester, la., writing of his almost miraculous escape from death says: "Exposure from measles induced serious lung trouble, which ended in Consumption. I had frequent hemorrhages and coughed night and day. My doctors said I must soon die. Then I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, which completely cured me. I would not be without it even if it cost $5.00 a bottle. Hundreds have used it on my recommendation and all say it never fails to cure Throat, Chest and Lung troubles." Regular size 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at The Dorsey Drug Co.

Now is the time to let the people know of your great bargains. Plant your advertisement in this paper and you reach the people. This is an undisputed fact. Try it and you will be pleased with the results.

THE MAN TO HELP.

So many of us forget that it is the weak fellow who is in the ditch, rather than the strong man who is on the throne of partial or pronounced prosperity, who most needs the helping hand of the influential and powerful. So many of us are ready to help the fellow whose pathway is easy, while we will pass by the unfortunate who really needs a helping hand. So many of us are prone to sneer at, if not crush, the man who has been in error and who is "trying to do better"—to make a new man of himself—while we will throw more material help into the lap of the stalwart citizen.—Augusta Herald.

AN EDITOR'S OPINION.

umberland, Md., Nov. 21 1899.
MRS. JOE PERSON, Kittrell, N. C.
DEAR MADAM:—The undersigned having for some weeks past given a fair trial to your remedy in his family hereby fully recommends it as an admirable Aperient, an excellent Nerve and a ready, bracing, Tonic. He hopes it may be introduced in this community.

SHE DON'T DRINK WATER.

There is living in Guilford county, in Summer township, one good old lady who would not be bothered by good, bad or indifferent water if she lived in Greensboro, for the reason that she does not drink it. Her name is Mrs. Nancy Hodgkin and she is eighty-seven years old. Water of any kind does not agree with her and she has not tasted it in twelve years, while she has not eaten any supper for twenty-five years. It is also said that she has never eaten a tomato, at least since early in life, and has never had a lamp in her home, using the old tallow-dip, in use everywhere from time immemorial.

Her health is said to be first-rate and the prospect is that she will push a century very closely.—Greensboro Record.

BEST ON EARTH.

Atlas Medicine Co., Henderson, N. C.
"For some time, I have suffered greatly from pain in my left side. I was swollen in that side and not able to get up. Could scarcely get a good breath, and lost some time from work. I just thought I would die. After trying one bottle of your ACONIC OIL I feel like a new man. My wife, who was not able to do any work, was also restored by the same bottle. I regard it as being the finest thing on earth for pain. I must have another bottle.
Yours truly,
I. M. DICKERSON,
Vicksboro, N. C.

MARRIES ONE WOMAN TWICE.

There is rather a singular case in our county now, says the Concord Standard. Somewhat similar to one which appeared in the New York papers quite a while ago, involving a lady in an adjoining county.

The case of which we speak is that of Mr. W. S. Craver, who lives at the Bala mill. Quite a number of years ago he married a lady. They became separated and after a considerable period of time, having reasons to think that his wife was dead, he married a lady named Miss Lillie Blackwelder. After his second marriage the first wife was found to be living and he was now a husband to two wives. In order not to violate the law, which would have been dangerous, and giving the light to the case in regard to his assumption that the first wife was dead, he was at the last term of court granted a divorce from his first wife and the second marriage was declared null. So on last Saturday evening Esq. W. J. McLaughlin, who lives out at the Bala mill performed the ceremony uniting again Mr. Craver and Miss Blackwelder. Now Mr. Craver has answered to three marriage vows, yet with only two different ladies.

ARE YOU GOING TO PAINT?

If so, write the Southern Paint Company, of Pinebluff, N. C., and secure their price list. They can give you a better paint at less money than you can get elsewhere. They do not belong to the trust and call sell at less price than those who do. This is a Southern enterprise and should be patronized by Southern people. The publisher of this paper will arrange to secure paints for any of his subscribers, who would like to order through The Hustler. This paint has a thick, heavy body so that buyers can add Linseed Oil and make the paint go further, and save money, as the oil will cost about fifty cents a gallon.
Write to the company telling them what colors you want and how much, and price will be given. The paint contains the best material and a guarantee goes with every can, barrel and package of paint.

Atlas Household Remedies are guaranteed. You must either receive a cure or benefit or money will be refunded. No other medicine gives this guarantee.
